STEPHEN T. BADIN
HIGH SCHOOL

571 NEW LONDON ROAD
HAMILTON, OHIO 45013

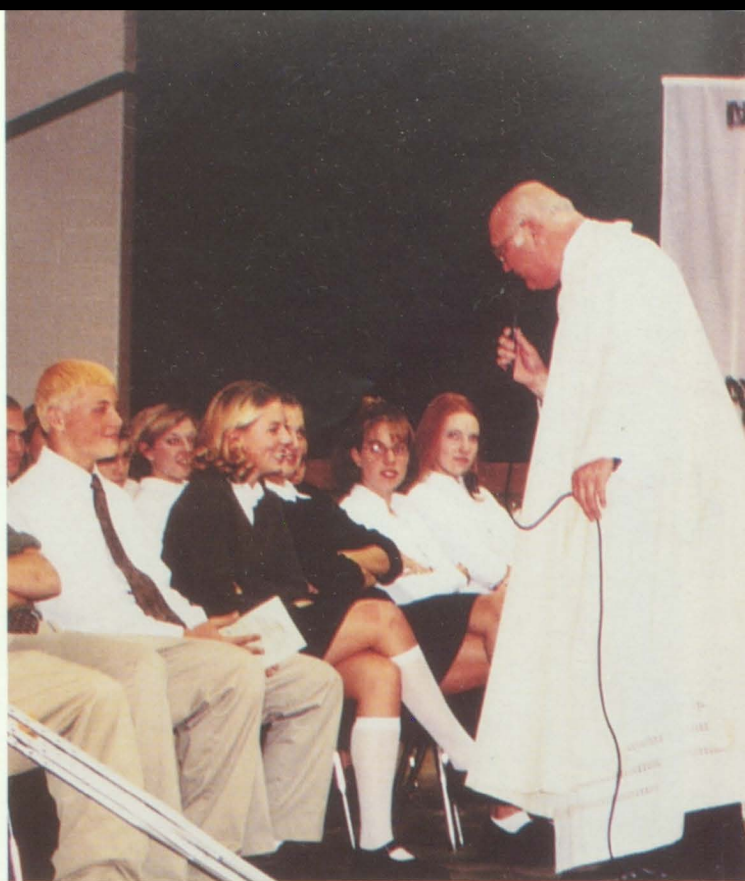

WWW.STEPHEN-T-BADIN.CND.PVT.K12.OH.US

Title Page

Below: The award-winning Badin Band, led by Mrs. Charlene Alfaro, is one of our greatest assets.

Right: Visiting priest Father Ken Schottmer offers guidance to students during his homily on the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Above Right: Sparked by interest in Mr. Finnigan's senior religion class, the Pro-Life club made its debut year. Here they take part in the annual Life Chain in downtown Hamilton.

Right: These Catholic schools week banners represent how students from all feeder schools unite to form the Badin community.

Left: The varsity football team kneels in prayer before their game. Praying to Mary helped to keep the team focused and led them to victory many times this year.

Below: Congrats to the Badin Girl's Soccer team for their State Runner-Up award.

Above: Katy Bowling proudly represents our school as Ohio Deca Female Public Relations Representative.

Left: As a second year member Emily Holbrook lights a candle at the National Honors Society induction.

The Road Rams Travel

Success can only be achieved through hard work, discipline, and a good attitude- all attributes present at our school.

Success is defined as: "the gaining of fame or prosperity." (The American Heritage Student's Dictionary, Houghton and Mifflin) This does not mean that every student who leaves Badin becomes nationally-recognized. However, it does mean that each individual who travels through Badin is given the opportunity to achieve the ingredients that makes this success possible. The various sports, academic, theater, business, religious, and social programs offered at our school possess the unique qualities it takes to polish students in order to meet their full potential. At the basis of this is the talented and dedicated staff and faculty who give their time to make this possible.

Below: D. Russel Lee students, Jeff Chasteen, Jordan Stricker, Ann Weber, Michelle Hurley, Princess Fox, and Jocelyn Benson come together as a part of the Badin community.

Right: Foreign exchange students Julia Dalcq and Andres Monsanto (second and third from the right) take in the Badin experience at Homecoming.

Above: Julia Dalcq came to Hamilton from Belgium and swims for Badin. Right: Venezuelan exchange student Andres Monsanto plays soccer, tennis, and is active in the Miami band and orchestra.

Far Right: Pedro Araujo from Netal, Brazil plays soccer and is active in Queen of Peace parish.

What is the hardest change?

The exchange students share their tough moments.

"Learning how to interact with my new family and my teachers was rough. Things that are friendly conversation at home seem rude to say here. It took a while for people to understand what I was really trying to say."

-Andres Monsanto

"Picking up on American slang was somewhat difficult, but even that wasn't impossible. I really haven't had many problems because everyone has been so nice."

-Julia Dalcq

"Communicating with people could be tough. I sometimes couldn't understand the language when people talk so fast, but people had problems understanding me, too."

-Pedro Araujo

Left: Craig, Matt, and Lindsay Breetz... three of a kind!

Below: After much effort, Joel Sackenheim finally gets what he wants. He is surrounded by Miss Sarah Fox, Miss Annie Schappacher, Miss Carisa Mikesell, Miss Reba Sedlacek, Miss Caroline Koehler, and Miss Linze Thieken.

Right: A stickler for proper uniform, Mr. Flynn would never be caught with an untucked shirt... that's 5!

Above: It would be a rare occasion to find Steve Heffernan reading Shakespeare in the library... In fact, it would be strange to see him in the library at all, let alone with a book in hand.

Above: Coach Malone and volleyball players, Katie Bridges, Tracy Sanders, and Steph Sphire aren't a usual mix. Although both sports can be equally aggressive, Coach prefers the one which uses shoulder pads and helmets.

Right: A hard worker and a focused student, Megan Fluckiger would never be seen with an "F" like this.

Below: Surgery sisters, Betsy and Ellen Browe, show off their scars. Ellen's 12 inch mark was obtained from tearing all of the ligaments in her ankle.

Above: Betsy Browe, I'm sure you've heard this one before: "I had a tumor in my femur."

Battle Scars / War Wounds

*Let's take a look at the causes and effects of our students' mishaps ...
one word, ouch!*

Many people have scars with different stories behind each one. Our students are not an exception. Just take a look around the halls, and you can find scars on the faces, legs, arms, ears, backs, and fronts of Badin students. These scars are part of who we are. Not any ole' Joe can say that they have had a tumor in their femur like Betsy did; or say that they have had skin grafted from their leg like Tim Whitaker did; or even say that they have been attacked by a dog like Joey Jacobs was. As gross as some of these may look, they are not really that bad once you look at them a couple times... Well, maybe they are, but who's to say. This page is not recommended for those who have weak stomachs.

Below: Double Ouch! Angie Koenig and Jill Hoelle do the splits.

Above: Say What? Molly Zoz does her best to avoid talking.

Right: Flippin' Eric Vogt is a sight to see.

Far Right: I can't hear you! Mark Sanders' ear flips in when it's cold... brrrrr!

Undercover Talents / Trends

Badin's humorous, hilarious, and downright hideous talents.

The students here have many undercover talents. Some are funny, some make you cringe when you look at them, and some are just ridiculous. But, who needs math and English anyway? As long as you can do the splits and roll your tongue... YOU'RE SET!

Fashion is key here at Badin. Take a look around to find the latest fads!

Who ever said that Badin wasn't very stylish? Just take one glance around, and you'll find the hottest, newest, and most stylish fashion trends in the area! If fashion was a sport, we'd be state champs every year!

Left: Sean McGoldrick, Alex Middendorf, Andy Sedlacek, Tony Robbins, Alan Wolf, and Peter Mense show the freshman trend of t-shirts and hats... these boys know how to dress!

Left: Sara Shollenbarger is wearing big hoop earrings and fake glasses on her head. She knows how to keep in style!

Right: Beth Hingsbergen and Bambi Young ride in style in their new Eclipses.

Below: Liz Neal's del Sol has a lot of soul.

Right: Joey Roberto shows us that the best view is from the top of a Mustang!

Far Right: We know what Alex Spaulding likes to do in his spare time! He goes joy riding in his Jeep!

Left: Steph Streit rolls up in "New Blue". She isn't afraid to show us that she loves her truck.

Center: Hey, Joey Roberto, Mark Sanders, and Lindsay Bryant... watch out for those speeding tickets!!!

Far Left: Who doesn't wish they had a Mustang like Mark Sanders?

Ridin' In Style

"Buckle-Up... it's the law!"

-Kelly Schutte

"Caution: I speed up to hit animals!"

-Rob Hufford

"Do you wanna ride in the back seat of my Caddy?"

-Eric Smith

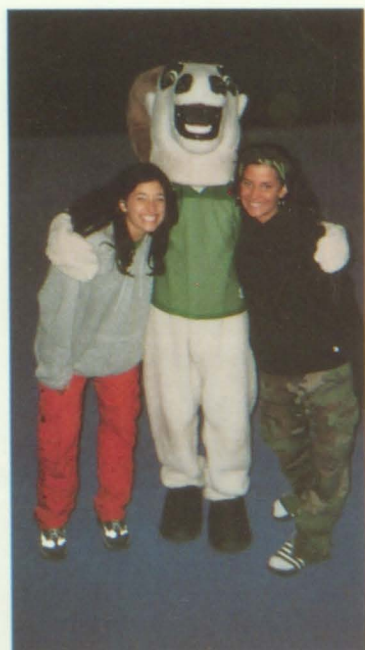

"Safety man is my best friend.

WATCH OUT!"

-Fred Minnick

Below: Say "Weetables!" The Varsity girl's soccer team shows their BHS pride by dressing in green and white, screaming the fight song, and leading cheers for all the fans to take part in.

Right: The Fab Five, Mark Nichting, Brad Dirheimer, Kyle Hanigosky, Brad Raines, and Adam Snyder, flaunt their muscles, waving the BHS flags in front of the Homecoming crowd.

Right: Erin Adkins, a big Ram fan, goes all out with paint, hair dye, and make-up for the Big Game against Purcell Marian.

Far Right: The Runnin' Rams showing off their school spirit...Better look fast, they're always on the run!

Left: Break it down now! Matt Breetz gets his dancin' groove on while Cassandra Heath, Ashley Timmer, and Greg Hoelle admire his disco fever.

Below: Volleyball teammates Theresa Bill and Claire Alferts spend an evening in the gym without sweat and knee pads.

Bottom: Homecoming Queen Kim Tessien and her date Justin Whiting

"Everything I Do..."

Everyone at Badin loves dressing up, whether it be crazy and spirited or formal and fancy, but not very often do we have the chance to do it two nights in a row. The weekend of October 6 and 7 WE DID! Friday we decked out in our green and white with painted faces, dyed hair, make-up, and crazy clothes.

It was the 2000 Homecoming game against the Purcell Marian Cavaliers. Fans lined the stadium and fences yelling and cheering for their Badin football team. The next evening was quite the opposite. The young men and women wore eloquent attire with the ladies' hair done professionally. They were proper and polite, much the opposite of the night before. Saturday was the 2000 Homecoming dance with expensive dinners, dates, and dancing. The theme of Homecoming was "Everything I Do (I Do For You)" by Brian Adams. The next day we were back to reality, but good times were had and memories were made.

Badin- 17

Purcell Marian- 20

Falling short to the Cavs, the always mighty Rams didn't let this loss dampen their spirits.

Below: Megan Wallace and Nicole Jones striking a pose in between dances.

Right: Kimberly Hanigosky and Kris Karwisch during the Queen's dance. Kim was one of 5 Homecoming Queen finalists.

Above: Megan Brinkman and Kelly Brown take time out to let us snatch a pic of them... smile pretty!

Middle Right: Leslie Eickelburger, Molly Kugler, Lauren Gebhart, Kari Kiley, Jill Hoelle, and Tara Roesch are having so much fun that they can't wait for their second date dance to come.

Right: Mitch Vocke and Darci Bertsch take time for a picture during their slow dance... save the last dance for me!!!

Far Right: This seems to be the senior section of the dance floor... not much dancing going on here!

Left: Craig Breetz and Angela Vilkoski take time to pose during the Queen's dance. Angela was one of the 5 finalists to be selected for Homecoming Queen.

Left: Stephen Zettler leans down so he could fit the frame in this picture with Lauren Gersbach. This was the couple's first Homecoming experience.

What is your funniest memory of teaching at Badin?

In the early 90's, there were reports that our area could have earthquakes. Some of the students crept next door to Mrs. Tuckers van and gently rocked it. She called to ask if we had felt the tremor. We were laughing so much that she knew we had played a trick!

~Mrs. Gail Hartwig~

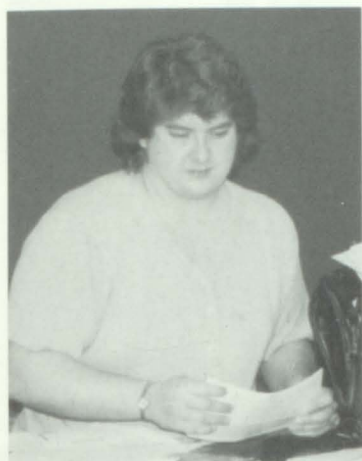

Mrs Heinrich leads a demonstration in the science lab.

Wink addresses the always attentive student body.

Mrs. Brossert prepares her lesson plans.

Chemistry teacher, Mrs. Sands, reviews an athletic grade check.

Mrs. Suedkamp assists a student in Algebra class.

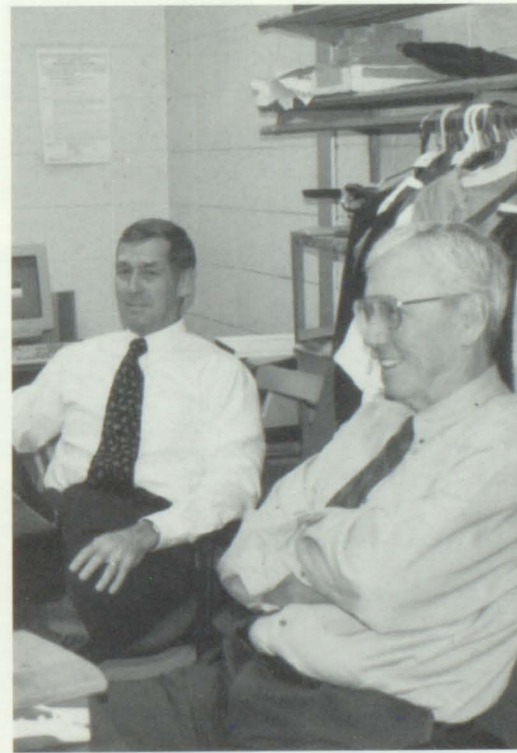

The always amusing Mr. Mignery keeps in good spirits while lecturing World History.

Crazy Mrs. Cook is at it again. Her students don't seem to mind.

Mr. Finnegan leads a "powerful" religion discussion.

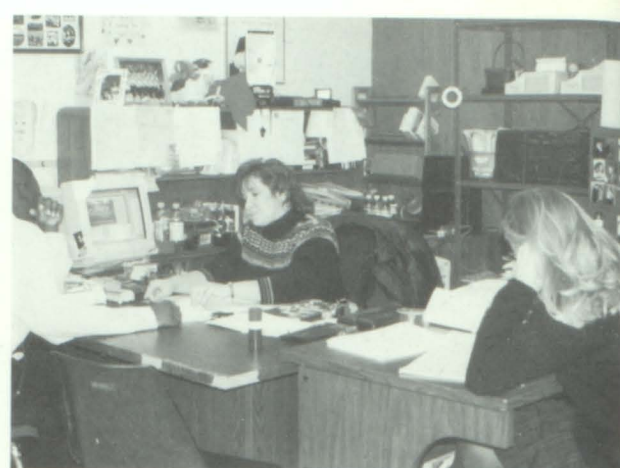

With many years of service to the Rams, Mr. Renneker and Mr. McGuff deserve a break.

Mrs. Sands and Mrs. Cook take a break.

Mrs. Godbey looks exhausted while taking a break from British Literature.

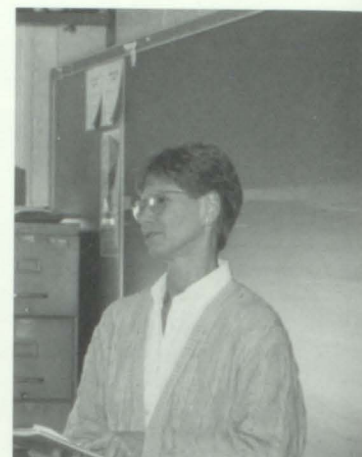

Mrs. Alfaro conducts her music theory class.

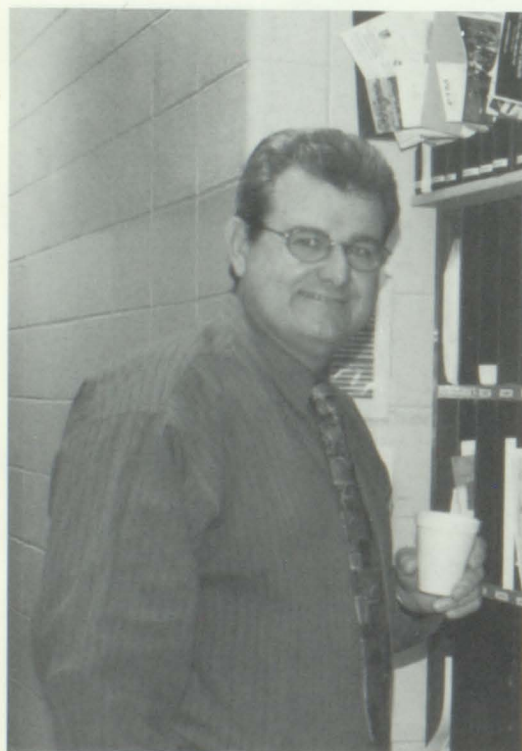

Senora Lucas is back once again to lead our Spanish scholars.

Mrs. Cohen, our Spanish II teacher, escapes the hoopla of her class for a moment.

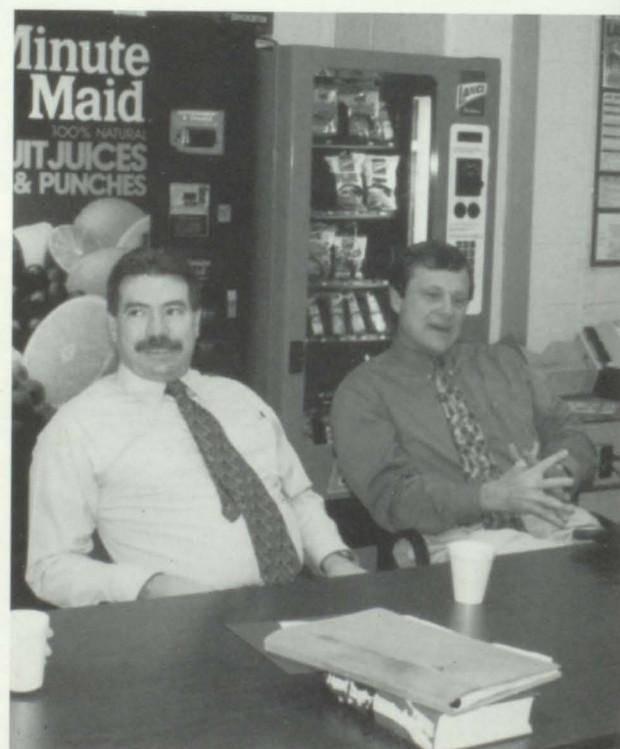

Mrs. Kocher accomplishes one of her many tasks which includes gym class, health, and AD

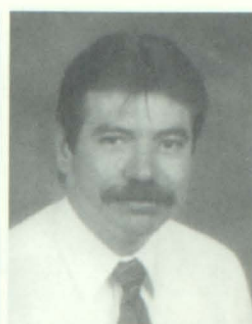

Mr. Margello checks his mail before making the morning announcements.

Mrs. Niehaus brings a smile to her class.

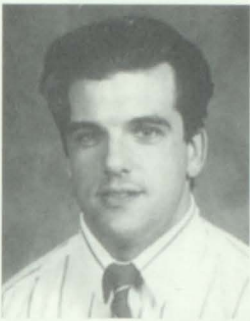

History buffs Mr. Rains and Mr. Zimmerman kick back in the faculty lounge before the day begins.

What is the best part of being a Badin teacher?

"The students are ultimately more polite, kind, and conscientious than the majority of public school students, so it makes for a better teaching atmosphere."

Ambassadors

The Badin Ambassadors have represented the school with extreme excellence in this very important year of the capital campaign for the future of Badin High. Participating in Phone-A-Thons, grade school visits, and many other activities, these folks are well on their journey to success.

"I am always afraid that while on a school visit I might forget and pick my nose."

Andy Pfister, 12

"Ambassadors gives the chance to make your own path and lead others down it, instead of following the path that has already been made and taken."

Exploring New Boundaries

With so many different groups around the school, there's a chance for everyone to explore new boundaries. From setting up for mass and getting tapped into NHS to bringing VCRs to class, there's room for all to be involved.

"I enjoy being the Sacristan because it allows me to be a part of mass."

Emily Holbrock, 12

"I like being a part of NHS because it allows me to help others and reach out to the community."

Take the First Step

Faith development enables Badin students to put their best foot forward. It prepares the students for facing their futures, including making decisions and taking stands on important issues.

"The Liturgy Planning Committee is an opportunity for students to be involved and to participate in mass."

Taking a Walk Into Unknown Territories

Clubs help to make new friends, learn new things, and most of all, challenge the students of Badin... such as raising money and doing important projects.

"Being part of such a small club is great because we are able to express our ideas more freely, and we follow through with our ideas. We all have a close relationship, and that's what makes it so fun!"

Walking Through New Experiences

These four groups are what make Badin what it is today. All of them play an important role in what makes our school better. From acting to music, and many others.

"Drama and Poet Society is an opportunity to be creative, a little crazy, and have a lot of fun!!" says Lora Robinson, President of Drama and Poet Society.

Tawni Riley explains that cheerleading can be tough with all of the coordination.

Danielle Purcell confesses that she had a hard time picking up on backhandsprings.

Kelly Brown says that doing jumps can be tricky!

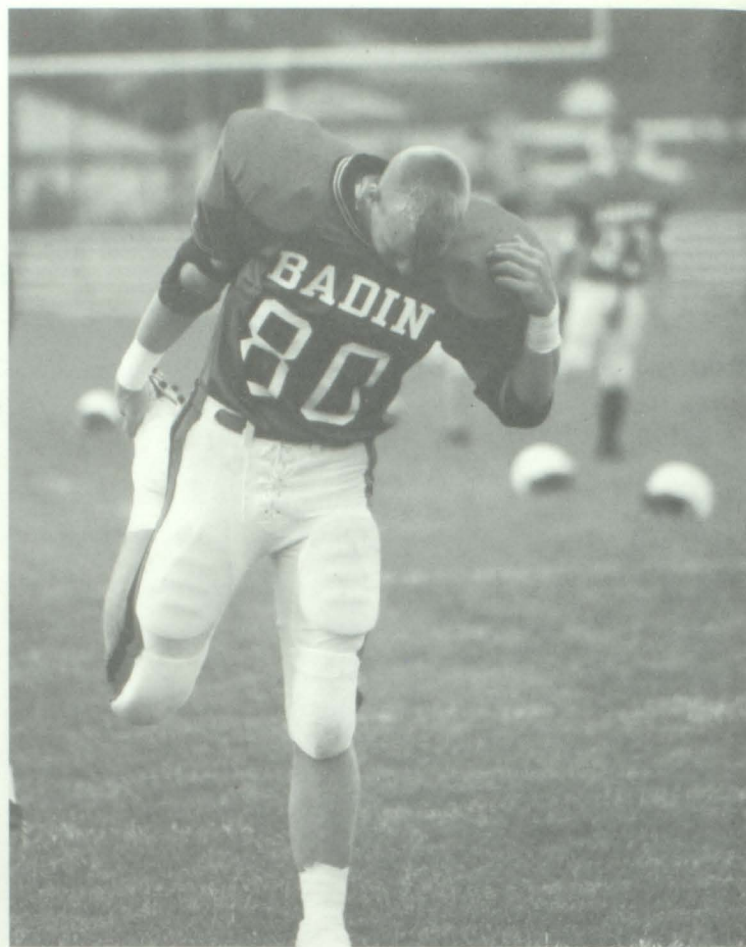

Cindy Goffena isn't afraid to admit that conditioning can be rough.

Sarah Botos points out that it can be challenging to memorize almost 100 cheers.

Junior, Graham Crain proved to be a solid addition for the Rams. It was the first time he had played football since the seventh grade. Hopes run high for Graham next year.

As always the Badin Edgewood clash continued this year. For the first time Edgewood made the trip to Walt Bonner Field. In an extreme effort the Rams fell short in a breath taking overtime game.

Ben Leuthold does his best cheerleader impression while carrying the ball. A do it all player for the Rams, Ben played all over the field. His hustle and his heart earned him a varsity spot.

The Rams defense puts pressure on the quarter back. This was a reoccurring theme throughout the year for the Ram defense.

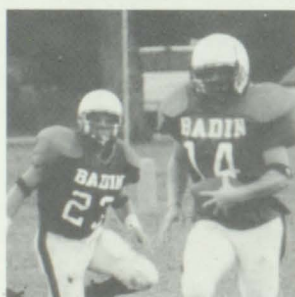

Gridiron tales...

The trainer's room is the place to be before and after practice. Just ask Mike Wolfram.

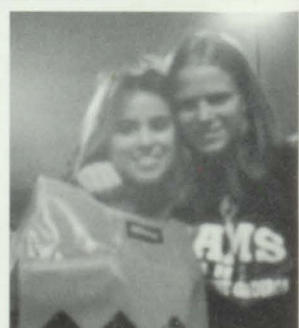

Junior signal caller Justin Spoerl had a solid year for the 8-1 Rams.

Graham Crain watches on as Ricky Pate eludes defenders. Ricky has a bright future with the Rams.

Junior Mitch Vocke takes a knee on the hill. A reserve player such as Vocke is vital in preparation for the upcoming games.

Though not always the most glamorous position, trainers such as Molly Zoz and Jenna Schlabach willingly give up there time for the team. Their help is much appreciated.

Keri Kiley says: "We had a lot of fun, worked hard, and I love every one of these girls."

Steph Streit says: "The best part of the whole season was the friends I made playing this awesome game."

"This was the best team I've ever been on. Everyone got along so well and we made a great team," said Ashley Timmer.

Leslie Eickelberger said, "The season wouldn't have been the same without my friends and the memories we made."

"Even though I had a tumor in my femur, I think that I had a better time on the bench than I would have had on the field," said Betsy Browe.

Season highlights: They beat Hamilton High for the fourth straight year, they tied Moeller, they beat Roger Bacon, and they beat previously undefeated New Richmond. Below: Todd Troxell warms up before the Hamilton game.

Tennis Tales...

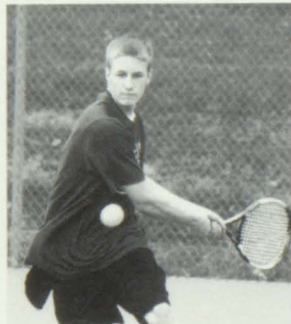

Max Larson swings low for the ball.

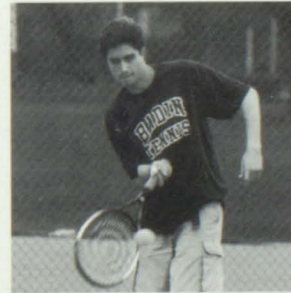

Kenny Brunner finishes off his slam.

Jeremy Johnson gives it his all to retrieve the ball.

Justin Roth races to backhand the ball.

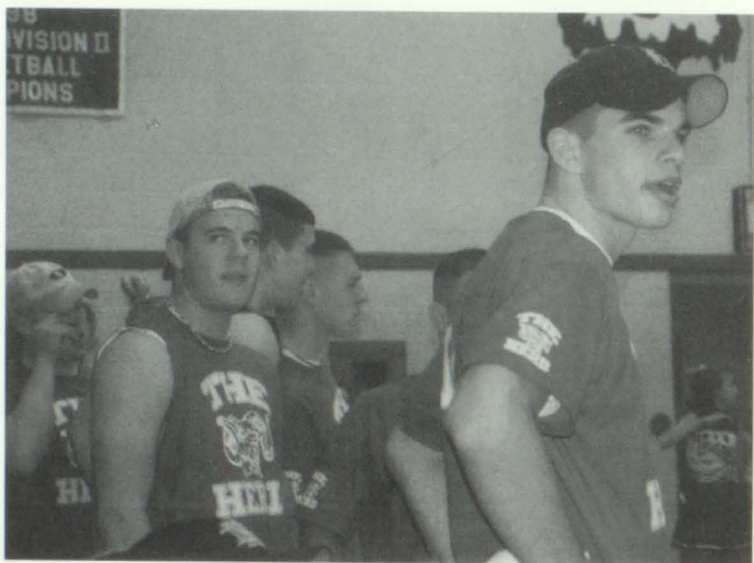

Matt Sloneker struts his stuff going after the ball.

Right: David Mergy picks up the ball in the corner, looking for an outlet. David was one of three tri-captains this season.

Above: Some of Badin High's "Herd" show off their newly printed shirts. The senior group was present at the majority of the games this season.

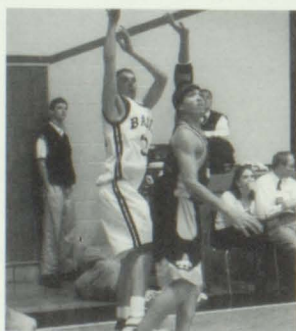

Right: Sophomore David Shull goes up for two against Alter. David was a big help in the post this season.

Dribble it, pass it...

Zach Marcum battles for a loose ball as Alter's Adam Waleskowski looks on. Marcum, a.k.a. "Schweaty", split time between JV and Varsity this season.

Bret Noonan shows off his perfect form as he nails a three from deep in the corner. Bret was a returning starter this year.

Chris "OG" Sutton warms up before his game against St. Xavier. Sutton, a previous transfer from Fairfield, has adapted to Badin's style of offense well.

Josh Brinck, a sophomore, goes up for a shot. "It was a rough year, but I am glad I got the chance to play. We will be a lot better next year."

Junior Zach Marcum enjoys his tossed salad at Sutton's team dinner. "I like team dinners because it is time off the court to mess around and eat great food."

Carried on a wave...

Hey Coach! Boys and Girls swim coach, Mike Brossart was awarded the GGCL Coach of the Year again this year as the Girls' team defended their league title. Congratulations!

Freshman Laura Hogan comes up for a breath during practice. Laura scored at the League Meet in the 500 free. Way to go, Laura!

On your mark... Junior Jeff Chasteen waits on the starting block for his swim.

Junior Megan Tobergte, a first year BHS swimmer, was a great addition to the team. She scored in three events at League, including the 100 breast.

Go lane 1! Junior Steph Streit takes it easy in practice by doing backstroke, but she would much rather be doing breaststroke.

Below: Senior third baseman, Matt Wolpert, and Junior outfielder, Matt Brady, take some swings before they go up to the plate. Wolpert and Brady both helped the Rams' offense out a lot this year.

Above: Senior pitcher, Andy Rumpler, delivers the pitch while Matt Wolpert prepares for action in the background. Rumpler was a huge asset to the Rams' pitching staff this year with a regular season record of 5-0.

Left: First baseman Tony Nichting stretches for a throw in warm-ups. Tony is originally a catcher, but he had to switch after Tommy Puma ended his year early due to shoulder surgery.

Below: The Rams go through the line and shake after defeating LaSalle 4-2. The Rams finished with a record of 2-2 against the GCL South teams this year.

Left: "1,2,3, OUR HOUSE!" This chant was one of the Rams' rituals this year before games. There were others, too, but those are only for the team to know!

Above: Tony Nichting stretches for a throw during the 4th inning at Alumni Field. The LaSalle base runner was called out on the play, ending the inning.

10 Years at the Top...

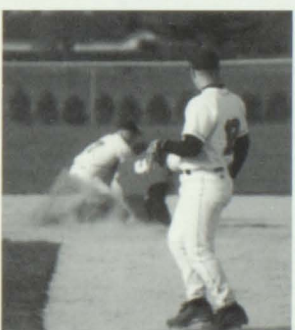

Mark Nichting looks after a foul ball. Mark was a Senior catcher and a co-captain as well.

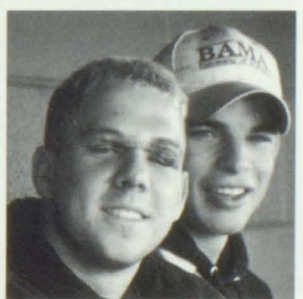

Graham Crain looks on as a play takes place near the right field fence. Graham was the second baseman for the Rams.

Kyle Gambrell dives back into the base against LaSalle. Gambrell came up to Varsity midway through the season to fill in for the injured Drew Thieken.

Tony Nichting looks down to second to watch the ending of a picture perfect pickoff taking place.

Two of the BCM's finest take time to pose for a picture. Both Drew and Tommy were forced out of play by serious injuries.

Below: Sophomore, Brad Ketterer stays back on an off speed pitch. Ketterer was the big man for the junior varsity this year, leading the team with 3 homr runs.

Above: Freshman, Jeremy Hammond rounds third base while looking at the coach for further instructions. Hammond provided some good speed for the Freshman team.

A Ram Above the Rest...

Michael Mayer, Sophomore first baseman, goes over the previous play in his mind. Mayer understands that baseball is a 90% mental game.

Brian Scheffel, a Freshman, fields the ground ball with ease. Brian split time this year between the Freshman and Reserve teams.

Freshman catcher Mike Kazy receives the pitch. Kazy worked well behind the plate for the Rams.

Joe Imhoff takes a grounder in pre-game infield while Ricky Pate gazes off into space. Joe and Rick made for a solid middle infield on the JV team.

Sophomore Brad Ketterer takes a mighty swing at the baseball. With Ketterer's power, that ball is probably out of here folks!

NHS Tapping

This year's National Honor Society tapping was as memorable as expected. There were smiles as well as tears coming from everyone as each person was inducted. The crowd along with the nominees were very excited by the event. This group will be performing many acts of community service throughout the year.

Far Right: Look at all those proud smiles of the brand new members of NHS.

Right: The members of NHS hold the lit candles to symbolize the light that they will shine on the community.

Below: Lindsay Saurber signs her name in the book as a new NHS member.

Above: Rick Mick and Mr. Margello are all smiles on their way up to the table.

Right: Katie Sander signs her name after finding out that Mrs. Sage tapped her into NHS.

Below: Looking at Megan with a proud smile, Mrs. Weathers walks her over to be part of such a wonderful group of well achieved students.

Above: Mrs. Cohen escorts Ann Dolenmeyer to the front of the gym after tapping her.

Left: In total shock, Mandy Geyer walks to sign her name in the NHS book alongside Mrs. Marot. Mandy is helping to carry on the tradition of Badin honoring its excellent students.

Left: After being chosen by Mrs. Tucker, Garahm Crain gladly signs his name in the book of NHS students. His yellow hair isn't going to stop him from doing anything!

Left: Mrs. Hoelle accompanies Joanna Lowry on a walk to be a member of the National Honor Society. This walk will lead her to great success in the future and great memories from Badin.

Left: Ms. Sands proudly holds up the candle that puts the light into Steph Weber's future as she signs her name in the NHS book.

Left: Signing his name, Ryan Grote happily accepts membership into NHS along with the other students who were lucky enough to be part of such an important event.

Right: Senior Ann Menke tries to relax while she is giving blood.

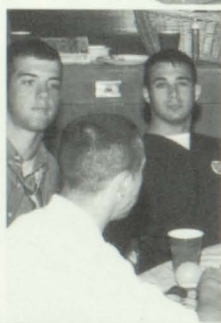

Right: Junior Sarah Graf checks in all those planning to give blood. Sarah is a member of Student Council, and helped to plan the blood drive.

Right: Jenny Rigling, a senior, rests after donating a whole pint of blood.

Right: John Klamo and Dan Lajiness enjoy snacks and juice before going back to class. They need the food to replenish the nutrients they lost after giving blood.

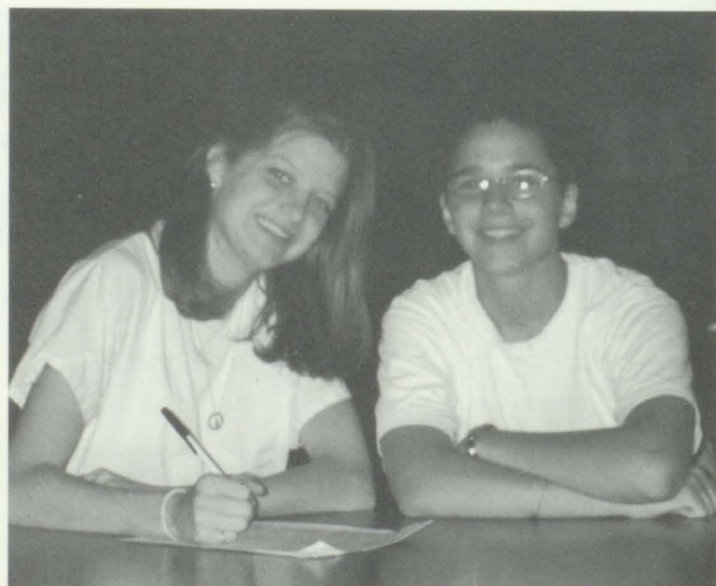

Right: Senior Chris Lee gets his blood pressure taken to make sure he is eligible to give blood.

Right: Girl Scout troop #5350 donated all the cookies for the blood drive this year. Thank you, girls!

Below: Thank you to Nurse Porcano who organized the blood drive with a lot of patience and care.

Above: Student council member Cassandra Heath and chairperson Megan Collings worked hard all day to make the blood drive a success.

Giving the Gift of Life

"When blood is needed we must depend on each other. If you donate blood today when someone else needs it, perhaps someone else will give when you or your loved ones need it."

Below: Emily Holbrock and Kim Hanigosky chat while they enjoy some snacks after donating blood.

Academic Awards

The May 17th Academic Awards at Badin are a great time for the outstanding students at Badin to be recognized by the faculty for their achievements. Family and friends gather together to see what great students are at Badin. To attend the academic awards you must be on the honor roll for three consecutive quarters.

Below: Freshman Jaci Saurber returns to her seat after accepting her academic letter and pin for the first time in her Badin career.

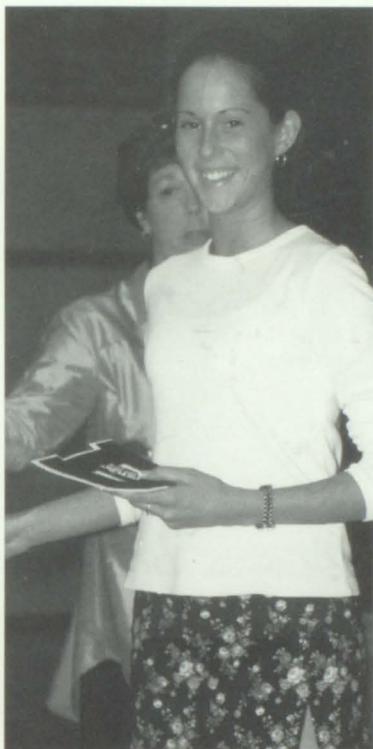

Above: Freshman Darby Mahu accepts the highest academic achievement award from Ms. Winkeljohn. Congratulations, Darby!

Right: Seniors Michael Sackenheim and Nancy Weigand receive the Ohio Scholar Athlete Award. They also recieved the Army Reserve awards.

Below: Freshman Kylee Weigand receives her first academic letter and pin.

Right: HEAVE-HO! The frosh tug-o-war nearly pulled out a victory against the juniors.

Right: Can you find the guy? Andy Sedlachek tries hard to fit in with the ladies.

Right: Oh, how it must feel to be a freshman. Matt Leuthold and Jackie Saurber prepare for the three-legged race.

Right: A picture tells a thousand words. The freshmen struggle to hold on, especially A.J. Smith.

Right: SLAM IT TOMMY! Tom Puma starts off the basketball relay in high-flyin' style.

We've got spirit!

Spirit Week 2001 was a huge success. Kicked off by a successful canned food drive, the enthusiasm lasted throughout the week. Classes vied in competitions such as jug wars, dress up days, and finally, the Spirit Olympics. Much thanks goes out to all who helped make Spirit Week great, especially Student Council.

Left: Look at those muscles! The seniors, led by Spiderman Michael Sackenheim, dig in.

Above: The senior girls take home the tug-o-war championship, highlighting spirit week.

We've got spirit!

In Cinderella fashion, the Juniors swept away with the Spirit Week champion title! They were led by victories in the obstacle course, basketball relay, and boys tug-o-war. They tied the seniors in the 3-legged race. The Juniors have now set themselves up for a repeat title next year!

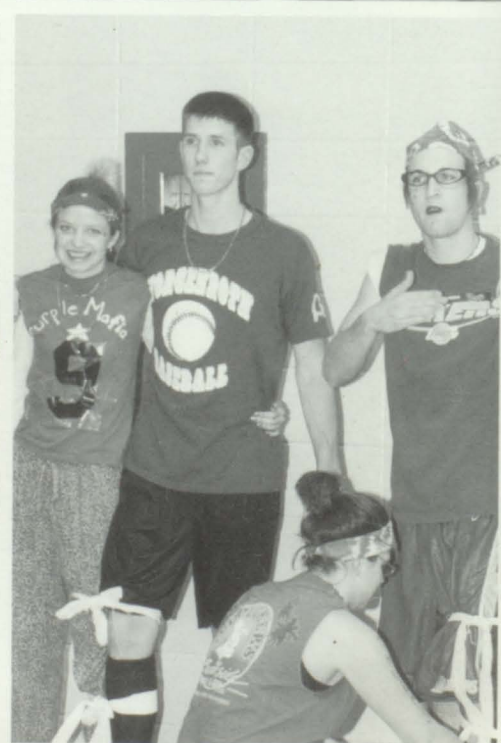

Right: Graham Crain glides through the obstacle course!

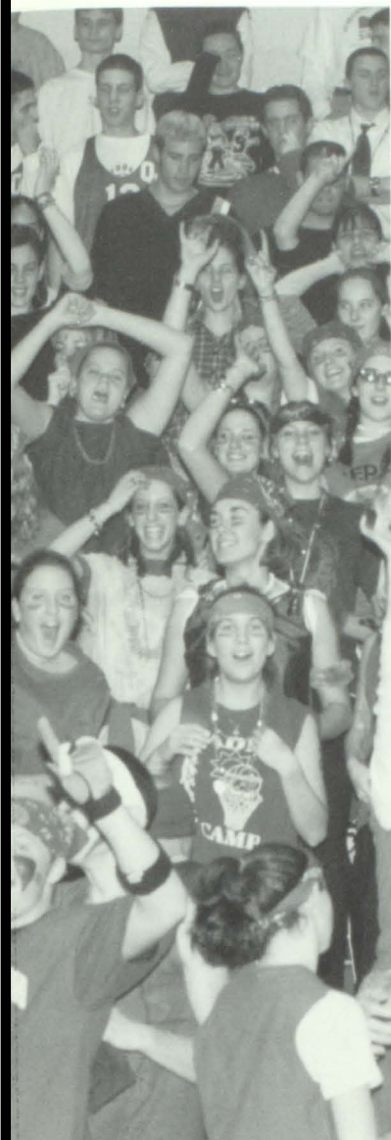

Below: They must have cheated! Junior boys pull out the tug-o-war championship.

Above: At the end of the rope, these girls are giving it all they've got.

Right: Stoic as ever, Zach Marcum prepares his partner, Cassandra Heath, for the 3-legged race.

Left: Chris Lewis does his best to stay standing as he searches for the jump rope.

Left: The sophomore boys put on their best face for the tug-of-war. I hope they can beat the freshman.

Right: Jenni Barret and Ben Bridges smile for the camera before a long night of dancing.

Below: Lori Davis gets her groove on all night long.

Right: Stacie Schlabach and Kyle Hanigosky boogie down!

Totally Backwards

Sadies 2001 was a ton of fun. For once, the guys got treated instead of the girls. They enjoyed their free dinner and a time to dance the night away. You know that the guys can't wait until next year so they can experience this all over again.

Left: Molly Renneker, Tracy Dean, Erin Tiernan, and Lindsey Robbins get together for a picture before they go and get their groove on.

Below: Zach Zimmer thinks hard about the next move he's going to make while dancing.

Right: Erin Lievestro and her father take a break from the fun to pose for the picture.

Right: Katie and Theresa Meier share their father for a night of dancing that they will always remember.

Right: David Shull and Joel Sackenheim steal the show at the Mom Prom. Look at those boys dance!

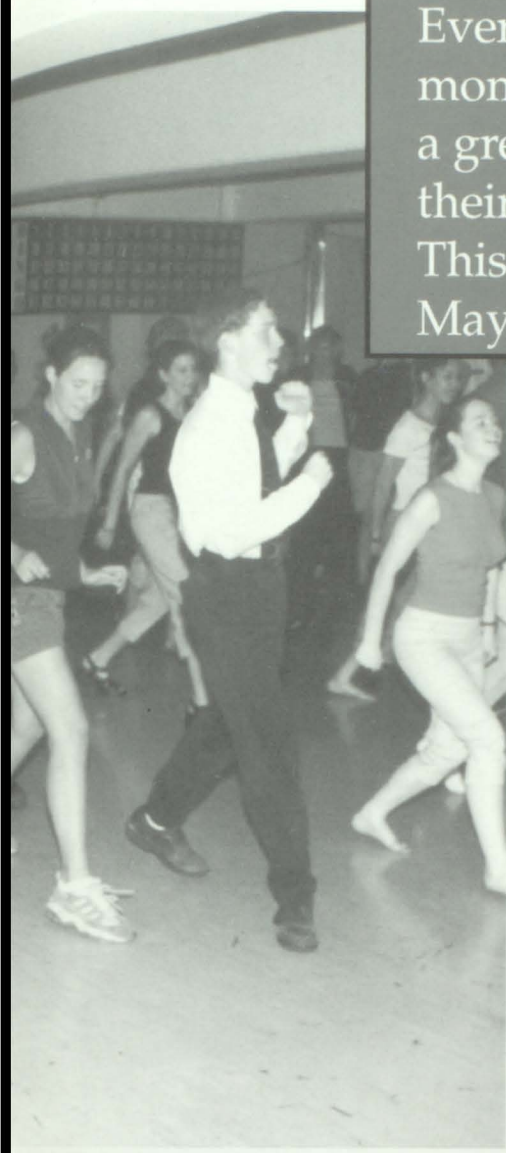

Below: Annie Schappacher and her father are all smiles when they were crowned king and princess at the dance.

Above: Mr. Filipek teaches his daughter how to do the twist and shout. Nice moves!

Spending Time With Our Families...

Every year Badin girls and guys take their dads and moms out for a nice night filled with dancing. This is a great time for daughters and sons to hang out with their parents when they might not normally do so. This year's Father/Daughter dance took place on May 4th and the Mom Prom on May 5th.

Grandparents' Day

This year's Grandparents' Day was another success. Along with many grandparents, Father Wurth returned to deliver a wonderful service. Thanks to MarySue Wright and all her helpers for the work they do!

Far Right: The congregation reflect on this Grandparents' Day's readings.

Below: Father Wurth sings aloud with the company of Jill Broerman and Nancy Weigand.

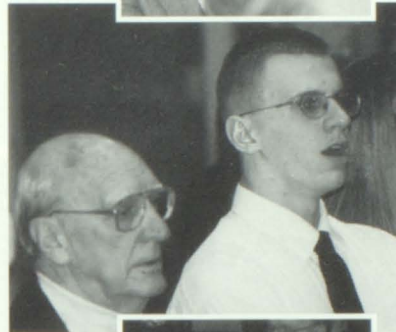

Above: Shawn Lehman and Katie Baker pose for a candid with their grandmother.

Right: Andy Sedlacek and Nancy Kessler show the joy of sharing breakfast with their grandparents.

Audiences were delighted in an evening of one-acts, which made their debut in February. Three plays were brought to the Little Theater: The Father Stephen T. Badin story (directed by Mr. Mark O'Hara), 110th Street Station (directed by Mrs. Jan Godbey), and This is a Test (directed by Mrs. Cathy Cook). Thanks to these directors and all the students for all the hardwork they put into entertaining the crowds.

Middle: Students who participated in the one-acts painted signs as a way to advertise the event. The wood for the event was graciously donated by Mark Sanders, owner of Butler County Lumber.

Right: Chris, played by Joel Sackenheim, flashes a code on the wall so his fellow students can get answers on "the test." Everyone seems to know the code except for Allen, of course, played by Zach Houser.

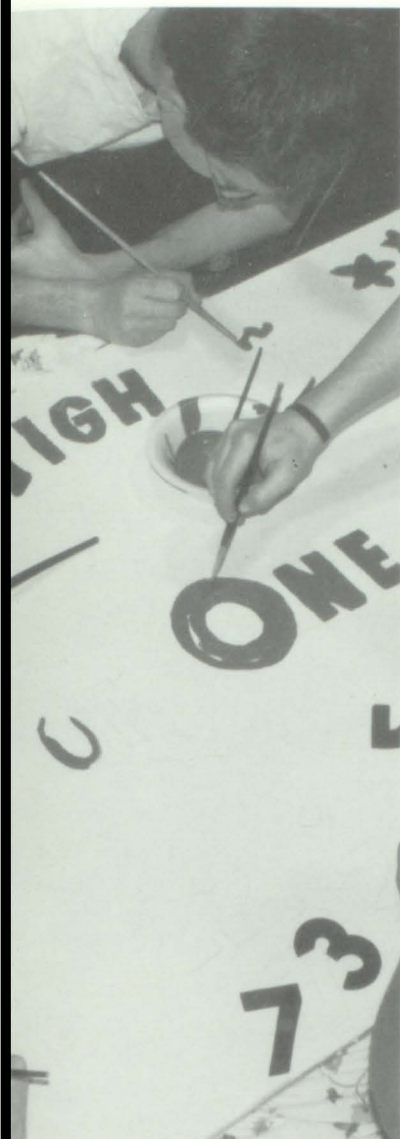

Above: Stacy Lickert and Lauren Beckman take a break during rehearsals.

Above: The band, led by Charlene Alfaro, plays an opening piece composed by Billy O'Hara.

Right: Here is the man who saved the day! Andy Pfister, who never acted before, stepped in to assume the role of Calvin in 110th St Station and a part of the chorus in This is a Test. Great job, Andy!

Below: Paul Smith dances to the YMCA in one of the most funny parts of This is a Test.

Left: Mike Ulanski, who played a bum named Grover in 110th St. Station, begs for some donations. Mike was hysterical! Nikki Woodall sits behind him knitting.

Left: Chris, played by Mark Alferts, asks his teacher for more paper. Isn't he a stud?

Left: In an emotional scene, Father Badin, played by Steve Ellis, gives the Last Rites to a little girl played by Stacy Lickert.

Left: Danielle Combs is quite the natural in 110th St. Station. She brought along some special talent to add to the show.

Right: Blaire Karg belts it out for the audience during the Godspell performance.

Right: Makeup time for Steph Streit before an evening performance.

Right: Senior Steve Ellis portrays Jesus being crucified.

Below: Don't do it Joel! Joel Sackenheim goes a little wild for the audience during a great performance.

Right: Sing it! Billy O'Hara shows us what a very talented voice he has by singing with his all.

Right: The Godspell techies: senior Jonh Taylor, sophomore Suzanne Mitchell, sophomore Scott O'Donahoe, and senior Brian Sipp put a lot of time and effort into the musical.

Right: Senior John Boehm preps himself for the play by putting on his multi-colored socks. They really add to the costume!

Right: The Godspell band: Mrs. Karen O'Hara, Billy O'Hara, Jeff Long, Tom Long, and Sammy Brandenburg pose for the camera.

Above: The parable "don't cast your pearls before swine" is being interpreted here by Erika Baden, Lora Robinson, and Amanda Sunderhaus.

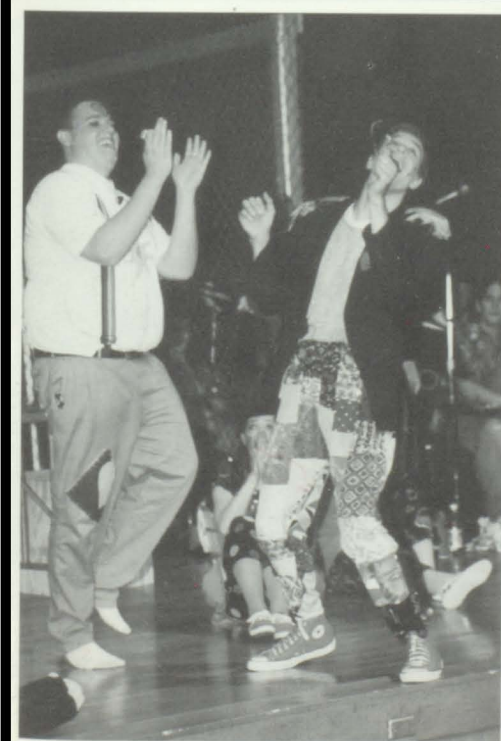

Getting in touch with ourselves...

The musical Godspell was performed at the Badin High School Little Theater on April 6, 7, and 8th. The crowds were good even considering the fact that the Catham Draw Down was the same night. There was a really good mesh of people, personalities, and experience levels.

Left: Let's Celebrate!
The entire cast of Godspell bows for applause after the conclusion of the musical.

Below: Joel Sackenheim enjoys his cigar.

Left: Steve Ellis and John Boehm dance and sing to the wonderful music and loosen up the atmosphere of acting.

Above: Blaire Karg, Lora Robinson, and Susie Bischoff are being a little crazy for the audience. Their props and costumes really add to the effect.

I've Had the Time of My Life

This year, the Junior/Senior Prom was held at the Radisson Hotel on May 26, 2001 with the theme of "I've Had the Time of My Life." A large crowd was present for the dance. A live band, Forehead, provided the music for the night. This year's King and Queen were Freddy (2 ft.) Minnick and Katie Meier. Many memories were made, all the way from a broken nose to ripped dresses to stepped on toes. This was a night that no one will forget.

Below: Queen Katie Meier and King Freddy Minnick dance to the theme song "I've Had the Time of My Life" while all eyes are on them.

Right: Juniors Justin Spoerl and Lindsay Robbins pose as they slow dance. This was the first prom for each of them.

Right: Seniors Kris Karwisch and Molly Brennan dance as they take a picture. Both went with other people, but they saved a dance for each other.

Right: Juniors Brandon Saurber, Erin Tiernan, and Tony Hudson all strike a pose during Prom, which was held at the Radisson Hotel.

Right: Students, like these four could take time to go to the cafeteria for a variety of foods and deserts.

After-hours party...

Prom is always an exciting time at Badin. Everyone looks forward to dressing up and dancing, but the fun doesn't end there. After prom is now a tradition in which students can go to hang out with friends, play some games, win some prizes, share some laughs, and make some unforgettable memories.

Left: Two students have fun bashing each other during their after prom.

Above: Senior Mark Koehler takes a swing with the sledgehammer on the car donated to Badin for our after prom.

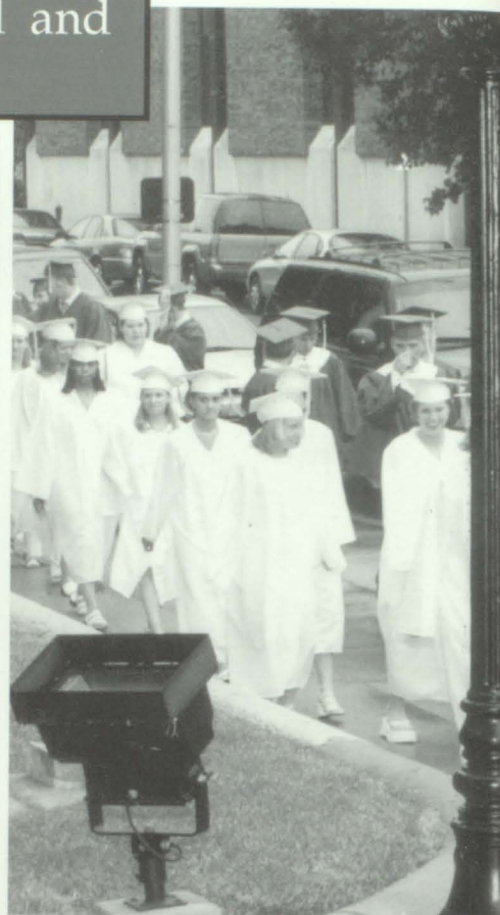

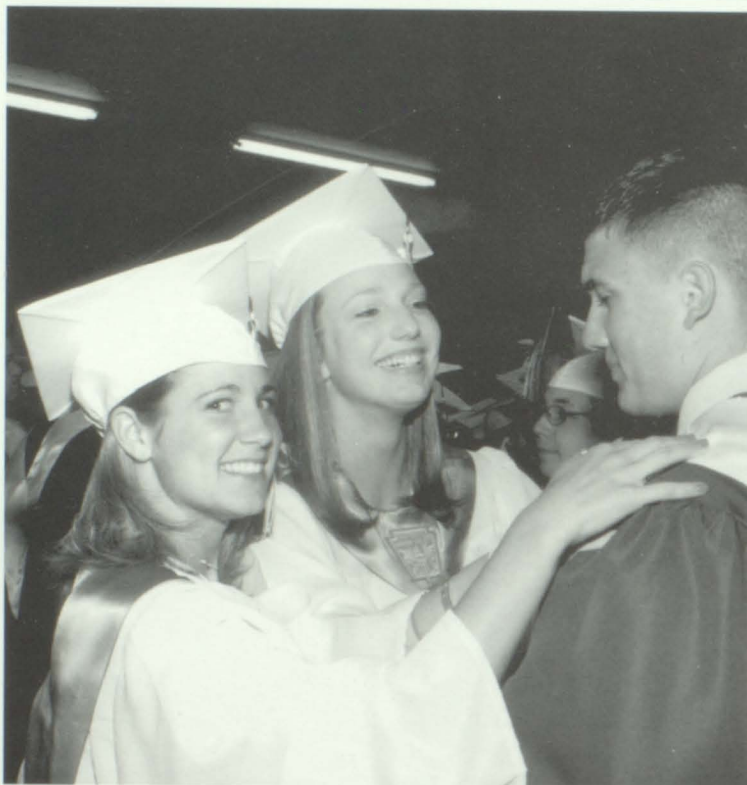

Our Faith is Now Our Own

The Baccalaureate Mass, held at St. Julie Billiard Church, provides an opportunity for all of the graduates to celebrate a final liturgy, marking the completion of four years at Badin. Family and friends attend the event and join the graduating class in worshipping God and showing thanks for a great four years at Badin.

Far right: The graduating class of 2001 lines up in front of St. Julie's church before the start of the mass.

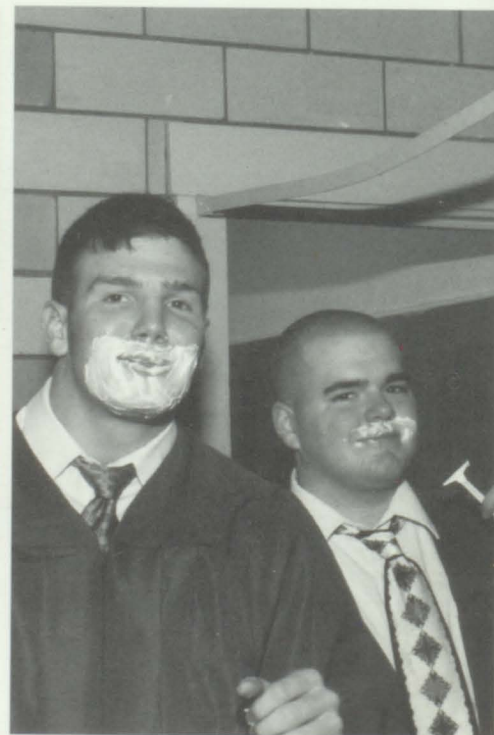

Right: Heather Schappacher and Stacie Schlabach get Michael Sackenheim straightened up for the ceremony.

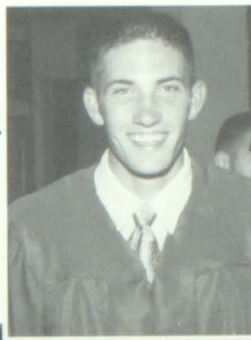

Below: Jon Slaughter leads family, friends, and fellow graduates in prayer.

Above: Natalie Zettler and John Klamo hand the bread and wine to Father Ken and servers Becca Onaitis and Reba Sedlacek before the consecration.

Right: Prior to the mass, Nate Bunce and Jon Jones are forced to shave any visible facial hair. All school rules still apply!

Left: Kim Tessein and Lynn Alfes are all smiles. Kim plans to attend the University of Cincinnati next year, and Lynn intends to continue her volleyball career.

Below: Jocelyn Benson, a D. Russel Lee student, accompanies Craig Breetz on the procession into the church.

Right: Jenny Austing processes out of the church a new graduate.

Right: Jill Broermann and Molly Brennan line up calmly before entering the church.

Right: Salutatorian Katie Meier talks to her fellow classmates about the life lessons they should have learned from Badin. (Rule #1: Falling up the stairs is ALWAYS better than fallin g down.)

Right: Sami Brandenburg and Katy Bowling show their excitement.

Right: Katie Haubner stands for recognition of her acadademic achievements.

Right: Rose Suttmilller smiles for the camera.

Right: Suzie Bischoff, Natalie Bolin, Jennifer Sergeant, and Nikki Woodall are led in singing the national anthem.

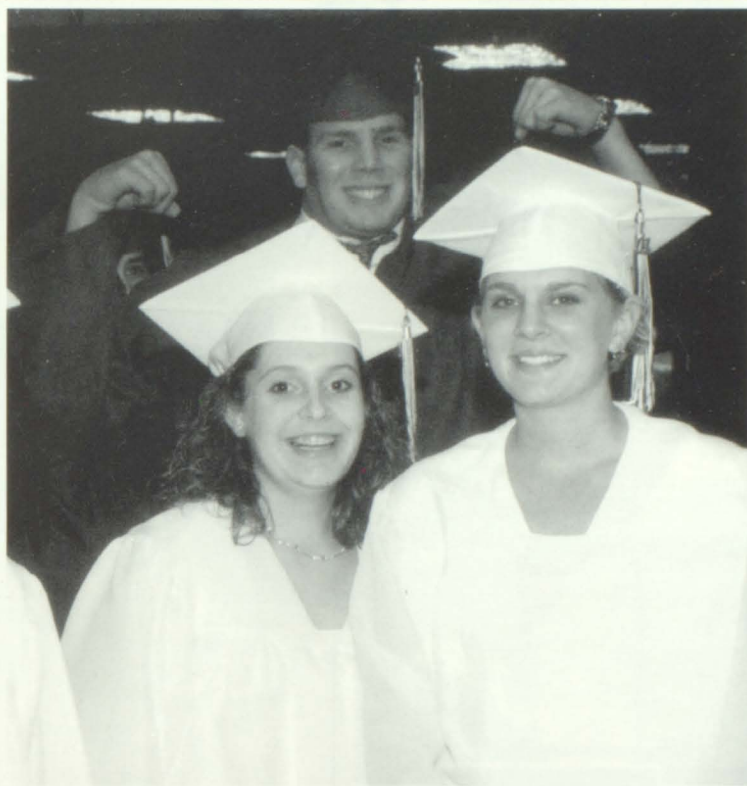

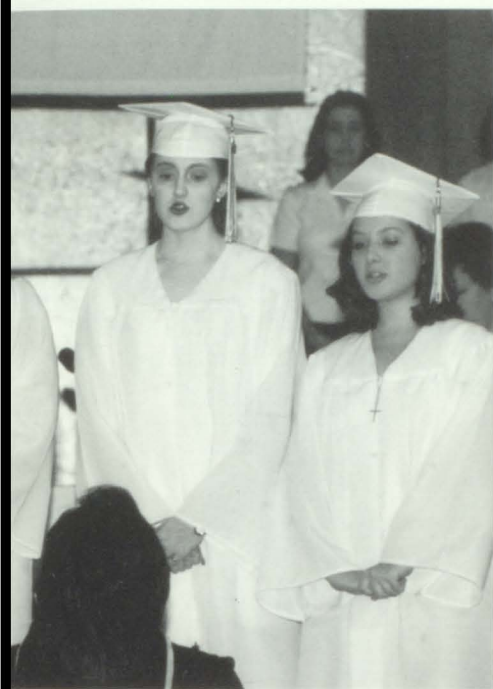

Below: Laura Roesch, a gold cord recipient, plans to attend Xavier University come fall.

Above: Brian Sipp, Jon Taylor, Andy Snyder, and Scott King don't seem to be too upset about the completion of their four years together.

The End of the Road

The four years spent at Badin came to a close on the first of June for the graduating class of 2001. Mr. Greg Jolivette was the guest speaker for the evening. Other speeches were given by Senior President Angela Vilkoski, salutatorian Katie Meier, and valedictorian Megan Fluckiger.

Left: Nicole Chamberlain and Maggie Bowden do not notice Nate Bunce showing off his muscles.

Below: Guest speaker Mr. Greg Jolivette shares his wisdom with the graduates. He discussed finding ways to open "locked doors" in our future.

Far right: Principal Margaret Winkeljohn offers words of congratulation before the commencement exercises begin.

Right: Jocelyn Benson, Elaine Becker, and Lauren Bates await the start of the ceremony.

Below: Class President Angela Vilkoski makes the first speech of the evening, welcoming all friends, family, and graduates.

Above: Brian Sipp and Jon Taylor flash their smiles for the camera.

Right: Valedictorian Megan Fluckiger receives the Archbishop McNicholas award. Megan plans to attend Vanderbilt University.

Left: Emily Holbrock receives recognition for her involvement in National Honor Society and for her attainment of the gold cord and honor diploma.

Below: Future Ohio State University student Jenny Rigling should be proud of her academic accomplishments.

Left: Seth Barrett and John Boehm patiently wait in the lobby of the church.

Left: Ashley Wuest smiles big when she receives her diploma. Ashley also was recognized for perfect attendance throughout her four Badin years.

Left: Recipient of the Stephen T. Badin award, Michael Sackenheim is well-deserving. Michael is attending the Air Force Academy in Colorado next year.

In Memory of

Mr. Ron Greulich

VOICES from friends

Dedication, service, and hard work. These are words that come to mind when members of the Badin family remember Ronald Greulich. Beginning at Notre Dame High School as a teacher and counselor, Mr. Greulich served Badin for nearly 40 years. During his long career he held positions that included interim psychologist, principal, vice-principal, and finally business manager until his retirement in 2000. Many who knew him well credit him with making Badin as financially secure as it is today. We will all remember Mr. Greulich as a hard-working man who was as dedicated to his work as he was to his family.

"Mr. Greulich worked tirelessly to provide a sound financial basis for Badin. His efforts moved teachers' salaries to a satisfactory level but yet kept tuition low. His knowledge of facts, both important and trivial, was amazing. His wit was very sharp and conversation was clever and amusing. His dedication and his personality will be missed."

- Mr. Scherl

"Mr. Greulich was always fair. He was a compassionate person. It didn't always show, but he sure was. He promised me that I could always put my family first, and he followed through with it."

-Mrs. Taggart

"Ron is going to be solely missed. He did a lot for Badin High School, and it is going to miss him an awful lot. He was a good friend of mine, and I'm going to miss him."

-Mr. Rains

"I most remember Mr. Greulich for his good sense of humor and for his support of me personally. He had a true love of Badin High School. He was very devoted to Badin. After his family, Badin was the most important thing in his life."

-Ms. Winkeljohn

"I remember most his uncanny ability to recall every world series winner and loser from the 1940's through the 1970's and how many games it went to."

-Mr. Renneker

"Mr. Greulich is one of the funniest, most well read and intelligent man I have ever known."

-Mr. Zimmerman

GOOD LUCK CLASS OF '01!

Fresh, fast and fun! The Great Steak & Fry Company serves up America's favorite menu items - chicken, steak, potatoes and salads the way you want them!

Our signature cheesesteaks and chicken sandwiches are grilled to order right in front of you. Every ingredient - from our freshly - baked buns to our garden vegetables to our USDA choice steak is fresh and lean.

Our baked potatoes are hot and wholesome, low in calories, high in potassium, vitamins, minerals and fiber. Loaded with your favorite topping, we know you'll find them satisfying and delicious.

Our famous fresh-cut fries are cooked in peanut oil - our secret for great taste and no cholesterol!

The Great Steak & Fry Company is committed to using only the finest ingredients to create salads, sandwiches and potatoes with the freshness you deserve, the nutrition you desire and the value you demand. The way you want it now!

Located in Beechmont Mall, Eastgate Mall, Florence Mall, Forest Fair Mall, Kenwood Towne Center, Northgate Mall, Tower Place, Tri-County Mall and the Cincinnati Airport.
