NINETYONE

25th Anniversary

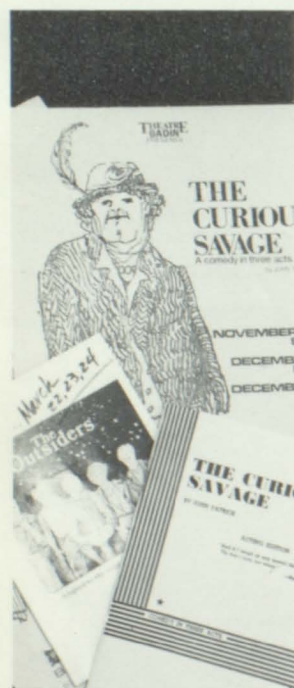

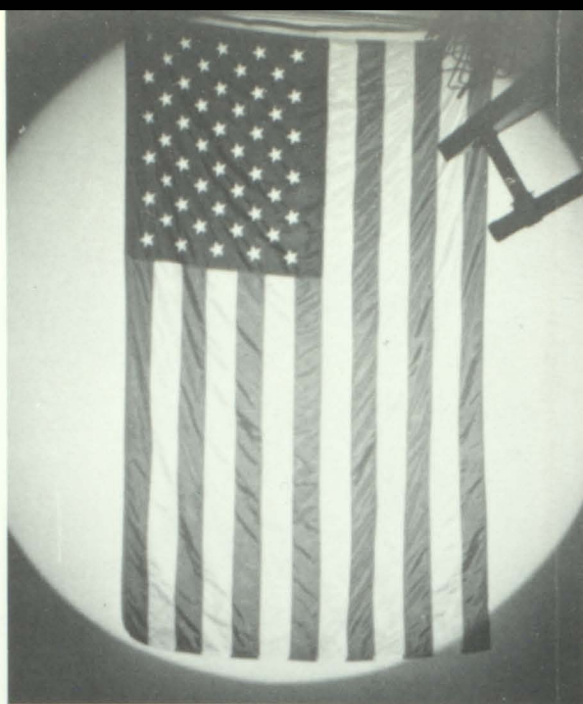

25 Years Of ...

Excellence

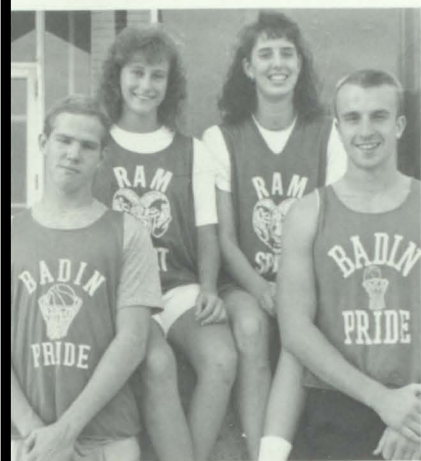

As we celebrate twenty-five years of ram spirit, we sense a strong feeling of pride among our faculty and our student body. In the classroom and on the field, we strive to excel in all our endeavors. From the Art Club to Mr. Z's track team, all of us are proud to showcase our special talents as a part of Badin High School.

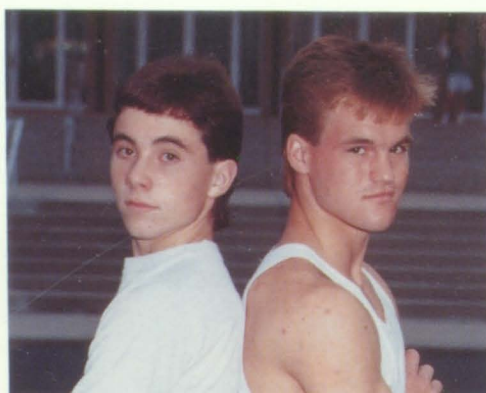

25 Years Of . . .

Pride

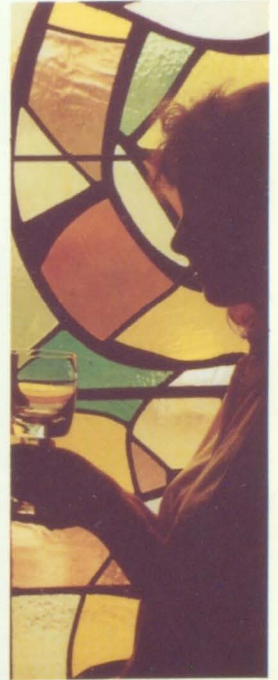

As we celebrate twenty-five years of unity, we feel that Badin has grown with a special closeness. Together we create an atmosphere of fun and encouragement. We realize that Badin is built on the love and support of family and friends.

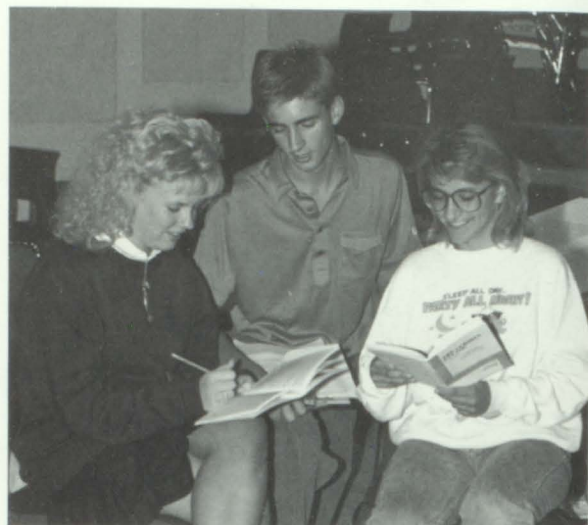

25 Years Of . . .

Together

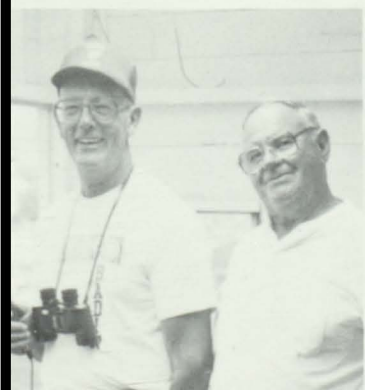

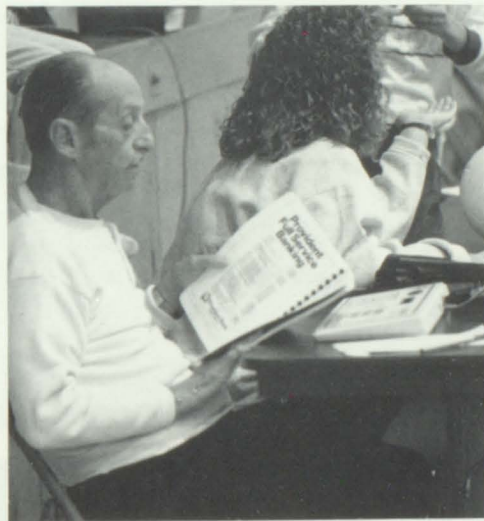

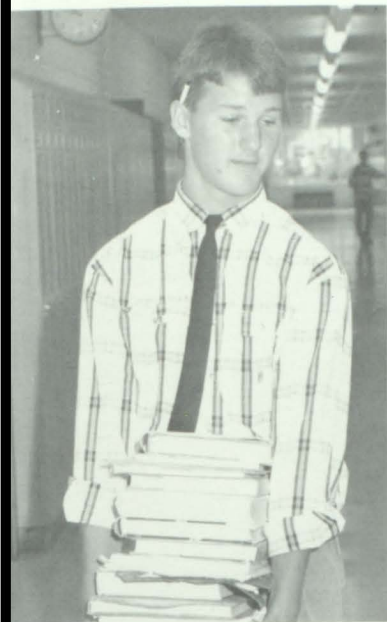

As we celebrate twenty-five years of effort, we recognize the dedicated people who contribute daily to the success of Badin High School. A job well done could not be accomplished without those who offer their time and talents with little or no recognition.

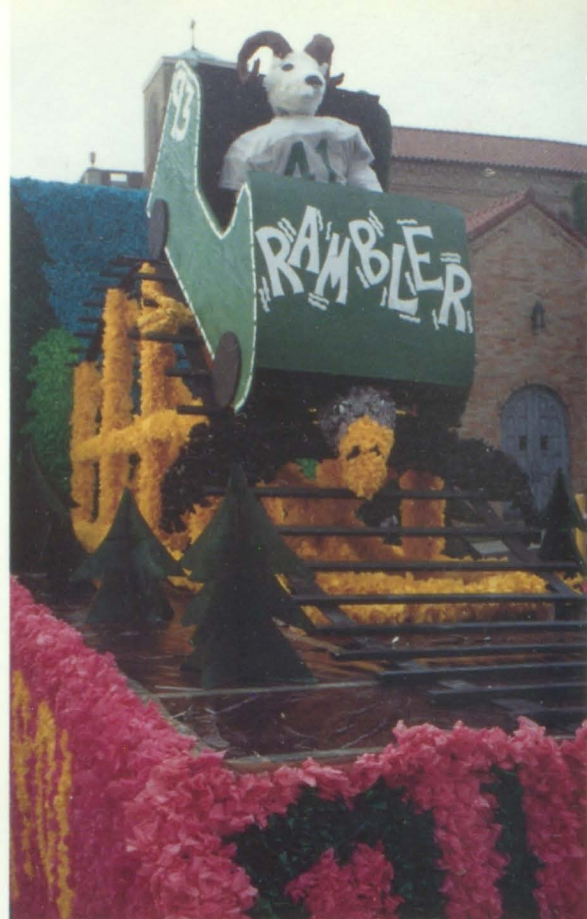

25 Years Of . . .

Dedication

As we celebrate twenty-five years of mania, we salute those who bring color to our normal daily routine. We are thankful for all the lively characters who put that extra into our ordinary.

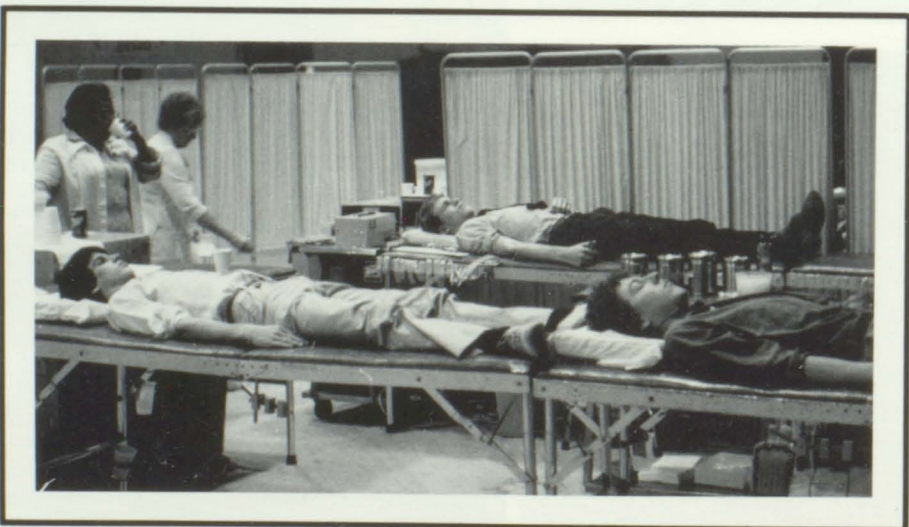

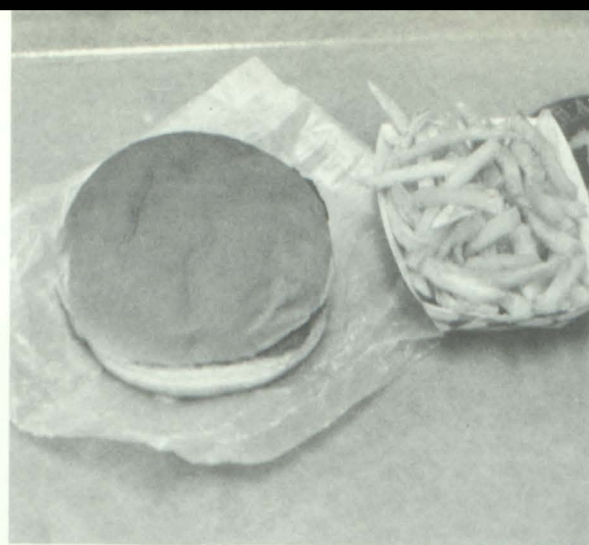

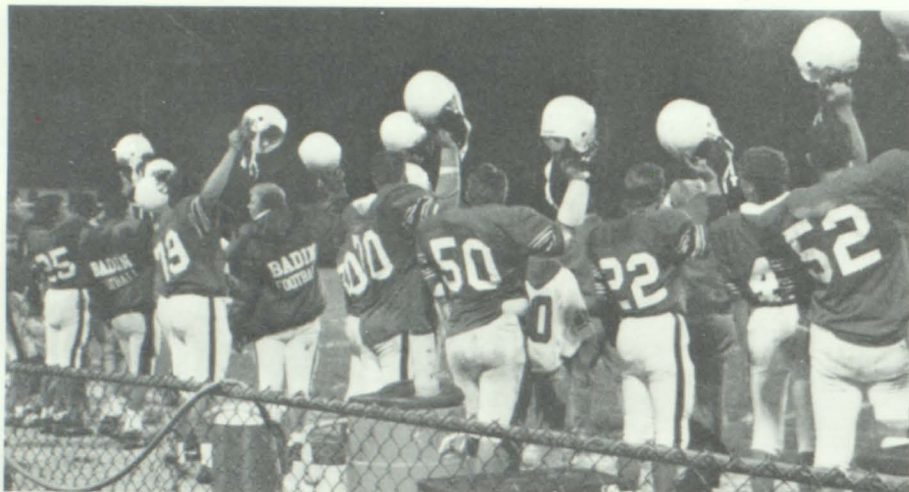

25 Years Of . . .

Enthusiasm

As we celebrate twenty-five years of history, we hold fast to our heritage. We feel a strong link to the past as we add our own flavor to Badin's tried and true traditions.

FOR OVER TWENTY FIFTY YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION. WE ARE FOSTERING PEOPLE WITH KNOWLEDGE AND COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE. AND HAVING MADE OVER 100 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION.

25

BADIN

25 Years Of . . .

Tradition

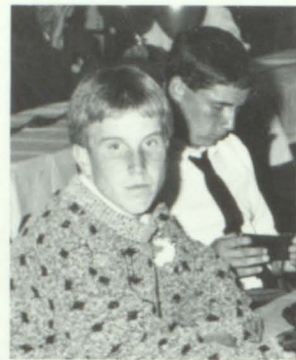

Badin High School's twenty-fifth Homecoming was held on the weekend of September 29-30. The Rams crushed Columbus Bishop Hartley with a 27-13 victory. Queen Rachel Erb was crowned at halftime; Amy Hyde, Jill Grantz, Jenny Sandlin, and Trinette Krause were the members of her court. The sophomore class broke tradition by winning the float competition with "Rams on a Roll." The gym was nautically decorated to the dance's theme, "Sea of Love."

For nearly forty years, Father Stephen T. Badin committed his life to establishing churches and schools, spreading Catholicism to the American Midwest. With outstanding perseverance and dedication, he instilled his own Christian values and ideals into the hearts and lives of all he encountered. These ideals, fulfilled so admirably in the life of our namesake, have been reflected in the Badin community for the last twenty-five years, and will continue to be reflected for the years to come.

The 1991 Rampage staff dedicates this yearbook to the Badin community whose spirit has given us such success for the last quarter of a century.

Spiritual Life

We, at Badin, express our faith in many different ways. One of the most visible is our community gathered together for masses and prayer services.

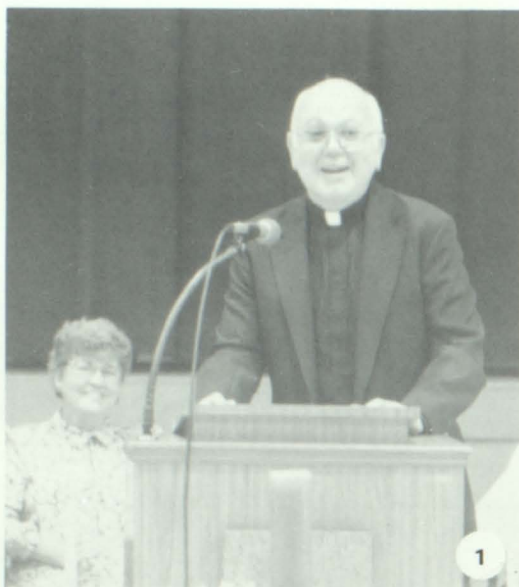

1. Bread and wine symbolize the body and blood of Christ. 2. Joe Gamble receives the wine from Diana Wallace. 3. Mrs. Heinrich drinks from the blood of Christ. 4. John Hunt is marked with a sign of his faith by Mindy Brinck. 5. The Cross. 6. "And this is the body and blood of Christ." 7. Father Ken and Father Don receive the offertory gifts. 8. Alison Stroud reads at Mass.

1. Father Don West prays at the Consecration. 2. The Congregation. 3. Crissy Wolterman and Amy Bachmann present the gifts. 4. The Brand New Canticle leads us in song. 5. Father Wall assists Father West at Mass. 6. Jenni and Kathy sing at Mass. 7. Joe Rings drinks from the cup. 8. Mr. Owen pours the wine into the chalice. 9. Ryan Stagg receives the Eucharist from Mrs. Niehaus.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society Annual Tapping was held on Thursday, December 13, 1990. Fifteen juniors and seniors were inducted.

1. Fr. Al Bischoff, the guest speaker, delighted all present with an entertaining speech commending hard work and ambition in all students. 2. As Terry Venter signs the book, faculty looks on to check her spelling. 3. Mr. Collins congratulates Barb DeMonge as Mr. Conway looks on. 4. The symbol of NHS stands tall, symbolizing character, scholarship, leadership and service. 5. Miss Pfirrmann shares in Jeanette Graf's excitement. 6. The Boyd family is all smiles over Emily's achievement.

1. Karla Schweinefuss says, "Don't stick me, Mom!" 2. A surprised Mindy adds her name to the list of inductees. 3. This group of newly inducted members sits mesmerized as they listen to Fr. Bishoff. 4. President Carole Bruner opens the ceremony. 5. Mr. Scherl escorts Lisa Rosenberger to her parents. 6. It's hard to tell who's more excited — Kelli Kalberer or Mrs. Wimmers. 7. Missing the book, Jeanette signs her name on the table.

Band and Ram Guard

The Badin Band and Ram Guard keep the community entertained throughout the year. Some of their activities include the Fourth of July Parade, the many football halftime shows, as well as the Christmas and Spring concerts.

1. Brian Rawlings shows his concentration as he toots that sax. 2. Doug Meyer displayed his skill during the Christmas Concert. 3. The percussion section. 4. Rain or shine, the show must go on. 5. Who are you looking at, Carrie? 6. Pat and Scott blow us away with their skill. 7. The Badin marching band entertained the crowd during the halftime of every football game. 8. Mr. Conway conducts the band during the festive Christmas concert performed for the student body. 9. The 1990-91 Badin Band and Ram Guard.

1. Jacqui chills out with some cool blues on the sax. 2. With style and grace, Cindy Weisenberger twirls her flag. 3. A rose for the Ram Guard. 4. Field commander Jenny Biddinger conducts the marching band in the parade. 5. Just another day of playing the flute for Kathy McDermott. 6. Go, Chris, go! 7. The woodwind section. 8. Jeremy Murphy — looking sharp in his band uniform. 9. The Ram Guard on parade.

The Curious Savage

Theatre Badin's fall production, The Curious Savage, directed by Mr. Thomas Owen, was held on the weekend of November 30th. The story revolved around Mrs. Ethel P. Savage and her ten million dollar's worth of missing bonds.

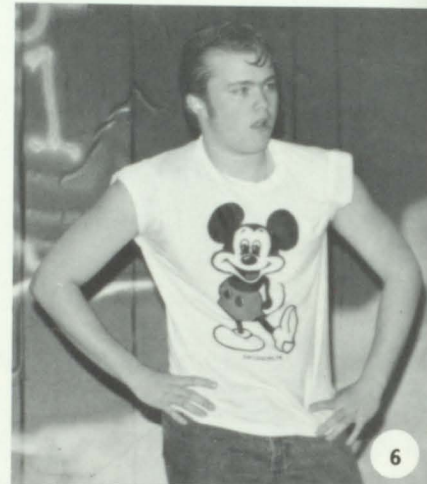

1. Ethel P. Savage (Jeanette Graf) looks with concern upon her fellow inmates. 2. The cast, at rehearsal, stands waiting for direction. 3. Florence (Sarah Delaney) comforts her "son." 4. Fairy May (Megan S. Pater) prays for a spectacular view through the keyhole. 5. Miss Willie (Jennifer Weathers) reads about the mystery of the missing bonds. 6. Hannibal (Jason Miller) speaks of his extraordinary musical talent. 7. Kim Pohlman asks, "What are you looking at?" 8. Senator Titus Savage (Chris Gonya) demands, "Where is my money?" 9. At rehearsal, Matt Kollstedt complains about the leaky roof.

1. Hiding his "scar", Jeffrey (Tony Rawe) listens intently. 2. Kristyn Hill (Lily Belle Savage) shows who is boss. 3. Dr. Emmett, played by Heather Balfour, scans Mrs. Savage's medical reports. 4. The rehearsal. 5. The performance. 6. Mrs. Savage watches as Florence and Hannibal play a game of cards. 7. "Say you love me!"

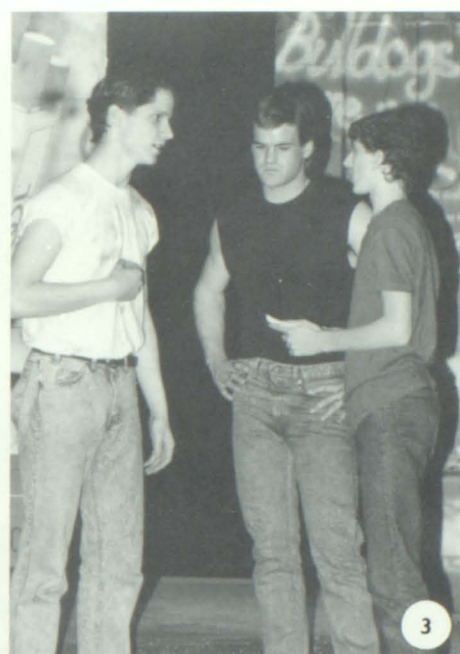

The Outsiders

Theatre Badin's spring production, The Outsiders, was held on March 22, 23, and 24 and was directed by Mr. Tom Owen. The drama, cast with many brand new faces, moved the audiences to both laughter and tears.

1. Johnny (Jason Miller) tells his friend Ponyboy (Tony Rawe) of his troubles at home.
2. Two-Bit (Jason Crank) tries to cheer his dying friend.
3. Ponyboy reveals his thoughts about the plight of the Greasers.
4. Dallas (Brian Scalf) talks to his buddy for the last time.
5. Jerry (Jeanette Graf) and Mrs. O'Briant (Amy Niehaus) comfort Pony after the fire.
6. Two-Bit stands ready to launch a witty come-back.
7. Darry (Pat Erb) yells at Pony for coming in late.
8. Pony, Johnny, and Dallas look excited as they head for the Dairy Queen.
9. Randy (Todd Smith) expresses regret over the fixed classes of society.

1. Cherry (Sarah Delaney) takes no bull from Dallas. 2. Greasers mourn the tragic death of their friends. 3. Sodapop (Mike Mulcahey) and Darry plead with Pony to stay in school. 4. Marcia (Megan S. Pater) makes eyes at Two-Bit. 5. Greasers and Socs smile for the camera before they face off in the rumble. 6. Sandy (Amy Niehaus) breaks the news to Soda that she has to leave. 7. Doctor (Meredith Rottinghaus) and Nurse (Shannon Boughen) predict the fate of Dallas and Johnny. 8. Mr. Syme (Dan Kihm) encourages Ponyboy to write inspiring essays. 9. Greasers meditate before the big rumble. 10. Bob (Matt Hinkel) warns the Greasers to stay away from "our girls."

Christmas Dance

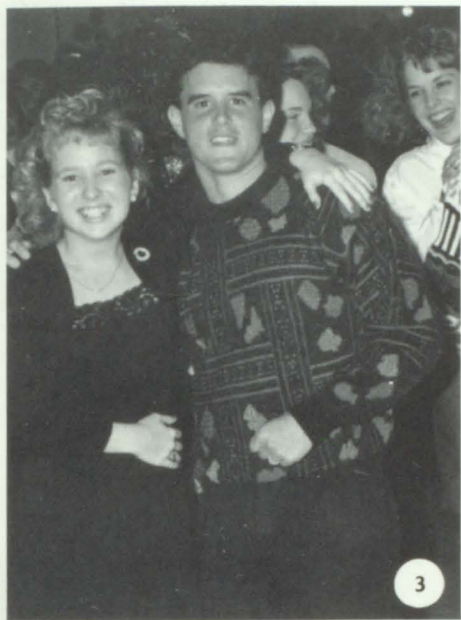

The second annual Christmas Dance was held in the Badin Cafeteria on December 20, 1990.

The evening in the "Winter Wonderland" was enjoyed by all.

1. Kelly should have dancing lessons on her Christmas list. 2. John and Missy gaze into each others eyes. 3. Trinity tries to catch on to Colleen and Erin's awesome dancing. 4. "Do you really want to dance with me?" 5. "I wanna go home!" 6. Kelly's twisting the night away. 7. Julie and Mike take a break.

1. Monica, Angela, and Holly smile for the camera. 2. Too bad Rick can't dance tonight. 3. What a cute couple! 4. All this dancing has given Heather a headache. 5. Chrissy and Pat share a dance. 6. Are we having fun yet, Kristyn? 7. What's so interesting, Holly and Steve?

Spirit Week

Spirit week was held February 4 through February 8. Each class boasted outstanding decorations, but the juniors' "Road to Victory" was awarded 1st place. Jug Day, which raised over $740 for charity, was won by the sophomores. Sweeping 1st place honors in both the dress-up days and Spirit Olympics, the juniors caused the other classes to see red by winning the whole week.

1. Kristi crouches in anticipation of the war.
2. Shannon and Sarah show their natural beauty.
3. Juniors begin their ride down the "Road to Victory."
4. Teamwork is the key to Megan and Katy's success.
5. Greg longs to be back on the farm.
6. One can only imagine Meredith's choice of words for the junior class.
7. "I have the power!"
8. Matt is leaps and bounds ahead of the rest.
9. All that lifting, and they still come up short.

Sports Highlights

It has been an excellent year for sports at Badin High School. Aside from our state championships in both football and baseball, we have had both regional and state finalists.

GOLF — Tim Dixon, Chris Hurst, Chris Houk, and Chris Sharon were state qualifiers. Jim Zettler and Amy Hyde were state finalists.

BOYS' BASKETBALL — District Champions.

DIVING — Cathy Tromans was a state qualifier.

SWIMMING — Kristen Lierman was a state finalist and Sarah Westrick and Damon Hickey were state qualifiers.

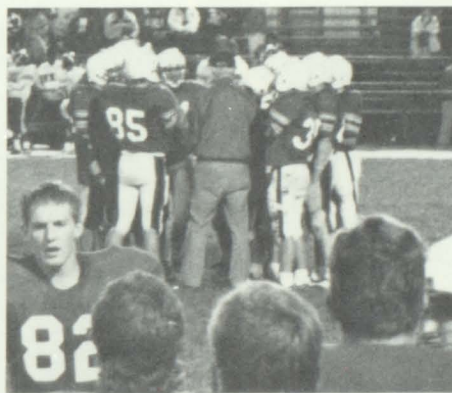

TRACK — The 400 meter relay team of Meredith Rottinghaus, Jeannie Neltner, Jenni Robuck, and Liz Bailey were regional finalists. Matt Chaney was a regional qualifier in the hurdles and Tank Mathews was a regional qualifier in the 3200.

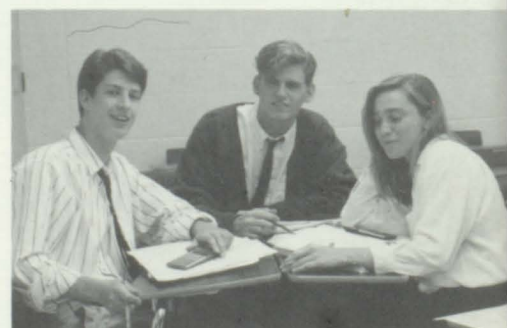

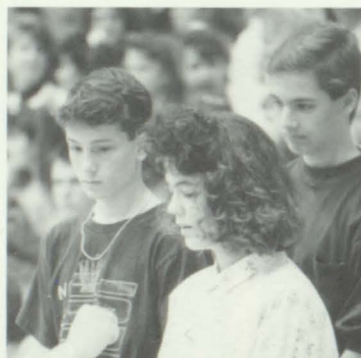

State Champions

We proudly dedicate this sports section to the 1990 Badin State Champions. On their way to a 16-6 state championship victory over Richfield Revere, the Rams crushed CAPE, St. Paris-Graham, and Newark-Licking Valley. Congratulations to the football team on their 12-2 dream season, and to Mr. Malone on compiling 266 victories over his career.

FOOD FOLKS & FUN™

100%

Pure beef. Pure pleasure. That's what you get in every Quarter Pounder® with cheese sandwich.

A lean and unmistakably good taste of 100% pure, domestic beef including cuts of chuck, round and sirloin.

No fillers. No additives.

Simply pure lean beef, leaner than the ground beef most people buy in stores.

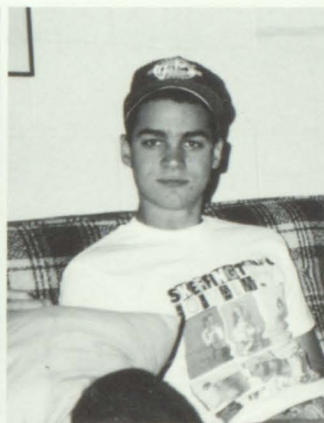

And for cheese lovers, there's not one, but two melted slices of our full flavored cheese. All tucked into a freshly toasted, sesame seed bun.

It's your Quarter Pounder with cheese.

And we make it 100% for you.

John 8: 31-32

Jesus then said to those who believed in him, "If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
