

RAMPAGE 1979

Ward

The word "Ward" is rendered in a large, bold, sans-serif font. Each letter serves as a frame for a black and white photograph of a student. The 'W' features a boy in a patterned shirt and tie pointing upwards. The first 'a' contains a close-up of a girl's face. The 'r' shows a girl's face with her hand near her chin. The 'd' depicts a boy's face. The 'e' shows a boy's face. The background of the page is a solid, light beige color.

Homecoming

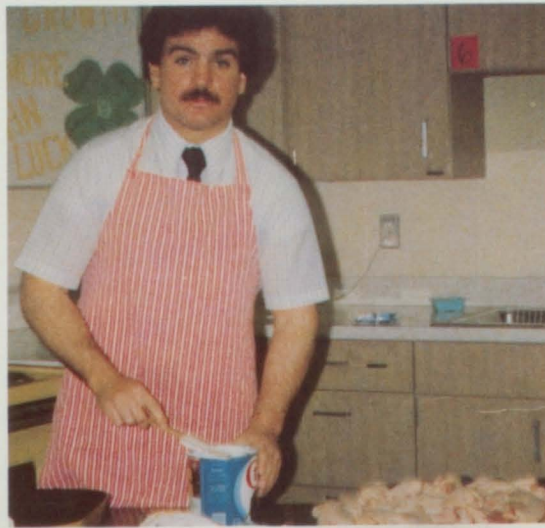

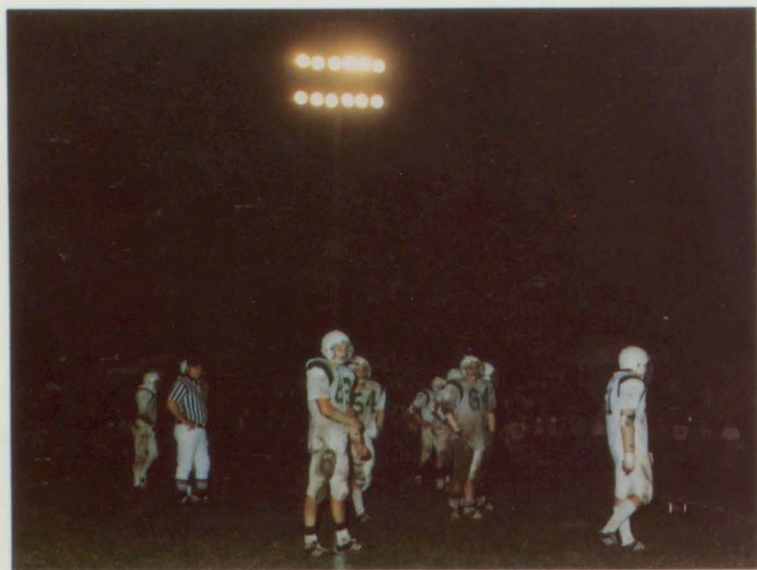

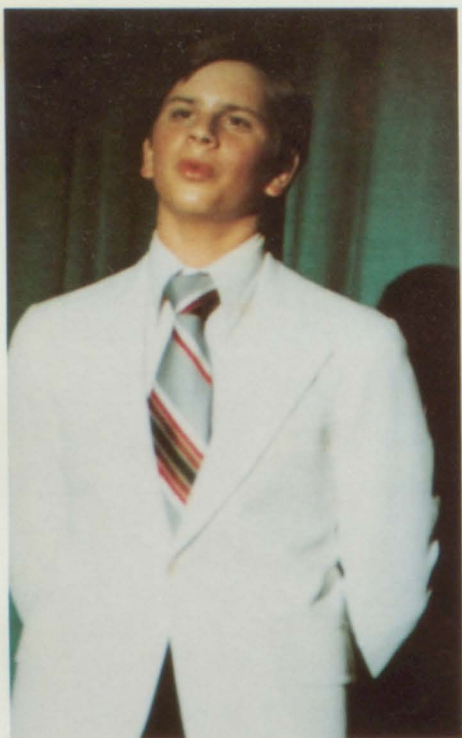

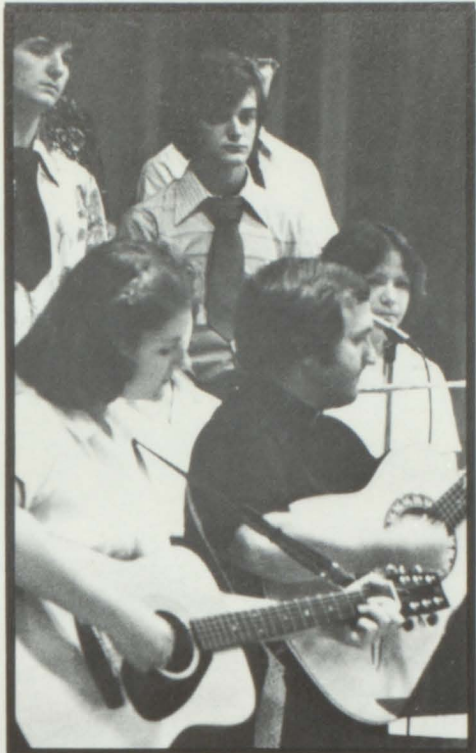

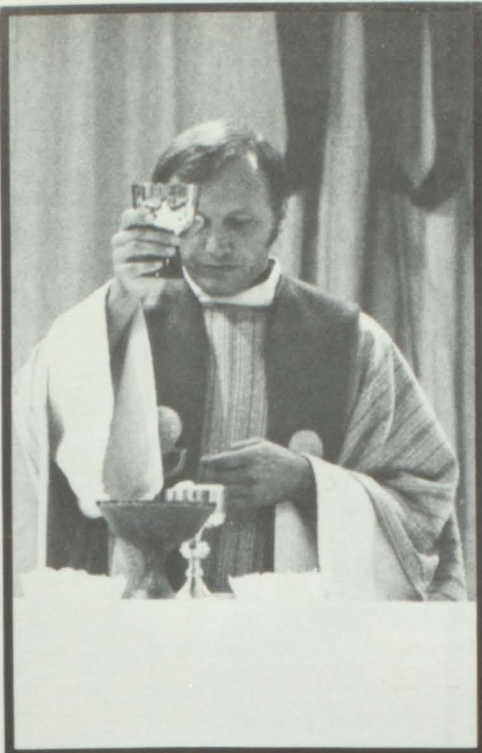

The sun was warm and the breeze was gentle when the reigning queen Julie Taggart and her court of Julie Brown, Monica Gundler, Debbie Mitrione and Patti Ritzi rode grandly upon the queen's float, "Showboat". The construction of Showboat was chaired by Colleen Gallagher. The parade was made complete with the Senior float, "Pound the Patriots", chaired by Monica Gundler, the Junior float, "Canonize Carroll", chaired by Connie Zettler and the Sophomore float, "Can Carroll", chaired by Diane Portales.

Homecoming festivities continued the following night with the music from "Roundabout". Students danced into the night with the theme "Celebrate Me Home" and as the 1978-79 Homecoming ended, memories of it all were packed away for another year. But for the Senior class, the best is always last.

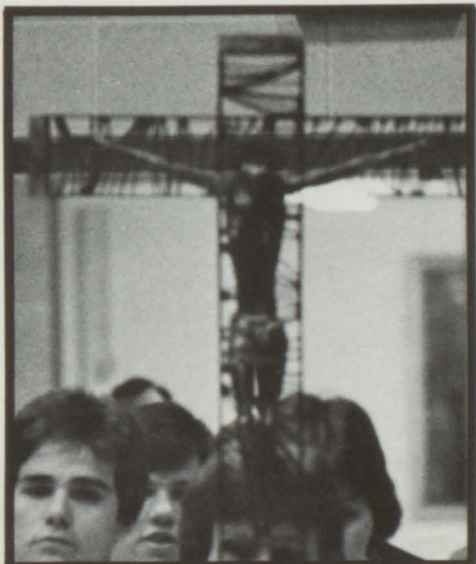

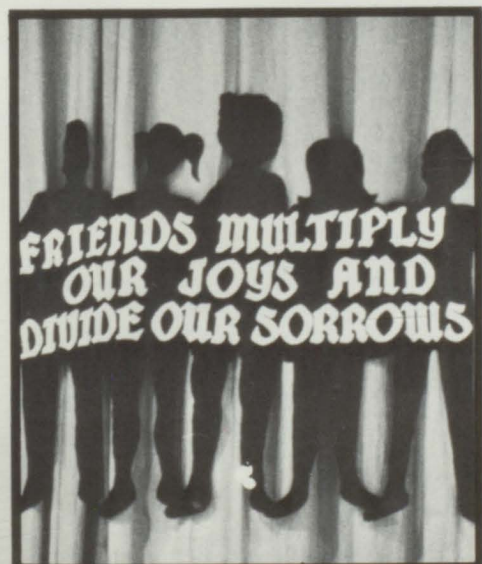

After a long summer vacation of experiencing new people, new places, and new challenges, friends had gathered once again for the beginning of a new school year. The opening mass united returning students with incoming freshmen. The mass gave the freshmen a sense of welcome into the sometimes frightening atmosphere of high school.

In celebrating the union we gave thanks to God and prayed for a successful school year.

"The Great All American Musical Disaster" was anything but a disaster. The Ramose Little Theater rang with laughter as the two act comedy played to a packed house on Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8.

Whether cheering at the pep assemblies or singing together in a prayer of gratitude at the Thanksgiving Mass, the Ram fans show their faith and devotion to that great spirit which binds them together.

Badin students show that there are many different aspects to their personality. They show us a spirited crowd cheering their team to victory. They show us their creativity to do their version of a winning cheer. They show us their reverence and seriousness creating the mood for a meaningful mass.

The senior class rang in the spirit of Christmas by throwing a festive party for the members of the Powell Convalescent Home on December 16.

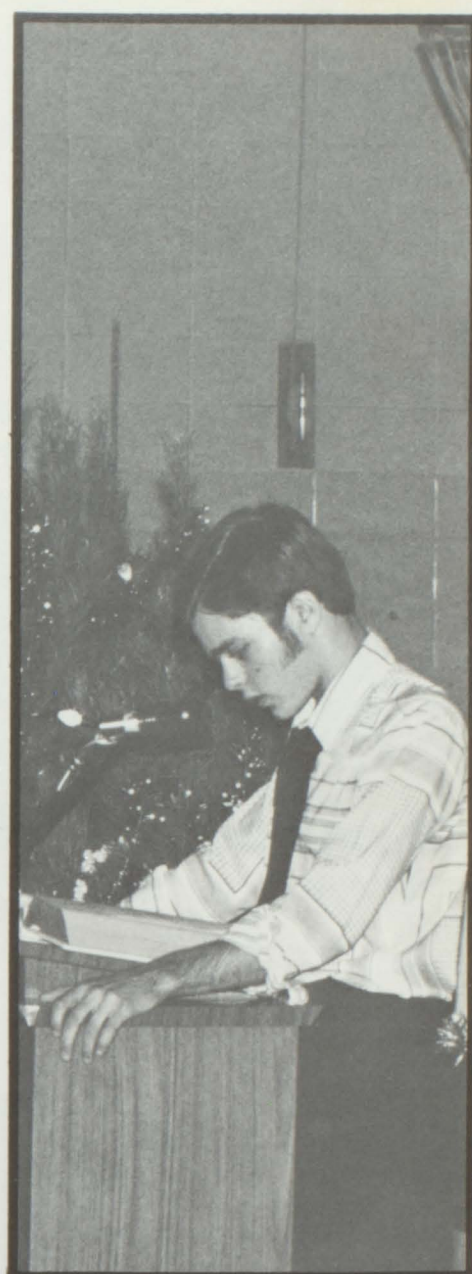

Monica Roesch and John Malone appeared under the guise of Mr. and Mrs. Claus.

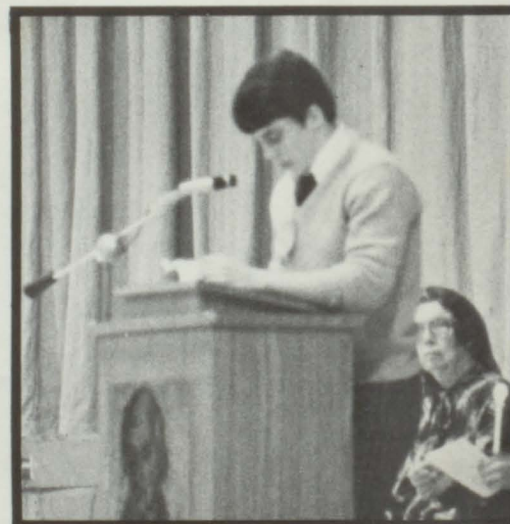

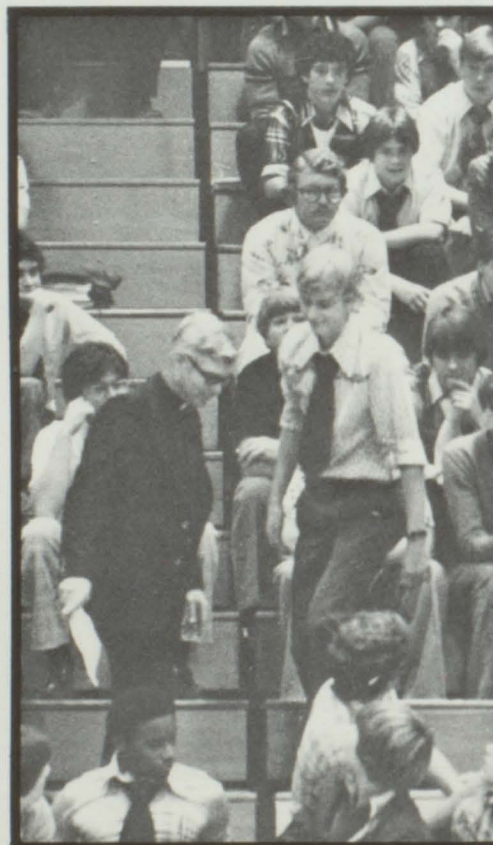

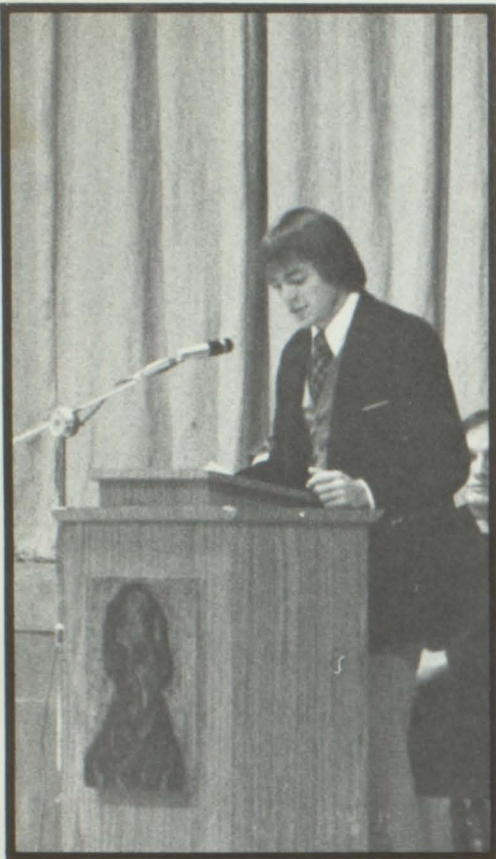

The athletes of the senior class came dressed for the occasion wearing little red shoes, little red hats, and little green tights. The elves provided musical entertainment with Christmas carols played on their kazoos.

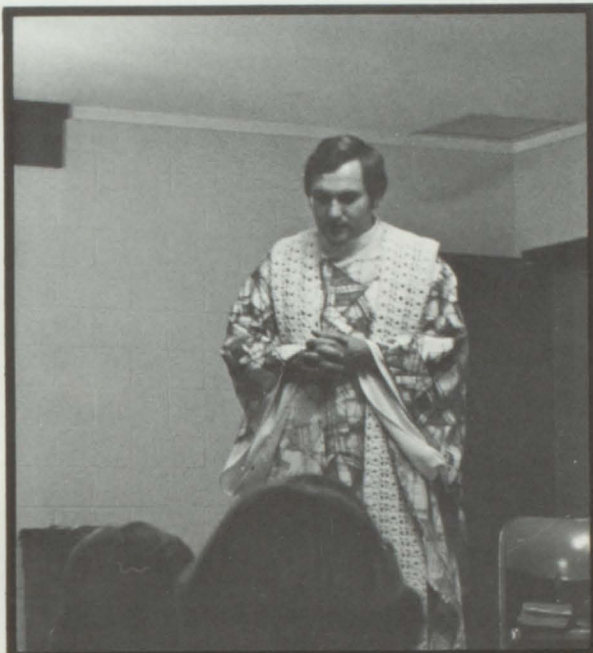

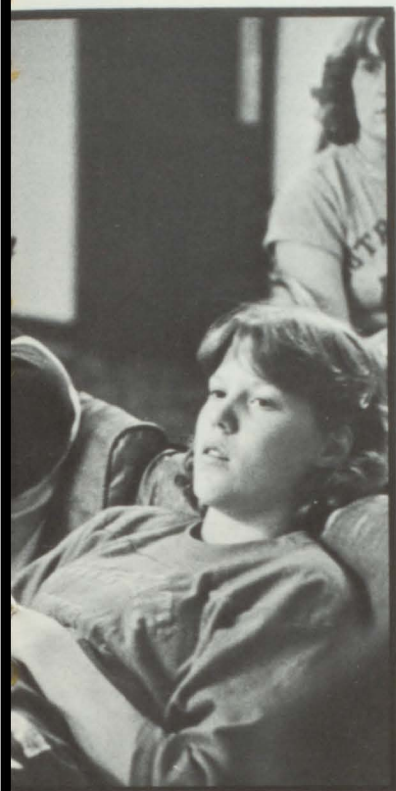

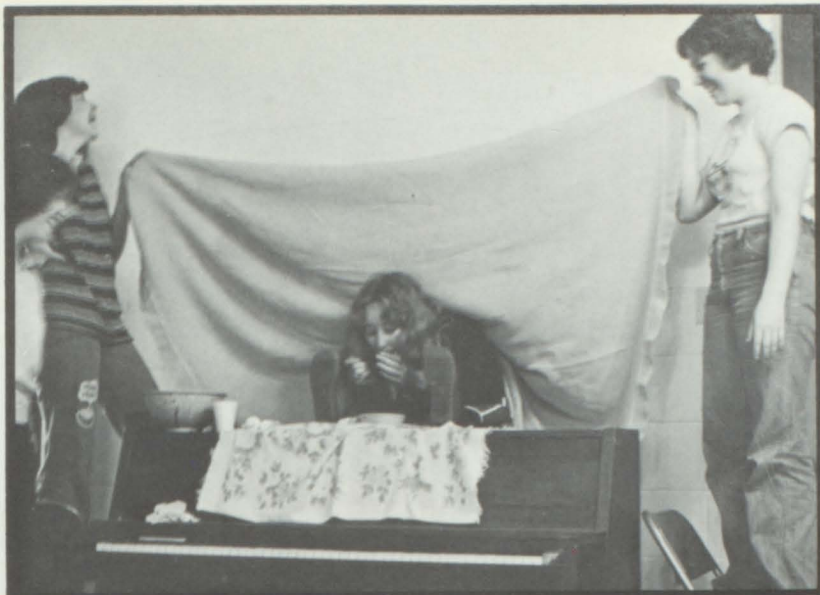

Following tradition at Badin, the halls were decorated by the freshmen class brightening the school and the spirits of all.

These bright spirits filed into the gym on December 21 to gather in celebration of Christmas Mass before leaving for vacation.

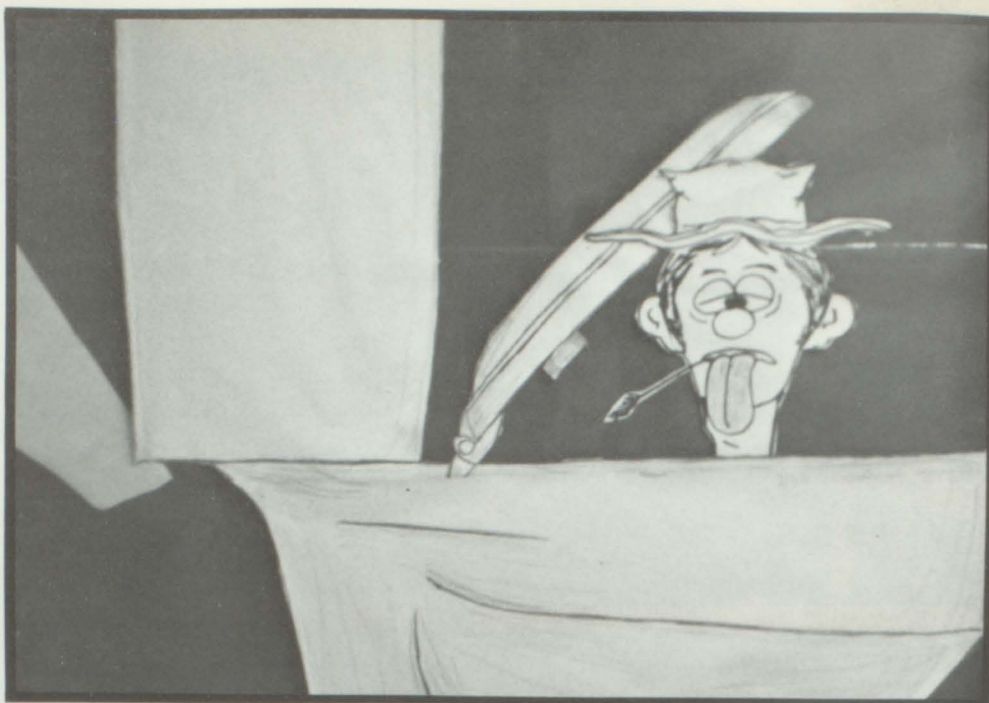

The National Honor Society inducted new members into their organization at the fall tapping ceremony on Thursday, October 26. Hard-working, diligent students were recognized for their efforts by being initiated into this honorary group. Steve Rochetti, Student Body President at Miami University, addressed the faculty and students.

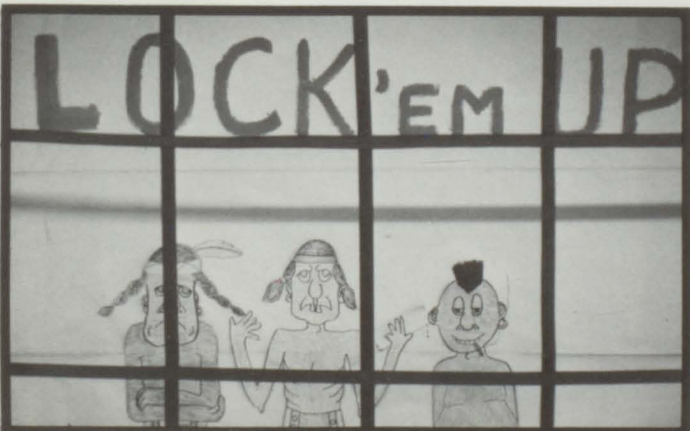

Breaking from the stress and strain of everyday school life, seniors trekked to Ft. Scott to renew themselves in mind and body. Through games, songs, and prayer, the seniors came closer to God and closer to each other. Students displayed their talents in liturgies, a variety show, and on the football field. Fr. Cooley lead the fall and spring retreats which everyone considered a success.

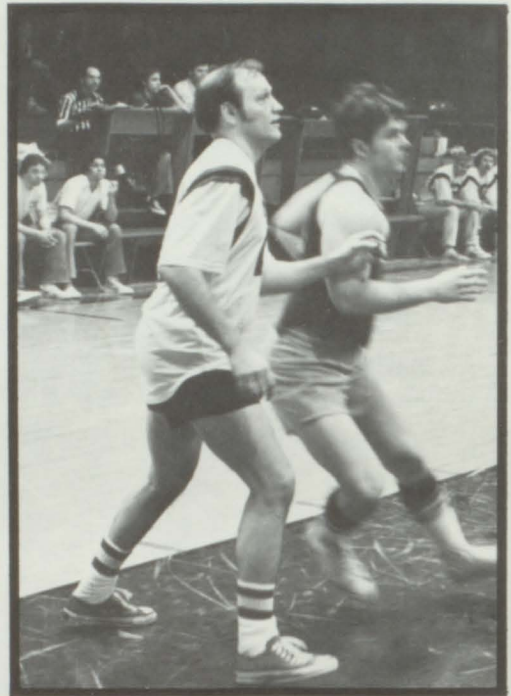

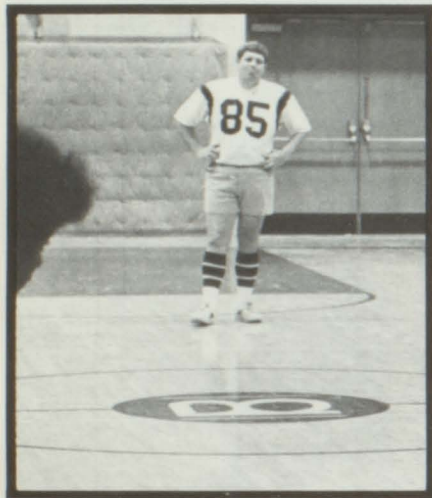

Why are students seen roaming the halls of Badin dressed in everything from sheets to bobby socks, saddles, and slicked back hair? Why are decorations on walls and lockers, and why are streamers hanging from the ceilings? It's the age old tradition of Badin called spirit Week. Each class showed their spirit through their decorations and attire. The senior class came in first place with the theme, "TP the Indians." The juniors came in second place with "How the West Was Won." The sophomores followed in third place with "We Can Dig It." In fourth place were the freshmen with "We're Up on the Rams."

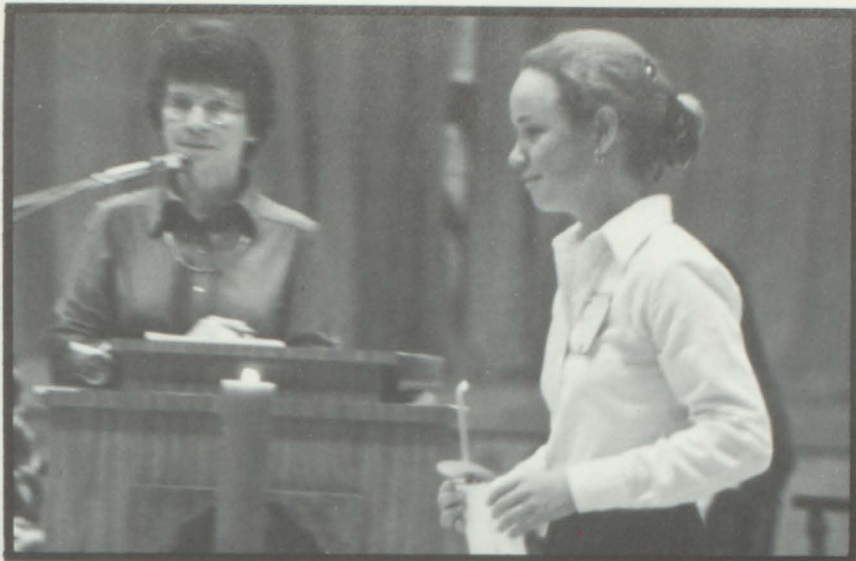

Each day students dressed differently. Monday was Wig, Button, T-shirt, Sunglass, Sock, and Tennis Shoe Day. Tuesday was Toga Day, Wednesday was Fifties Day. Thursday was Inside Out and Backwards Day, and Friday was Farmer Day.

The pep rally and cheer contest concluded Spirit Week.

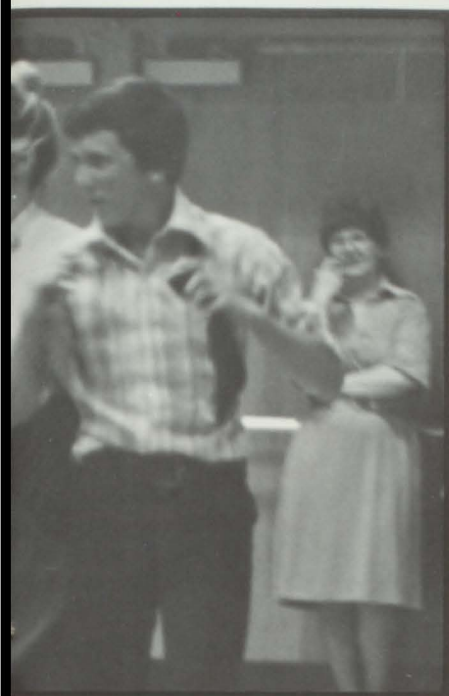

The Faculty versus the C.Y.O. All-Stars basketball game was played before spectators who braved the bad weather. The all-stars showed who had the most energy and potential, but it was the faculty who showed who was boss with the help of Jim Tracy. Both teams fought with all kinds of tricks, and at the end, it was the faculty who came out on top.

The Stephen T. Badin High School Chapter of the National Honor Society had their spring tapping of new members on April 26, 1979. Thirteen new students were inducted.

Sister Collette, President of the Mercy Hospital Administration, gave a speech on using the talents God has given us.

The new members and their parents, then enjoyed a luncheon in the Home Economics room.

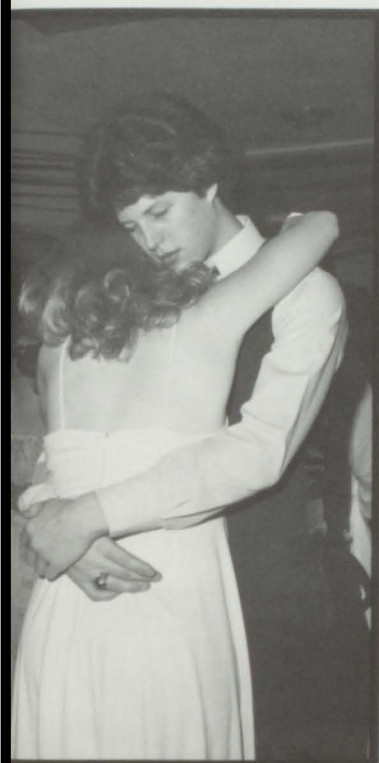

NIGHTS ON BROADWAY

JUNIOR PROM

APRIL 7, 1979

Nights On Broadway brought glamour and glitter to Junior Prom. Everyone danced to the music of Blue Tater. At midnight, tension mounted as everyone wondered who was to be their Prom King of 1979. Shouts of joy and applause filled the cafeteria as Fr. Haemerle crowned Randy Zeek. Court consisted of Mike Kerrigan — King Candidate escorting Mary Ann Hazlett, Randy Zeek — King escorting Patti Cisle, Werner DePelligrini — King Candidate escorting Karen Schnapp.

The 1979 Variety Show, "Say It With Music", was a big success. All three performances were sold out, with standing room only. The MC's for this year's show were Nancy Steinhauser, Pat Flick, and Paul Hesse. Student Directors were Dave Hammerly, Terrie Rawlings, and Tim Staarmann.

Although there was only a short time to get the show together, it fared well. Everyone was able to see the individual talents of the student body. All had an enjoyable experience.

Without the help of Mr. DeAngelo — Director, Fr. Cooley — Mixed Chorus Director, Fr. Harsham and Miss Plfirman — Musical Directors, Tim McCabe and Ms. Winkeljohn — Technical Directors, and Mr. Lauterbach — Band Director the show would never have gotten off the ground.

A special thanks was needed to all the mothers who had given their time to make most of the costumes worn in the show. Thanks Moms!

FANTASY ISLAND

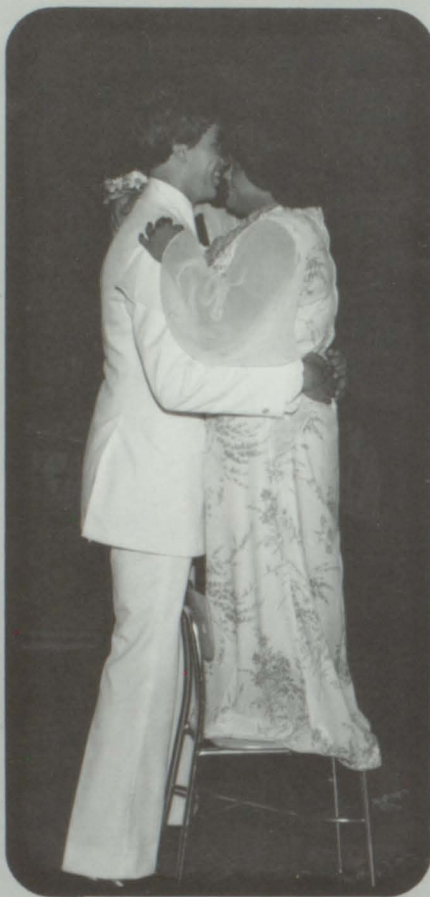

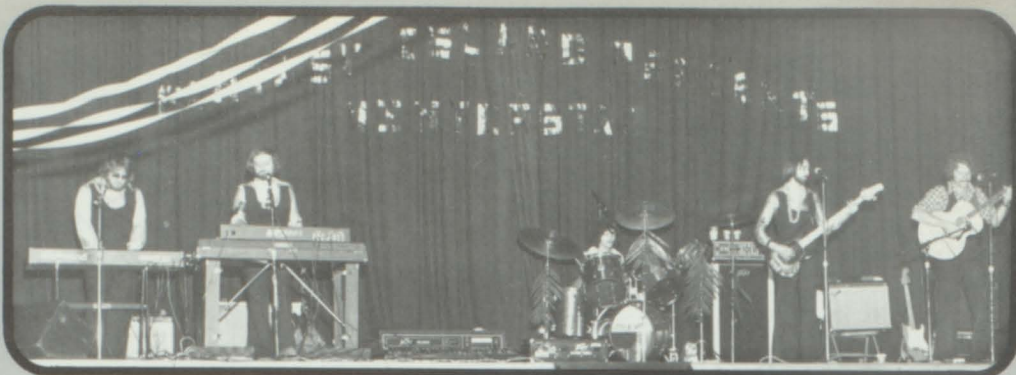

SENIOR PROM

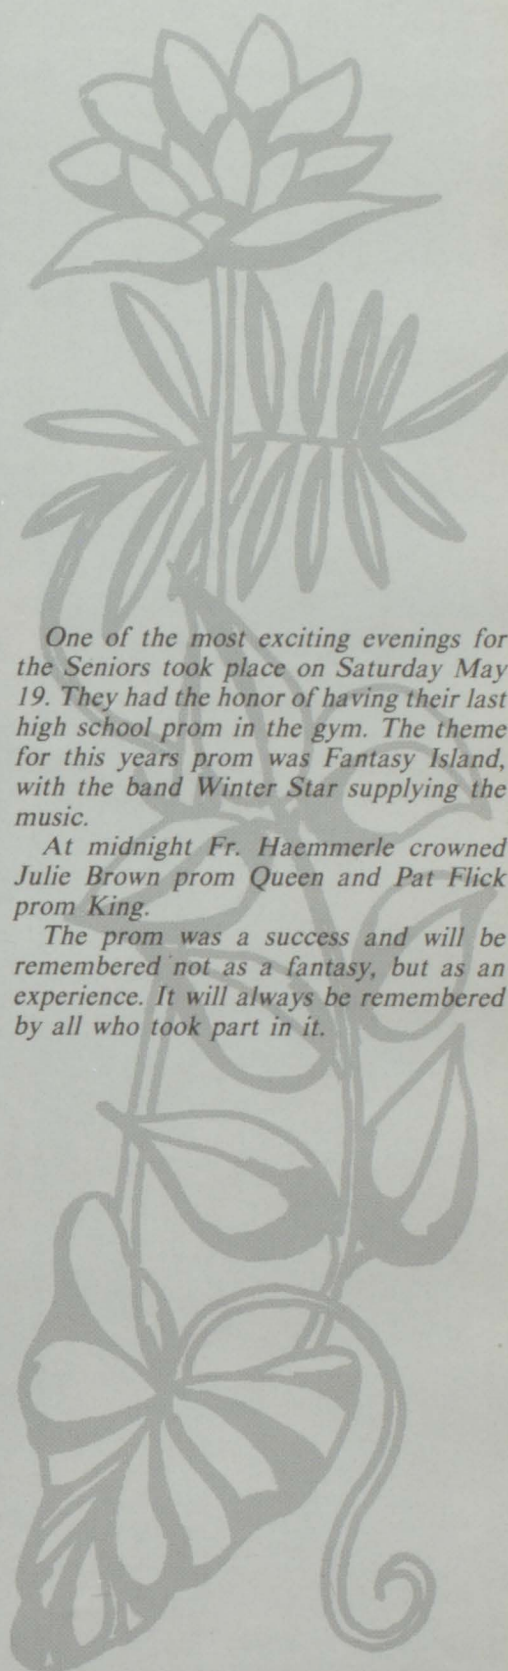

MAY 19, 1979

One of the most exciting evenings for the Seniors took place on Saturday May 19. They had the honor of having their last high school prom in the gym. The theme for this years prom was Fantasy Island, with the band Winter Star supplying the music.

At midnight Fr. Haemmerle crowned Julie Brown prom Queen and Pat Flick prom King.

The prom was a success and will be remembered not as a fantasy, but as an experience. It will always be remembered by all who took part in it.

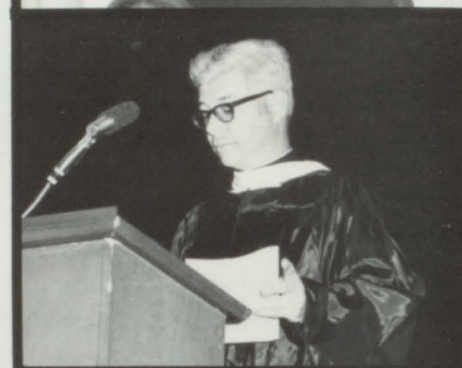

Fr. Kenneth Baker

The staff of the 1979 yearbook is dedicating this year's book to two faculty members who have given much of their life to educating students at Badin. After this year, they are leaving the Badin community and using their talents elsewhere.

Fr. Baker has been at Badin since September 1966 and Mr. Wright has been at Badin since September 1969. They both have watched this school grow and develop throughout the years.

We thank them for their contributions to Badin and we pay tribute to them.

Going to McDonald's® is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.

You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat. And that's why, at McDonald's, we do it all for you.
