2002 RAMPAGES

WWW.STEPHEN-T-BADIN.CND.PVT.K12.OH.US

Drive by Badin High School, and you will immediately notice the changes occurring to the 35 year-old building. Walk through the front door, and the changes continue. Travel down the halls and into the classrooms, and change is very evident. Even though change is everywhere, the Badin tradition of faith and courage has remained.

a time for transformations

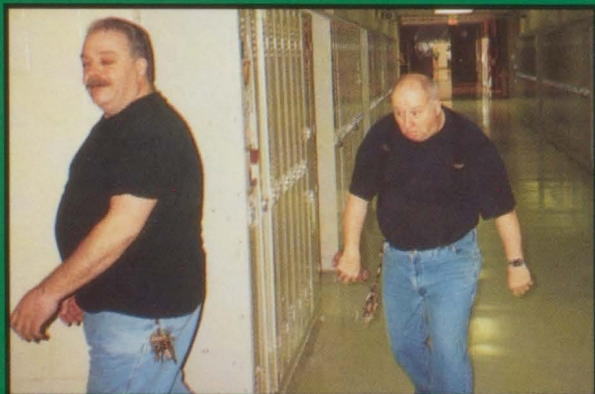

One of the largest additions to the building, the Spirit Shop allows students to purchase Badin paraphernalia throughout the year. This undertaking was made possible by the generosity of several members of the Badin community.

Changes for the good of many

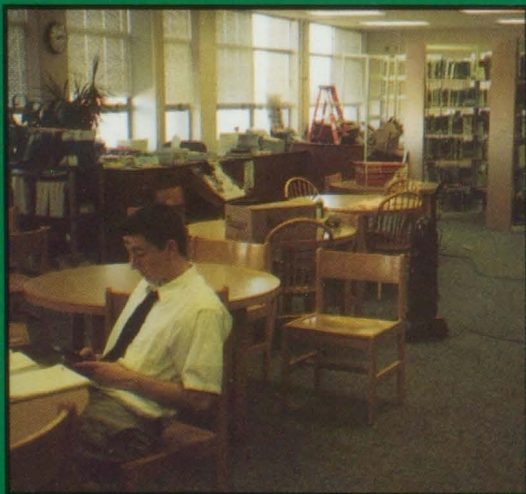

While many of us (students) won't be at Badin much longer to enjoy all the changes taking place, we should all be proud to be here at such an exciting moment in school history. Countless students and staff will benefit from the transformation occurring. However, despite a fresh and new Badin, some things remain unchanged. Enjoy the brand new additions, soon-to-be changes, and the unchangeable elements of Badin High!

The janitorial service of James and Phil has remained strong for countless years and is not likely to change any time soon.

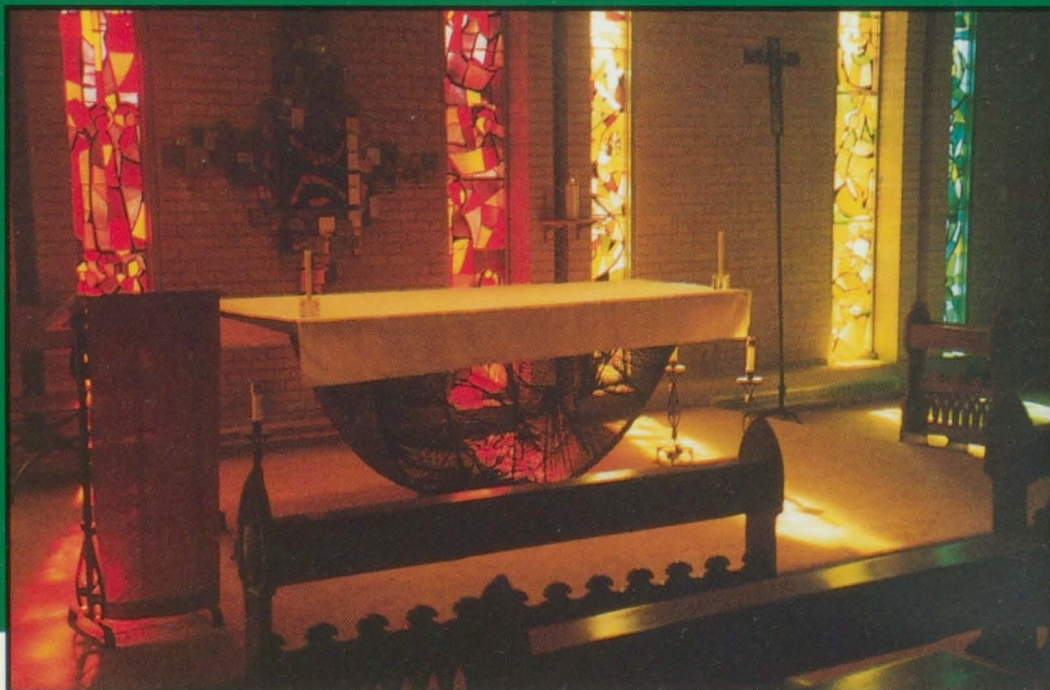

Mr. McCabe's DECA room is now furnished with a row of state-of-the-art computers.

The chapel, soon to be renovated, has been at the heart of Badin faith for years.

Senior Chris Guiliano utilizes the new Media Center. From a large donation and countless hours of work, the "new library" was born.

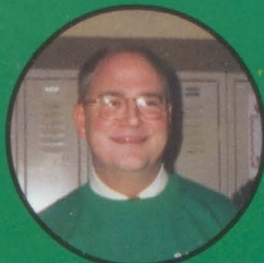

what U thought...

Mrs. Taggart

"The comraderie is the same. Badin is a community and I like that. The upgrading of the library and the computers have also been added to the Badin community."

Mr. Allen

"Badin may be smaller than it once was, but it is still going on strong and doing big things."

Mrs. Collins

"I don't think the students have changed... Students will always be students. The methods of teaching involve more technology. I also think students throughout the years have become way more involved."

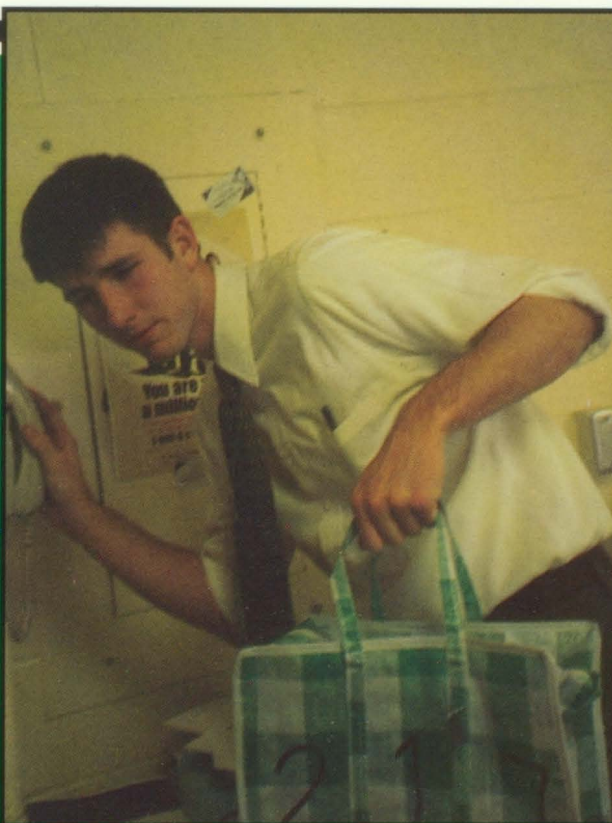

Ms. Krochmalny

"I've been here a year and a half, and we got new steps. On a serious note, junior retreat has been a great new addition. (That's what Mrs. Helms would like me to say!!!)"

Mrs. Taggart's bookstore sign remains unchanged after years of duty.

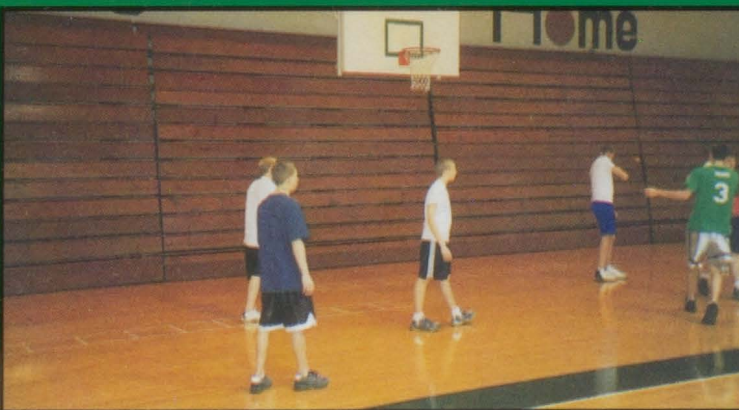

The new carpet in the DECA rooms is just another one of the many changes within the classrooms.

Senior Zach Marcum displays fine technique on the new emergency crisis and fire drill plan that was established in the past few years.

Junior Christy Calvert (with ashes intact) shows the inside of her locker. Badin lockers have with-held years of use and countless layers of paint.

Take a close look at these bleachers...they won't be there for long. In March 2002, a new set of bleachers will line the walls of the Mulcahey Gym.

what U thought...

Mike Wolfram

"About a year ago, my band Familia started up. I play the bass. We haven't had any gigs in town, though, because we have a cd coming out in about three months."

Steve Palliconi

"I fly remote control planes in the Joyce Park Flying Club. We usually do it over the summer, just because it is too cold and snowy in the winter."

Lea Ogard

"I went to Buenos Aires, Argentina from August 2000 to June 2001. I got to travel a lot and experience all the different cultures down there."

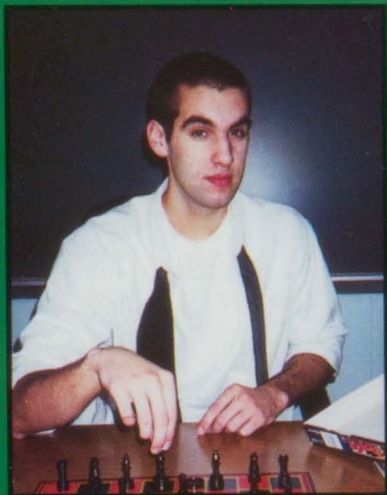

Brian Gleason

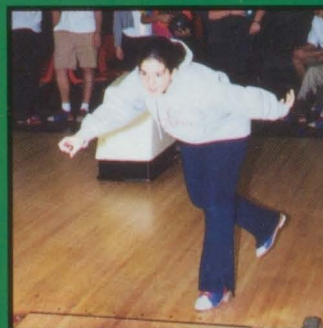

"I like to go hunting on the weekends. Usually its deer, squirrel, and rabbit out at my uncle's house in Indiana."

Ready to skate, Jennifer Kirk prepares to go out on the ice.

David Shull concentrates as he prepares to make his next chess move.

about time for you to be you

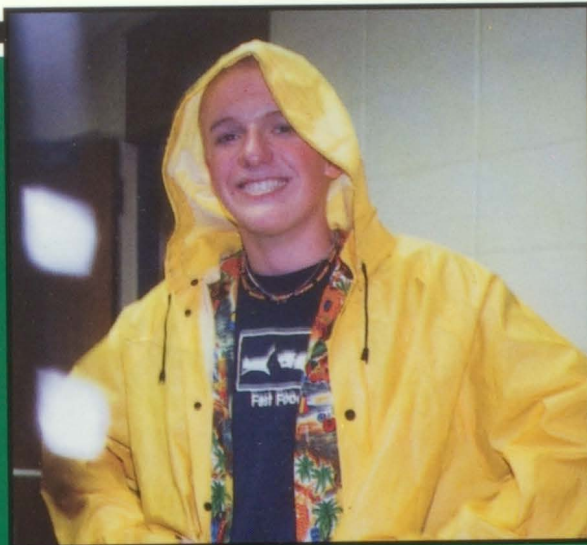

Individuality is all about you!

What do you do that makes you unique? There is something about everyone that makes them a special individual. It doesn't matter what it is as long as you enjoy doing it. All of these students participate in something that makes them an individual, and they have fun while doing it!

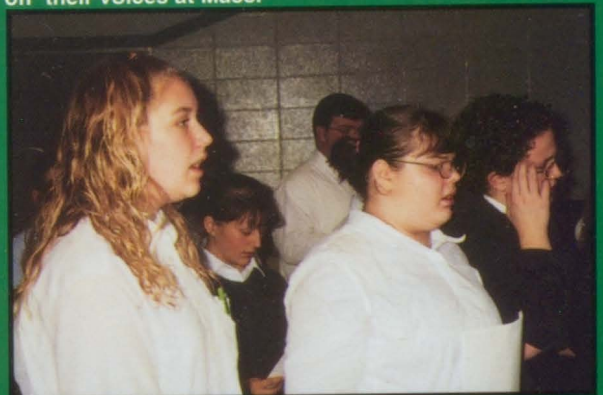

Paula Miller gets ready to dance the Mexican folkloric dance with the Hispanic Youth Group of Hamilton.

Ty Ehrnschwender suits up in his raincoat for his one-act play.

Jamie Lawson, Amy Schutte, and Lindsey Harrison show off their voices at Mass.

Mark Alfes and Graham Crain look on amazed as Bret Noonan takes a dive in the pool over the summer.

Jill Hoelle and Becca Onaitis look a little pale while they clean their faces with mud masks.

a time for dedication to others

Mrs. Wright

Mrs. Wright is very worthy of this dedication because of her high level of involvement at Badin. She graduated in 1971, and a few years later she was back. Marysue was a volunteer who headed a number of activities and clubs, including the alumni club, homecoming parades, golf tournaments, and she even acted as a substitute teacher. Mrs. Wright's volunteer efforts led to her being hired in 1991 as Director of Development.

From freshman year in 1968 to senior year in 1971 Marysue Bruner was very involved at Badin High School.

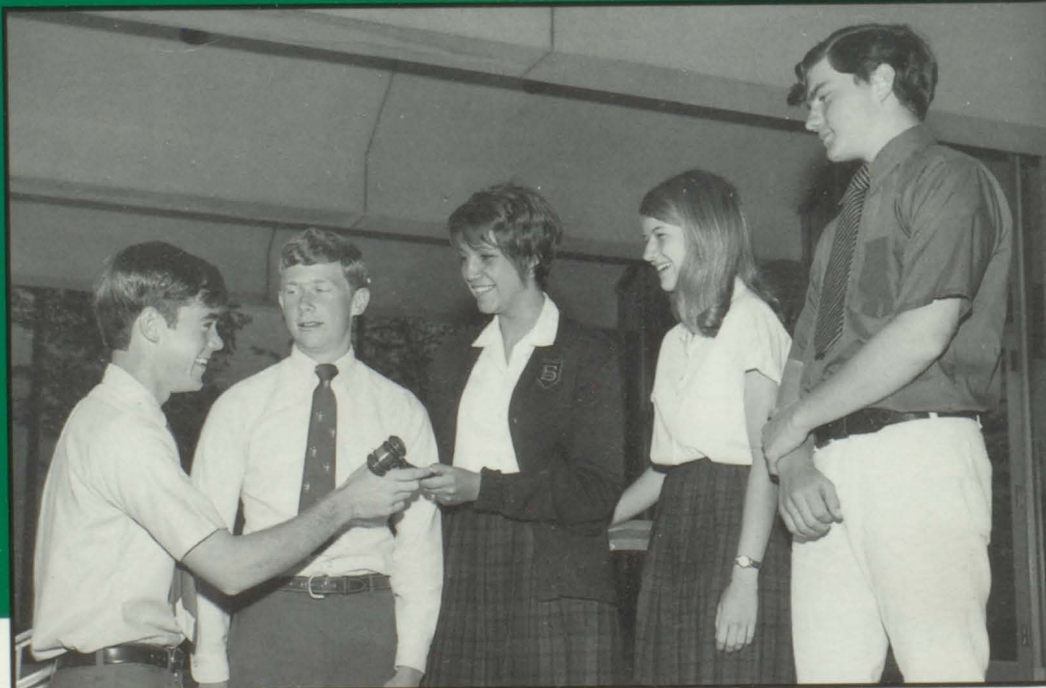

Marysue headed the canned food drive even when she was in high school. She was already directing and getting things organized.

Below: Here Marysue is officially being handed her title from the former student council president.

Above: Here Marysue was the newly-elected student council president.

what ^U thought...

Christy Calvert

"I have enjoyed being an ambassador and working with Mrs. Wright, because she cares a lot about the students. She is the epitome of Badin pride."

Mike Wolfram

"If I were a woman, I would want to be just like her."

David Meiner

"Mrs. Wright is always there to help students when they need her. She is always heading activities that turn out great, and it is always a learning experience working with her."

Vanessa Turco

"Mrs. Wright is a very busy woman who keeps her cool when things get hectic. She is a great leader and role model for students"

Below: Working at her desk in 1996, Mrs. Wright had a lot of work to do, like starting the Development Department.

Below: Mrs. Wright at Mom Prom in 1996. She always went all out when it came to her kids, and it shows here.

Mrs. Wright at Grandparents Day in 1995. As the Director of Development, she has given a few speeches at her job.

what U thought...

Elise Beckett

"My friends have not changed since freshmen year, but they kept adding on. With sports and Clubs, I have met many different people that are very special to me. I'll never forget anyone. I will keep my friends at BHS after I go to U.C."

Rick Pate

"Now that I'm in high school I have realized who my real friends are, because they stayed with me through good times and bad."

Ellen Browe

"My friends have changed, because most of them now have boyfriends, and they act like they are married."

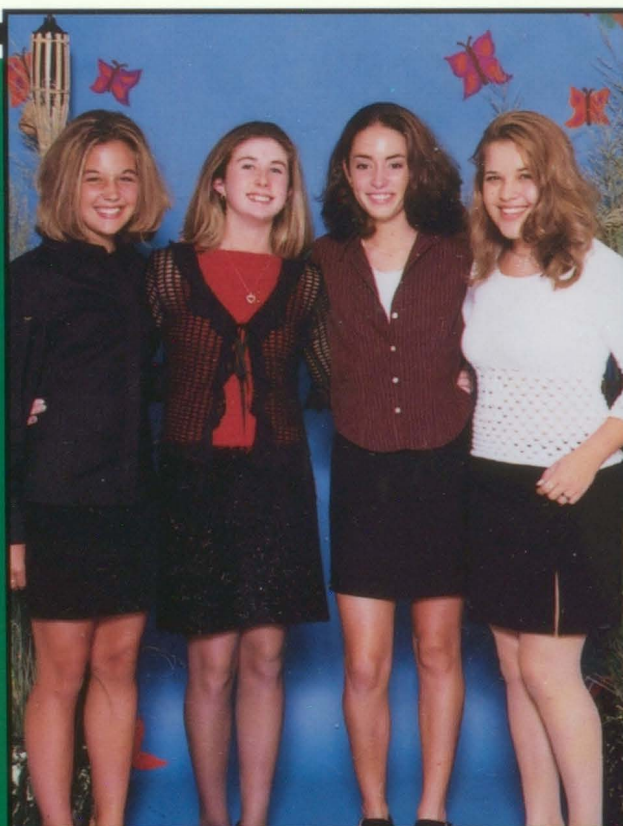

Jackie Reed

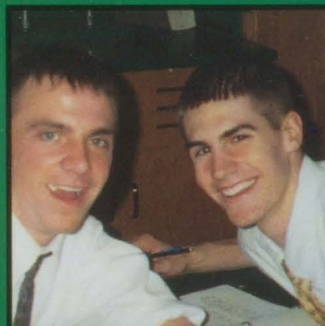

"I have kept some of my same friends from grade school, but I have also made many new."

Right: Freshmen, Alex Bowling, Kristy Wooten, Kelly Baker, and Nicole Campbell join together as friends for a group picture as they help serve drinks at the Homecoming dance.

Below: Maria Olivas, Elizabeth Gadaleta, Molly McCaughey, Maria Alatorre, Amanda Fritz, and Caroline Koehler have become good friends by being together swimming.

Sophomores, Robby Gilreath and John Stritholt have become friends this year by being in the same science class.

Juniors Danielle Wallace, Lindsay Kramer, Courtney Kuzma, and Natalie Nichting have a blast together at the bonfire with many other friends.

Juniors, Dave Ramminger, Mike Ulanski, Brian Evers, and Chris Thomas spend lots of time together during school and also outside of school since they have become friends.

it's about fun and friendships

It's all about the relationships!

Friends are people you can always trust and depend on through good times and bad. As we grow in life, our friends sometimes change, but you never forget the old friends when the new come along. Friends are friends for a lifetime.

Seniors, Bret Noonan, John Carey, Nate Webb, Spencer Swigart, and Brian Sunderhaus have become closer friends during their senior year.

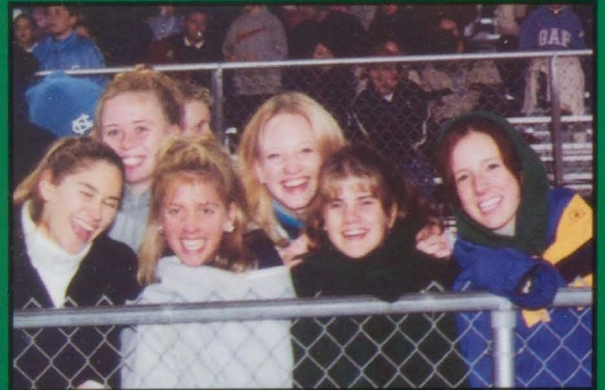

Seniors, Natalie Waters, Megan Filipek, and Megan Brinkman root the football team on for another victory.

Freshmen, Drew Maus, Jonathon Jones, Nick Wetta, Alex Raible, Brian Jett, Kyle Pfirman, and Brian Dirheimer have built their friendship during their first year of high school.

a time for spirit and competition

The true nature of a RAM shows

Spirit and pride define Badin at its best. With the Spirit Shop up and running, students and other Ram fans will be able to show their spirit. Due to the pride and commitment that several people have in the school, Badin has been blessed with large donations and unconditional support throughout the Capital Campaign. We are a true example of what can be done with a little trust and enthusiasm.

Ms. Krochmalny and her junior students (Sean McKnight, Cara Hardig, Craig Kleeberger, and Stacey Beadle) show their spirit in the Lenten mission by constructing a tower out of the mission boxes.

Chris Ahn, Amy Schutte, Michelle Kessler, Jeff Dean, Scott O'Donohoe, and Andrew Mabry, all members of the one acts, have pride in their drama skills.

what U thought...

Andy Guidugli

"I try to cheer up people when they're sad and pump them up about going to Badin... because Badin is #1!"

Lindsey Pfirman

"I help people realize how much Badin means to us. I also help them have good memories of their high school life."

Craig Kleeberger

"I go to Badin sporting events, and I participate in Badin activities... I love going to Badin!"

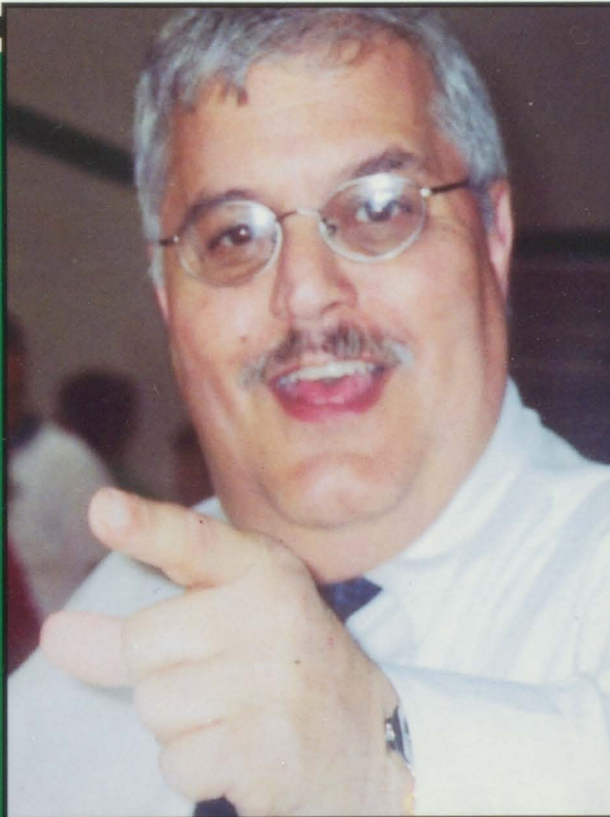

Reba Sedlacek

"I try to get others involved and show pride in the school that we attend."

Mrs. Helms and Mrs. Jeffcoat ride in style during the Homecoming parade. These young gals display Badin spirit at its best.

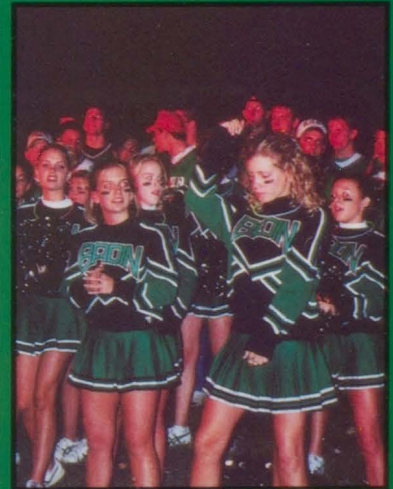

A group of Sophomores get fired up about a pep rally!

Mr. DeAngelo, the epitome of Badin pride, shows his enthusiasm for having the priveledge to teach Badin students.

The cheerleaders, including senior Emily Fenning and junior Angie Koenig, help to make the football bonfire a success!

These seniors show mixed feelings about being at an assembly. Is that Chris Sutton yawning?

what U thought...

Jonathon Jones

"Moving from grade school to high school is more physically and mentally demanding. The atmosphere is more up beat and stressful. You're always thinking about what kind of impression you make on teachers and peers."

Vanessa Turco

"Badin has inspired me to become a better person and to make wise decisions. It has opened me to a world of opportunities."

Chase Lampl

"Going to Badin has allowed me to not only think inside the box but to think outside as well."

Lindsey Robbins

"Badin has helped me change spiritually through teachers, friends, and Kairos."

Below: During Black History Month, Mrs. Edwards came to share her story of how growing up as a minority has affected her life in the past, present, and future.

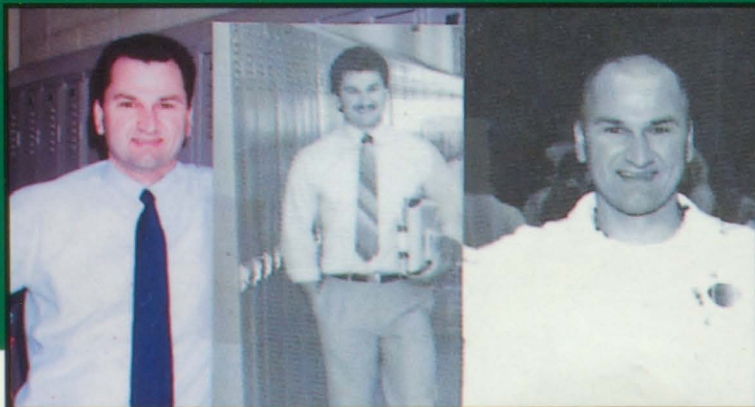

David Shull not only looks tall, but at a height of 6'6", he stands just inches above the lockers and he's still growing!

From freshman year, Megan Tobergte has not only changed physically, but she has grown spiritually and emotionally within her four years here at Badin.

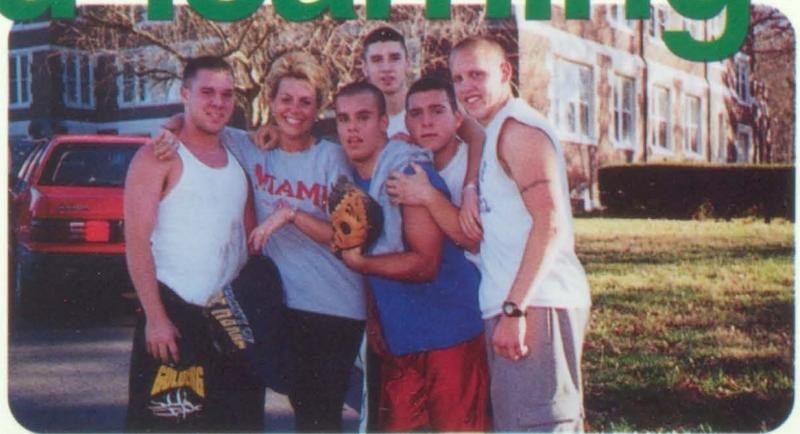

Mr. Mignery has always stood as a great figure head at Badin, but this year he wants to be known as Mr. "Joe Cool."

it's about growth and learning

Making Changes

Throughout high school, many changes for individuals will come along. While at Badin, change for students and teachers is inevitable. Some may not change a lot physically, but they will grow both spiritually and emotionally. Many times the best changes come from learning from one another.

Although they've spent the past four years together on the football field, Mrs. Cook, Drew Thieken, Tony Nichting, John Carey, Justin Sporel, and Mitch Vocke get to know and learn more about each other at Kairos.

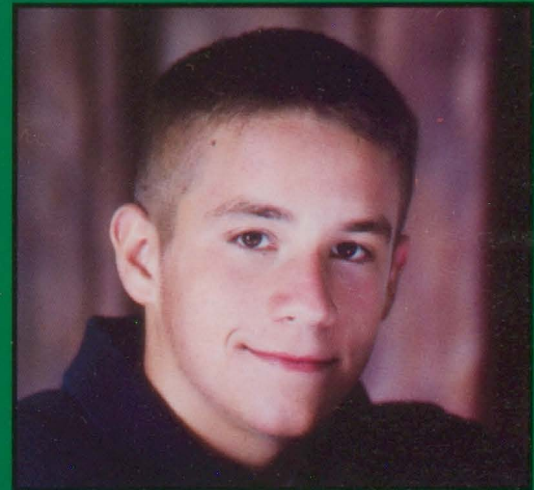

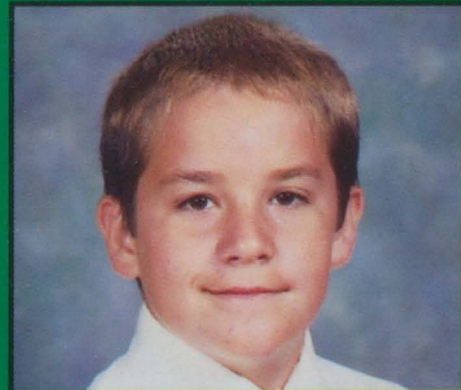

Right: In the beginning of her sophomore year, Lizzie Morris transferred to Badin from Summit Country Day. Her experience here has helped her to learn and grow. Before she was the only one on the school swim team, and this year she was opened to a team and relay at districts.

Below: In all of the years Ms. Winkeljohn has been here, she learns and grows everyday within the Badin atmosphere.

Below: Over the last four years, Jeff Heinrich has gone through definite changes from his freshman year to his senior year.

a time for homecoming

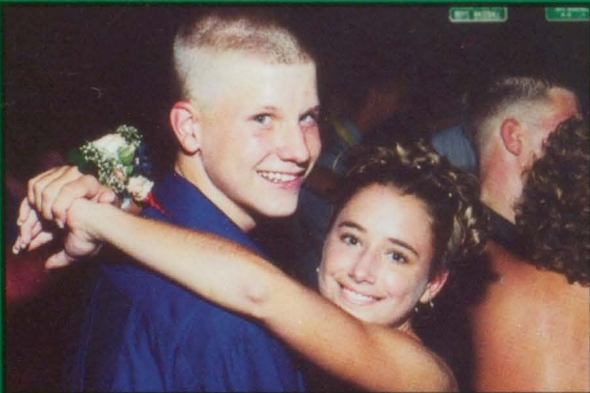

"Could not ask for More"

Homecoming was on Sunday, September 23. There was much preparation, from decorating the gym to many shopping trips and hair appointments, to the football game, and to the last minute jibberies. Although we had much to do to get prepared, the dance turned out a success. Sarah Grah was crowned Queen and many memories were made that special night.

Junior David Meiner and Senior Amanda Margello enjoy a night of dancing after going to Bravo's for dinner.

Seniors Matt Bretz and Megan Collins dance close during the theme song "Could Not Ask for More."

Homecoming Court
Reba Sedlacek, Pat Shermer, Chryl Saurber, Tyler Gattermyer, Queen Sarah Graf, Ben Leuholt, Lindsay Robbins, Justin Speerl, Molly Renneker, Gary Roberts

Kym Fieherer and Darby Mahue, both sophomores, take a break from dancing and their dates to show how much fun they are having at their first homecoming.

what U thought...

Emily Fenning

"I had just as much fun getting ready with my friends as I did at the dance itself."

Ashley Myers

"A group of my freinds and I went to get our hair done together. I really like the way the lady put it up. I'd definitely go there again."

Molly Zoz and Molly Kugler

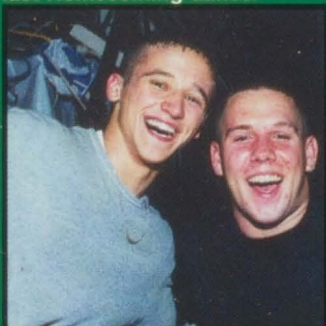

"We went to Nail Expo to get our nails done for the dance. We went there, because we wanted to have a large variety of designs to choose from."

Julie Mayer

"I had a great time at Homecoming. It was sad knowing that it would be my last time at a Homecoming dance since I am a Senio. It definetely was filled with good times."

Seniors Brandon Saurber and Drew Theiken show their exciment as one of their favorite songs is played during their last Homecoming dance.

Homecoming Queen Sarah Graf and Mr. and Mrs. Graf pose after Sarah was crowned Queen on September 22nd.

Jeff Benzing and Maria Brock, both sophmores, dance and show how much fun they are having together.

what U thought...

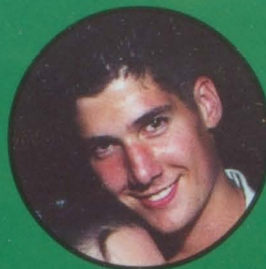

Matt Hogan

"Overall Homecoming was a good time, except I thought that the music could have been better."

Tyler Gattermeyer

"Chreyl, my date and girlfriend, was on Homecoming court, which made it a very different and exciting time."

Ricky Clark

"Homecoming was a blast."

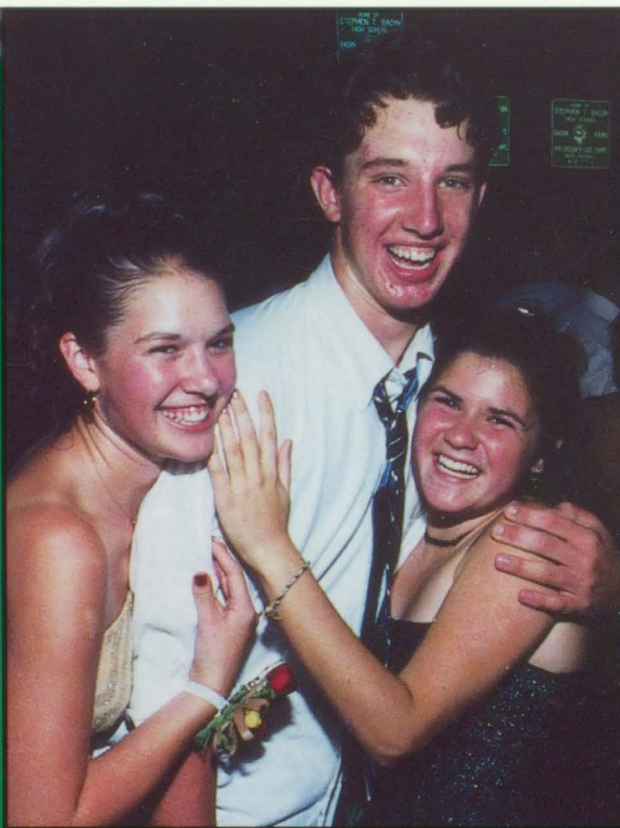

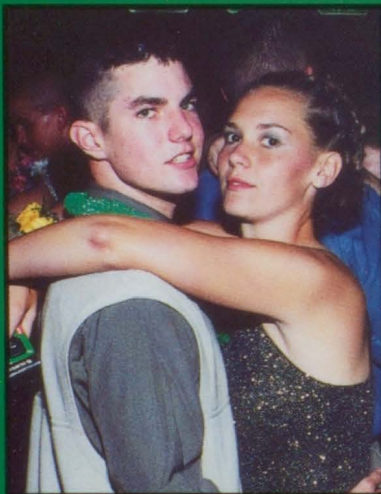

Ben Leuthold

"The dinner food was great, and I had fun with the Queen."

Juniors, Sarah Morner and Beth Jolivet show their excitement to see an old friend, Gordon Erdnt.

Senior Bret Fiehrer and junior Alica Brewer slow down and hold each other close after going to a good dinner with a very large group of friends.

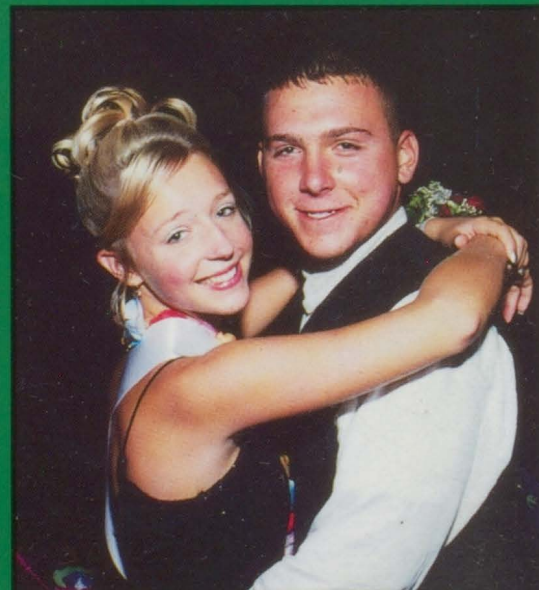

Sophmores Kristen Schneider and Emily Falk have a great time while attending their first Homecoming dance.

After attending all previous Badin dances together, Seniors Lindsay Robbins and Justin Sorel spend their last Homecoming Dance together.

Leslis Eickleberger, Cindy Goffena, Lindsay Theiken, Annie Schappacher, Molly Kugler, Jill Hoelle, and Ashley Myers join to take a picture while many cameras flash from different directions. Once again, they are all lost and confused.

it's about dinner and dancing

The boogie fever baby!

Music floated through the air as couples and friends took to the dance floor to put their dancing shoes to the test. The day-long preparation it took to look this beautiful in their eveningwear definitely paid off. Cinderella and Prince Charming don't have anything on these dancing-lookers!

The wide variety of personalities came together and enjoy a slow dance together.

Sophomore Jenny Meehan and Senior Megan Brinkman express the unity that is throughout our school.

Senior Steph Weber and David Mergy make their last Badin Homecoming an unforgettable night.

it's all about... seniors

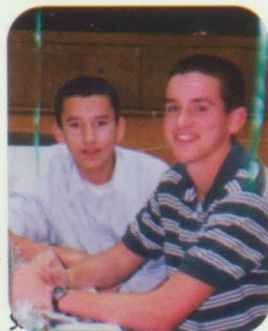

2002: The Purple Mafia

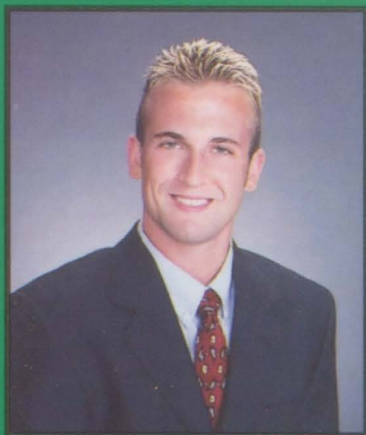

Over the past four years, the class of 2002 has transformed the tough times they have been through into a great atmosphere with tons of class unity. Kairos is one of the things that has given them the opportunity to create strong bonds with new friends and become involved with new activities while supporting others in all they do.

Here's to the future!

Their last goodbyes...

All the members of the graduating class are happy about moving onto new things in their lives. Some will continue their education at colleges and some will join the armed services. Others will go straight into the work force and begin their careers. No matter what they end up doing they will take with them the memories and friendships they have made throughout their four years at Badin.

MY FAVORITE VACATION....

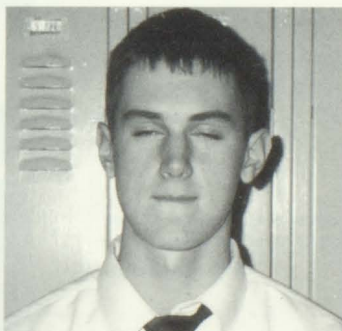

Going to Callaway Garden, Georgia was my favorite vacation. There was a lot to do there, like swim, golf, waterski, and do tricks on the trapeeze.

Alexander Woeste

My favorite vacation was St. Augustine, Florida, because it's an old town and everything there is antique.

Michelle Pallazza

I have never been to Europe, but if I had the chance, I would like to visit Amsterdam because of the culture and the Dutch language.

Chris Vinning

I liked going to Orange Beach, Alabama because you can walk from Alabama to Florida every night.

Favorite Shops At The Mall

American Eagle

I like American Eagle, because I always find something I like to wear, and their clothes express me well.

Spencer's is one of my favorite places in the mall, because it's fun to read all of the funny cards there.

John Stritholt (right)

Express

I like to shop at Express, because the clothes there are trendy, and their style brings out my personality.

April Head (bottom left)

Wet Seal

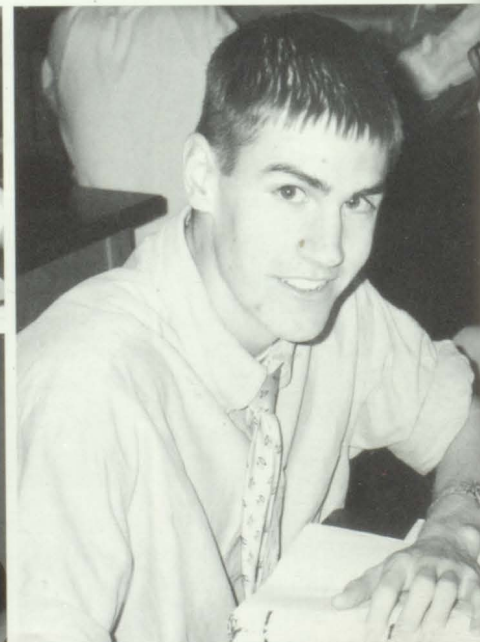

I shop at Wet Seal because their clothes are more updated and cute.

"Freshman year is much more than I expected it to be. It's hard. I enjoy the freedom that Badin offers while also giving us responsibility."

Chad McKinney

"Badin is totally opposite from what I expected it to be. There is a bigger group of friends, and the building is just big in general."

Lindsey Schlabach

"Badin is different from grade school in that there are more opportunities. The teachers care a lot about the students through showing concern toward academics and making them good people."

Linda Wimmers says, "My first day teaching at Badin was rather chaotic because, I started in November, taking over for a teacher on maternity leave. I remember being very impressed by the welcoming attitude of my new students."

When Dirk Q. Allen was in high school, he always dreamed of being a prosecuting attorney.

Jan Godbey says, "In high school I danced for fun, and I was always the first one out on the dance floor at my high school dances. Many of my friends and I were in the school's show choir, so we danced even more!"

When asked what he did in high school for fun Steve Smith said: "I participated in my two favorite sports:
wrestling and track. Of course, I also enjoyed going to football and basketball

Mr. Mignery, judge of the tug-of-war at the spirit olympics, always makes the contest more dramatic by adding his enthusiasm.

The teachers and Wink go all out showing their wild side at the fall bonfire. They can dress just as crazy as their students can!

The office staff: Mrs. Ungerbuehler, Ms. Cynthia Robison, Mrs. Gersbach, and Mrs. Bley.

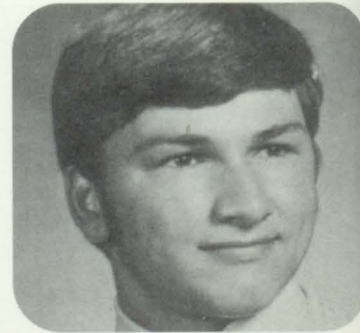

Mrs. Cook practically owned the Rave hairspray company when she was in school at Badin. Big bangs were in then! Mrs. Cook's favorite teacher in high school was Mr. Renneker whom she idolized greatly.

Mrs. Heinrich went to an all girls high school and she planned on being a history teacher when she got out of college.

Mrs. Niehaus says, "I had to work most evenings in high school at the local grocery store. I had fun riding in the carts after work. I also enjoyed swimming and skating."

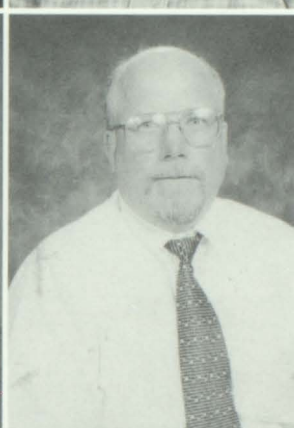

Mr. Mignery was a graduate of Badin High school. He was a very important member of the football team.

it's all about... clubs

The will to never stop learning

Clubs exist not only as a desire to help others, they also expand the will to learn about new things at all times.

“ Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world; indeed it's the only thing that ever has. ”

YEARBOOK

Top Row: J. Schlabach, C. Calvert, M. Zoz, M. Kugler, M. Filipek, H. Huesing, K. Rains, K. Baker; Bottom Row: L. Saurber, M. Renneker, K. Groh, J. Stettler, Z. Marcum, Mrs. Cook, K. Rapien, G. Vaughn, B. Onaitis, C. Karas

Beginning with an extensive application process, followed by a summer training camp and culminating with the expenditure of over $40,000, this group publishes a history of our school. The designing, photography, writing and deadlines combine with financial successes to make this an outcome-based educational process. And, we have fun, too!

Some of the publications staff sits down for a meal while at the summer yearbook workshop.

The Badin publications staff creates a design for the front cover of the Rampage 2001-2002 yearbook.

Junior Molly Kugler laughs as she tries to think of unique yearbook captions.

Mrs. Cook and Greg Vaughn eat their daily bag of popcorn.

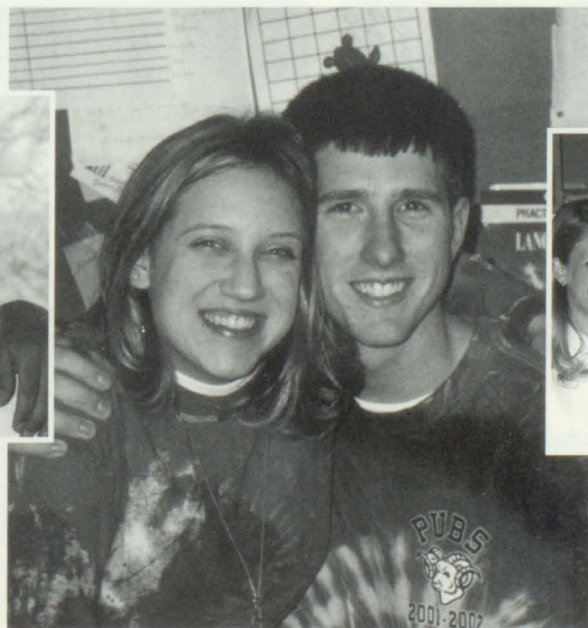

Juniors Katie Rains, Molly Zoz, and Christy Calvert join in the fun at the Badin-a-thon.

Senior editors Becca Onaitis and Zach Marcum show off their publications staff shirts on a green and white day.

Student council members work hard to make the necessary changes to benefit the student body.

Some junior members develop plans and goals for the remainder of the year at the Student Council retreat.

During a skit at the Student Council retreat, juniors Beth Jolivette and Christy Calvert lead their group in a reenactment of the Badin Dance Team.

Senior members Steph Weber and Sarah Graf work diligently over the computer during a summer meeting.

Steph Weber, Tracy Dean, Sarah Graf, Lindsay Saurber, Cassandra Heath, and Allison Thurman (all senior members) take a much-needed break from the busy retreat schedule.

SENIOR STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS

The senior student council members lead the school to change by being examples of responsibility.

Freshmen members will learn the ropes and become aware of what needs to be done this first year on council.

Some hopeful freshmen display their interest in Badin's Student Council by attending a summer information gathering.

Most sophomore student council members have experienced one year of council, and they know what to do.

it's all about... sports

Victory or defeat...still a "win"

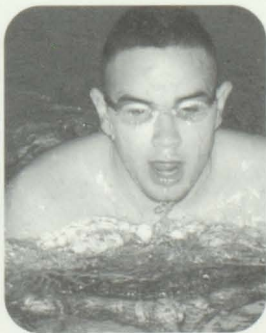

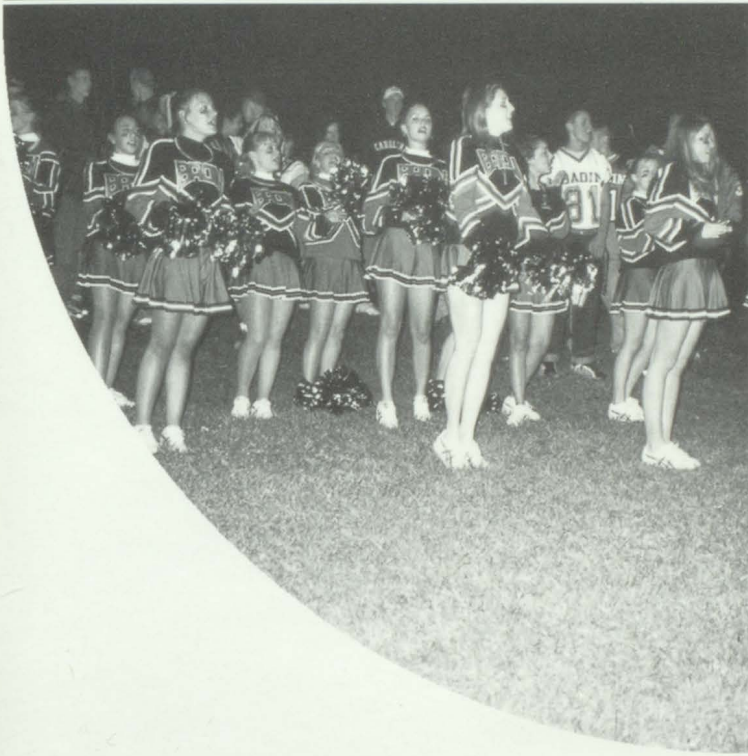

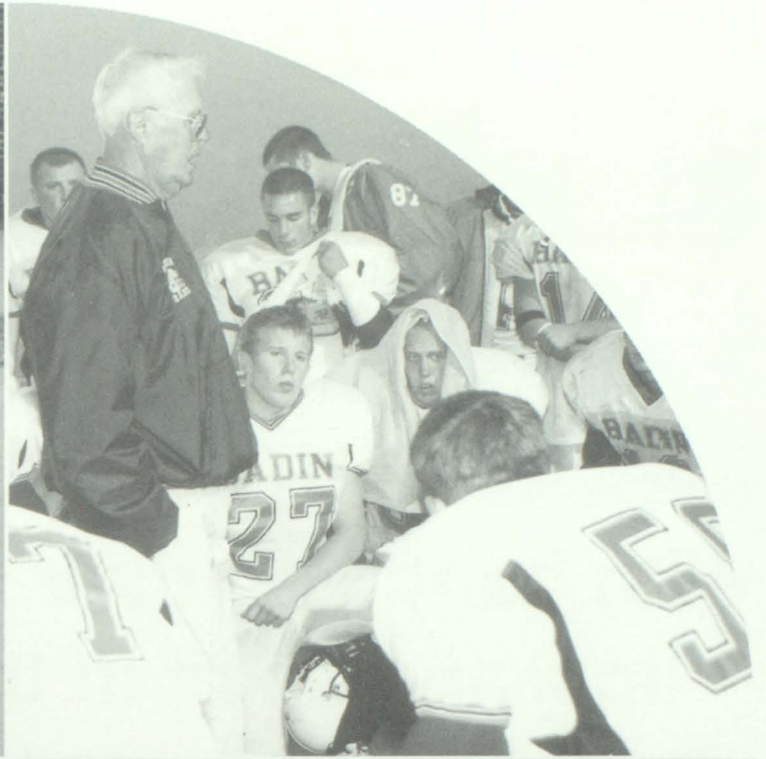

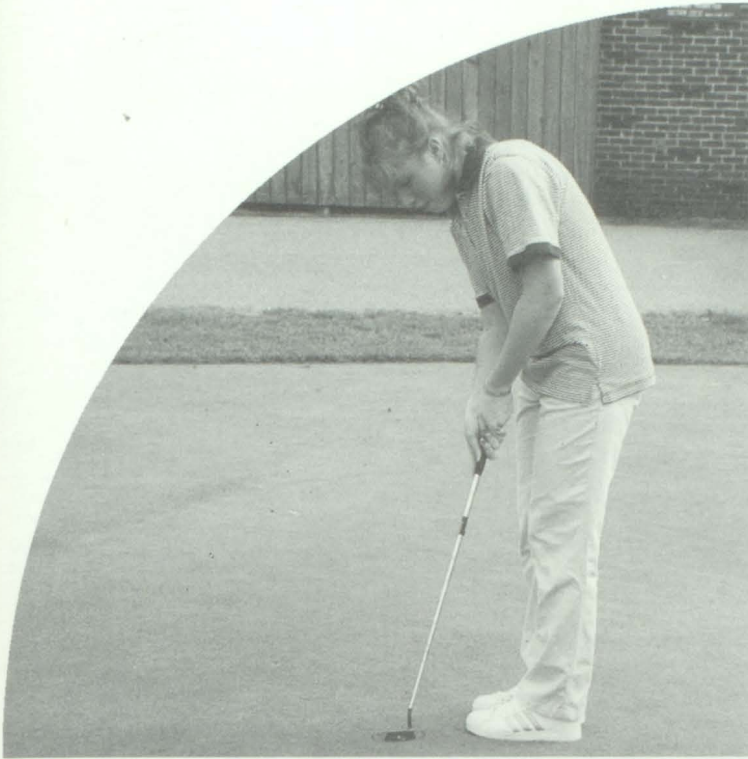

Sports isn't always about winning. It's about becoming a family with your fellow teammates. It's also about leadership and dedication to the sport.

"Band's a good experience for meeting new people from all the different classes."

Eric Benzing

"I think that band is fun. You get to go places and do what you love to do -- play the instruments."

Lindsay Harrison

"Band is harder than what you would expect. It takes so much work."

Billy O'Hara

"Marching Band is a great experience for all involved. It builds great friendships. The great feeling after a successful performance is worth all the work we put into it."

Here They Come Marching In...

The Marching Band is a very important aspect to our school. They are at every football game and close to every basketball game. They do a great job getting the crowd full of spirit.

Mr. Moore

"Music is the most basic element in human emotional expression. It is amazing how a band can use air, wood, metal, plastic, and a good dose of sweat to unite a crowd behind a single emotional idea."

Carly Brown

"In band, as different as we all are, music unites us and I've made some awesome friends and have realized through teamwork, anything is possible."

Gillian Palmer

"The band is a fun program for people who enjoy playing musical instruments. Triumphs at competitions make marching band worth the extra practice."

Above: Todd Troxell goes for the goal. He is caught in the air after striking a head ball at the opponent's goal.

Right: Ryan Doyle and Tony Viltro make it a team effort to slide tackle the ball away from the opposing team.

Tony Viltro steps into the action for an attempt of stealing the ball away from Wyoming's varsity soccer team.

Nate Webb, Badin's striker, gives it his all, pushing through two players to get out with the ball.

Mike Ryan, a junior on the varsity squad, uses his body to shield the other team away while keeping the ball.

Nate Webb races past his opponents with the ball, stretching to reach the goal.

Matt Bruner struggles to get off the ground for possession of the ball. This is Matt's second year playing for the Rams.

David Ruhe takes care of the ball as he dribbles up field.

David Ruhe fights to keep control of the ball. Watch out Wyoming! Ruhe is on the loose!

Bill Roach shows his aggressiveness against Wyoming. This is Roach's first year playing soccer for Badin.

Both of the boys soccer teams started this year with two new coaches: Coach Herring and Coach Brown. Despite the fact they were given a tough schedule, they still brought it together as a team. Coach Brown stated that they were the only team to score two goals against Turpin. As his first year coaching, he noticed that the team was young with some fine upperclassmen.

GOING FOR THE GOAL

Matt Brunner attempts to seize the ball from Wyoming.

Ryan Pohlman puts all his energy into kicking the ball upfield.

Chris Krammes takes charge and tries to gain control of the ball.

The boys reserve team is all ears while Coach Herring gives them a pep talk during half time.

Goalie Jeff Finke gives 110% effort when he kicks the ball. This is Finkes first year playing for the Rams.

Jenni Horvath gets airborne to make a kill. Teammate Steph Sphire covers for Horvath. What teamwork!

Katie Bridges gets down and dirty to make a dig. Jennifer Click watches with confidence.

Stephanie Sphire provided a big leadership role, being the only senior on the team. Claire Alfors, unfortunately, underwent a season-ending injury, but she will be back in action next year.

Nancy Kessler approaches the serve with focus. Kessler played back row for the JV team and did a fine job.

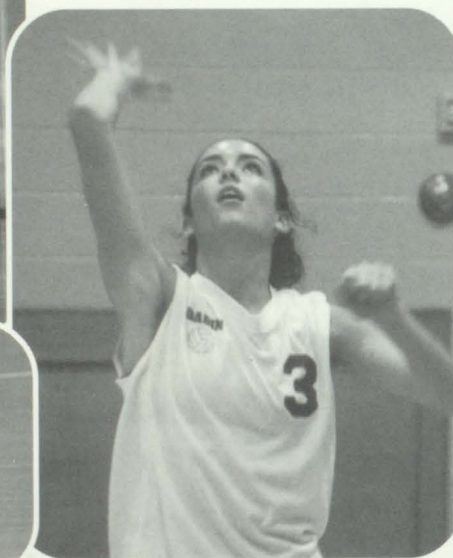

Bump, Set, Spike it... That's The Way We Like It!

The Badin varsity and reserve volleyball teams both combined to make this season one of the best in recent history. With both teams winning the Miami Tournament, the volleyball program shows it is on the rise!

The Varsity Volleyball squad engages in its pre-game ritual. The team was full of pride and spirit this season, leading to a very successful year.

Elizabeth Franz dives low to make the dig. Franz provided the Varsity team with 110% effort at all times.

Kelly Baker feels sure that this serve will be an ace.

Katie Bridges displays utmost concentration on a perfect pass.

The Reserve team smiles for the cameras after winning the Miami University-Middletown Tourney. Congrats, girls!

Front row: Vince Williams, Joel Sackenheim, Craig Archdeacon

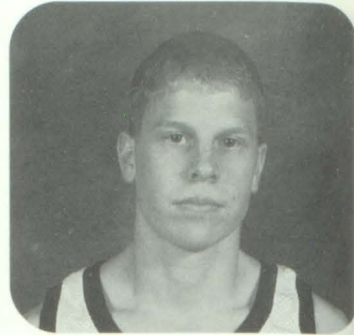

Senior captain Bret Fiehrer. Bret led the Ram offense with his sharp ability to pass the ball and to control the tempo of the game.

Senior captain Chris Sutton. Chris provided the team with a strong presence in the paint.

Senior captain Bret Noonan. Noonan was a consistent scorer, and he will continue his basketball career next year at Gardner- Webb.

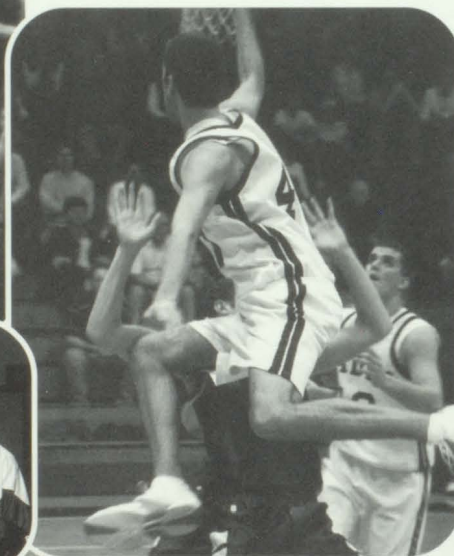

Senior Greg Mergy. Greg was always a fan -favorite and provided some strong spirit to the squad.

Return of the Rams!!!

The varsity squad turned the basketball program around this year with a berth to the Regional Finals against GCL rival Roger Bacon and a 14-11 record. The Rams had an exciting run in the the post-season, which followed a strong league season. This team gave us many memories and an outstanding season!

Noonan follows up a miss with a huge rebound and attempts to put the ball back up for 2!

The three senior captains (Noonan, Fiehrer, and Sutton). These captains exhibited strong leadership throughout the entire season while leading the Rams to a Regional Final loss to Roger Bacon.

Fiehrer finds an opening in the McNicholas defense.

Junior Alex Oswald waits for the ball to go through the hoop while the rest of the players anticipate the bounce.

Golden Girls...

The senior captains pose with coach Denise Nicholas during their senior night. Lisa, Lindsay, Natalie, and Emily were all four year members of the team.

Sophomore Abby Leisge shows her strength while holding a "v" on the beam. Abby contributed a lot to the team and had many first place finishes at competitions.

Senior Natalie Waters concentrates hard before releasing the bars for her dismount.

Members of the team join together to show their excitement after winning the Lakota Invitational. This was the first time the girls received a first place trophy, and they were very proud!

Freshman Kellie Moore prepares to do a back-hipcircle on the bars. She always entertained the crowd at meets by trying new skills.

Sophomore Emily Teufel practices her leaps for her floor routine that she always performed so well.

Sophomore Joey Jacobs shows his muscles while practicing his backstroke starts. Joey always kept the team entertained at practices and meets with his witty humor.

Junior Beth Jolivet was a great asset to the girls' team this season. She helped lead them to another victory in the GGCL.

Freshman Elizabeth Gadaleta and junior Ty Ehrnschwender both prepare mentally for their races by listening to tunes and "meditating." They are ready to beat Talawanda and Hamilton!

Making a Splash!

The Badin swim teams had another successful year in the pool. The girls' team finished at the top of the GGCL for the third year in a row. They also had five girl swimmers and one diver earn GGCL honors. The boys' team finished 3rd place in the GCL, the highest finish ever in Badin history.

The girls' swim team works hard everyday, and it really showed this season. Every meet they finished with a strong win or came in a close second place. Six swimmers qualified for the district meet.

Elizabeth Gadaleta, a freshman swimmer, is an expert at the 200 and 500 freestyle events. She swims a lot of distance at practices to keep strong endurance.

Senior Mandy Menche was the lone diver for the Ram's this year. She had a dynamite season ending with a great performance at the District Diving Meet.

Freshman Maria Olivas was a great new addition to team this year. She is a very strong breastroker and freestyler.

Andy Flick, Megan Jeffcoat, Megan Tobergte, Stephanie Hingsbergen, and Beth Jolivet relax while eating a wonderful pasta dinner before sectionals. The time at Julie Mayer's included not only food but also games, music, and dancing.

Boys' Track...

VARSITY HIGHLIGHTS...

One of the most memorable meets the boys' and girls' track team shared was their victory in the Northwest Track Meet. A highlight for the boys was when Ben Leuthold won both the 100m and 300m hurdles at the Hamilton Invitational. Rob Hufford also set a meet record at the Hamilton meet. Both Ben and Rob scored points for the team at the GCL North Championships. Ben qualified for the district finals in the 300m hurdles. District champion Hufford and teammate Sunderhaus advanced to the regional finals. Hufford qualified for state in the shot put for the second straight year.

Left: Senior Rick Mick runs with the perfect form that he has perfected over four years on the track team.

Junior Tony Dimuzio does his part in his relay to bring his team to victory. Tony was a first-year runner who will help lead the boys next spring.

Junior Chris Ahn has the look of determination in his eyes as he makes his best effort to catch the runner in front of him.

Senior Rob Hufford does a little dance after his winning throw of the shot put. Rob was practically undefeated the whole season in this event.

Senior Mike (Rat-Dog) Sunderhaus watches for the landing of his shot put. As a first year thrower Mike won many points for the team.

#10 Jordan Haire, a varsity member, bats a .286 average for this season, having a total of fourteen RBI's and earning bases sixteen times.

"It was a fun and exciting season. We accomplished many goals this year."
--Stephanie Saurber, reserve player.

#22 Katie Rains, all GGCL first team and a varsity member, ends the season with a record of 14 wins and 4 losses, having seventy strikeouts.

"It was a wonderfully successful season. Hopefully next year we will go to state."
--Kim Broermann, reserve player.

Girls Fastpitch Softball...

After winning "Coach of the Year" two years in a row, Debbie Harrell leads the girls to victory in the grey division GGCL.

"It was the best possible season without winning state," stated

Coach Debbie Harrell.

#15 Jen Toenich, jv player, hits with all her might to help her team earn another score.

#11 Sarah Vocke, varsity player, gets down and dirty to score the winning run.

#7 Beth Stitzel, varsity player, catches for pitchers Heather Huesing and Katie Rains to have a victorious season.

#99 Rebecca Suttmilller, jv player, darts from second to third base while the pitch is being thrown.

student life

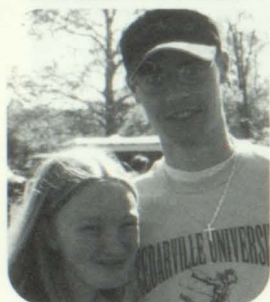

Life is a journey... just wait

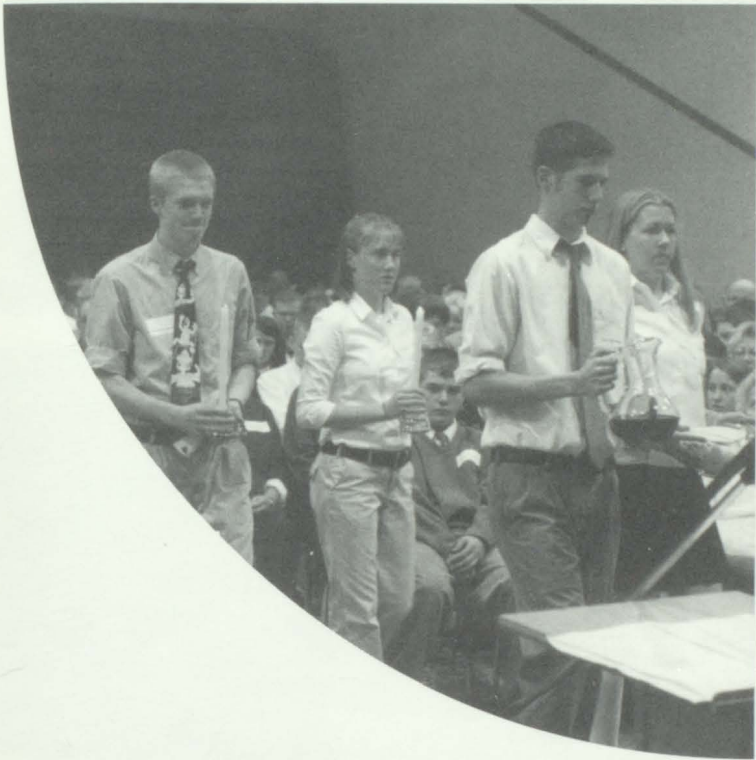

Our lives are like a journey with God guiding us through our trials and tribulations. God gives us the will to make a decision, while our friends guide us to make the right one.

“ Friends are there, smile or tear.
Friends are there happiness or fear. Friends are fun and friends are clever, and the ties that bind ” friends will last forever.

- Harmony Davis

Q & A

Q: What was the first thought that went through your mind after being tapped?

A: I was really glad all my hard work had paid off. I was also happy that Mr. Flynn was the one who tapped me.

-Claire Alfters

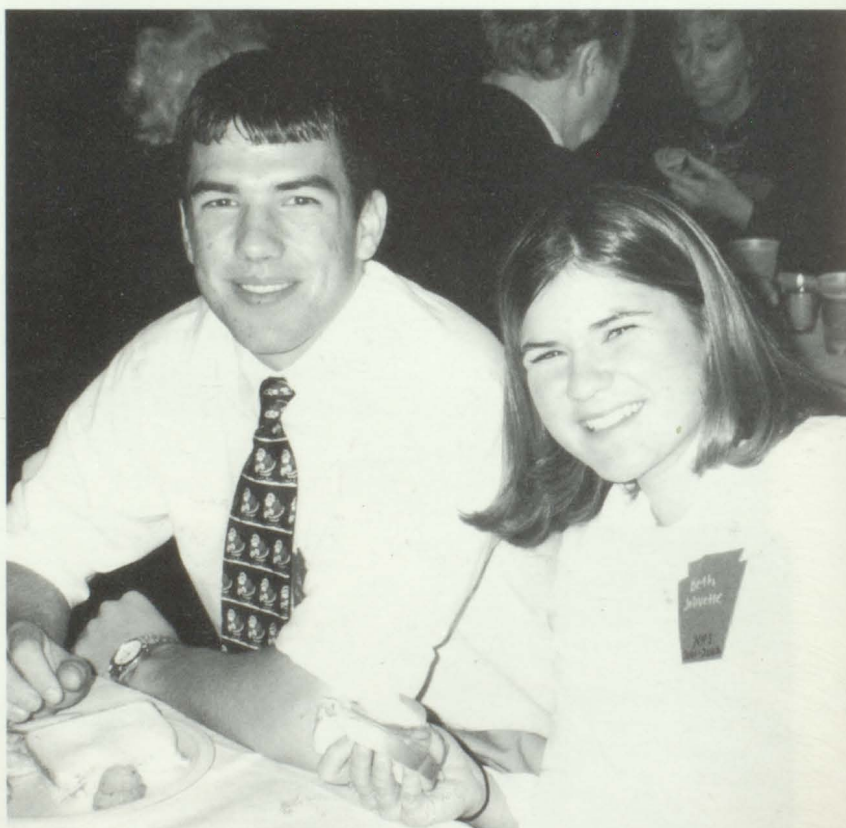

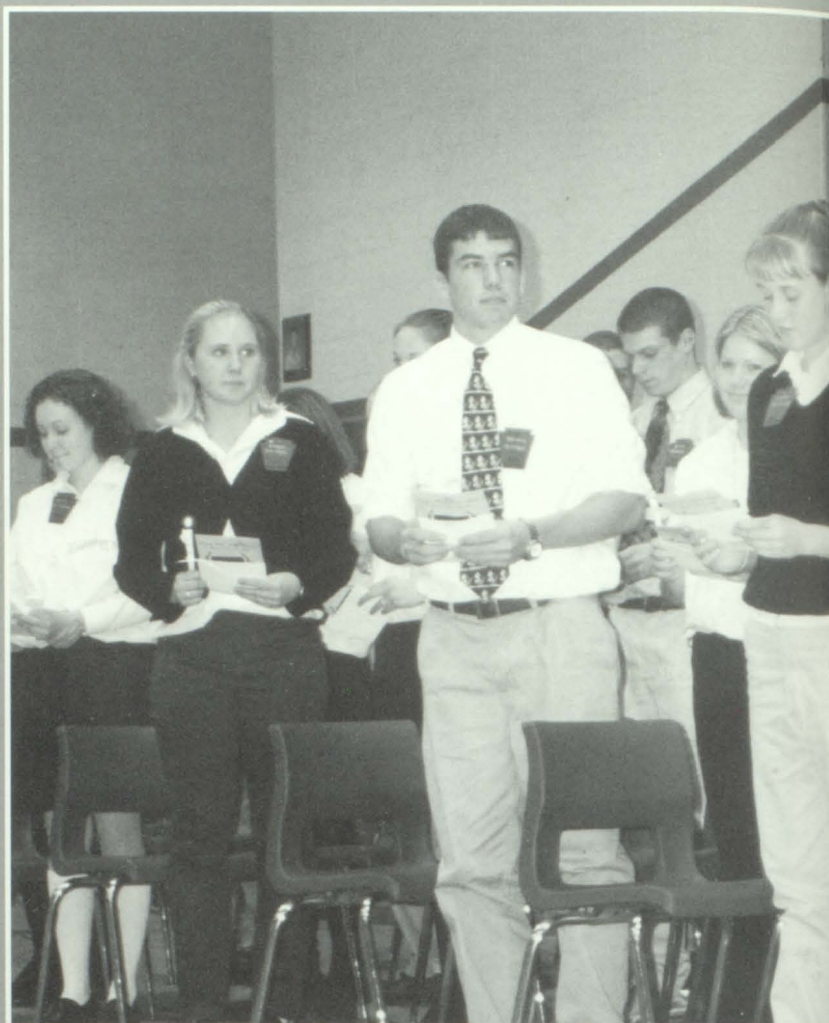

A: I was happy that I got to share this honor with some of my classmates.

-Cheryl Saurber

A: Oh my goodness, I couldn't believe it was happening to me. I was surprised when Mr. O'Hara tapped me.

-Elizabeth Franz

Senior NHS member Ryan Grote chats with the visiting speaker, Sister Kathryn Ann Connelly, along with Mrs. Kurtz and Ms. Winkeljohn.

This flag represents everything a National Honors Society member stands for: community, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Mr. Merz, moderator of the National Honors Society, reads from the list of new inductees.

Badin's chapter of the National Honors Society consists of well-rounded students who possess many commendable qualities. Twenty new inductees were added during this year's ceremony.

Community... Scholarship... Leadership... Service...

Seniors Zach Marcum and Reba Sedlacek present a donation of $2000 to Sister Kathryn Connelly for the New York tragedy.

Some new members of the National Honors Society wait patiently while others are being tapped.

The Sunderhaus family, including new NHS inductees, senior Mike and junior Amanda, show their excitement for the day's event.

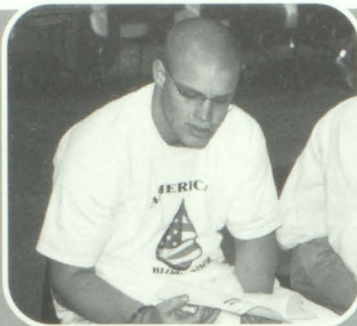

Senior Graham Crain congratulates Kevin Rapien, a junior who was tapped into NHS by Mrs. Kurtz.

Lauren Gersbach checks over the names of the donors. She worked on the Blood Drive Committee for student council.

Angela Showman patiently waits to get up after giving her share of blood.

Nick Ritzi reads over some important material and builds up his courage to donate.

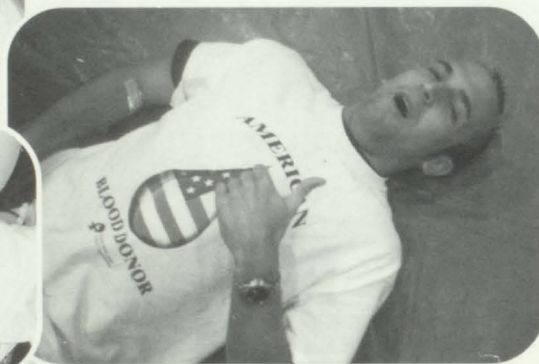

Needles, Band-Aids, and Volunteers...

Oh, and don't forget the cookies and punch! This year's Blood Drive on April 25 was considered a great success. Many of Badin's students volunteered to give their blood in order to save a life.

Seniors, Meg Stephenson, Steph Streit, Reba Sedlacek, and Tia Vetter regain the energy by munching on some food. Can you tell that Reba really enjoys this?

Senior John Shuckman fights to stay awake after donating his blood.

After feeling a little light-headed and asked to lie down, Mark Alfors signals that he is going to be okay.

Jessica Shubert gets her finger pricked before she gives blood. Donaters went through several procedures prior to giving blood.

Matt Giuliano, Anne Dollenmeyer, Rob Hufford, Emily Fenning, Matt Breetz, and Kristin Gorman get together for a group picture after all participating in the Blood Drive.

Q &A

Q: What were your thoughts and feelings about the Blood Drive?

A: "Giving blood is even easier than Mr. Merz's class."

-Mr. O'Hara

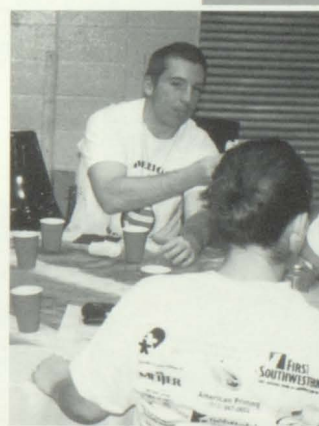

A: "It was worth giving my blood to save lives, but I don't think I'll do it again!"

-Jenny Hessling

A: "I really liked it because you got to lie down and eat all the food you want!"

-Mike Sunderhaus

Q &A

Q: What do you get out of being involved in Badin's spiritual life?

A: The spiritual life at BHS is something special that everyone will take with them throughout life.

-Cassandra Heath

A: The Badin students, faculty, and staff are people of great integrity who help me to see God in my life, and I am thankful for that! If I can help them to experience Christ in their lives, then I've had a great day!

-Mrs. Helms

A: The spiritual life is unique and helps us to grow personally as well as support one another.

-Allison Thurman

Sophomores Lindsey Pfirman and Ellen Browe take a moment from the school day to contribute to the Book of Intentions.

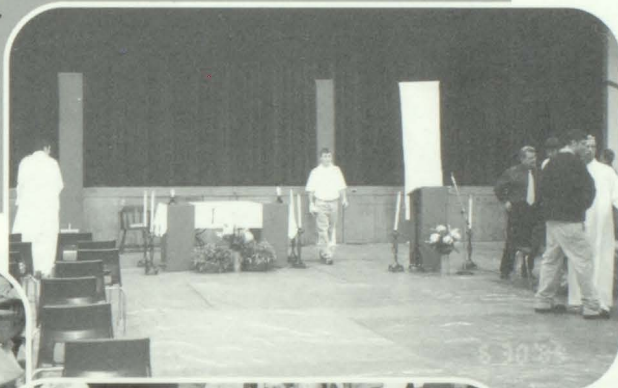

This breath-taking image of the road to Kairos symbolizes the faith life at Badin... a journey well-worth taking.

Junior Joel Sackenheim, the all-around go-getter within Badin's spiritual family, fine tunes his remarkable talent of keyboarding.

Badin places a strong emphasis on its spiritual life day in and day out. Students fulfill the Badin mission by participating in the various aspects of the faith life.

Have a Little FAITH!

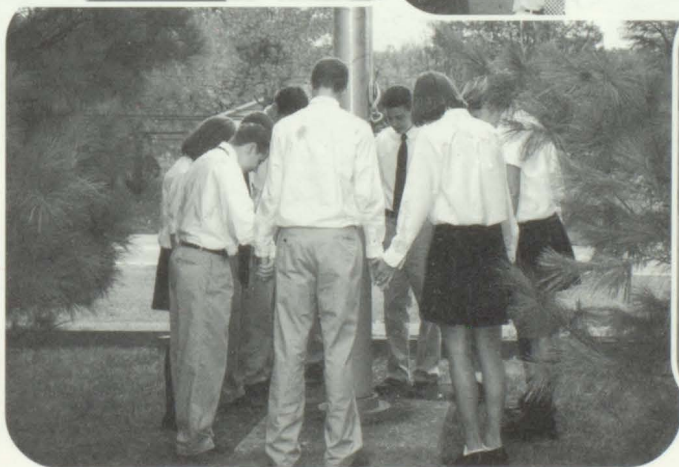

Members of the Badin community help to prepare the gymnasium for a mass celebration.

Seniors Kristy Steins, Lindsay Saurber, and Olivia Hardig participate in the procession by carrying the incense.

Senior Greg Hoelle displays his strong faith by serving as the cross bearer at a school mass.

A group of students gather around the flag pole before school. Prayer is an integral part of every day life.

This tranquil image of Jesus Christ placed in the Chapel serves to reflect our faith. Displayed under light, this portrait reminds all who see it of the light of Christ.

Zach Marcum finished off his senior year with a final visit to the academic awards banquet.

Ryan Grote's good grades paid off for him again, earning another academic pin.

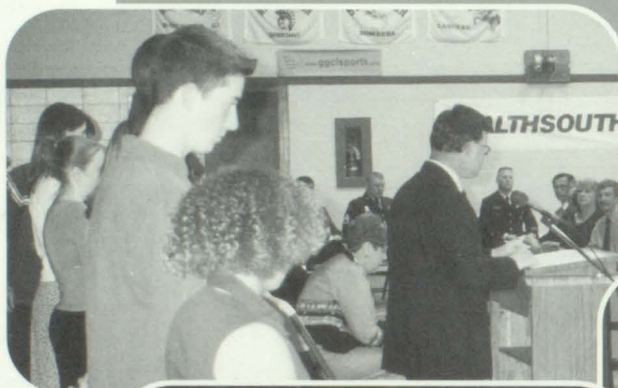

Sarah Fox was awarded for her great grades with an academic pin.

Academic Highlights...

The Academic Awards Night took place on May 21st. This is a night where students who demonstrate academic excellence are rewarded for their hard work. These students go the extra mile and do whatever it takes to make the grade.

Chris Guiliano and Joanna Lowry listen to Mr. Guidugli speak.

Emily Reimer, Stephanie Reis, Andrew Rossi, Cheryl Saurber, and Kristy Steins all recieved HCF Scholarships.

John Guidugli, President and CEO of Hamilton Community Foundation, awarded 18 HCF Scholarships to Badin seniors.

Lindsey Riegert and Kelly Young get ready for the banquet to begin.

Staff Sgt. Page, Major Benken, and Petty Officer Riggs appeared at the banquet to present armed service awards to students.

Q &A

Q: What was your reaction to being invited to the Academic Awards Night?

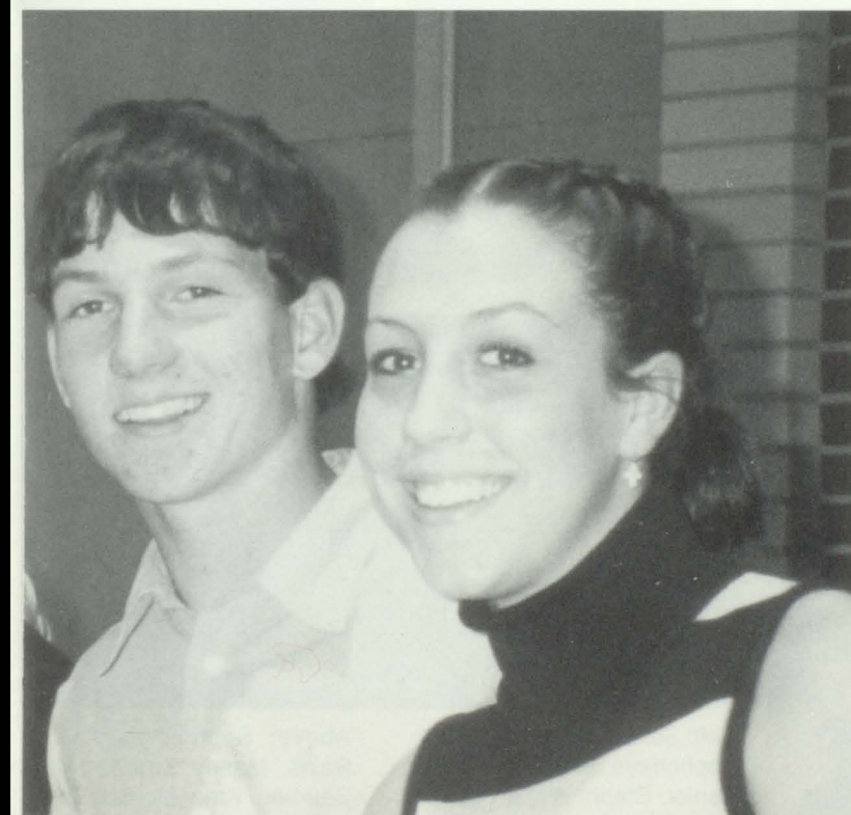

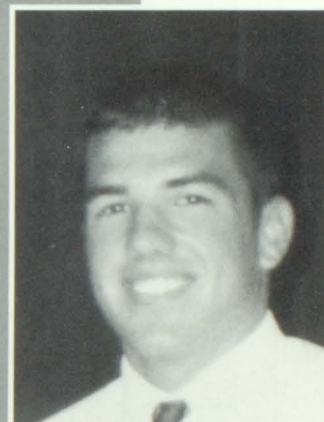

A: "I was greatly honored by the invitation to the banquet. It made me proud of my accomplishments."

-James Clear

A: "My reaction was that it was great because it showed that my grades had paid off."

-Steve Zettler

A: "I thought it was an honor to receive an award for all my hard work."

Michelle Ketterer, Abby Leisge, Angela Hessling, and Emily Falk, a group of sophomore girls take a break from dancing.

Kevin Kraft

"I had the time of my life with the girl of my life."

Molly Renneker and Megan Wallace

"We both had a great time. We made good memories of our last Sadies Dance that we will never forget."

Sadies: A Backwards Night Of Fun...

Sophmores Robbie Gilreath, Julie Milazzo, Sarah Botos, and Alan Wolf live up the night of their first Sadies dance.

Megan Falk

"Sadies was awesome, because Abe Saurber's a stud, and I got to get my dance on. But I wish I could have been the DJ."

Bret Noonan

"The DJ was alright and it was really hot in there, but it was still fun. I danced so much I had a headache the next morning."

Alyssa Herbers

"I had a fun time. I can't wait till next years. The bad thing was I had to pay for dinner. That should always be the guy's job."

King Jonathan Jones and his mom, the Mom Prom Queen, share their crowning moment.

The Mom Prom can be pretty tiring, especially for those who danced all night like Brett Noyse and Mrs. Noyse.

Senior Jeff Nuegebaur and his mom smile for the camera while groovin' on the dance floor.

Chris Starrman, a sophomore, and his mom are trying to impress the judge with their moves during the dance contest.

Mrs. Troxell beams because she is dancing with her handsome son Todd. This is their final Mom Prom together, so they are enjoying every minute!

The Queen and her Prince...

"It was a joy to dance with my mommy."
-Ty Ernshwender

"The moms started getting a little freaky, so I had to back off."
-Michael Sunderhaus

"My mom and I should have won the dance contest."
-Ryan Bennett

The mothers are really breaking it down and are showing off their moves. They are making sure that their sons learn how to dance the right way for the next dance that comes around.

Jennifer Puma and her dad are obviously having a great time at the 2002 Father Daughter Dance.

The King and his Princess...

Andrea Mohr and her father dance to a slow song to end the night.

Far Left: Mr. Pfirman, Mr. Baker, and Mr. Davis laugh and have a good time, as usual.

Sara and Katie Morner walk in with their date after dinner.

Father Daughter King and Princess, Mr. Pfirman and Lindsay Pfirman, dance the rest of the night away.

My dad and I didn't win the contests, but we had fun.

- Sarah Sander

The contests were the best because Mr. Puma was hilarious.

- Alex Bowling

The quizzes and D.J. were lame but I know the Dad's enjoyed it.

- Rachel Bauer

My favorite part was the prizes. This dance brought me closer to my dad.

- Shannon Clark

It was fun for my dad and I, because we were able to act goofy.

- Beth Lagergren

Senior Olivia Hardig engages in conversation with her grandma over some fresh coffee cake.

Junior Jill Lawall answers one of the many questions that grandparents always ask their grandchildren.

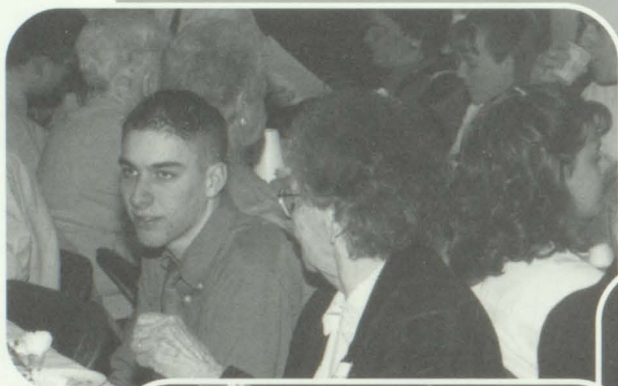

Freshman Zack Carey and Senior John Carey devour Mrs. Ensor's tasty pastries.

The Tradition Continues

On March 13, several grandparents made a visit to the school for the 10th Annual Badin Grandparents' Day. After Mass and breakfast, the students led their grandparents around the school to show them all of the new changes that have taken place so far.

Junior Joey North discusses life issues with his grandma.

Junior Scott O'Donohoe participates in the Grandparents' Day Mass.

Junior Kevin Rapien and his grandma enjoy some quality bonding time during the Grandparents' Day festivities.

Q & A

Q: What are some of your thoughts from this year's Grandparents' Day?

A: "My grandma has been to three Granparent's Days with Shawn and I. She has been coming since the first one ten years ago with my older cousin."

-Katie Baker

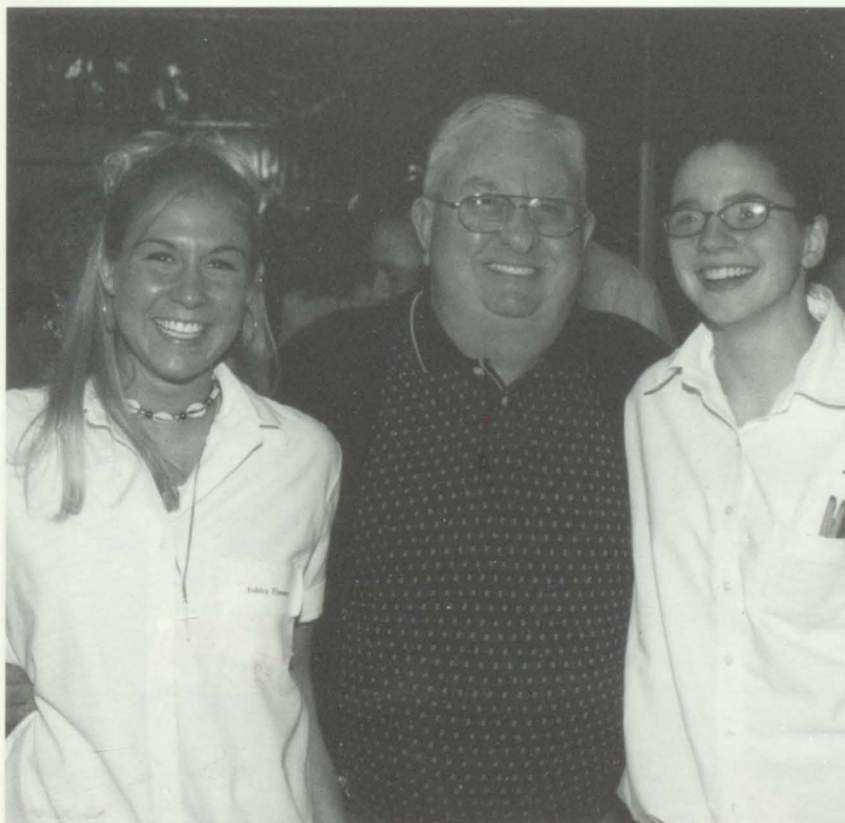

A: "This Grandparents' Day was the best one yet. My grandma has been at every one while I have been at Badin. Because this is my last one, it was very special to me."

-Lyndsey Mayer

A: "I am very thankful for my grandparents because they are so supportive of Kym and I. I am going to miss not having Grandparents' Day next year."

-Bret Fiehrer

Q &A

Q: What was your character's role in Fiddler on the Roof?

Junior Jeff Dean (Lazar Wolf) said, "My character started the whole cataclismic breakdown of tradition."

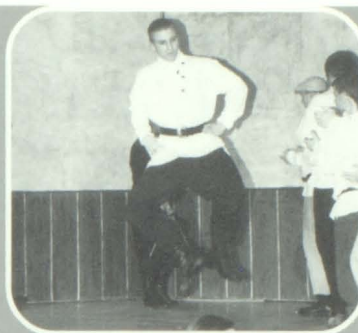

Sophomore Erica Baden (Fruma) said, "I was part of the turning point of the play. Fruma helped to convince Tevye to let his daughter choose, which started revolution for family."

Sophomore Andrew Mabry (the Rabbi) said, "The Rabbi was the father-figure that everyone turned to."

Freshman, Kim Asmus (Bielde) and Tara Ferdelman (Shprintze) are the little sisters of Tzeitel, Hodel, and Chava and daughters of Tevye and Golde. These two little girls always have to put in their two cents in their older sisters' lives.

Fiddler on the Roof premiered on March 7, 8, 9 at 7:30 and 2:00 p.m. Fiddler is about a poor family in 1905 on the eve of the Russian Revolutionary Period, living in Anatevka, Russia. This family goes through many struggles with their older daughters wanting to marry.

Take a ride to the past with Fiddler on the Roof...

Junior, Ryan Bennett (Mendel, the Rabbi's son) goes to buy milk from his friend Junior, Billy O'Hara (Tevye).

Sophomore, Jason Howard (Constable) speaks to Billy O'Hara (Tevye), because they must gather their things and leave their farm in Anatevka, Asmall Shtetl in Russia because the Russian government was taking it over.

Senior, Stephanie Streit, Junior, Katherine Baker, and Sophomore, Savannah Ervin stand solemnly before they perform the piece.

Freshmen Zach Butterfield and Andy Guidugli and senior Mike Sunderhaus are the Russians who go with the Constable to warn the people that their farm land could be taken away.

Sophomore, Jennifer Kirk (The Fiddler) stands on the roof of the butcher shop playing the Fiddle.

Ashley Timmer, Sarah Graf, Carisa Mikesell, and Betsy Browe all relax in their room in between the many activities on the August Kairos.

When you enter St. Anne's Convent, you are immediately welcomed by the friendly nuns and by the comfortable atmosphere. The convent becomes a great home while you are in Kentucky.

Many of the guys enjoyed horsing around in the middle of a very involved game of Pictionary on the June Kairos.

It's Kairos Time!

Kairos is a very uplifting time for seniors. Friendships and class unity are formed, and many students become closer to God. It is a very important part of senior year.

The entire August Kairos group poses in the heat of the summer on their last day at St. Ann's. They are feeling really close to one another and are sad about leaving.

Part of the mystery of Kairos is not knowing what to expect when you arrive. It makes the week adventurous and fun.

The September group was full of different personalities, which led to very meaningful yet relaxing trip.

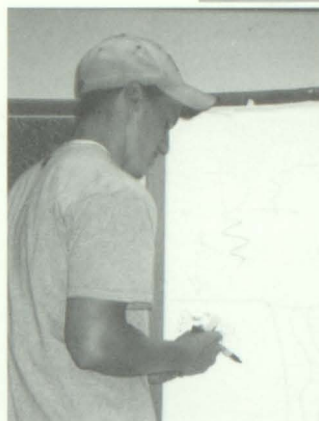

The male-dominated December retreat was a rowdy one! They kept teachers and leaders on their toes!

December's group was the last of 2002's senior class to experience the retreat. When they returned home, the class was completely unified with the special Kairos bond.

Q &A

Q: What did this experience mean to you?

A: "I really got a chance to become a lot closer with so many of my classmates. I was able to open up and really connect with lots of new people."

-Donnie Hunt

A: "Pat and I had a great time giving in September. He is one of my best friends and it was cool to be able to share this experience with him."

-Bret Noonan

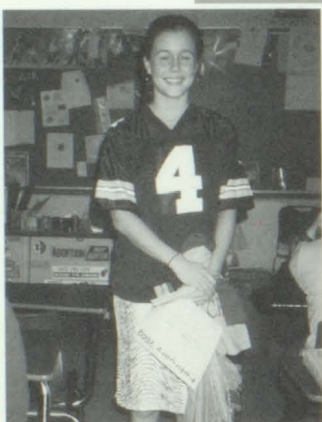

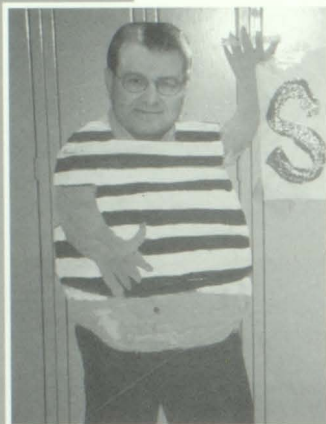

A: "The road leading into St. Ann's is one of the most beautiful things I have ever seen. I look forward to it every time I go there. It makes for a perfect Kairos setting."

-Mrs. Helms

Q & A

Q: How did you survive Spirit Week?

"I was not offended. I enjoyed it, as well as Spirit Week. It just didn't do me any justice."
-Mr. Margello

"That day was my birthday. I had a lot of fun dressing up, and I liked all the food my friends gave me."
-Jenny Hessling

"I had tons of fun, because it was different than what I was used to. I love doing that kind of stuff."
-Kelly Tracy

Mike McCarter dresses in college attire for spirit week.

Ellen Cochran cuts out signs to decorate the cafeteria for the freshmen class.

Mr. Mignery sets up the rope for tug-o-war between the junior and senior boys. Mr. Mignery has mediated tug-o-war since 1985.

There are many events during Spirit Week that students participate in such as, spirit days, hall decorating, jug wars, and, last but not least, Spirit Olympics.

Spirit Week

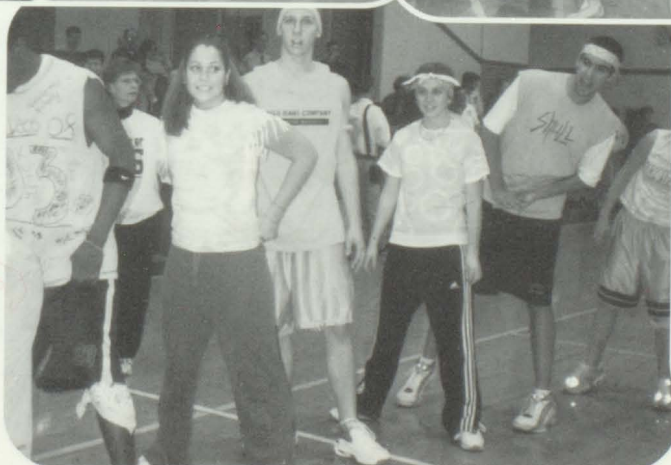

Clockwise: Seniors Mike Sunderhaus, Rick Mick, Ashley Timmer, Sarah Graf, and Matt Brady cut out apples to hang from the ceiling for decoration.

Senior Rick Mick dives over the finish line so his partner, Senior Rachel Bauer, can start the obstacle course.

John Jones, Chad McKinney, Tyler Lample, Vince Broermann, and Chris McCaughey pull for the freshmen during the tug-o-war.

Leslie Eickelberger, Matt Noe, Ashley Mathews, David Shull, and Angie Koenig get ready to do their best for the juniors in the basketball relay.

Juniors Craig Kleeberger & Chirsty Calvert see the finish line to victory in the three- legged race.

Showing That Ram Pride...

Juniors Sara Morner, Amanda Fritz, Jessie Moore, Ashley Rue, Katie Rains, and Molly Zoz get to pick a winner during Spirit Olympics.

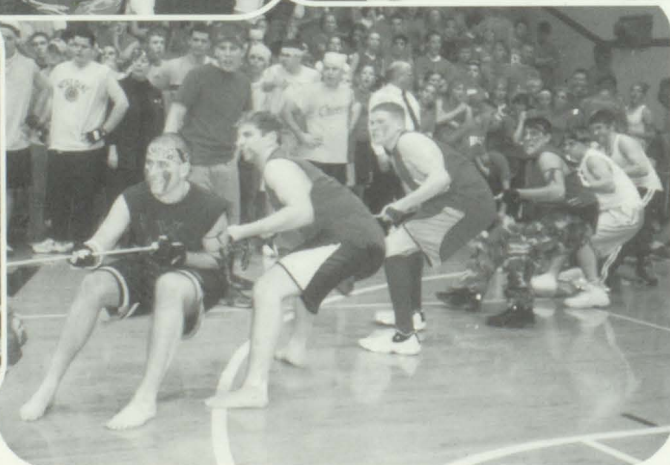

Paola Miller, Kelly Schutte, Angela Smith, and Rebecca Suttmilller show off their mis-matched outfits during Spirit Week.

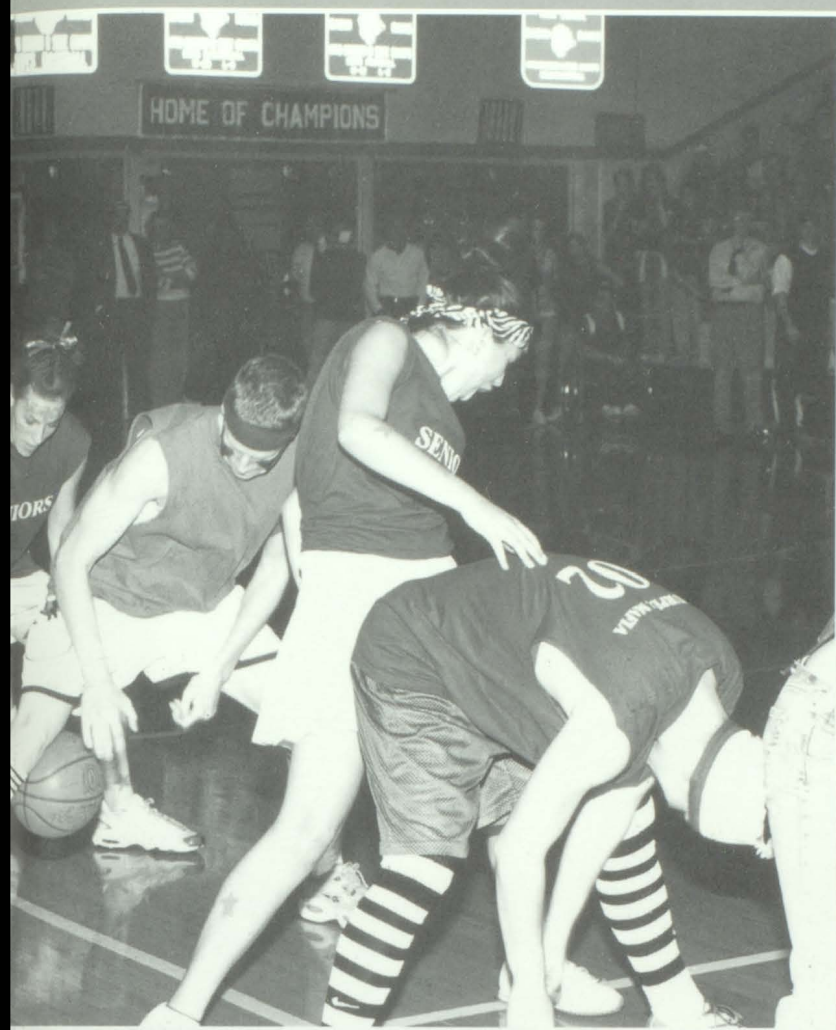

The juniors celebrate their victory against the seniors in the three- legged race.

Marty Schroder goes up for a lay-up during the basketball relay. Way to get some hoops, Marty!

The sophomore boys tug their hardest to pull for a victory against the seniors.

Q & A

Q: Why did you choose to dress up the way you did for "blast from the past" day?

A: "I wanted to be different, not your average, everyday hippie. That is why I chose to dress as a Black Panther. I also wanted to embarrass my brother, Corey Jones."

- Ashley Townsend

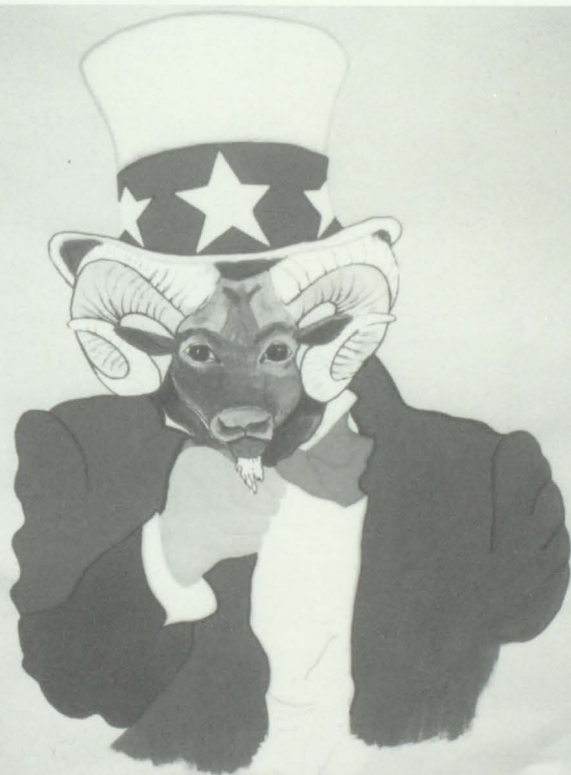

A: "I chose to dress up like I did, because it was how my mom dressed; it was her era. I also really liked seeing all the different, interesting outfits that other people came in."

- Angie Koenig

A: "I really like the 80's, because it is my favorite time period.. Having a chance to dress up like this was really cool. This was definitely my favorite day of spirit week!"

- Lauren Brill

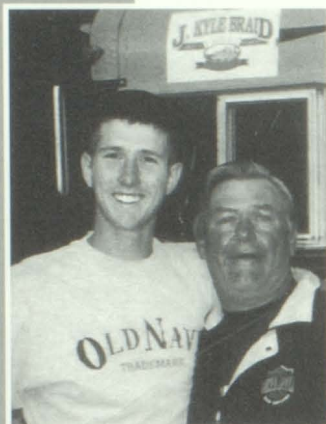

Q & A

Q: What are your feelings about the JKB Ranch?

"Mr. Braid is one of the coolest guys I've ever met. It is amazing that one person could make such a difference in the world."

-Zach Marcum

"My week at the ranch was one of the best weeks of my life! I met so many awesome people... I feel like I have another family."

-Reba Sedlacek

"I really had to learn how to stay on my toes at all times. The Braids are big on fun and practical jokes."

-Becca Onaitis

Bill and Sue, two of the counselors at the ranch, dedicate their time every summer to helping teens.

Becca Onaitis learns how to fly fish with the gals.

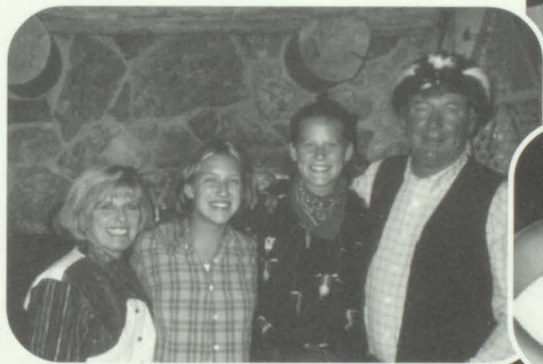

Zach Marcum parties at the Hoe Down with Mrs. Braid.

The JKB Ranch is a program that helps teens take the lead in their communities. Badin has been lucky to be a part of the program for four years.

Craziness in Colorado!!!

Graham Crain replays his stereotype of a bully with the other JKB'ers.

Becca Onaitis and Reba Sedlacek display their western outfits at the Hoe Down with Mr. and Mrs. Braid.

Stacy Beadle and Beth Jolivet chill in the lodge and cool off from the hot August Colorado sun.

Some of the 2001 girls group pose at the airport on the way home from their memorable experience.

Becca Onaitis climbs the wall- one of the many ropes course activities to conquer at the ranch.

Scott O'Donohoe plays Sinatra in Phantoms, Parents and Prom. Scott did a great job as Frank!

In Muddin' in Chumuckla, Chris Ahn chats on the phone while playing his character Carl.

Co-directors of Muddin' in Chumuckla, Billy O'Hara and Kate Welsh, pose for the camera after a job well done.

Lights, Camera, Action!

The Night of One Acts was a big hit!! They took place on Nov. 30 through Dec. 2, and all three nights were almost sold out! Everyone put their heart and soul into their work, and it really paid off.

In The Princess and the Idiot, the peasant girl, played by Amanda Sunderhaus, and the maid, played by Laura Beckman, look at the princess, played by Blaire Karg, with smiles.

David's father Alan, played by Andrew Mabry, plays a typical dad. Funny how easily he slips into that role!

Megan Wiegand who played Kate in Muddin' in Chumuckla talks to her friends on the phone to try to find out what she wants to do that night.

Suzanne Mitchell, who played David's mom Claire in Phantoms, Parents and Prom, cries while Tracy, played by Gillian Palmer, tries to get to know her.

The cast of Muddin' in Chumuckla pose for the camera. Thanks to all their efforts!

Row 1: Samantha Schmitt, Ellen Shaver, Megan Wiegand, Elizabeth Franz
Row 2: Ty Ehrnschwender, Chris Schaffer, Chris Ahn

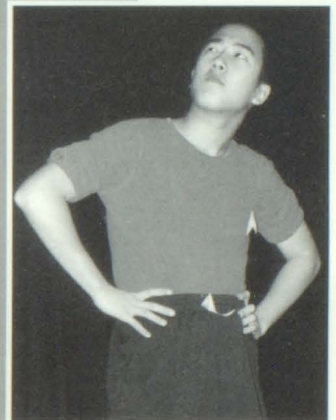

Q &A

Q: What were your thoughts and feelings about your character?

A: "I was Lynn and it was great working with everyone. I could really relate to my character and her crazy relationship with Bert. The whole cast was great, and the whole play was insane, but I had a blast doing it ." -
Samantha Schmitt

A: "I was Aquaman. It was pretty cool. We all put effort into it, and it really showed. I know how hot I look in tights anyway so no one needs to tell me."
-Chris Ahn

A: "I was the Princess, and it was a blast! (The part fit me well!) I enjoyed my part immensely, even the "monster dress," and I had a great time with all the other cast members....the Princess has spoken!"
-Blair Karg

Thanks to many...

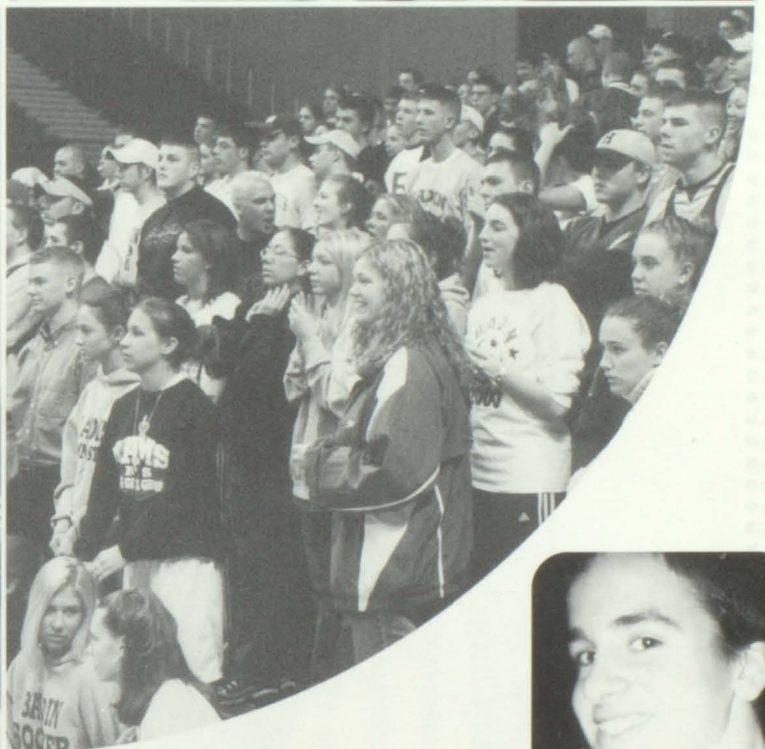

A special thanks goes out to all of our business institutions who are responsible for the financial aspect of the book. Without their support, the book would not be possible.

“ The financial support of all our community businesses benefits our students--they are supplied with a yearbook because of this generosity. ”

FILL YOUR RETIREMENT WITH
“WANT-TOs” INSTEAD OF
“HAVE-TOs”

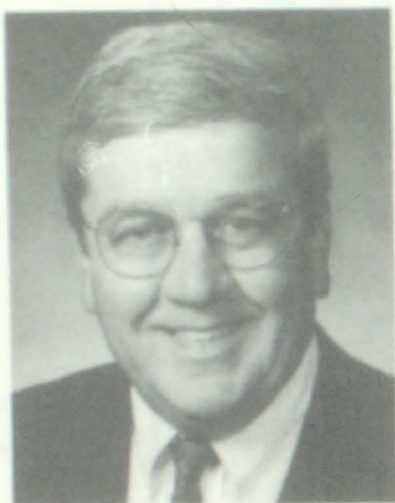

We didn't retire to be slaves to our house; we have too many other ways to spend our time. So we're moving to The Waterford. No more rakes and shovels. No more vacuum cleaner. No more worries about a leaking roof. No more menu planning or grocery shopping unless we want to. Instead, we'll be joining friends or going solo to explore all the places we've never had time for. We're joining an exercise class—and we may even take up dancing. Find out how easy your retirement can be. Call 513.829-6200 today.

Molly Renneker

As you walk down
the road, don't forget to stop and smell
the roses. We are very proud of you.
Best of Luck,
Your family

Mitch Vocke

May you see your future as one filled with promise and possibility.
Learn to view everything as a worthwhile experience. May you find enough inner strength to determine your own worth by yourself, and not to be dependent on another's judgement of your accomplishments, May you always feel loved. Good Luck and we love you!

Mom and Dad

Nick Ritzi

Congratulations!

We've had so much fun and enjoyed so many great memories. We love you. Have a wonderful life. Good Luck!
Mom, Dad, and Lauren

Tracy Dean

To our daughter, Tracy...
From grade school to a high school senior, you have come so far.
We are very proud of you!

Mark III,
We are so very proud of you!
We love you
very much!

Mom and Dad

Gary Roberts

We love you and, as always, are very proud to call you our son/
brother. Remember, no matter where life leads you, "bloom where you are planted!" Wishing you a "JOYFUL" Life.
Mom, Dad, Jessica &
Skittles Too!

Tracy Dean

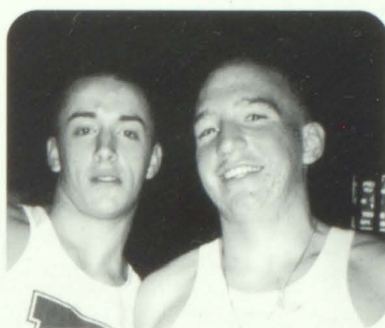

To our daughter, Tracy...
Success has been part of your past. You stand on the edge of your future. Embrace it with open arms, for you are prepared for it. We are proud of you! With love and support always,
Mom and Dad

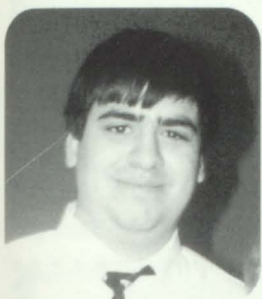

it's all senior... personals

Parents were emotional this whole year!

Parents send a lifelong message of congratulations to the Class of 2002.

“ The chance to have this book include a personal message to Lindsey means a lot to me and my family.

-Mary Ann Robbins

Stephanie Reis

Congratulations Stephanie!
We are so proud of you!
Keep following your dreams!
Love, Mom and Dad

Rachel Bauer

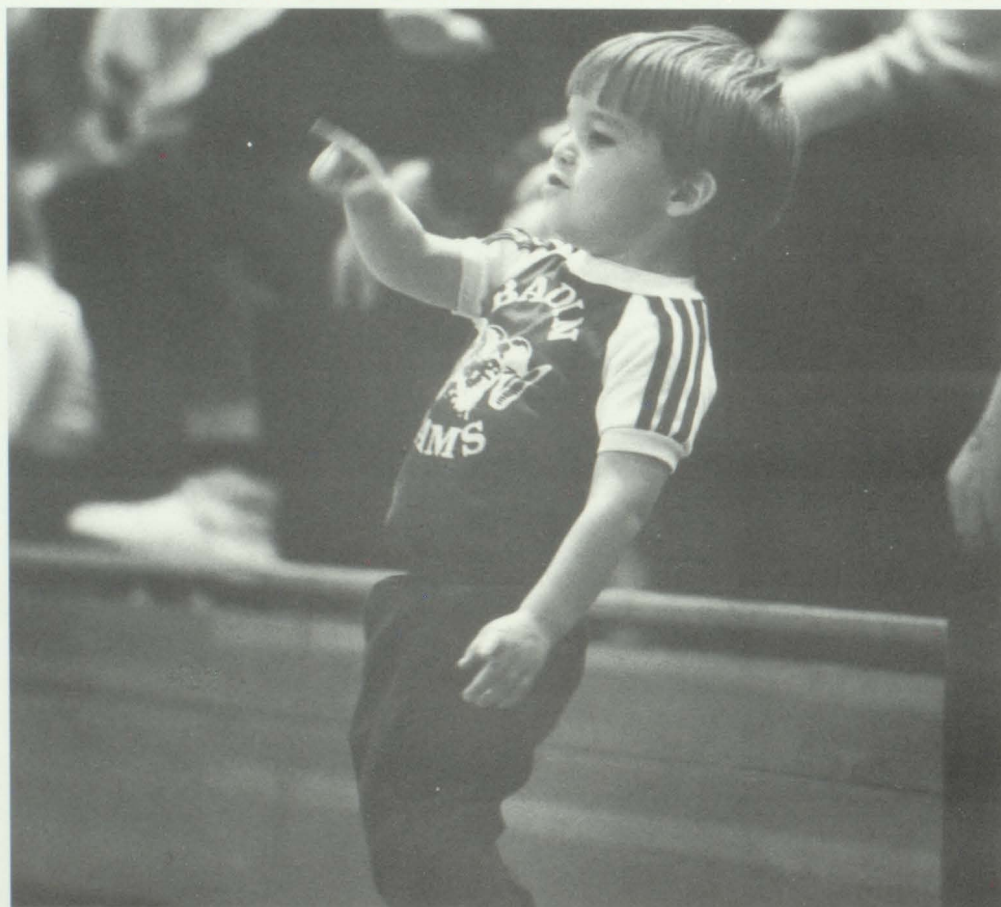

"Watch me, Mom!"

Rachel, even before you could ask us to watch you, we've been watching, and enjoying, every moment. We've watched you grow into a bright, beautiful, and confident young lady, and look forward to watching you for years to come!
Love, Mom, Dad and Tracey

Megan Filipek

Congratulations Megan! We are so proud of you. Good luck at Miami! We Love You!

Your Parents

Lindsay Bryant

We are very proud of you and want you to remember we will always be there for you.

Love, Mom, Dad and David Paul

Jerrod Bley

We are each given the gift of being able to discover what is best for ourselves. God helps us trust that gift. I'm very proud of you and love you very much and whatever path you choose, I know you will give it your very best.

Your Mom, Brother and Sisters

Elise Beckett

Congratulations Elise!
We are very proud of you!

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dan Lajiness

We are all on a journey toward becoming a complete person. Along the way, we reach milestones- chances to step aside and take account of how far we've come and where we still need to go. Your graduation is in some ways an ending, but in more ways, this is only the beginning. We are very proud of you and all your accomplishments. We are always here for you.

Love, Mom & Dad, Grandma & Grandpa, Aunt Penny & Uncle Norm

Ben Guggenbiller

May you continue to impress the world with your unique personality and actions. May you inspire those around you to strive for the best. Moreover, may you have a good journey with surprises and fun on the way. We are proud of you and your accomplishments Ben.

With Love, Your Family

Tia Vetter

Wishing you success as you graduate. Success is measured not only in achievements... but in lessons learned, lives touched, moments shared along the way. Tia, may your future be filled with wonderful opportunities, new experiences, and success in each goal you pursue.

Love, Mom and Dad

Emily Fening

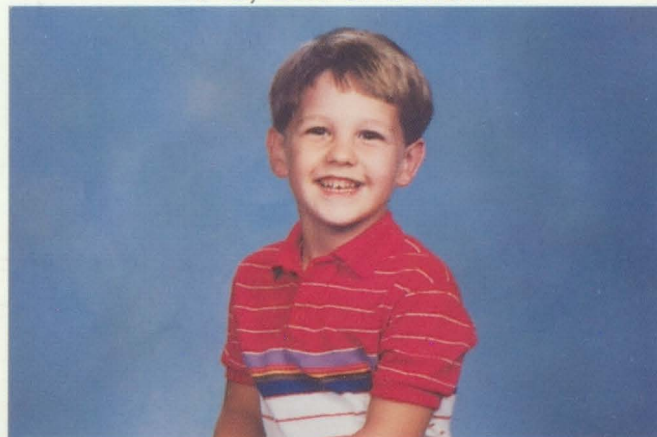

Whereever you go,
whatever you do,
know that we love you
and are here for you!
Mom, Dad, & Brent

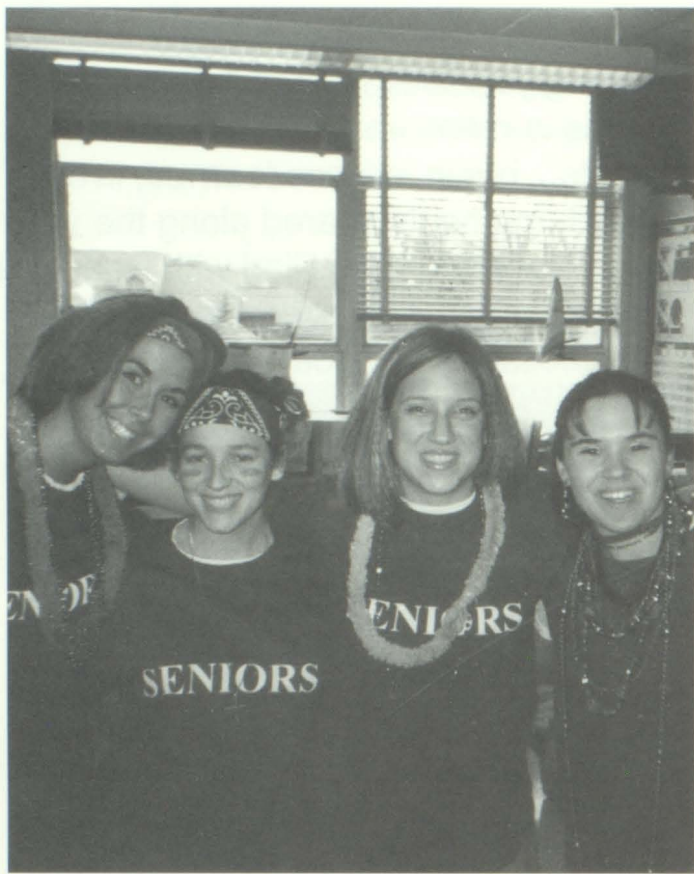

Rob Hufford

WE LOVE YOU!!!

We have been blessed to have such a GREAT son and could not be prouder of you! You are a joy in our lives. Life will offer you many opportunities, just remember that your faith plus your family equals a strong foundation. You will always be in our thoughts and prayers.

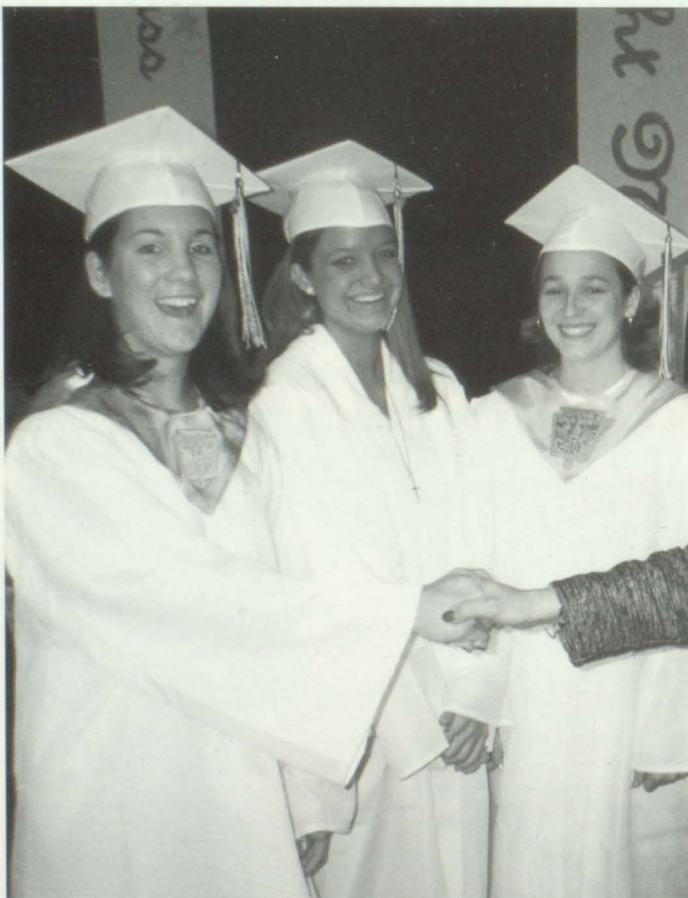

Love, Dad and Mom

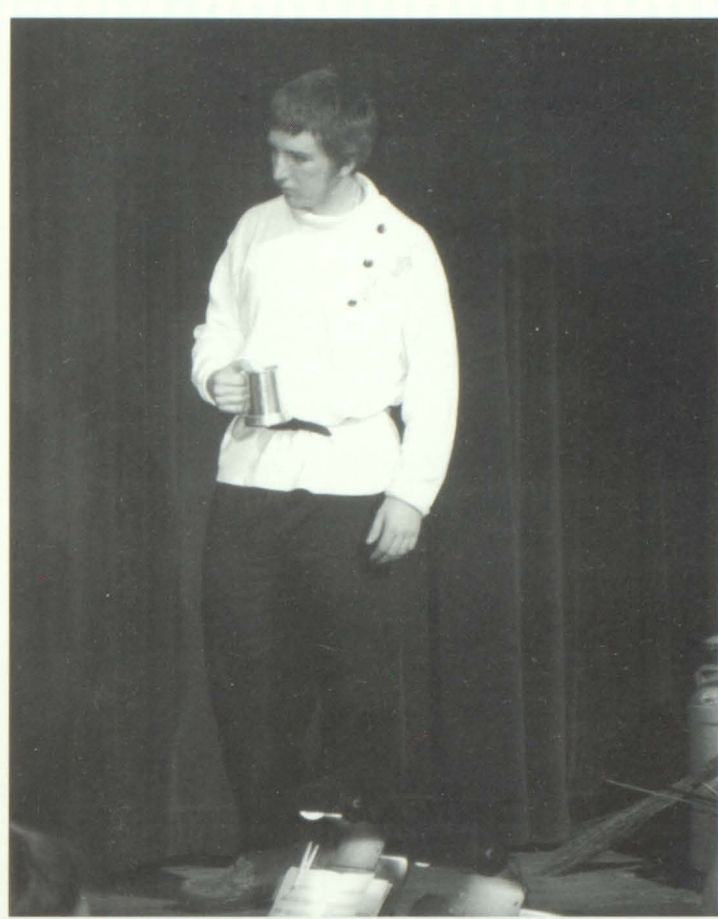

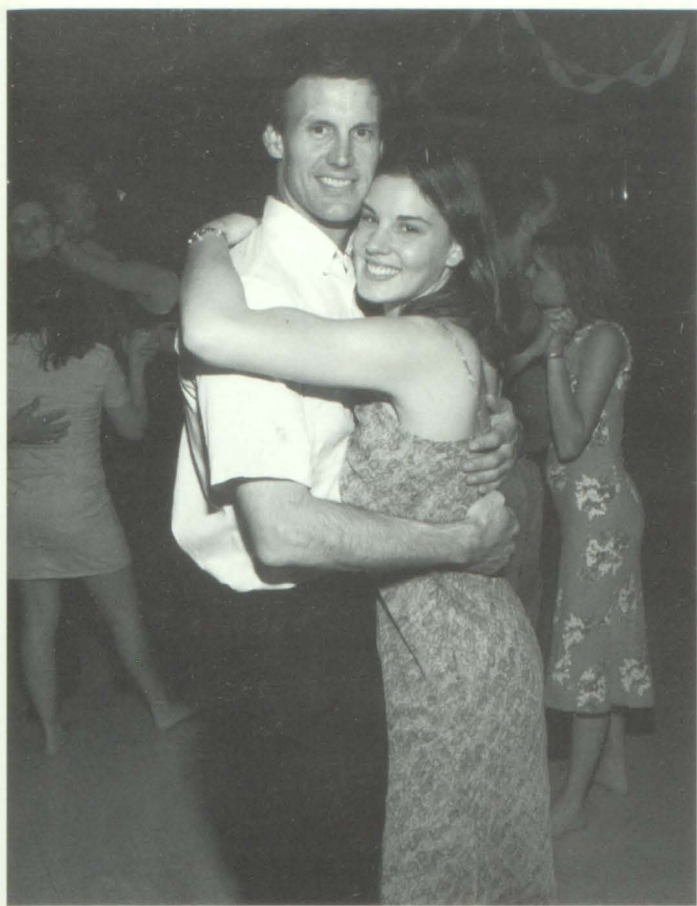

“... I do these things, as JFK would say, ‘not because they are easy, but because they are hard.’ I want to live my life to the fullest; accomplishing what I can, overcoming all I dare. It is my hope to extend myself, to develop my abilities, and to break through any current limitations; that I may be allowed to test my mettle in the fires, and better realize my future with a more tempered steel of ability and will. “

~ Ben Guggenbiller

Caroline Cochran

Caroline,

Live life to the fullest and meet each new experience with joy and anticipation, and remember to always reach for the stars. We are proud of you and your accomplishments.

Love, Mom, Dad, Ellen, and Mary

Matt Vogt

You will always be our Snowflake King!

~Hogs and Kisses~

Mom, Angie, Sharon, Sandy, and Grandma

Stephanie Sphire

Her beauty comes from the depth of her soul and radiates internally touching those who know her.

All our love, Mom and Dad

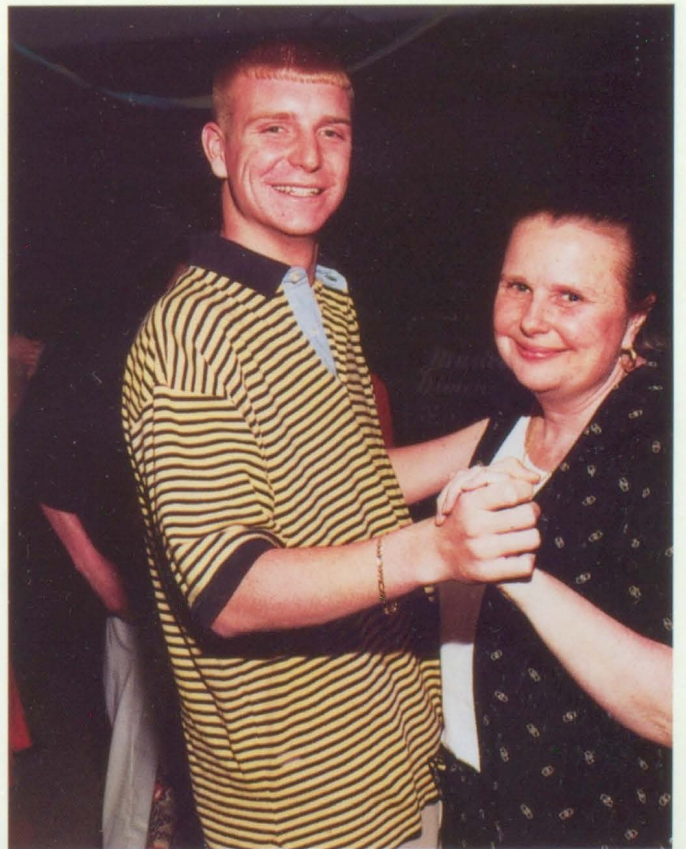

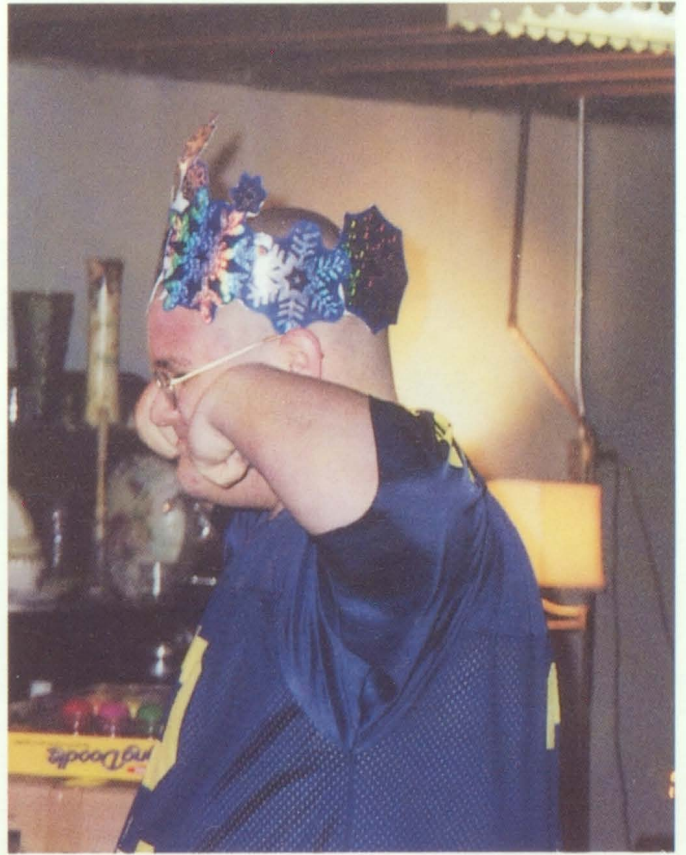

Lindsey Robbins & Molly Renneker

Friends you'll always remain,
Things changing, and this staying the same.
To each other you'll still listen and share,
About each other, you will always care.

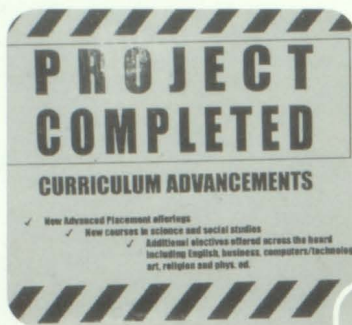

You two really stand out,
Wishing you success throughout.

With love, Mom and Denny
