'Green and White Nights' return for Badin fall sports

Green and White Nights are back for Badin High School athletics this season to give younger fans the opportunity to attend various BHS sporting events for free.

"We do this each year and we certainly encourage our elementary school fans to come see the Rams," said Badin High School Athletic Director Sally Kocher. "It gives them a chance to see what terrific spirit they have to look forward to during their high school experience."

Elementary school students will be admitted for free at the following games if they wear Badin spirit wear:

* Girls soccer – Badin vs. Mount Notre Dame at Hamilton's Virgil Schwarm Stadium, Monday, Sept. 21.

* Boys soccer – Badin vs. Northwest at Hamilton's Virgil Schwarm Stadium, Monday, Oct. 5.

* Volleyball – Badin vs. Roger Bacon at Badin High School, Tuesday, Oct. 13.

* Football – Badin vs. Fenwick at Hamilton's Virgil Schwarm Stadium, Saturday, Oct. 17.

"Having our young fans in the stands really makes it an extra special night for all of us," Kocher said. "We know they have a lot of fun being there, too."
