RAMPAGE

Great Expectations

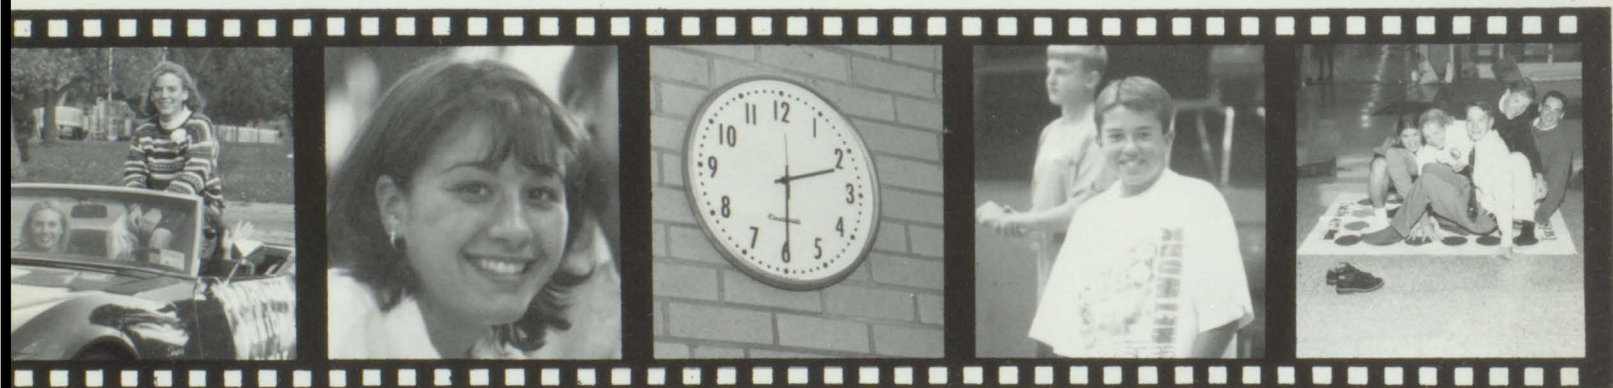

As students of Badin High School, we are expected to be successful in everything we do. As you can see, we don't have a problem accomplishing this great feat.

It's A Wonderful Life

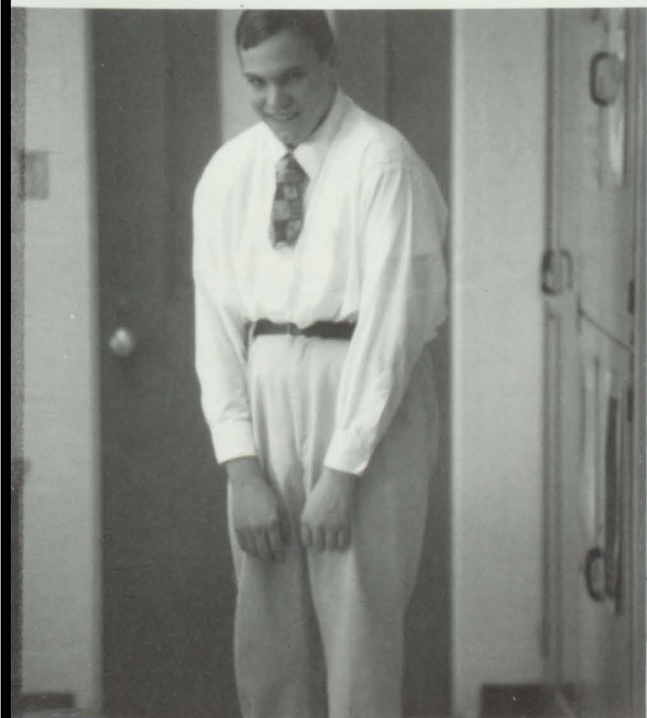

Time flies when you're having fun! School goes by quickly when you're with friends, playing games, or just being crazy. We all know the excitement felt when the clock hits 2:30 and you rush out of the classroom door

The Best Years Of Our Lives

Oh, the awkwardness of freshman year. It makes for great pictures three years later! Whether looking forward to the future or back on the past, these years at Badin are some of the Best of our lives.

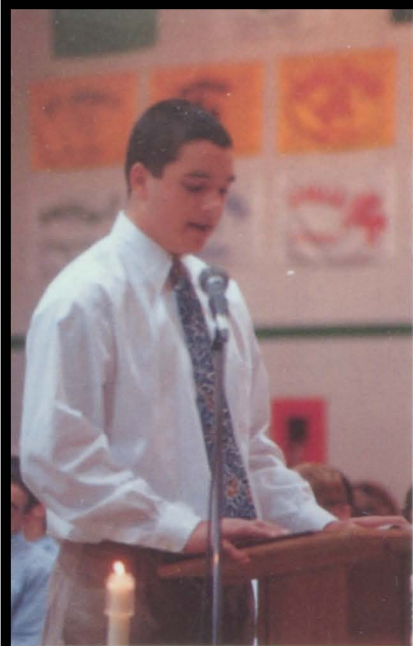

School Ties

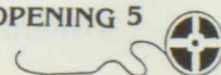

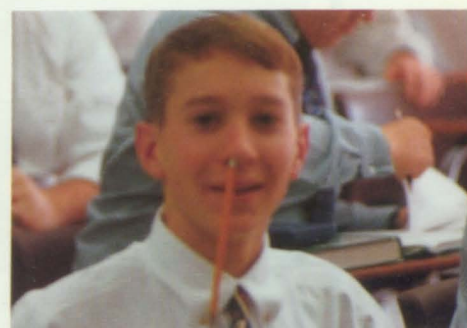

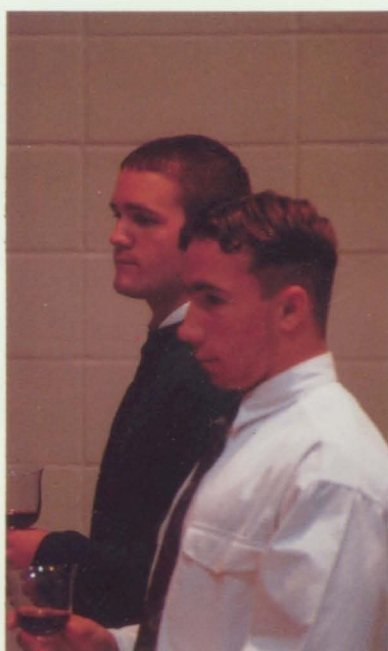

What do strawberries, ice cream, Snoopy, Gumby, pretzels, pencils, and strong family bonds have in common? They can all be seen here at Badin. These different "ties" add diversity and also similarity to our school.

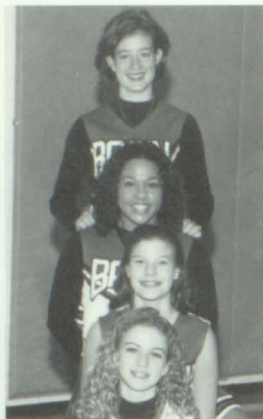

Higher Learning

Our administration, teachers, and even friends help us to work hard as we build the foundation of our education and climb the ladders to our success.

Girls Just Wanna Have Fun

What one thing do all girls have in common? They all know how to have a lot of fun! Whether they're shopping, gossiping on the phone, or just hanging out with friends, girls just wanna have fun!

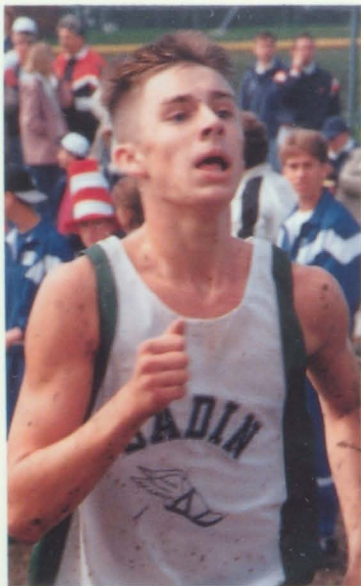

Bad Boys

You see them rough-housing in the hallway, cruisin' in their trucks, or showing off for the ladies. They're notorious for being "tough" because they're bad boys!

Reality Bites

Everyone knows what it's like to walk in at 7:41 and hear the second bell ring, fall asleep during class, or get demerits for chewing gum. We all have to experience reality and it sometimes "bites."

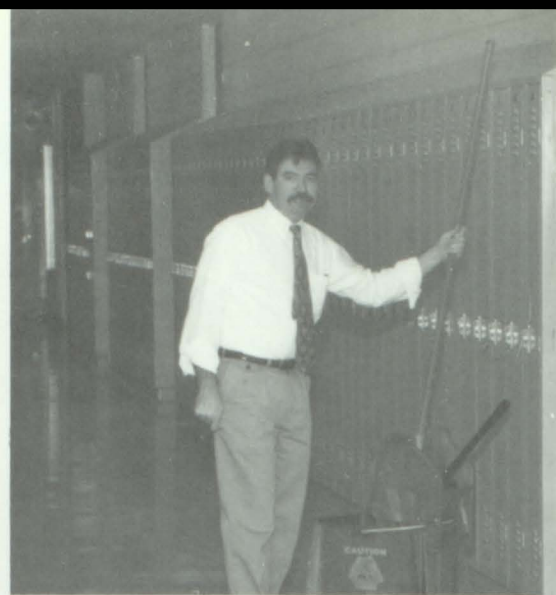

Animal House

We all know who the class clowns are, yet even quiet, shy students have a wild side. We all like to "monkey around" and let our craziness shine through ...

Ordinary People

Day in and day out we walk to class, follow God, and deal with our lockers. We are ordinary people!

Hot Shots

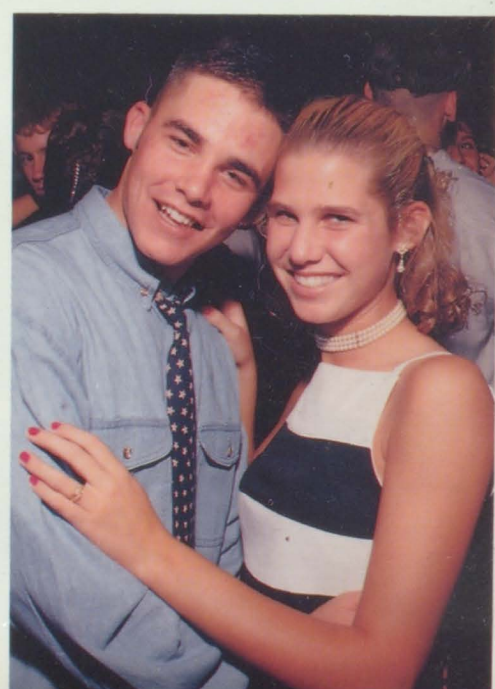

School spirit and creativity are just part of this hot shot community here at Badin High School!

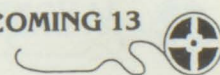

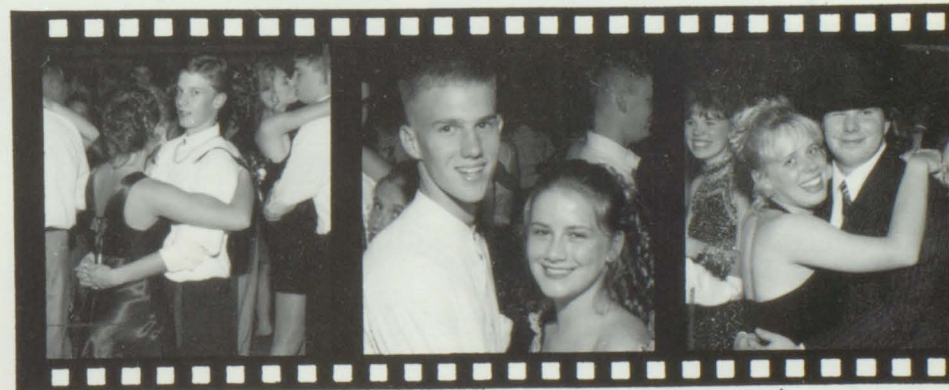

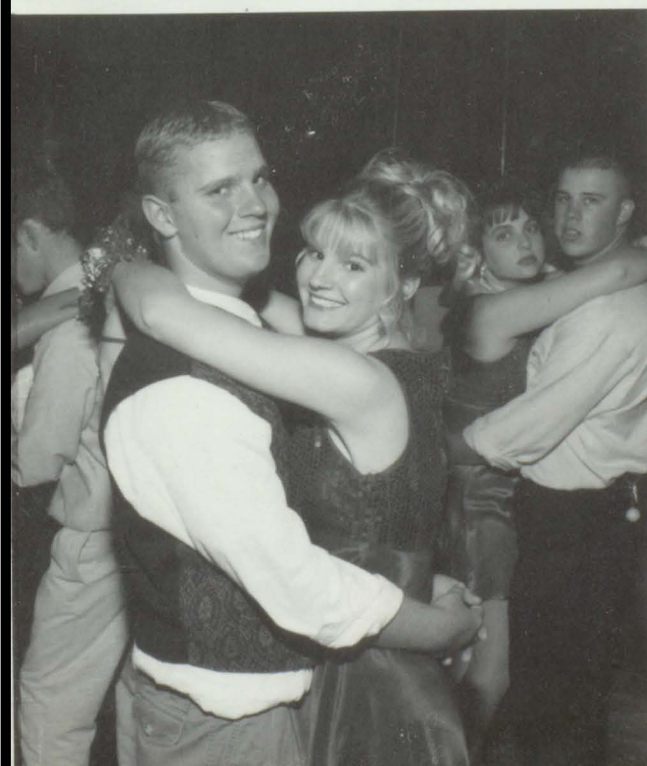

Homeward Bound

It was a Homecoming Journey on the Love Train. First stop: the football game — a Victory! Second stop: the crowning at halftime — Yea, Sarah and the court (Erin, Jenny, Hilary, and Jana)! Final Destination: the dance — All Aboard!

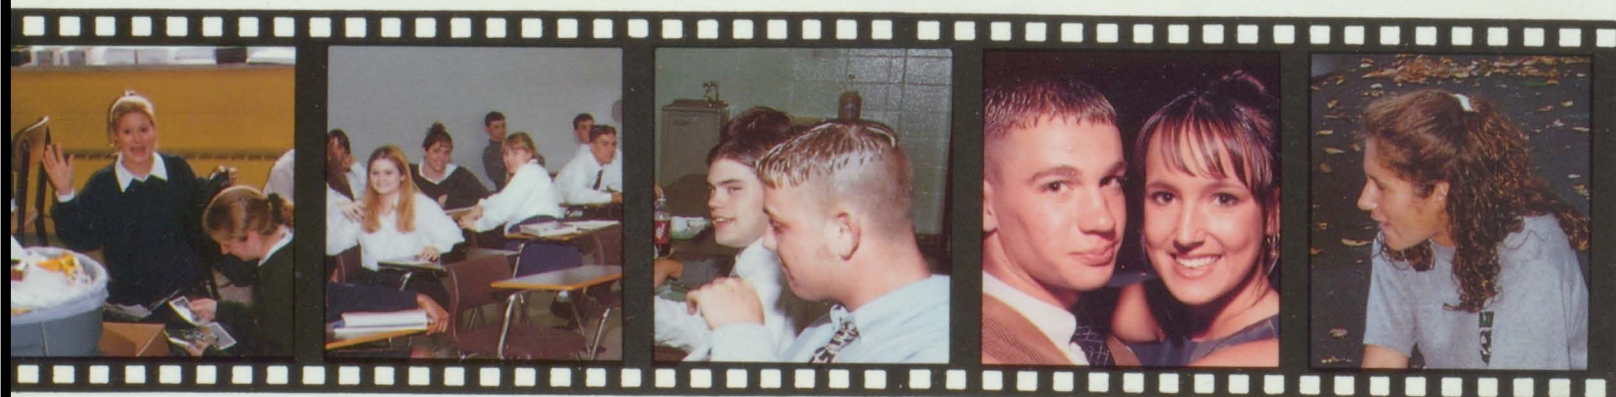

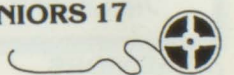

Rebels Without A Cause

We finally met our goal for the canned food drive. We finally are the masters of the halls. We finally got early dismissal. So what is our "cause?" A great FINAL year at Badin!

Unforgettable

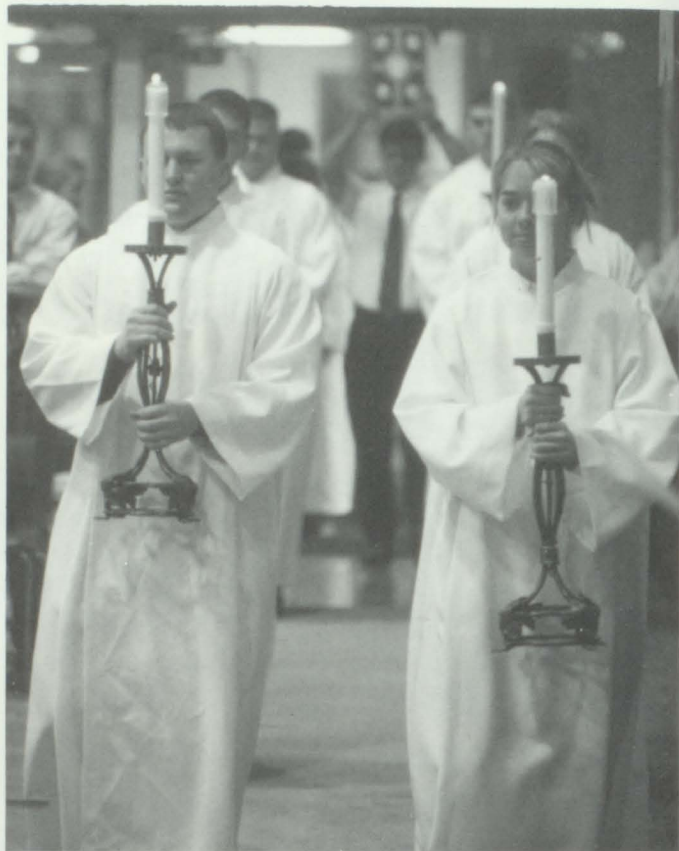

This 1996-97 school year was a celebration of thirty years of Badin High School. The Rampage Staff is pleased to dedicate this yearbook to the faculty, staff, administration, parents, and students who have made — and continue to make Badin a school with strong values, tradition, and Ram pride.

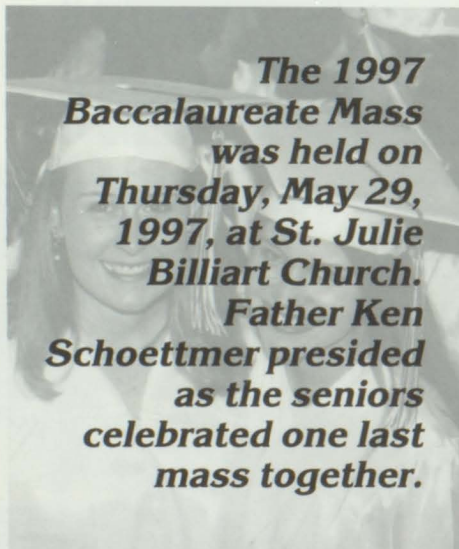

Mixed Nuts

To say that Badin offers its students many activities beyond academics is an understatement. But that is only a fraction of what the students involved in these activities give BACK to Badin. Their effort, enthusiasm, dedication, and leadership, all mixed into an average school year would drive some people NUTS!

Stand By Me

The faculty and staff at Badin High School are a dedicated, hard-working, caring group of people. Whether playing a little volleyball in the gym or staying after school to provide extra help for students, these professionals certainly know the meaning of standing by each other, and standing by their school!

Sense And Sensibility

Student life beyond academics is always an important part of the Badin experience. Students join organizations to use their intelligence and emotions — their sense and sensibility.

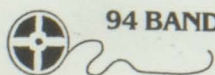

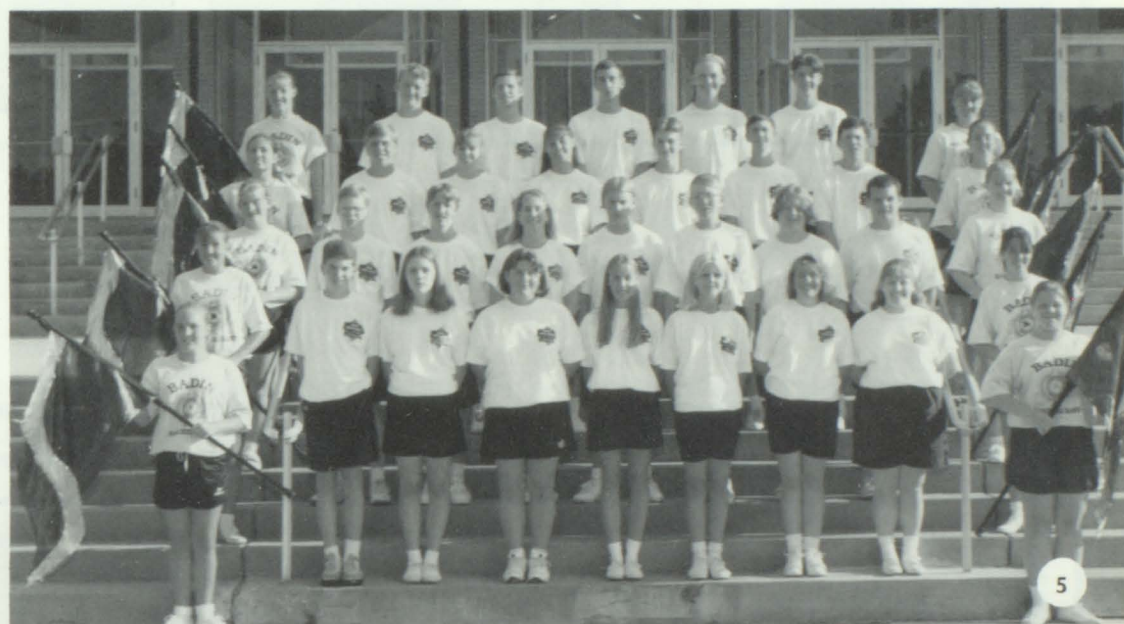

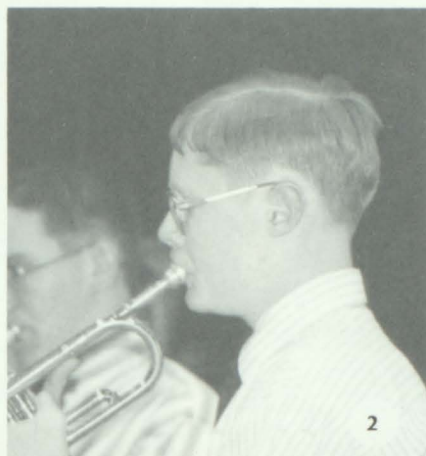

The Sound Of Music

The Badin Band and Ram Guard, under the direction of Mr. Jack Conway, entertain us with half-time performances, concerts, parades, and pep rallies. The Winter Guard also entertains us with their impressive musical interpretation. The sound of Badin pride is music to our ears.

1. I would march 500 miles ... 2. Let the children sing. 3. Adam just being Adam. 4. What grace! 5. Nobody beats the Badin Ram Guard. 6. Look at all those awards! 7. If you're gonna play at Badin, you have to have a fiddle in the band. 8. We may look small, but we play big. 9. Get into the groove!

Paths Of Glory

One aspect of Ram pride is the level of success in the sports program. Badin athletes learn important physical and mental skills through the variety of sports Badin offers. It is no wonder these teams are often found traveling down paths of glory.

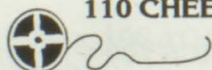

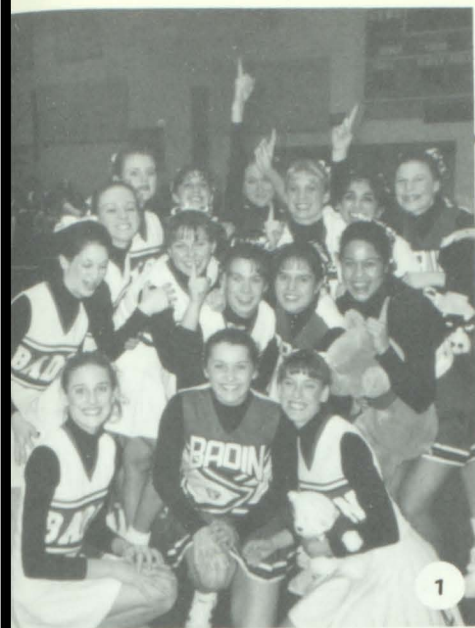

Scream

Our 1996-97 cheerleaders promoted our Badin spirit and Ram pride. The smiles and cheers led many teams to victorious seasons this year. The girls also competed in several competitions, including the Kings Island 12th Annual Labor Day Competition where the JV and Varsity squads both finished sixth, and the Springboro Competition where the JV and Freshman squads both finished first.

Through the Years
by Sarah Vilkoski
and Adam Sackenheim

*Freshman year, such a long time ago
The class of '97, we were a formidable foe.*

*A rebel-rousing reputation preceded our coming,
But our unique class attitude, indeed, was quite stunning.*

*We roamed the halls in a trance-like daze.
In awe of those "grown-up seniors," we could only gaze.*

*War ball, vocab, and religion by Mr. Wurth whom we adore,
We began our Catholic education, and school was not a bore*

Because there were so many sports and activities to try out and see Finding one and sticking to it was the key

*To making friends and wanting badly to fit in/
We wore out-of-style clothes, back then, "Oh my goodness, What a sin!"*

*But the year progressed and we got to know the school,
And at the spirit olympics our banners all proclaimed: "Freshman Rule!"*

*Well, "Rule" was probably stretching it just a tad,
But 9th grade was over, all in all — not too bad.*

*So 10th grade rolled around and we all shouted, "Neato!"
While the fear of God was put back into us by one, Mrs. Vido.*

So we thought we had some pull at good ol' Badin High, but Wink soon cleared that all up and pulled our heads out of the sky.

*Nevertheless, sophomore year was all about "driving excitement,"
And with lots of new experiences you could call it an enlightenment.*

*Cruising around using our new driver's license was the thing to do,
But even as sophomores we still hadn't a clue.*

*For we were merely underclassmen waiting for our chance,
And we got a taste of Badin fun at our first Homecoming Dance.*

*As 10th graders we solidified our class's solid bond:
Proud, strong, wild, focused and of one another quite fond.*

*Then 10th grade disappeared right before our eyes
Along with it half our high school career — before we could realize.*

*Then we were called Juniors when we returned from summer break.
Though there were Juniors in front of us, we still took the cake.*

*For our class led the way in each and every category.
In school and in sports, we claimed all the glory.*

*When it comes to good athletes we had quite a crew:
Football, soccer, basketball just to name a few.*

*The baseball team won the state to top it all.
To the fierce competition and pressure, they did not fall.*

*Art and music was another strong suit.
Artwork decorated the halls, and the band played at games to boot.*

*Still, junior year was not all joyous and fun.
Rather, tragedy struck the class, and from it we could not run.*

*Because of Rodney's death and the girls' traumatic hospital stay,
Our class was crushed and seemingly lost on its way.*

*But despite all the tragedy, hopelessness, and despair,
We supported one another and showed how much we care.*

*As a class now unified and stronger than ever,
We created a pact that was not to be severed.*

*And we awoke one morning and our junior year was through.
Our days left at Badin were priceless and few.*

*And then we were seniors with just one year to go.
Oh, how we wish now that it might have gone slow.*

*For the hustle and bustle made this year speed by.
When I think back on it now, I might just cry.*

*Our homecoming float was one of the best.
Its psychedelic colors made it different from the rest.*

*We worked really hard pumping all summer long
And we listened over and over to that wonderful song.*

*And as the float finally traveled down Eaton Avenue
You could hear the song blaring all around through and through*

*And seniors were singing the familiar refrain
People all over the world, join hands and start a love train, love train ...*

*But senior year is not completed without a visit to Tuck's wagon,
And after research papers were turned in, surely we were all dragging.*

Tons of homework, projects and applications gave us all a disease — senioritis was the plague that made us want to what we please.

Then preparing for prom and spring break in Panama City made us all very tired, but we received no pity.

*This year has been exciting, and this year has been quite fun,
But we cannot alter time and this year is almost done.*

*So let us make these next few weeks a special as can be
For I know this class means as much to you as it does to me.*

*Looking back it is remarkable how much we have grown.
From freshman to seniors, our maturity we have shown.*

*Some time has gone by; four years we've let pass.
From a group of individuals, we've now united as a class.*

*Our lights we've let shine for the community to see.
The future is ours to conquer — a challenge to you and to me.*

*Our growth cannot be measured in inches but in miles.
We've matured and grown in knowledge and developed our own styles.*

*We are a rather lively bunch, each with his own personality.
This makes our class very interesting in all reality.*

*Overall this class has talent — so many gifted young adults.
Athletes, scholars, and artists produce fabulous results.*

*So now we thank God for his unconditional love.
For certainly He has touched our lives from up above.*

*Thank you parents for constantly being our guides.
You've always been supportive and by our sides.*

*We know in your hearts you are shouting "Praise the Lord!"
For your child is graduating — the one you've always adored.*

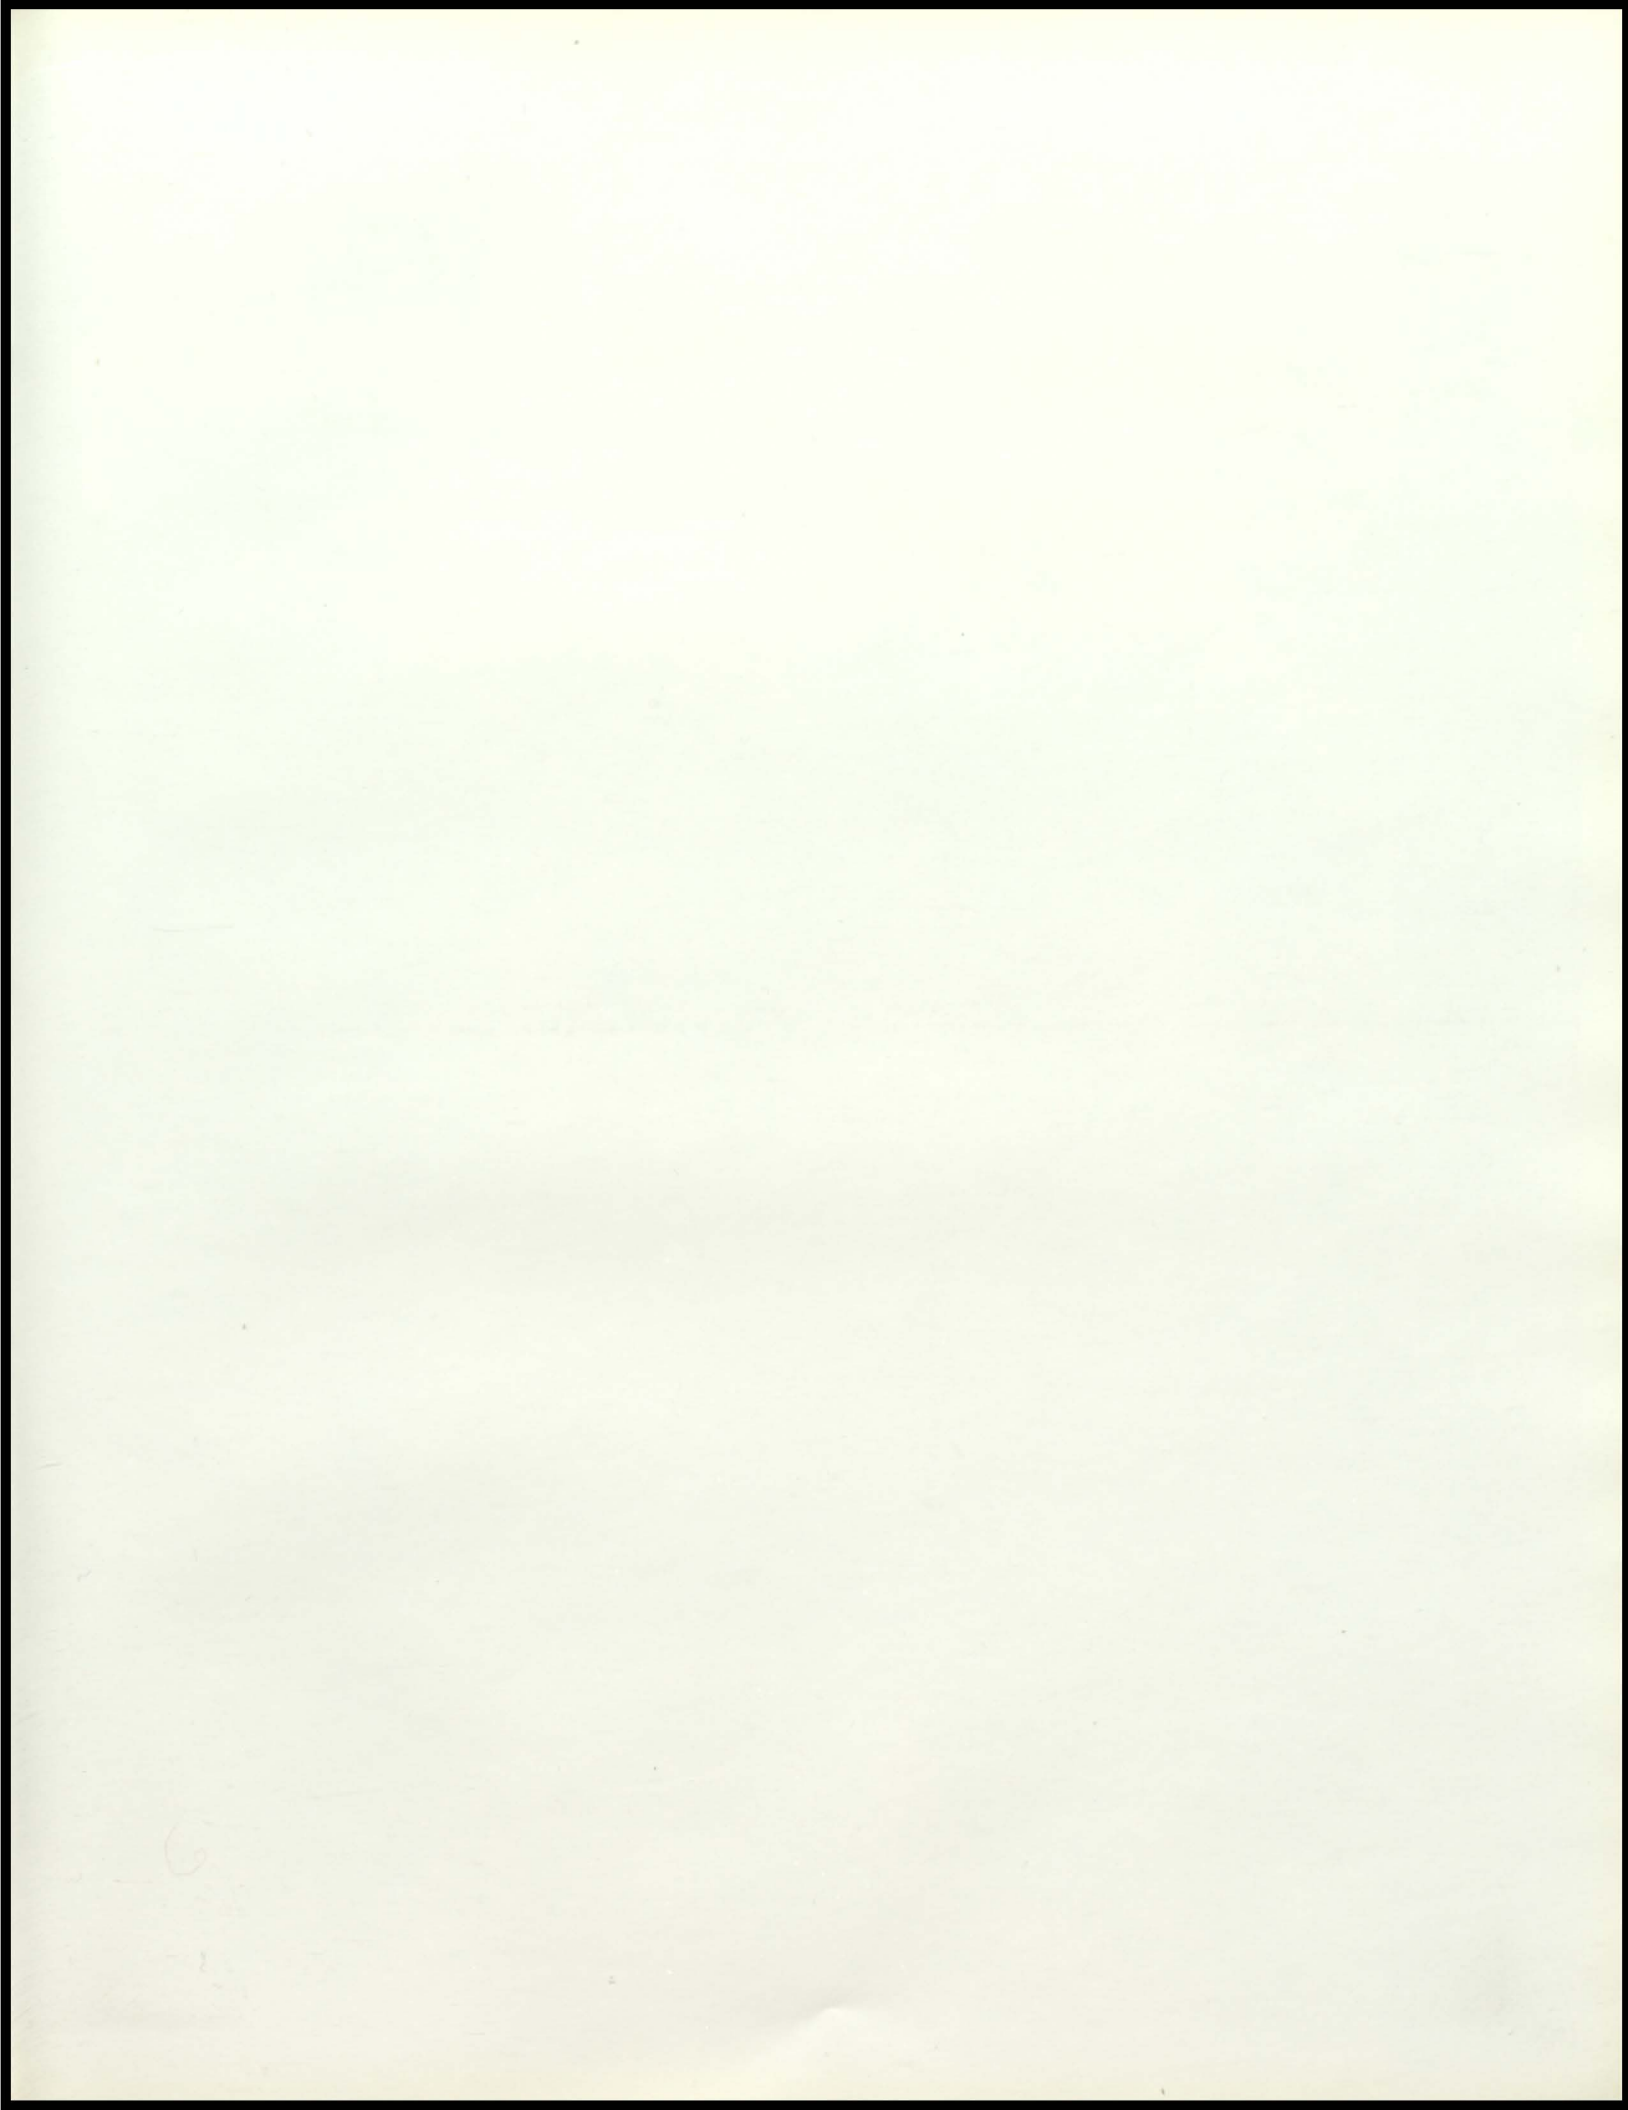

*The teachers, too, were probably thinking that thought when they came
"Thank God those kids are gone!" but school just won't be the same.*

*Our friends have been with us in good times and in bad.
We thank you and remember the memories we've had.*

*This old school of Badin High we will now leave behind
With new places in this world for each of us to find.*

*So now we stand in front to bid you good bye.
Class of '97 good luck in the future, keeping reaching for the sky.*
