Badin Football had a tough season this year, but came out of it with their heads held high.

The Christ Candle has always been a big part of Badin high school. It has been ever present.

This year all of the science labs in the school were renovated and updated.

Badin High School's chapel has been recently redone. The new walls and lights did not change the meaning.

The girls varsity soccer team prayed before every game to show team unity.

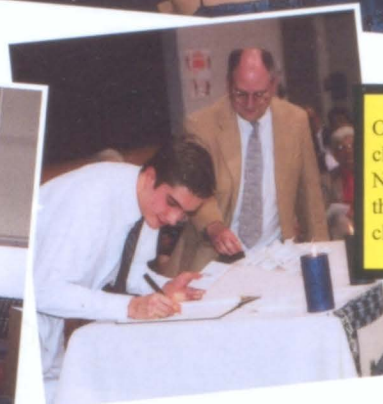

Kari Kiley, Jenny Hessling, and Molly Kugler after the Homecoming dance of '02.

Mr. McGuff showing off the changes in the library. If anyone, he would know. He's been a member of the staff for about 900 years.

One of the few things that hasn't changed from years past is NHS. Some of the most worthy students are admitted, including junior Matt Sloeniker.

FALL

Fall is the beginning of the school year - old friends reunite, new friends meet for the first time, romance ignites, and the work begins. Badin comes back to life after a long, peaceful summer of no obligations.

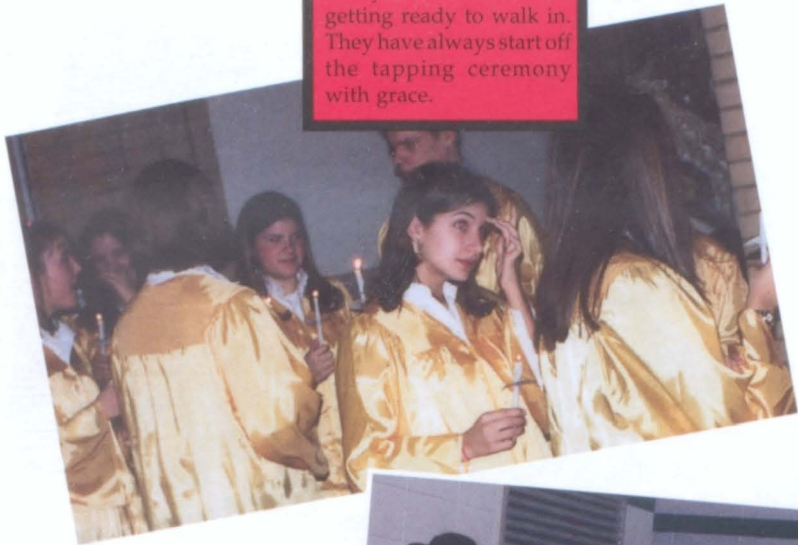

Seniors Jamie Lawson and Katie Ryan were looking forward to graduation but still work hard on school work.

The Badin Band has always been at every Badin event, home or away. They are making noise and making sure the crowd is getting into the games.

Last years NHS members getting ready to walk in. They have always start off the tapping ceremony with grace.

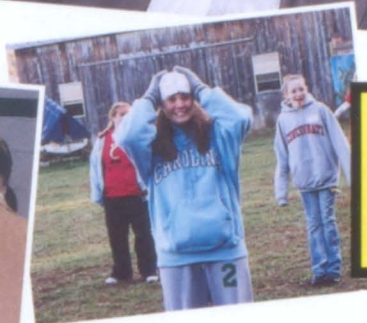

Mr. Allen is a new improvement to Badin. He works hard in the development office, as you can see in this picture, to make sure everything runs smoothly.

Mr. Merz and Mr. Allen talk to the ambassadors. The faculty at Badin is always able to lend a hand.

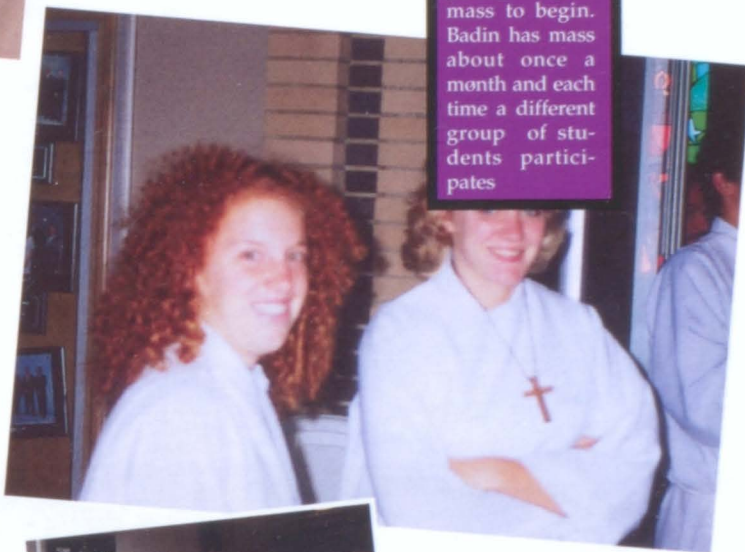

Leslie Eickleberger leading sophomore day of recollection. This day was changed from previous years. It is now a day of getting to know your class better.

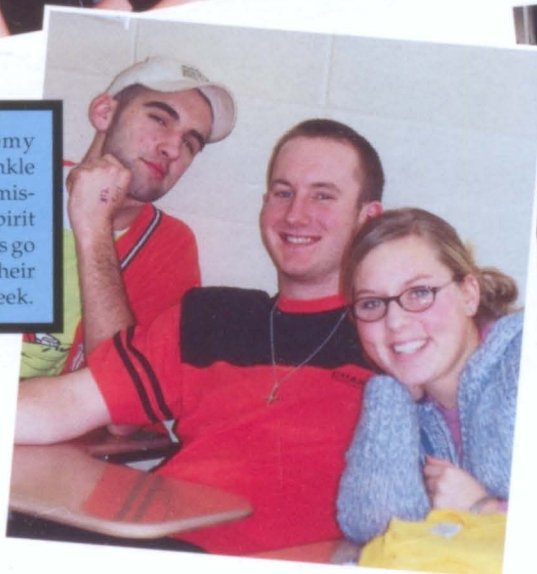

Cristen Chesser and her pottery. Art has been a huge part of Badin. student art is displayed all over the school.

Megan Wiegand and Theresa Bill getting ready for mass to begin. Badin has mass about once a month and each time a different group of students participates

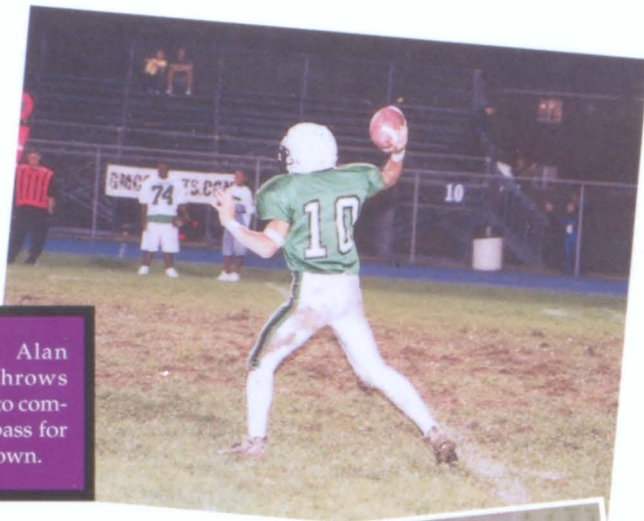

David Shull, Jeremy Frasier, and Ann Hinkle are dressed up for mismatch day during spirit week. Some students go all out and "dress their best" during this week.

Mr. Codington came in to talk to all the students during the NHS tapping. He was a fun layed back guy and we all enjoyed hearing he was a normal teenager and wasn't an A student.

Junior Alan Wolf throws the ball to complete a pass for a first down.

Julie Turner, Amy Schutte, and Serena Andrews contemplate how they are going to overcome the next obstacle on sophomore day of recollection.

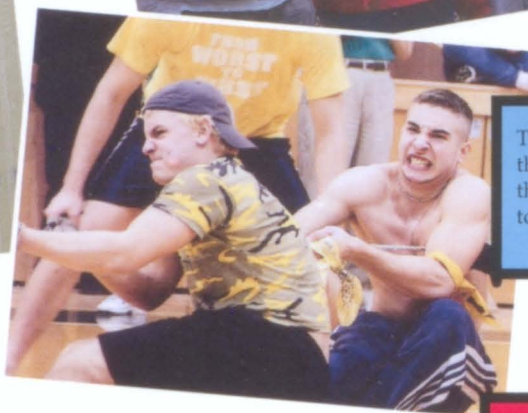

Lori Davis is excited to be at school for mismatch day during Spirit Week for her last year.

Showing the unity of the school, Junior Jaci Saurber and Senior Lisa Mignery take a moment to say hello.

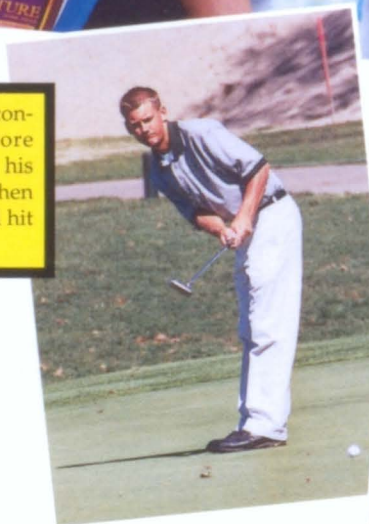

The senior's strength this year paid off with the guys becoming victorious in the tug-o-war.

Annie Hinkel, Steph Caudil, and Lauren Gersbach get ready to warm up before their game.

Who says golf isn't a contact sport? Sophomore Danny Carly chipped his front teeth this year when a ball bounced up and hit them.

Senior Amber Massey, who has been on the golf team for four years, lines up for a putt.

Juniors Jennifer Martin and Tawni Riely mix things up on mismatch day during spirit week.

Soccer at Badin is a very respectable sport. All of the girls have been dedicated and obviously lady-like out on the field.

Senior Jill Lawall checks out the up-coming shot.

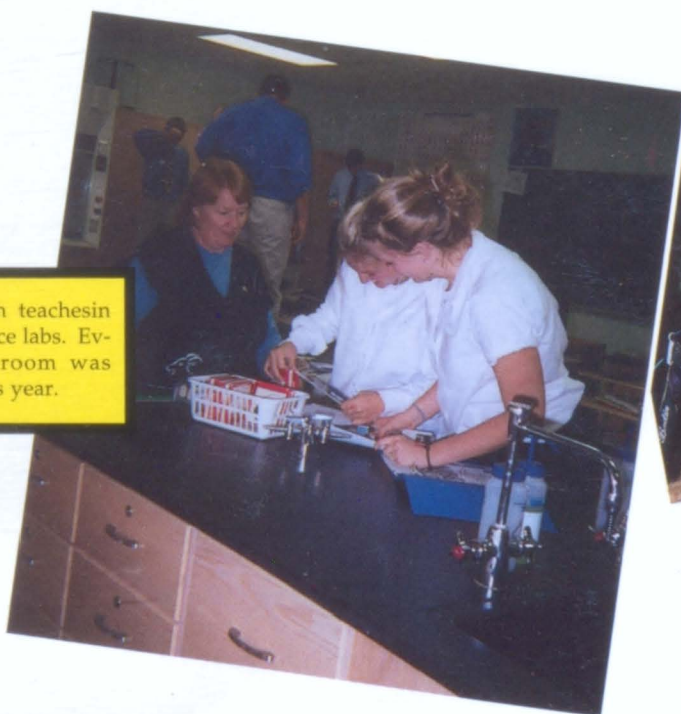

Representing their class are sophomores Ally Horvath, Brittany Dudley, Emily Zix, and Emily Slager.

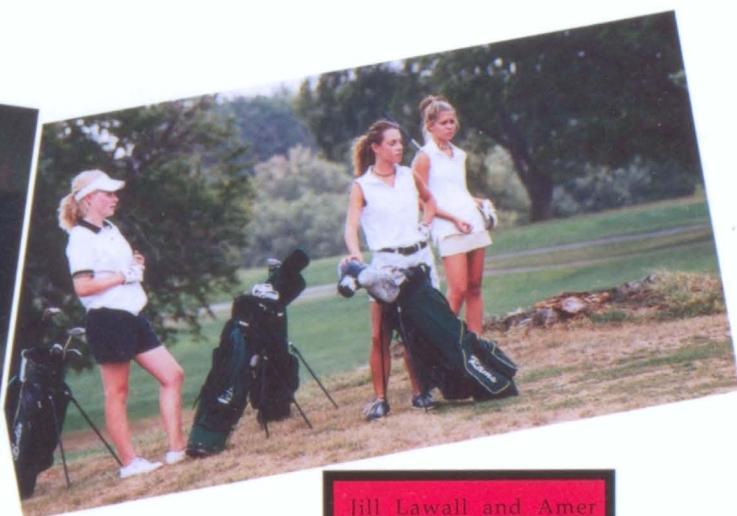

FALL

Mrs. Heinrich teaches in her new science labs. Every science room was renovated this year.

Jill Lawall and Amer Noonan check the course out before they start to play golf.

Doug Becker, Butch Smith, Terry Malone, Joe Walters, and Dean Wright, at the Hall of Fame banquet.

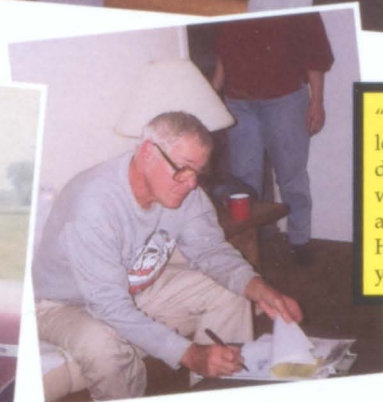

Terry and wife Betty enjoyed 40 years of marriage and 10 children before she passed away in 1997. Their relationship started while he was still playing football for Xavier. Terry spent many weekends driving to see her in her native Cleveland.

Mr. Malone with five out of ten of his brood. Betty, Terry, Therese, John, Bernie, and the family dog.

"Haven't you coached long enough to have some down pat plays?" This was a frequent question asked by the coach's wife. His answer, "No! Every year is different."

COACH MALONE

In 1966, Badin football was born. Coach Terry Malone is the man who started it all. Little did he know that he would create a dynasty of tradition that would change many young men's lives. Forty-six years and 357 wins later, he is the "winningest" coach in Ohio and number six in the nation. He is a legend people like to love.

His 300th win was a major milestone. He celebrated his 350th win during the 2002 season.

Coach: Coach Malone's career really began at Hamilton Catholic in 1957. He coached there for nine years before the all-boys' school merged with Notre Dame to create the co-ed Badin High School. When interviewed, the coach offered only wins and ties. He said, "I don't talk about losses. They don't matter." Likely comment from a man who looks only to win.

Teacher: Coaching isn't the only job Malone has had at Badin. His teaching of history and his sense of humor have also touched the lives of countless students. These days one can find Malone during second period in room 105 teaching his only class of the day.

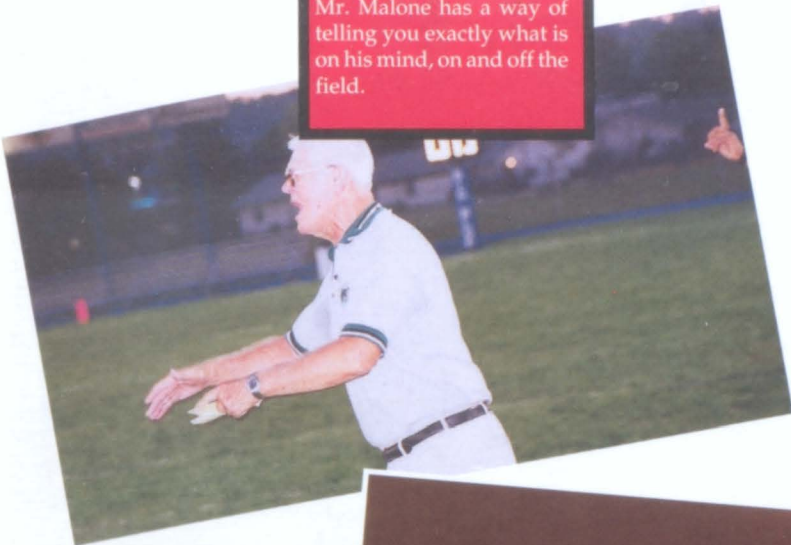

Husband: Malone met and married his wife Betty Jaroscak in Cleveland. It was a chance happening as he met her at a party with her cousin Bob Concolly who he played football with at Xavier.

Father: Malone has ten children ranging in ages of 46 to 23. Some say he created the perfect number—just the amount you need for a football squad. Five of those children are girls and five are boys.

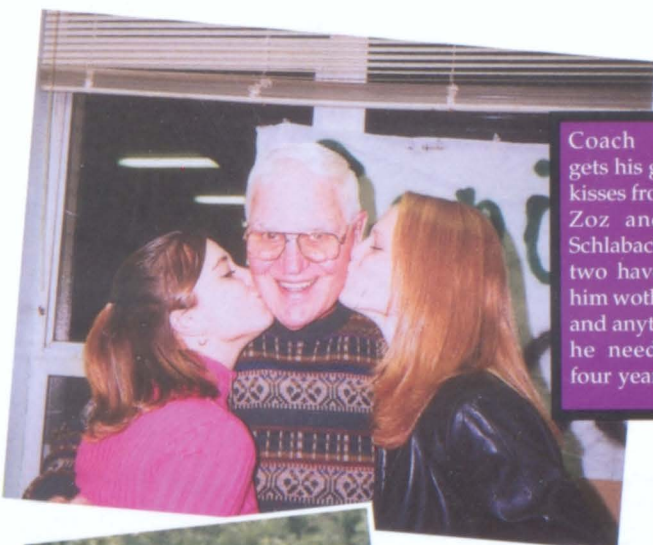

Friend: Many of Coach Malone's players later became friends of his. All of his assistant coaches today are former players. One, Paul Zimmerman, is now a son-in-law.

Dean of Boys: For years, Malone served as the dean of boys, much to the dismay of the male students. Making a stop at Mr. Malone's office was not something any one of them ever looked forward to.

Mr. Malone has a way of telling you exactly what is on his mind, on and off the field.

Coach Malone gets his good-bye kisses from Molly Zoz and Jenna Schlabach. These two have helped him with football and anything else he needed for four years

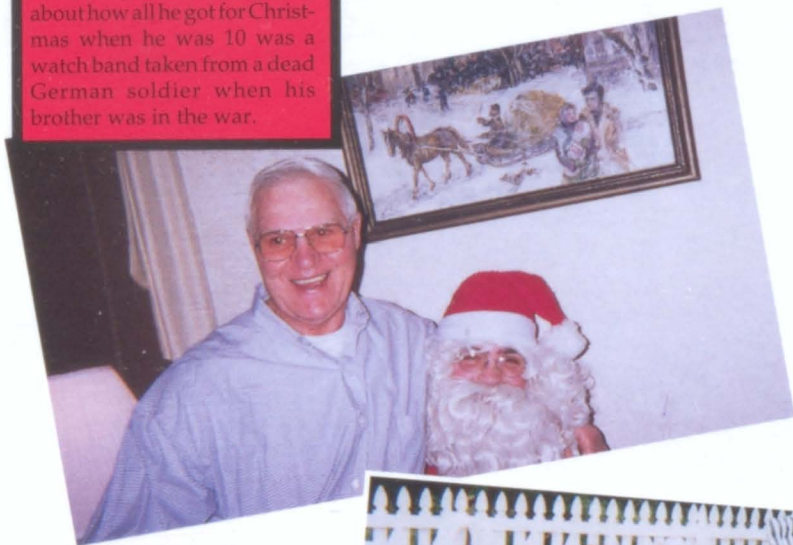

Coach Malone is hoisted onto the player's shoulders at a game in 1981.

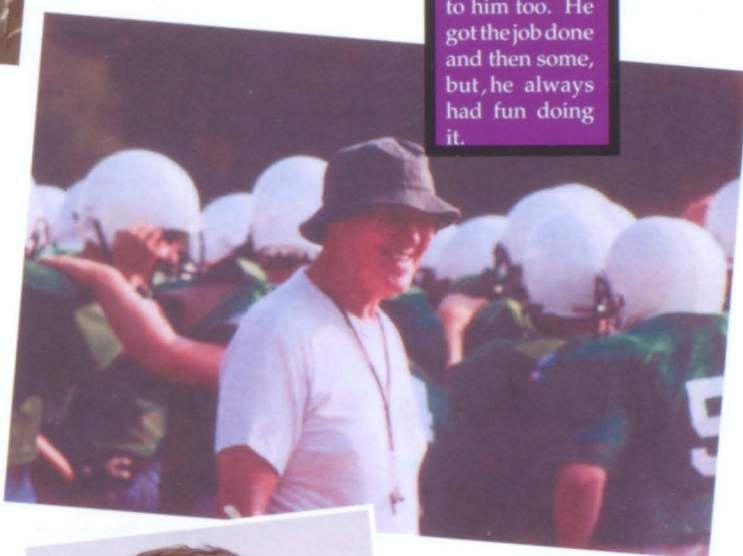

Coach Malone at a 2001 practice. This was the year he had his back surgery. Even though he had to sit most of the time, he never missed a practice.

Coach Malone sits on Santa's lap (Coach Flowers), telling the same story he tells every year about how all he got for Christmas when he was 10 was a watch band taken from a dead German soldier when his brother was in the war.

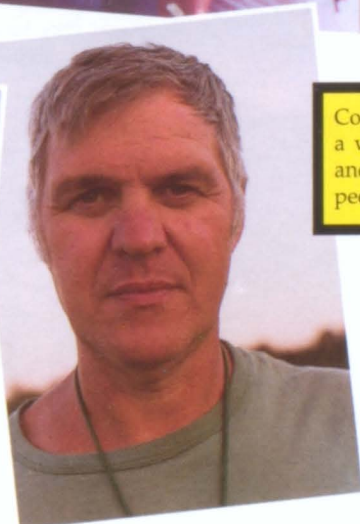

Coach Malone has a soft side to him too. He got the job done and then some, but, he always had fun doing it.

This is an odd picture. Coach Malone relaxing is one thing, but without a pen and play book is another.

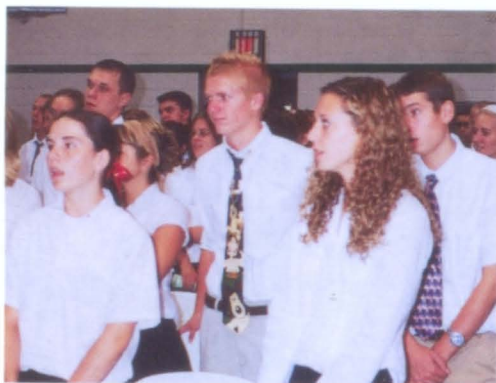

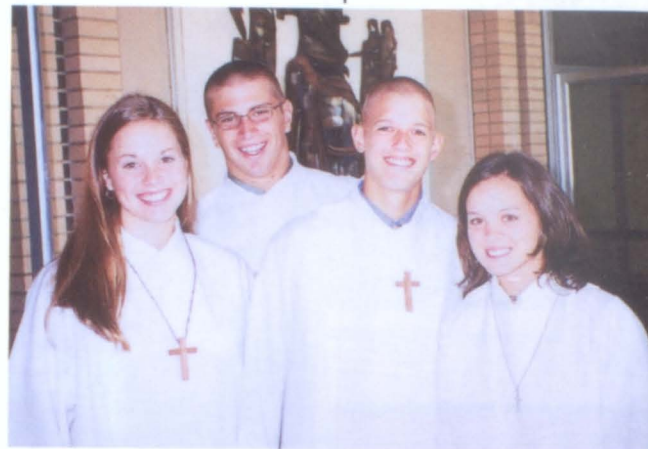

Coach Malone always had a way of looking at you and making you want to pee your pants.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

The Math, Religion, English departments gather together to share a celebration at Mass.

Getting involved with Mass is a great way to enrich your life like these students: Claire Alferts, A.J. Smith, Alan Wolf, and Katie Rains.

Kate Welsh and Ashley Combs try to set a good example for others by being Eucharistic ministers.

Julianne Hoekzema and Emily Teufel show their true selves at the January Jr. retreat. They became closer friends after their spiritual experience.

Happily gathered, Amy Gullet, Sarah Vocke, Natalie Nichting, and Lindsay Theiken pass out lyrics during the 9-11 annual mass.

Seniors David Shull, Wally Zancan, and Matt Westover relax after their dunking contest.

Senior Corey Jones looks for the young lady who he needed to give the goody-bag to after finishing his pie.

The cheerleaders take a break from the spotlight to watch fellow Rams on the dance team.

The senior football players wait, not so patiently, to be kissed by their biggest fans... their moms!

Seniors Jordan Haire, Danielle Wallace, Lindsey Kramer, and Lisa Mignery prepare to wave the R.A.M.S. flag at fall pep-rally.

Falling behind in the pie-eating contest at our winter pep-rally are seniors Joe Imoff, Kevin Rapien, and Michael Mayer.

The cheerleaders, including Tricia Smith, Danielle Purcell, Lauren Rosenberger, and Beth Lagagren are always ready to help with the Ram spirit.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Our pep-rallies are planned by different members of the Badin community. The cheerleaders, Mr. Allen, and the pep squad were all responsible for pep-rallies this year.

Emily Teufel

"I love being able to build up the school spirit with our cheers and enthusiasum."

"I think pep-rallies are great. I only wish we had more of them and they focused on specific teams."

Alan Wolf

"I like being able to get together with my friends and show our support for the teams."

ALL OR NOTHING

This exciting weekend started with the parade. Many people were worried that the parade would be ruined due to the weather. Lucky for us, the rain stopped about 45 minutes before the parade started.

Because of limited manpower, the float meetings at Molly Kugler's and Lori Davis's were long and stressful. The work of a few paid off.

The sophomore-junior float lights up the night with Matt Sloneker as the knight. Students worked hard at Ashley Staarman's and Lindsey Riegert's to make it.

Meridith Kiep, Emily Hurst, Tricia Baden, Jessica Peters, Emily Shellenbach, Jana Clear, Allie Horvath, and Allie Austin all made the freshman volleyball team this year.

Mrs. Winkeljohn crowns Ann Hinkle as our Homecoming queen. Ann went with Sean Morris to the dance.

Homecoming court members include Tara Ferdelman, Jenny Hessling, Ann Hinkle, Jessie Moore, and Leslie Eickelberger

Varsity cheerleaders ride in an old-time fire truck through the parade.

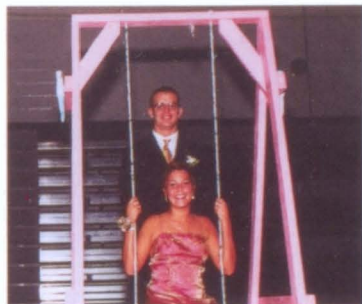

Heather Maus, Marty Schroeder, Alex Oswald, and Ashley Rue all met at Ashley's house to take pictures before the dance.

Sophomore Brennan Lawall attends his first date dance. His date was Brenda Dirr.

Senior Katie Baker and Brian Evers share their last Homecoming dance together. They have gone to every date dance together.

Leslie Eickelberger and Matt Allen pose after being announced at the dance.

Joe Andrews, Ann Graf, Cristen Chesser, Jenny Meehan, and Thomas Martin

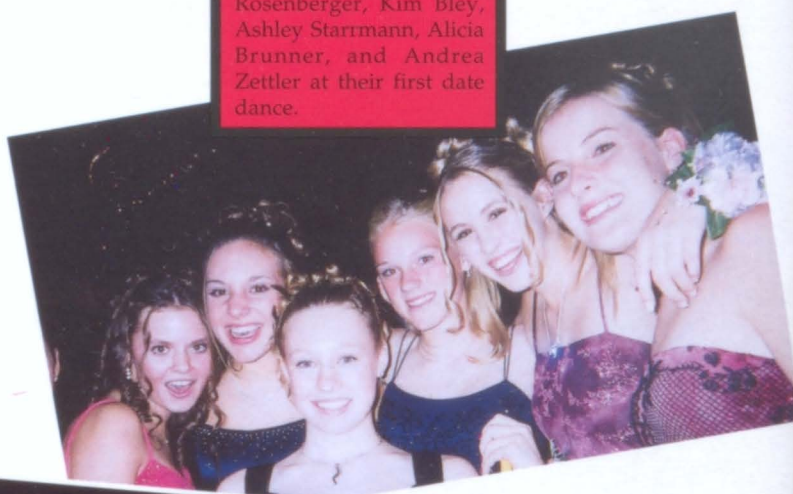

Courtney Kuzma, Natalie Nichting, Amber Massey, and Darci Bertsch team up for another date dance. These seniors have been friends since ninth grade.

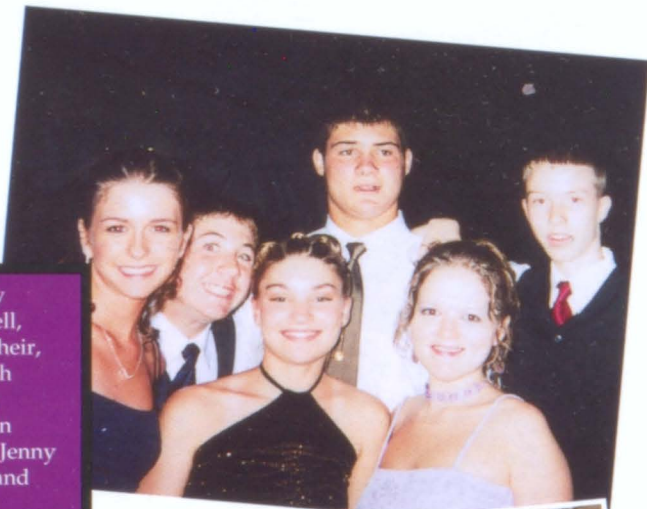

Juniors, Robbie Gilreath, Julie Milazzo, Alex Mittendorf, Kym Fiehrer, Lindsay Riegert, Sean Morris, and senior Caroline Koehler have a great night.

Katie Morner, Lauren Rosenberger, Kim Bley, Ashley Starrmann, Alicia Brunner, and Andrea Zettler at their first date dance.

Whitney Campbell, Jenny Their, Meredith Bossert, Christian Burgin, Jenny Lyons, and Zach Butterfield.

Student council member Molly McCaughey works diligently to get the gym ready for the dance.

Jenny Horvath, Nancy McAllister, Mandy Saurber, and Kate Mense wait in line to take their formal pictures.

Juniors Lindsay Pfirman and Chris Dever take time out of their normal dating for a formal night together.

Ashley Combs and Greg Vaughn came to the dance as friends. They went to dinner at Jimmy D's Steak House.

ALL OR NOTHING

Homecoming was on October 5th. Annie Hinkle was crowned Homecoming Queen. The gym was decorated with the theme of "Under the Sea." The theme song was "When you say nothing at all," by Allison Kraus.

Zach Ryan and Josh Kelly get overly excited when a favorite song is played.

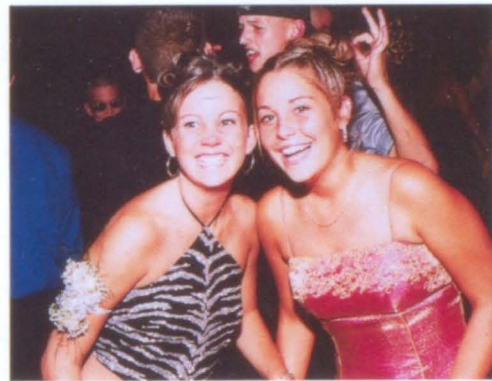

Lindz Thieken, Amy Gullet, Ashley Myers, and Heather Rumpke. Instead of going to a restaurant, Amy had a group of 16 people over to eat dinner.

After many shopping trips to get the perfect dress, Gina Vilkoski, Maria Alatorre, and Molly McCaughey finally can chill at their first Homecoming.

Court member Tara Ferdelman and date Chris Thomas slow dance to the theme song. Tara took the time to sing and record herself singing this song, which was played at the dance.

Ashley Matthews and Leslie Eickelberger pose for more than one camera. Ashley Matthews came with Craig Kleeberger and Leslie Eickelberger's date was Matt Allen.

"I had so much fun at Homecoming. Dinner was really good, and I had a lot of fun with Alex. It's kinda sad this was my last Homecoming. I'm going to miss it."

Stacey Beadle

"Macarroni Grill lost our order, so I was late for the dance and was only there for about an hour."

Kimmy Lewis

"My first Badin Homecoming as a student was fun and going with the queen added to it."

LABS!

Over the course of the year, renovations were completed on the new science labs. They were refurbished with new lab stations, dry-erase boards, shower and eye-wash safety features, as well as new fume hoods, electrical sockets, and new teacher stations. The rooms are now brighter and better equipped for the different teachings styles of each teacher. Through the caring donations of the friends and family of Badin, we were able to transform the science labs from their worn out past to their invigorated future.

Andy Sedlacek wraps-up the running back, for a 4th down stand as Chad McKinney comes from linebacker to assist as he has done before.

Freshman running back Storm Billingsley focuses intensely en-route to a touchdown. Storm played for the All Saints Gorilla Dogs in grade school.

Reserve halfback Zach Kreke misses a pass with outstretched arms by a small margin after beating the defensive back. Zach has been playing halfback since he was at Saint Ann's.

Junior varsity running back Mike McCarter follows his block by teammate Chad Smith on a punt return, hoping to get good yardage, or even better, a touchdown. Chad Smith is a transfer from St. Xavier.

Freshman quarterback Daniel Hurst takes the snap from center, like he did in grade school for All Saints, on his way to make a handoff.

Freshman Alex Woodrey is storming for a touchdown as his opponent tries to catch him. Alex is from St. Peter's, and it shows that he can fly like an eagle.

Freshman tackler Rob Fisher wraps up the tight end to prevent a large gain as his teammate dives to finish off the tackle. Rob played at Sacred Heart.

Reserve quarterback Nick Martini takes a seven-step drop behind his big blocking line and offensive backs while looking down the field to find his receivers. Nick played CYO for the Sacred Heart Trojans.

LOUD and Quiet

"Band has been a neat experience for me." Scott has played bass drum for two years.

Scott Long

"Color Guard has brought a lot of new great friends to me."

Cecelia Shannon

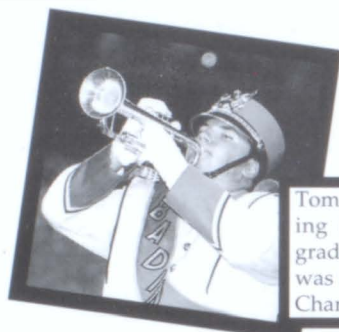

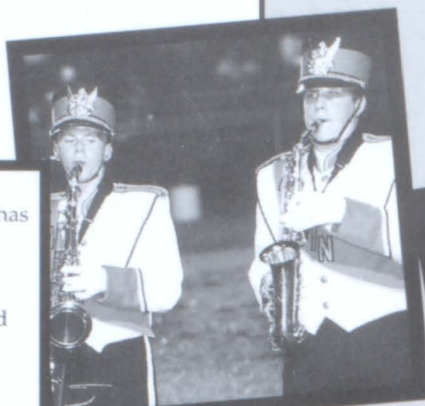

"Band is a lot more fun than people think it is. It's almost like the band is the narrator of a great story and color guard acts it out."

Jamie Lawson

Nick Cunningham has played tener saxophone for one year. He won the award for most improved marching and always plays before games.

Tom Mitchell began playing the trumpet in 5th grade at St. Peters. He was the Division 2 Grand Champion in 8th grade.

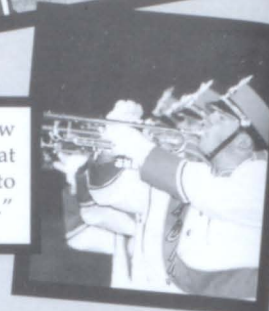

Andrew Mabry, has played the trumpet since 6th grade when he attended Talawanda.

Eric Benzing started out freshman year playing the trumpet then progressed to playing the percussion bass.

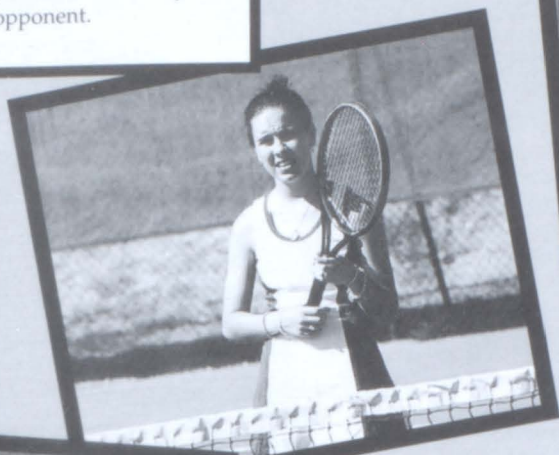

Tom Mitchell and fellow band members say that their favorite song to play is "Louie, Louie."

Paul New, Eric Benzing, and Anthony Kernan play the drum sets. Paul has played the snare drum for three years.

Returning for her last year, Senior Kate Welsh eyes the opponent.

Her first year with the team, Jessica Flannery prepares for a powerful return.

Sarah Botos stays tough and alert, proving that even as a new member, she has what it takes.

As a new but strong member of the team, Lori Alfors was determined to play her best this season.

Kylee Weigand and Jessica Flannery finished a successful season by making it all the way to state!

Playing tennis for many years, Ashley Combs is a successful and talented asset to the team.

RECEIVE and RETURN

Ashley Combs

"Tennis is a learning experience. I wouldn't want to play any other sport."

Lauren Brill

"Tennis is a life-long sport."

Kate Welsh

"I've never had a more rewarding year."

Jeff Pater, sprints for the ball in his first year of high school soccer. After a seven year absence for the game, he realized he still loved the game.

Reserve player Eddi Jones fights for the ball against C.H.C.A. Eddi had a stong freshman season for the Rams JV.

Two defenders are split by varsity player Ryan Nelson. Ryan lead the team with 39 fouls throughout the season.

Captains: Ryan Doyle, Ryan Nelson, Dan Neugebauer, and Alexander Raible. Dan Neugebauer and Ryan Doyle have played varsity for three years. Sophomores Alexander Raible and Ryan Doyle have played varsity soccer for two years.

Sophomore Rick Ruhe makes a move towards one of his nine goals for the season.

Dan Neugebauer goes up to win a head ball. Dan was one of the four captains this year.

Third year player, Kris Meyer makes a contribution in the open field.

Reserve player Eric Ryan makes a stellar move past a defender. As a freshman Eric started every reserve game.

Freshman Matt Dean shows off his skills against CHCA defenders. Matt was the leading scorer on the JV team this year.

Anthony Roberto was one of only two freshman to play varsity this year.

BACK and Forth

Coach
Tony Brown

What was the highlight of this season?

"Beating LaSalle was the by far the highlight of this season. This was only the second time we had defeated a GCL south opponent since entering the league."

What are you looking forward to most about next season?

"I think the thing I am most looking forward to about next year would be that all 11 of our starters will be returning next year."

Sophomore Hugh Anderson makes a move towards the goal. Hugh led the team this year with 4 assists.

Sophomore Drew Wurzelbacher played a large roll in this year's varsity season.

HARD and Soft

"This year was great. We had our ups and downs, but we always pulled through. We were all like sisters."

Stephanie Caudill

"This year's season was really close. Even though our record did not show it, over all our season was great!"

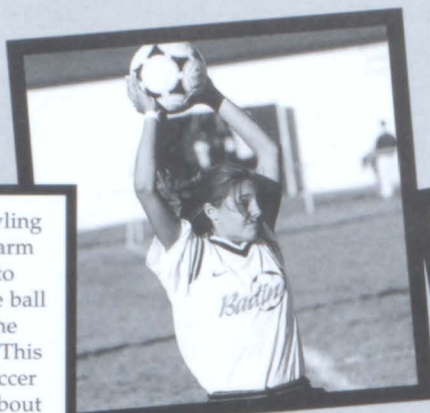

Ann Hinkle

"I am really going to miss the team. Hopefully the seniors next year will continue on with our traditions."

Stacy Beadle

Alex Bowling uses her arm strength to throw the ball in from the sidelines. This shows soccer isn't all about legs.

Tracey Bauer and Karli Wurzelbacher help one another to warm up for the game. They've played together for three years in high school.

Megan Jeffcoat shows off her foot-work and skill with the soccer ball. Megan tries to incorporate these skills in every game.

Jennifer Puma shows she has had a full recovery of her hip injury last year. She always hustles hard.

Brittany Langen and Bethany Fohl keep playing hard, like they did in tryouts to get them to this game.

Kari Kiley dribbles the ball with a stern facial expression that she normally does not have during the school day.

Jennifer Puma, Alex Bowling, Maria Alattore, and Jennifer Farhner protect the goal from a corner kick. All four sophomores played together last year as freshmen on the reserve team.

The varsity team huddles up, like they do at every time out and before and after each game, to get themselves pumped up.

Women's Soccer

Michelle Ketterer is practicing her light touch that earned her a varsity spot as a junior.

Leslie Eickelburger rushes hard with the enthusiasm that she has shown in the past three years.

Kelsey Fontaine keeps the ball in front of her while also keeping her opponent behind her.

Tri-captains, Ann Hinkle, Stacy Beadle, and Stephanie Caudill, have become close teammates over the past four years. They meet with the other team captains and referees for the coin toss.

Freshmen Jessica Peters got ready for this season by playing Borderline

Senior Heather Menke had a total of 23 digs while senior Jennifer Click had 44 for the season.

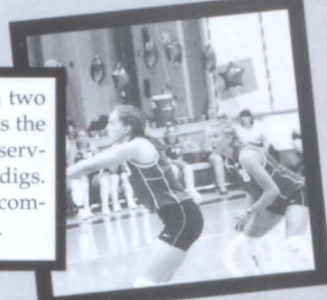

Freshmen, Ally Austin and #8 Jessica Peters use the great skills they learned through the St. Ann program.

Katie Bridges, JV player, says, "We had an okay year, but my goal for next year is for it to be more challenging and to win."

Senior, Elizabeth Franz, a two year varsity member, ends the season with a total of 11 serving aces, 47 kills, and 102 digs. Junior Lindsay Riegert accomplishes a total of 110 digs.

The varsity coaches Becky and Rob Long are stepping down after this season with a record of 14-10.

Setter, Emily Gagle, sophomore, is a first year player because she was hurt freshmen year.

Freshmen Allie Horvath earns her position on both the freshmen and JV team with determination playing middle.

Freshmen Emily Hurst says, "I had a blast this year, even though it was a challenge. I learned a lot."

Varsity starter Jenni Horvath received the most valuable player award for having 190 kills. Theresa Bill received the inspiration award for having a total of 24 blocks.

Freshmen, Katie Adams says, "This is my second year of playing, and I really like it."

Senior Darci Bertsch and Katie Baker finish their volleyball career after playing since 5th grade.

HIGH AND LOW

"Mymom coached me at St. Peter's and taking the jump into high school ball was challenging."

Megan Flum

"I had a lot of fun this year and I got to become good friends with two freshmen."

Sarah Tobergte

Senior, Lisa Mignery #11, sets many plays, such as: the hut, middle one, and a back five. She set a total of 163 sets for kills.

"My best memory of this season was when Lauren Burns thought you had to use a tee for every shot."

AMBER
MASSEY

"This was my first year playing golf, and I loved it. Every match we had so much fun... win or lose."

AMBER NOONAN

Dan Carley loves to play at Shaker's Run in his spare time and one day hopes to be as famous as Tiger Woods.

First year golfer, Amber Noonan, won the award as Most Improved Golfer. She improved her game this year by over 15 strokes.

Freshman Matt Maus is proud to play on the varsity team and says his role model is Tiger Woods.

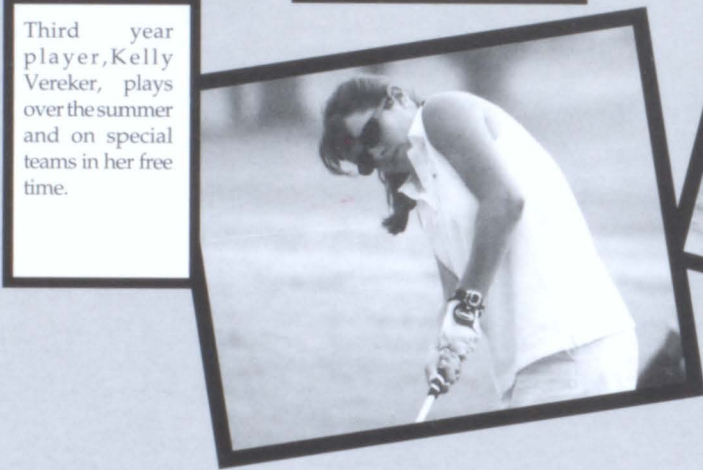

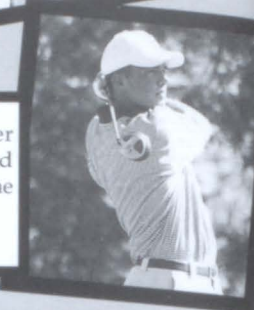

Captain Matt Thein went to state and enjoys playing at Potters golf Course.

Senior Jill Lawall received Honorable Mentions and GGCL awards.

Captain Steven Zettler won MVP this and was the only senior on the boys' team.

Third year player, Kelly Vereker, plays over the summer and on special teams in her free time.

Captain Amber Massey won the first-team award and MVP. She has played golf since her freshman year.

Samantha Schmitt played her third year and attended workshops over the summer to improve her game.

Robert Lakes, Matt Leuthold, Joe Guggenbiller, Ryan Bennett, Alex Pauly, and Craig Kleeburger. Seniors Ryan Bennett and Craig Kleeburger led the Rams to their first place finish at Winton Woods and their second place finish at Xenia Christian. Matt Leuthold, Joe Guggenbiller, and Alex Pauly all helped the boys' team to qualify for regionals.

Coach Meehan, father of Jenny Meehan, gives a reflective pep-talk to the boys and girls.

Julianne Hoekzema's season led her to the first team all star team. Julianne also qualified for regionals.

Moving fast; Jolivet, Graf, Lewis, Andes, and Hoekzema. Hoekzema, Lewis, and Graf made the all star team.

Runners Frank Guggenbiller, Kurt Hubbard, Michael North, and David Giuliano begin with a powerful lunge from the starting point. These freshmen and sophomores were fast at the meets. The boys received first place at Winton Woods and second at Xenia Christian.

Having a slow, quiet moment, the girls gather in a huddle to inspire and encourage one another.

Members of the team said, "We called Craig Kleeberger 'hero' because he was such a good leader."

Working hard, Matt Leuthold makes his third year on the cross country team his best. He ran his best time ever at Rapid Run.

Junior Maria Brock pushes through to make it to the finish line. This was Maria's first year running.

Taking it slow, seniors Jolivette, Wiegand, Calvert, Graf, and Keating celebrate their last year together.

Senior Sean Lehman and Junior Matt Leuthold, show how much fun practice can be.

FAST and SLOW

Christy Calvert

"My best memory of the team was when my best friend, Beth Jolivette and I crossed the finish line at the same time."

Ryan Bennett

"My best memory was when we turned a port-o-potty over so Rick Mick couldn't get out."

Ann Graf

"My best memory was that we always brought toilet paper to the Elder meet because we always ran out."

Compliments of Badin DECA

2003
Senior DECA Students

Joel Sackenheim and Paul New were in Light in the Park. Joel said, "It's hard work, but it is worth it."

Senior Tyle Gattermeyer earn his spot in National Honor Society for his hard work, good grades, and being involved.

The sophomore girls tug-of-war team get set up before they lose to the seniors in the first heat.

Mr. O'Hara and Mr. Allen show their buff and tuff side while sporting their green colors for spirit week.

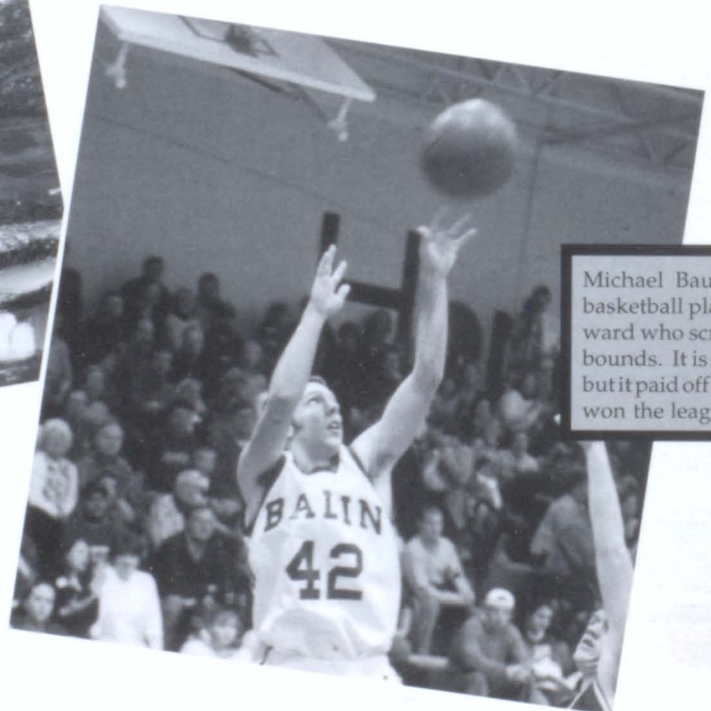

WINTER

Winter symbolizes a halt in activity and death. The earth shows signs of such things as dead trees and grass, snow, and a shortage of sun. However, this is deceiving. Underneath this inactivity, there is an abundance of life, growth, and change. So it is at Badin.

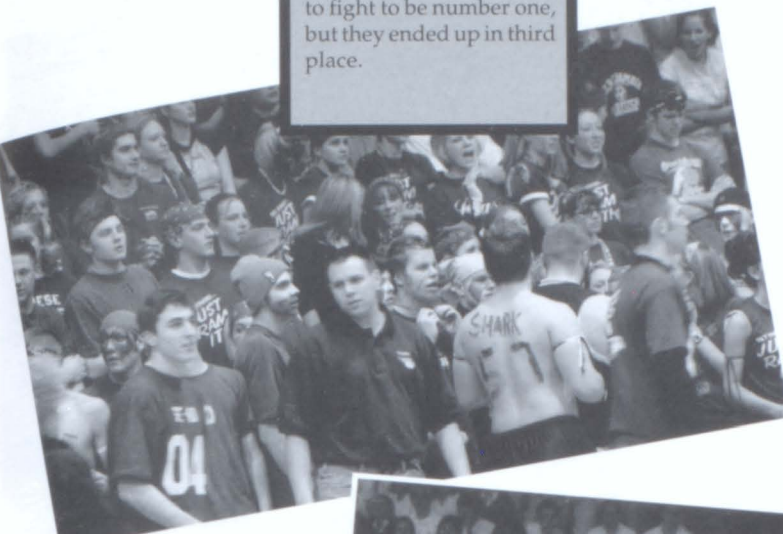

Ty Ehrnschwender has been a swim team member for the past four years, and he swims the butterfly.

Michael Baumann, a JV basketball player, is a forward who screens and rebounds. It is a lot of work but it paid off because they won the league.

The junior class gets ready to fight to be number one, but they ended up in third place.

Caitlin McCoy, a post, says, "We had a good season with new coaches and all but next year it will be hard because our team will be broken up."

Teresa Meier was tapped into NHS by Mr. Gretz, her junior year. She said she earned this honor because she is so involved in the community.

Freshman Emily Seger prepares herself to practice the breast stroke and the free style for the next meet.

Seniors, David Shull, Angie Koenig, Greg Vaughn, Amanda Fritz, Mike Ryan, Lisa Mignery, Joe Imhof, Courtney Kuzma, David Meiner, and Sara Morner prepare for the basketball relay against the sophomores.

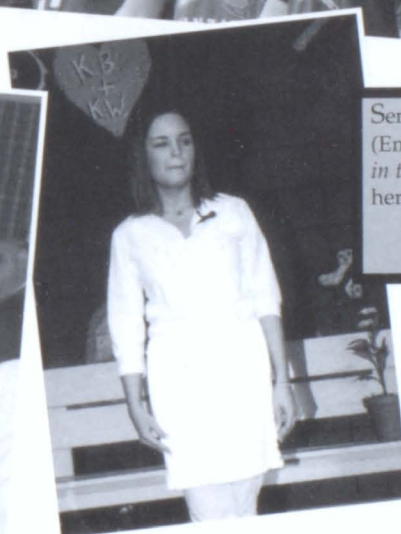

The freshmen students came into the spirit olympics tied with the seniors because they won the penny war and the can food drive, but the seniors still won.

Freshmen, Matt Hessling is on the JV bowling team and as a high score of 248.

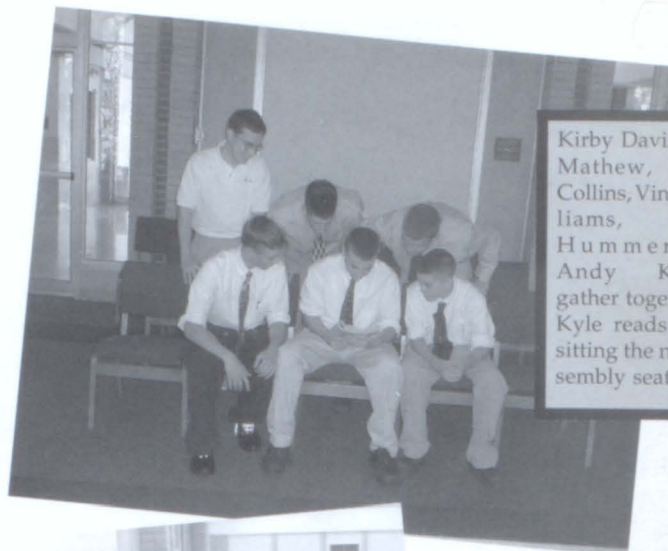

Senior, Tara Ferdelman (Emma) in the play A Light in the Park is singing about her baby.

This is the old chapel before the new doors, new carpet, newly remodeled sacristy, and new paint was done.

Kirby Davis, Kyle Mathew, Brice Collins, Vince Williams, Brian Hummer, and Andy Koenig gather together as Kyle reads while sitting the new assembly seating.

This is the music group getting ready for the One Acts before the walls were painted and the new carpet.

Christina Hartkeymeyer, Carley Brown, and Jennifer Click stop and take time out of their daily schedule to enhance their spiritual being.

NEW & IMPROVED

The capital campaign produced the necessary funds to renovate the chapel and Little Theater. The improvements have made it better for students to practice their faith and to enhance their artistic abilities.

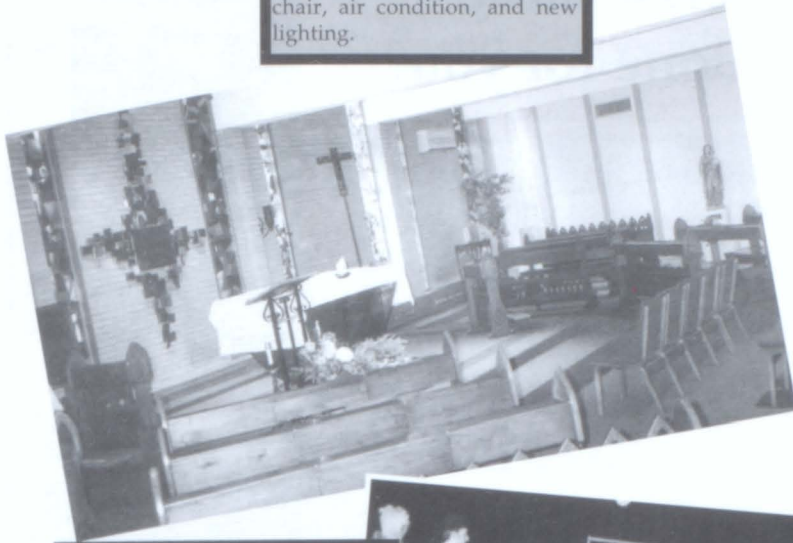

Senior Amber Massey writes in the petition book for a loved one that she cares about.

Billy O'Hara uses the new sound system in the Little Theater to rehearse for the one -acts by asking Megan Jeffcoat a question.

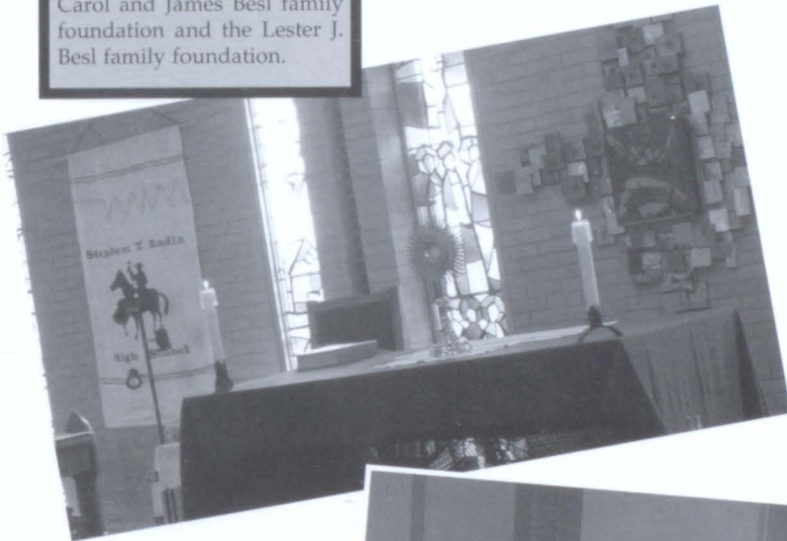

The new chapel consists of some of these things: new president's chair, air condition, and new lighting.

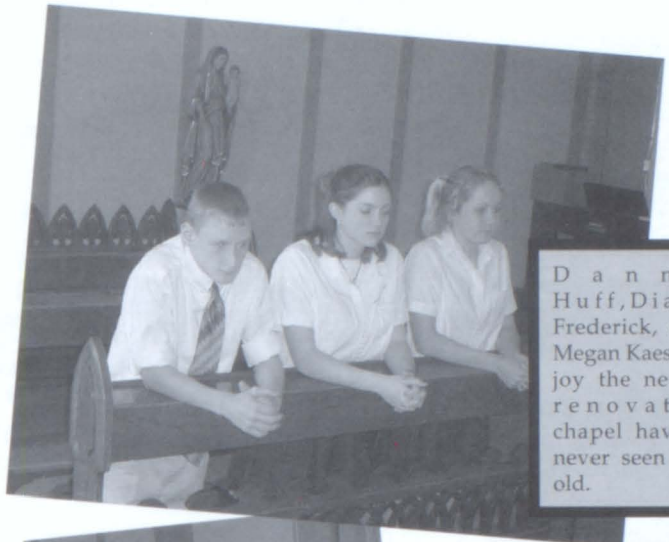

The Little Theater looks forward to the future because it could experience many new changes, such as new seating, new curtains, and new lighting.

The chapel was made possible through the generosity of the Carol and James Besl family foundation and the Lester J. Besl family foundation.

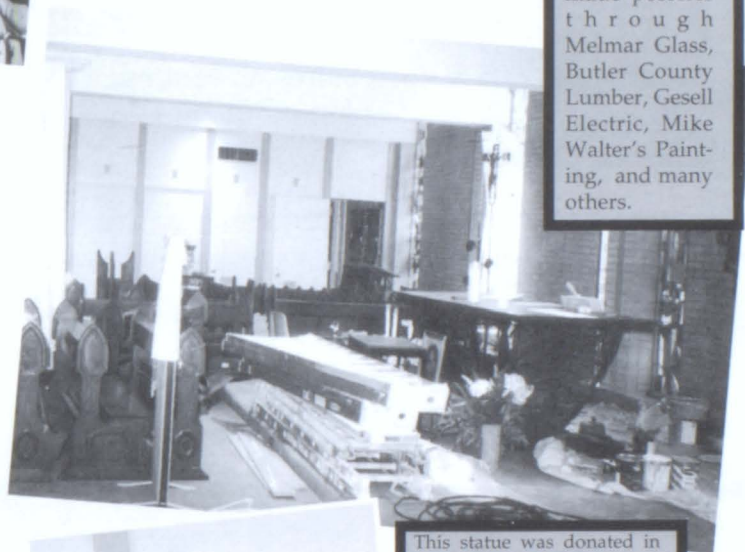

Danny Huff, Diane Frederick, and Megan Kaes enjoy the newly renovated chapel having never seen the old.

Jen Martin, Teresa Meier, Ashley Davis, and Sarah Tobergte reflect in prayer in the cleaned up pews from Notre Dame High School.

These renovations were made possible through Melmar Glass, Butler County Lumber, Gesell Electric, Mike Walter's Painting, and many others.

This statue was donated in memory of Mrs. Regina Minnick from her family and friends. Abby Minnick, a freshmen, remembers her mom and their great times together.

Gina Milillo, Diane Zettler, Shannon Clark, along with other classmates bow their heads in prayer praying for all the soldiers in Iraq in the new chapel.

What is the sweetest thing someone has ever done for you?

Ellen
Shaver

"He put a ring in a box of chocolates and when I opened it, in place of one of the chocolates, was a ring."

Ellen Shaver

Travis
Broermann

"My little sister wrote me a note thanking me for things I have done for her."

Travis Broermann

Katie

- Mike McCarter
10th grade

- I'm leaving this year, so my class won't get to benefit from it."

-Emily Bisdorf
12th grade

- The school will look better, and we will all be able to benefit."
- Kristen Schneider
11th grade

CON

PRO

How do you feel about remodeling the school?

What makes the relationship with you and your best friend so special?

She is someone you don't find everyday. You can trust her and she always puts others before herself.

Jessica Flannery

A best friend is someone who is always there for you.

Jason Westerbeck

You can tell exactly what the other one is thinking without even saying a word, and you can relate to each other.

Jana Clear

We totally understand each other's moods and how to deal with them. We can sit in total silence and not think anything of it or be extremely hyper and never shut up. We're also totally honest with each other.

Lindsay Riegert

Mr. Rains teaches his AP government class. This is the first year that Badin has offered government as an AP college credit.

Chris Ahn, Megan Reckner, Katherine Baker, and Scott O'Donohoe review curriculum in Mr. Merz's 5th period class.

All Work AND No Play!

The AP classes are designed to give college credits to students who take college level courses at Badin. To receive their college credits, the students must pass a series of tests that are designed by Xavier University. The students learn the tough curriculum and prepare all year, then they are administered the tests towards the end of the year. This year 3 AP classes were offered at Badin: Government, taught by Mr. Rains; Calculus, taught by Mr. Merz; and English, taught by Mr. Renneker.

3rd period AP government students listen to Mr. Rains lecture about current events and to his insightful jokes on politicians.

Mr. Renneker prepares to teach his 6th period AP English class.

Chris Ahn, Megan Reckner, Katherine Baker, and Scott O'Donohoe have a small study session during Mr. Merz's class.

What's your favorite thing about AP government?

William O'Hara

"My favorite thing about AP government would have to be the small class size."

Jordan Haire

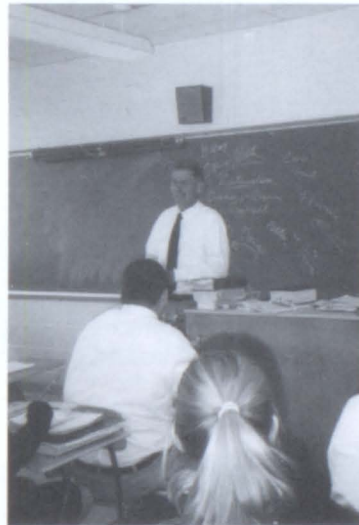

"I love how we are always making fun of politicians."

Tyler Gattermeyer

"The way the class prepares me for college would have to be my favorite thing."

Mr. Renneker listens to what his 6th period students have to say about "naturalism."

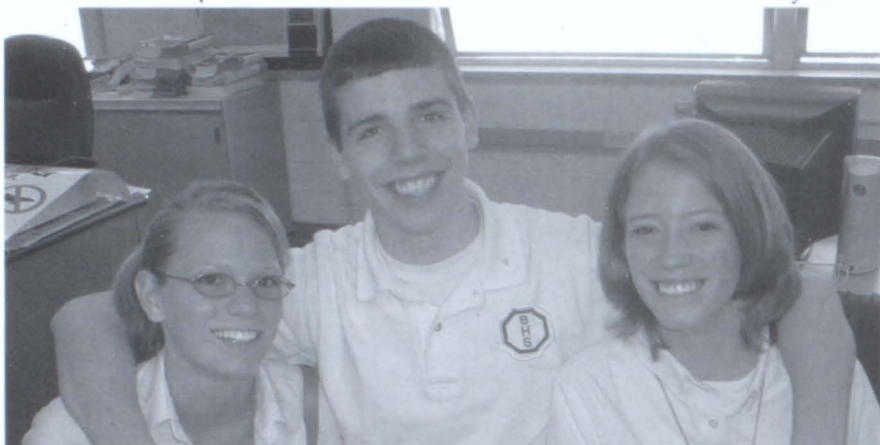

AP students Steven Zettler and Caroline Koehler dissect a cat in physiology.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The good, bad, and the ugly. Yearbook is an extremely rewarding experience. However it is a journey filled with many pit falls, frustrations, and celebrations.

Jenna Schlabach, Greg Vaughn, and Katie Baker do extra work to make their senior yearbook the best.

The senior members of the yearbook staff: Molly Kugler, Jenna Schlabach, Greg Vaughn, Katie Baker, and Molly Zoz

Junior Jeff Pater leans in to top of the drive. Jeff also led the team with 84 assists this year.

Freshman Storm Billingsley rises above the competition to hit a 15' shot from the wing. Storm also played freshmen football this year.

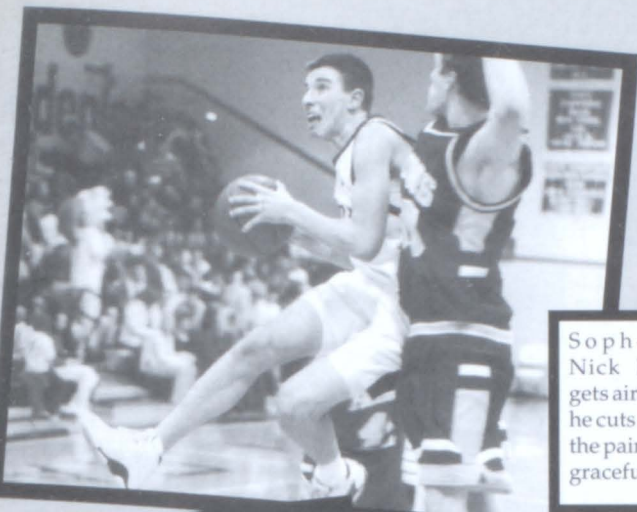

John Strittholt pulls up from the elbow against Fenwick. He led the JV team in scoring this year.

This was Sean Morris' first Badin basketball season. Sean transferred from St. Xavier this year.

Men's Basketball

Sophomore Nick Martini gets airborne as he cuts through the paint for the graceful finish.

Freshman Ben Combs works hard down low to come up with the offensive rebound and the score.

Passing out of the corner Drew Maus was second on the team this year in assists.

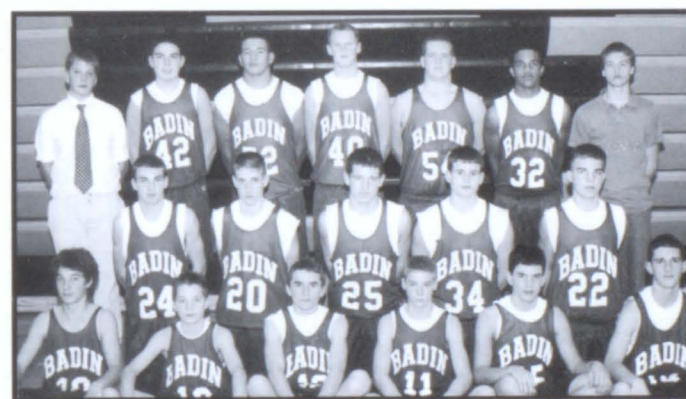

Jv. post player Jerry Young battles inside for the rebound and the put back. Jerry lead the team in blocked shots this season.

Kym Fiehrer gets a hand on her opponents ball while Amber Massey gets her hands up in the girl's face to protect against any possible passes.

Lindsey Pfirman, a junior on varsity, makes it look so easy. She puts up a nice smooth lay-up as everyone else just watches on.

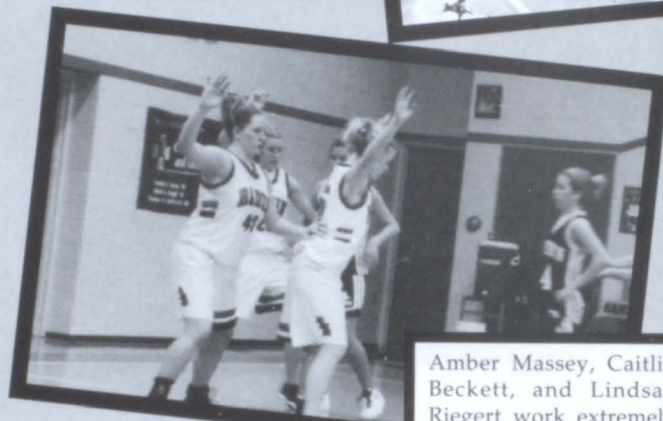

The coaches sit their five players down, like they do at most half-times, time outs, and in between quarters; this usually helps the girls to regroup and it also gives the coaches a chance to correct them.

The varsity girls' team gets into a low huddle to pump themselves up for their game. They usually do this to discuss both personal and team goals.

The three seniors, Sara Morner, Amber Massey, and Lauren Gersbach sit in front of their proud parents as the crowd takes pictures.

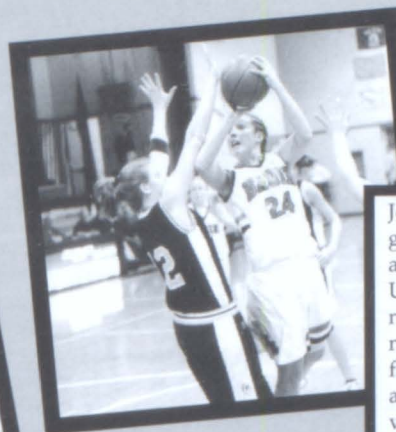

Senior Lauren Gersbach beats her St. Ursula defender off the dribble. Lauren has played varsity for three years, one of which as a swing player.

Amber Massey, Caitlin Beckett, and Lindsay Riegert work extremely hard to keep the ball away from the goal. They are very good at help defense.

Lindsay Riegert drives, with determination on her face, towards the goal. Lindsay's C.Y.O days included playing for St. Julie's.

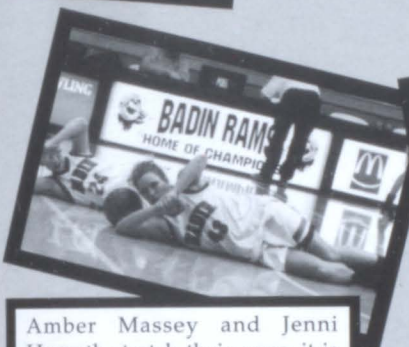

Jenni Horvath goes up strong against her Urusla opponent. Jenni did not play her freshman year and has been a varsity player for two years.

Kym Fiehrer struggles to put her shot up with her opponent's hand on the ball. Kym is a St. Peter's grad who has played for seven years.

Lindsey Pfirman, a 5'2" junior point guard, gets ready to beat her opponent off the dribble as always.

Amber Massey and Jenni Horvath stretch their arms; it is very important for them to loosen up to avoid any injuries. They are two of the three post players.

Lauren Gersbach and Joel Sackenheim flash the crowd their smiles on senior night. They have been a part of the basketball program for four years.

IN and Out

Amber Massey

"Our season's record can't explain how much out team accomplished and grew. They were a great group of girls and I'll miss them a ton."

Sara Morner

"This was the best season so far, and we were an awesome team. I wish them much luck next year."

Lauren Gersbach

"This season was great over all. I don't have any regrets about how it ended. I will never forget the great times we shared."

Freshmen Team Photo: First Row- Katie Feters, Kelsey Fontane, Kristi Beadle, and Abby Minnick. Second Row- Jennifer Stitzel, Sarah Gabbard, Lori Alfes, Amanda Carlson, Allison Smith, Tara Dinkle, Krista Meyer, Brittany Langen, and Brittney Dudley.

Brittney Dudley reaches intensely around the defender to pass off to her teammate. Brittney was on the Queen of Peace undefeated 8th grade team.

Freshman Kari Jackson steps around the defender to make the pass. Kari went to Talawanda before coming to Badin. She plays up on the JV team.

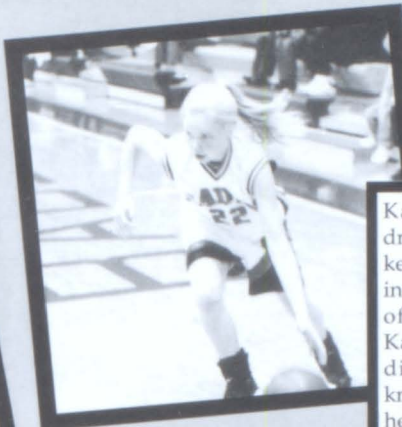

Freshman Krista Meyer jumps on the ball handler to apply pressure, hoping to cause a turnover. In the 4th grade, Krista was on the bench, but when she came to Badin, she became a starter due to her hard work.

Freshman point guard Abby Minnick leaves just enough cushion between her opponent and herself so that she can be ready to guard against any possible move.

Junior varsity forward Laura Brown posts up the defender as she calls out for the ball. In five years at St. Peter's, starting in the 4th grade, Laura and her team went 61-2 in CYO.

Katie Feters drives to the basket to score. During the first half of the season, Katie unluckily dislocated her knee cap forcing her to miss the remainder of the year.

Jennifer Stitzel

"My favorite moment off the court was when Kelsey tried to jump on the stage, caught her foot, and busted her butt."

Freshman Brittany Langen begins to pick up her dribble as she sees one of her teammates post up for the ball. Brittany also played on the undefeated 8th grade QP team.

Kaitlin McCoy gets in the face of her opponent as she rejects her attempted shot. Kaitlin has aspirations to play college ball after high school.

Amanda Pate

"I was never on the court so I always had fun off of it!"

Freshman Kristi Beadle, with pressure from her opponent, passes to teammate Tara Dinkle as she breaks to the ball for support.

Kristi Wooten, a junior and varsity player, gets her defender on her heels as she decides what to do with the ball. Kristi started playing at the Salvation Army when she was six years old.

"The team dinner at LaRosa's when we reminisced about the hilarious moments of the season was the best moment off the court."

Lori Alferts

Coach Greg kneels down during a time-out of the JV game to go over a revised plan for the attack against the visiting team.

Freshman Allison Smith attempts to block the shot of the offender while teammates Brittany Langen and Abby Minnick prepare to move in for the rebound just in case the shot goes off.

HIT OR Miss

"It was a lot of fun and I was excited to see the team get started."

Ann Graf

"Next year we're going downtown."

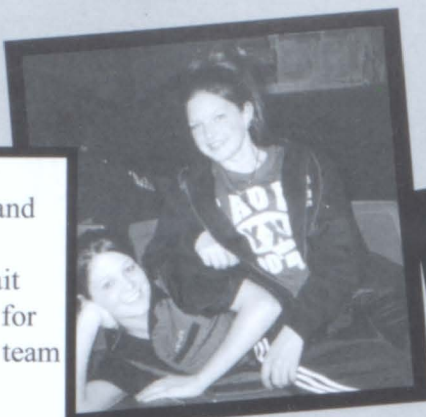

Ryan Fiehrer

"I love being on the team and I had such a great time!"

Kelly Schutte

Amber Noonan and Vanessa Turco wait patiently for the other team to arrive.

Coach Helms fills out the team line up as the girls get pumped.

Gina Pater gets the ball polished and ready for the win.

Reserve player Matt Hessling had an awesome first year on the team.

Even with Jordan's strikes in this match, the Hamilton girls still came out on top.

Reserve players Kristen Schneider and Karen Williams had an exciting first season.

Exchange student Ying Wongsasing gathered many new friends on the team including Coach Gina Helms.

Matt Hessling and Dan Neugebauer look up, pleased with their scores, but it wasn't enough for the Hamilton boys!

Swimming

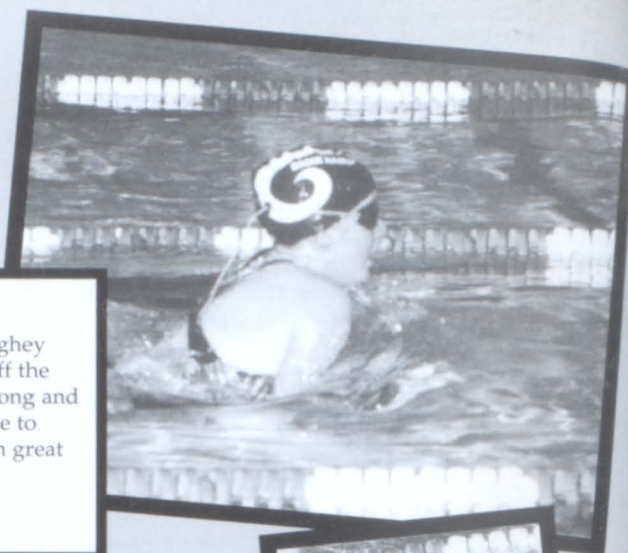

Jana Clear, a first year swimmer at Badin, says, "I had a great time watching the team grow together over the swimming season."

Top: Eric Johnston, Andy Sedlack, Matt Slonker, Kevin Rapien, Ty Ehrnshwender, Eric Ehrnshwender, and Ryan Kell
Middle: Leslie Eickelberger, Maria Alatorre, Molly McCaughey, Elizabeth Gadeleta, Cara Hardig, and Andy Flick
Bottom: Amanda Fritz, Beth Jolivet, Caroline Koehler, Kate Mense, Trevor Bufler, and Megan Jeffcoat

Matt Slonker and Ali Horvath both were state qualifiers this year. Matt qualified in freestyle and Ali qualified in freestyle as well as qualifying in backstroke.

Molly McCaughey starts off the race strong and was able to finish in great time.

Amanda Fritz turns up during her freestyle stroke to catch a quick breath before finishing the race.

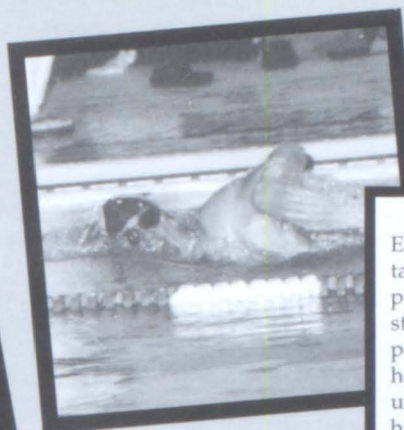

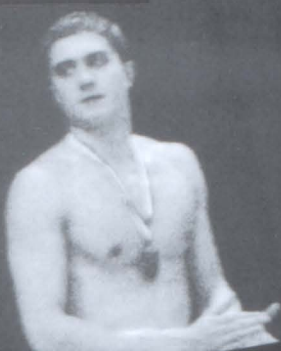

Ali Horvath readies herself for the starting gun at a race this season. She went on for state competition.

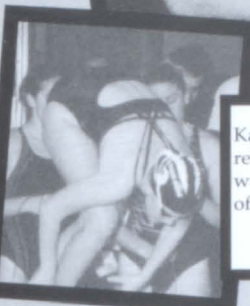

The team is displaying the good times that the team has together when they are together as a group at meets.

Matt Slonker was awarded a sixth place medal for 50 freestyle at districts.

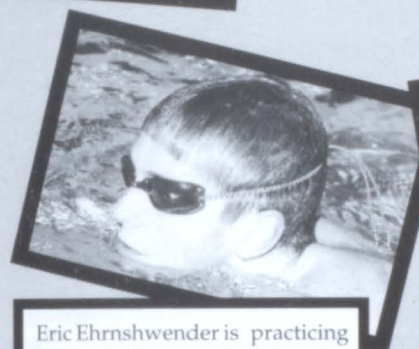

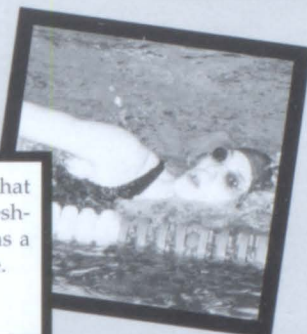

Ty Erswinder takes a powerful stroke to power his head to come up for a breath.

Kate Mense watches as her relay partner comes into the wall as she gets ready to dive off the block..

Jana Clear is showing that even though she is a freshman swimmer she has a good stroke technique.

Eric Ehrnswender is practicing hard to following in his older brother Ty's footsteps.

Beth Jolivet and Leslie Eickelberger, both senior swimmers, are enjoying their swimming practice together.

Cara Hardig

"I enjoyed swimming with my friends on the team, because we had a good time together."

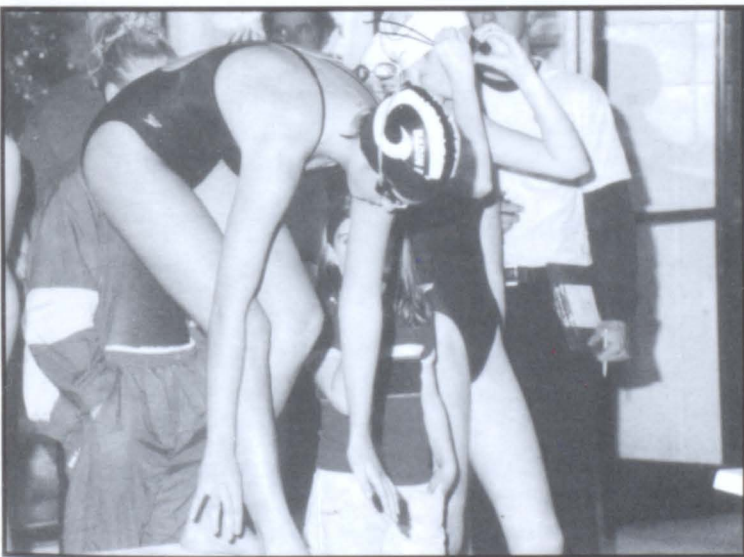

Andy Flick

"The season was good, but I wish they would change how state qualifiers were picked."

Kate Mense

" We have a blast no matter what!"

Caroline Koehler goes down for a head start to give her a powerful start to her race.

Cara Harding is diving hard through the air to add to this relay's power.

SEEN AND HEARD

"Cheerleading has taught me so much about life, leadership, responsibility and working as a team."

Tricia Smith

"Cheerleading has been the best experience of my life. I have no regrets and it has been so much fun!"

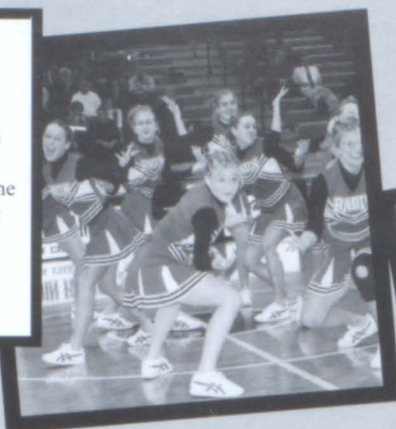

Angie Koenig

"I'm glad I had another chance to be a part of such a wonderful team. I've had a blast and I will miss it dearly."

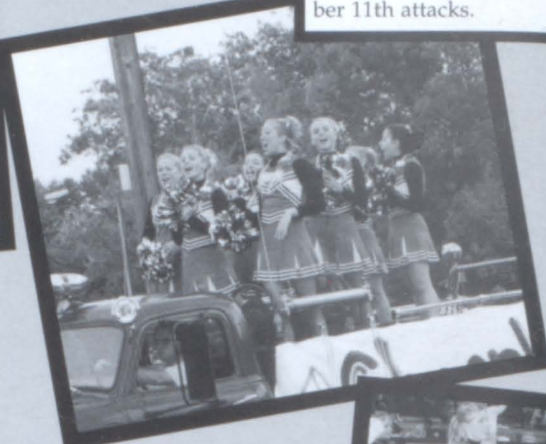

Danielle Purcell

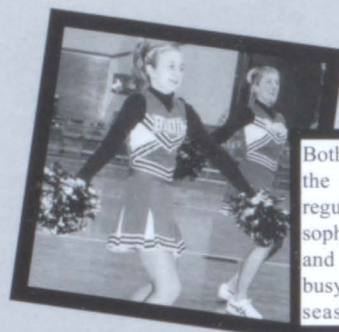

The junior varsity cheerleading squad is known for their cute dances. Here the girls perform at half-time, showing huge smiles and attitudes.

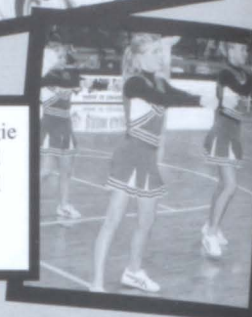

The varsity squad borrowed an old fire truck for the Homecoming parade from a friend, in honor of the firefighters who risked their lives at the September 11th attacks.

Both girls, members of the competition squad and regular cheerleading squad, sophomores Jill Conese and Diane Zettler stayed busy this cheerleading season.

Varsity cheerleaders Angie Koenig, Tricia Smith and Tawni Riley show school spirit while performing the "Fight Song".

The varsity cheerleaders promoted school spirit during the parade by passing out green and white beaded necklaces to the fans watching from the sides.

The reserve and varsity cheerleaders all agree that their favorite band dance to perform at both football and basketball games is "Tequilla".

Cheerleading

Working hard all summer long to perfect their half-time routine, freshmen Caitlin Brewer and Megan Conneley perform at summer camp.

A co-captain of the junior varsity squad, Shannon Clark shows off her moves during the JV half-time dance.

This year the JV cheerleaders were given the privilege to cheer with varsity at both home and away football games. Here the two squads meet to perform the "Fight Song".

Freshman Cheerleaders:

Front Row: Megan Conneley, Brooke Schnieder, Amanda

Back Row: Beth Burkart, Melissa Arthur, Diane Fredrick, Bethany Moss

Getting prepared by making up their dance in the summer, the JV girls had plenty of time to perfect and polish.

This summer at camp, Beth Lagergren was nominated for All-American cheerleader, tried out and made the All-American cheer squad.

After wishing the other cheerleaders on the opposing team good luck and introducing themselves to them, the varsity cheerleaders prepare for their hello cheer with help from The Ram.

Each year at the end of the basketball season, the varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders come together for an end of the season half-time performance.

Gymnastics

What do you like about coaching?

Denise Nicholas

"I like being able to give something back to the school and I really enjoy having Lindsay's help."

Lindsay Saurber

"I was on the team for four years and I loved being able to coach this year with Denise. The girls did really well and I'm proud of them."

Battling between two sports, Melissa Arthur still has the energy to nail a perfect beam routine.

First year gymnast, Olivia Stewart, performs her floor routine for the first time at the Lakota East Quad.

A ritual before every meet, the team gathers together to pray the "Hail Mary".

Stretching their bridges to warm up their muscles, the team poses for a picture."

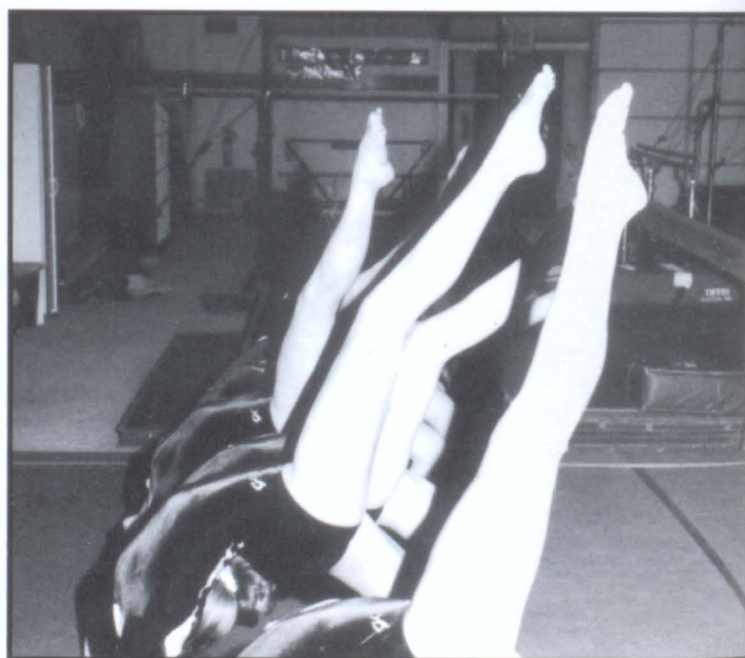

After competing and awaiting awards, the team helped Lakota East put away the equipment.

With a winning smile, Meghan Connelly finishes her routine to "Chicago".

To carry out her routine, Bethany Fohl remains tight and concentrated.

Trying to keep her balance on the beam, Emily Falk practices her wolf jumps.

While doing complexes on the beam, Kellie Moore stands tall.

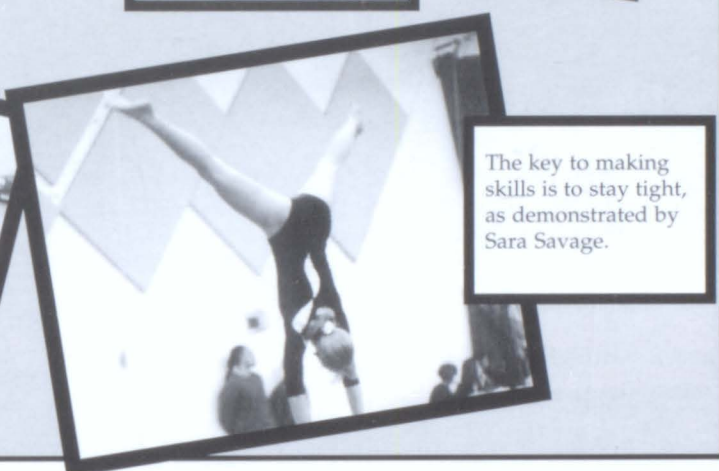

Jumping high, Torie Mohr strives for success on the balance beam.

After seven years of competing gymnastics, Abby Leisge jumps like a pro.

Performing her handspring vault, Meghan Connelly applies her athletic talent.

The key to making skills is to stay tight, as demonstrated by Sara Savage.

HERE and THERE

Emily Teufel

"I've done gymnastics my entire life, so it's a huge part of me and I enjoy it."

Jill Conese

"I learned a lot from gymnastics, and it's a lot of fun."

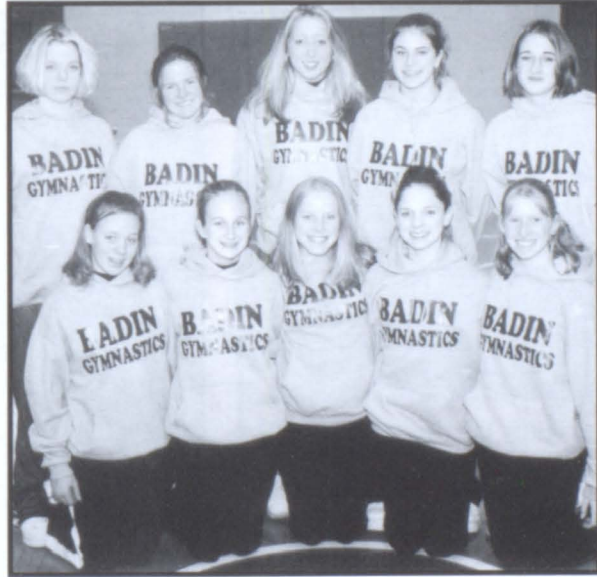

Olivia Stewart

"Gymnastics is a hard sport to catch on to, but I love the people and we have fun."

After a great season, the girls competed at the Southwestern Individuals Meet and received second place.

Pep/ Jazz Band

Mr. Moore

"What inspires me to instruct pep and jazz band is that when I was in high school and college I played in the pep and jazz bands. It is a fun group and we get to play and study popular songs."

Pep Band: First Row: B. O'Hara, K.O'Hara, R. Suttmiller, C. Shannon, and R. Clark.
Second Row: A. Schidler, B. Fox, V. Williams, E. Benzing, K. Lloyd, and T. Mitchell.
Third Row: K. Groh, R. Suttmiller, N. Cunningham, E. Bown, S. Long, G. Palmer, J. Kirk.
Fourth Row: A. Gallina, A. Ingram, P. New, A. Maubry, Z. Stubenvoll, A. Zix.

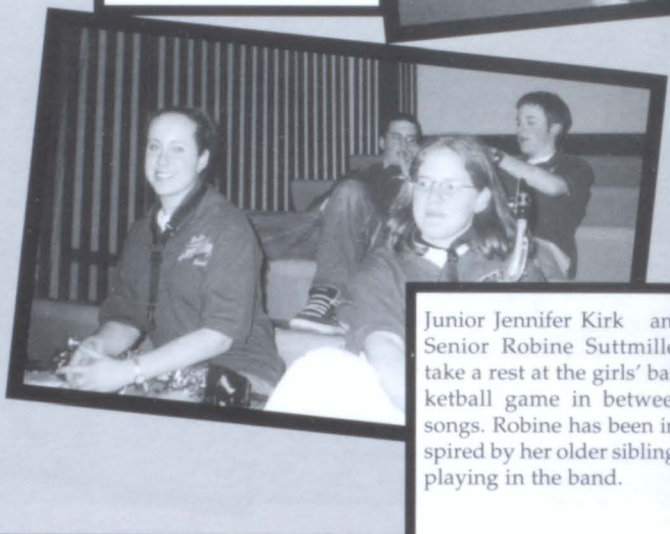

Outside playing in the band, Seniors Billy O'Hara and Ricky Clark get down to work in religion class. They are highly devoted to their faith.

Senior Kim Lloyd has been devoting her time as a pep band member since freshman year.

Sophomore Eric Benzing has been preparing a long time to play the drums for the pep band at Badin.

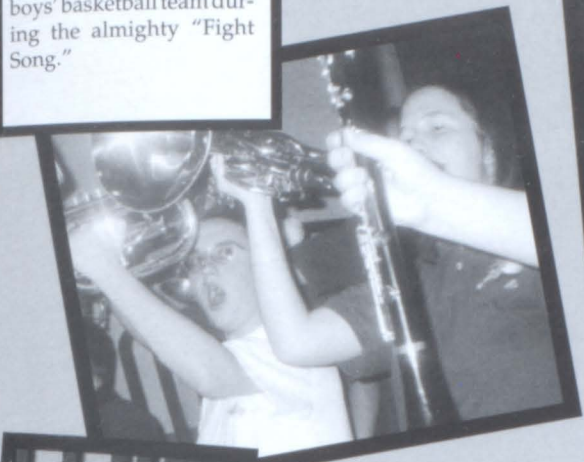

Junior Jennifer Kirk and Senior Robine Suttmiller take a rest at the girls' basketball game in between songs. Robine has been inspired by her older siblings playing in the band.

Paying close attention to Mr. Moore, the band instructor, the band lifts their powerful instruments, striving to be heard. The sound of the band pumps everybody up and get ready for game time.

Freshman Kristen O'Hara and sophomore Vince Williams cheer on the boys' basketball team during the almighty "Fight Song."

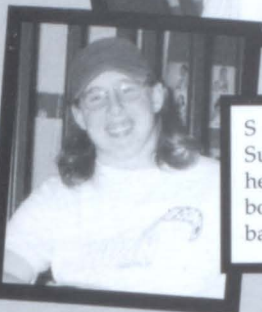

Freshman Anthony Gallina enjoys playing the clarinet in the band. He says he has been playing for five years.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BEING IN THE BAND?

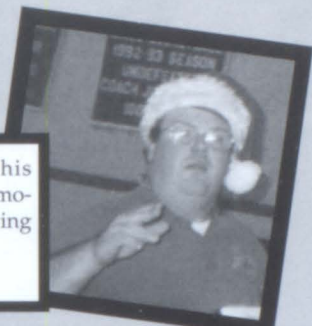

"I love playing the guitar in front of people and being seen by everyone. It is a great feeling."

Ricky Clark

Senior Rebecca Suttmiller, along with her twin sister Robyne, both enjoy playing in the band in their free time.

Mr. Moore, wearing his Santa hat for Christmas, motivates his band to playing their best.

"The best part is getting to support your school and playing old music."

Kim Lloyd

Freshman Kristen O'Hara shows her humorous side during a basketball game with the band.

Seniors Ricky Clark and Billy O'Hara share a meal at lunch. They both are relieved to be seniors this year.

"The major benefit of being a part of this group is getting into the games free."

Robyne Suttmiller

Sophomore Cecilia Shannon and Senior Kim Lloyd celebrate their Christmas season by playing for the band at the girls' basketball game during Christmas break.

Jazz Band: First Row: Billy O'Hara, Vince Williams, Aaron Ingraham, and Kim Lloyd.

Second Row: Kristen O'Hara, Anthony Gallina, Tom Mitchell, Eric Bown, and Paul New.

All of the new members involved in the National Honor Society were asked to take an oath of service. They pledged they would uphold the standards of leadership, service, scholarship, and character. Each member being inducted is based on the National Honor Society handbook.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

President of the computer club, junior Kim Fackey was tapped by it's moderator, Mr. Gretz.

Leading the precession into the ceremony, seniors Clair Alfers and Kevin Rapien.

Achieving high statis in the arts, senior Carly Wurzelbacher is asked to joining NHS.

Members and family enjoy the lunch set-up after the tapping ceremony.

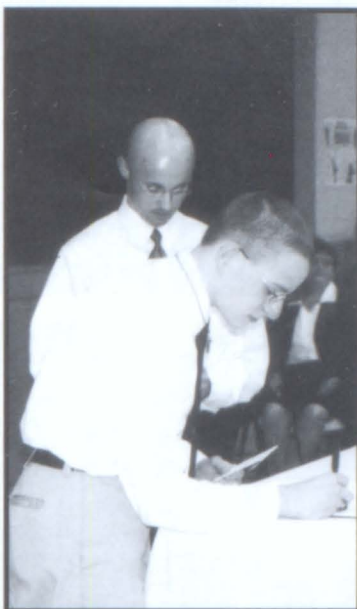

Elated by the honor of being accepted into the society, senior Katie Baker was tapped by Publications teacher, Mrs. Cook.

A new member of the National Honor Society, junior Stephanie Hingsbergen was tapped by Mr. Finnigan.

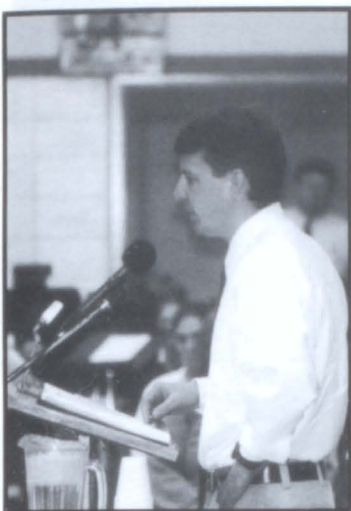

Surrounded by the support of his family, junior Jason Westerbeck was tapped into the National Honor Society.

Excelling in all aspects of his academics, junior Tim Truster was tapped by Mr. Samples.

Tapped by Mrs. Jeffcoat, junior Matt Thien enters his name into the NHS book.

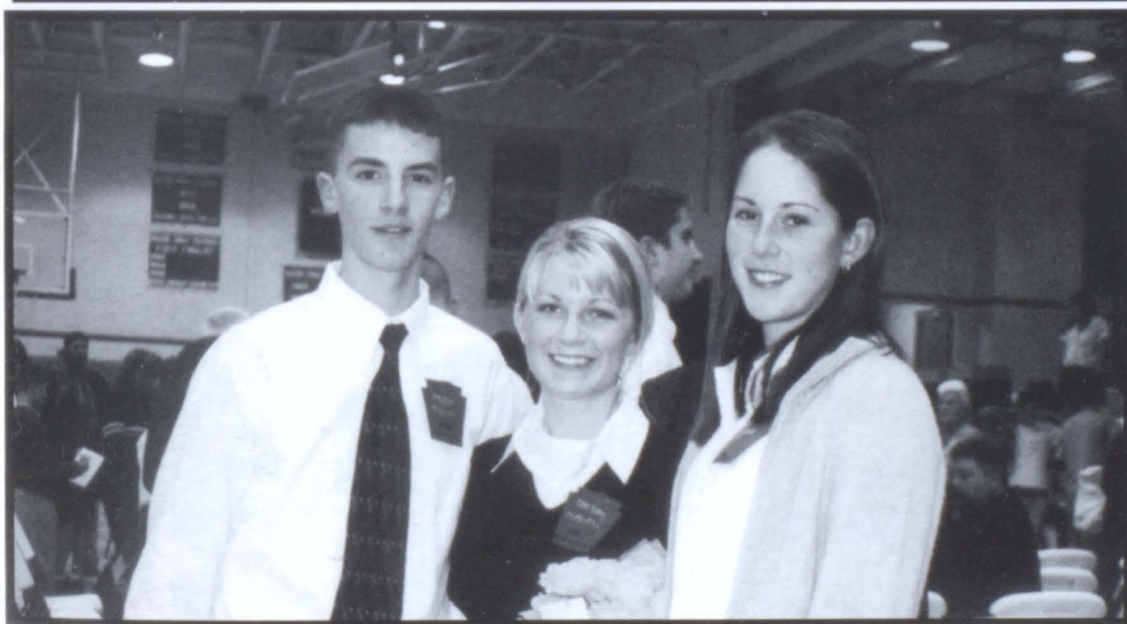

Once a teacher at St. Julie's, guest speaker Steve Connaghton shows his excitement in being with former students.

Joined by her mother and sister, former Badin student, Rachel, junior Tracey Bauer enjoys lunch.

As juniors Karen Williams and Kari Miller walk out of the tapping ceremony, they join their parents in enlightening conversations.

SIMPLE AND COMPLEX

Introduced into the NHS family, Juniors Matt Thien, Darby Mahuew, and Kylie Wiegand congratulate one another prior to their lunch together.

Rebecca Suttmiller, varsity player, says "I started playing first base then went to playing catcher because of an injury on the team."

Varsity pitcher Ry Bowling said, "Badin baseball gave me the opportunity to improve my skills and because of that, I will be able to play college baseball next year."

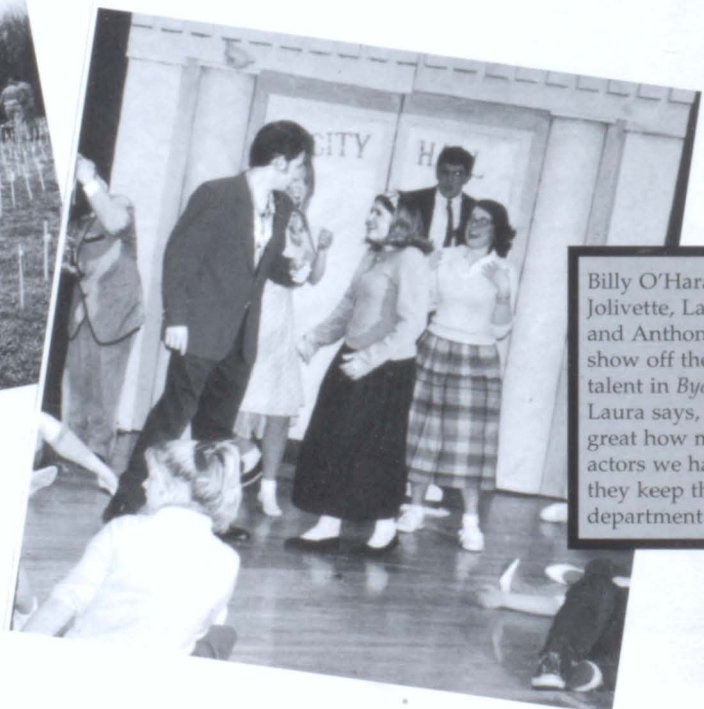

Senior Alicia Brewer led the freshmen day of recollection and Alex Woodrey was in her group. She said, "I never thought I could become so close to underclassmen, but this year I ended up spending a lot of time with some of them."

Spring

Spring brings an abundance of life that's taken its time changing over the long winter. What once appeared dead is now vibrant with color and activity.

Rob Lagergren and Kyle Pfirman help marketing put up the crosses for Right to Life week. The crosses symbolize 4,400 abortions each day in the United States.

Billy O'Hara, Beth Jolivette, Laura Beckman and Anthony Gallina show off their acting talent in Bye Bye Birdie. Laura says, "I think it's great how many new actors we have. I hope they keep the drama department going."

Tara Dawn Christensen, former Miss Kansas and Miss America 1997, talked to the students about abstinence awareness. Her message was, "Do what you say you will do."

Bill Roach, JV player says, "I love the game and love the players, they are like my brothers, they taught me many things about myself."

Chris Ahn, Andrew Maybry, and Andy Guidugli are all actors from Bye bye Birdie. Andy Guidugli says, "Bye Bye Birdie was fun because I got to meet in people and I liked being in front of all those people."

The girls softball team says, "One, two, three. Hit some, get some." The girls won the GGCL.

Senior, Lori Davis and her dad Norbert Davis dance together at the Father Daughter dance. Lori says, "It was a fun time to do a little jig with the pops".

Brother Joseph Kamis, the new superintendent of schools for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati spoke to Rob Fisher and Kelly Vereker during a get acquainted visit.

Jason Kleeberger dances with his mom at Mom prom. Jason says, "It helped me start a new relationship with my mom."

Senior Matt Noe leads the freshmen day of recollection, two of his group members were Danny Huff and Alex Saurber. Alex says, "I got to meet people I've never met before."

BADIN CELEBRATION

The Badin Celebration produced the necessary funds to help with the music, arts and athletic program. The fundraiser raised over 80,000 net profit.

PRO

What are the pro's and con's of being short?

What was your worst date ever?

My first date was my worst. I was 13 and not only did my boyfriend and I go to the movies but my grandma and mom too! Thank God they didn't sit with us!

Bobby Bowling

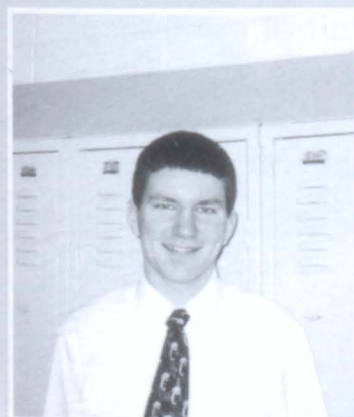

When I took out my old friend Racheal, I didn't know it was a date until she pulled in the middle of the street and forced me to kiss her while cars were honking behind us.

Zeek Kreke

I went bowling with my date and he kept yelling right before I was about to bowl and made me throw the ball into the next lane. He kept trying to sip vanilla coke through his nose. It was so gross!

Paula Miller

I cut myself shaving and it would not stop bleeding all night.

"The year wasn't the best but we had fun on and off the field, especially going to fast food restaurants."

Alex
Woodrey

His second year on the team, Chris McCaughey pitches, striking the batter out.

Kyle Matthews, before hitting a homerun, takes his batter's stance at the plate.

Freshman Matt Maus prepares to catch a grounder. Throwing the ball to first, he gets the runner out.

Reserve coach Joe Kunkle, his first year coaching for Badin, looks on as his players beat Elder.

Playing baseball since he was in grade school, Chad McKinney gets in position for the pitch.

As the starting pitcher for the freshman team, Alex Woodrey pitches an excellent game, helping his team beat Moeller.

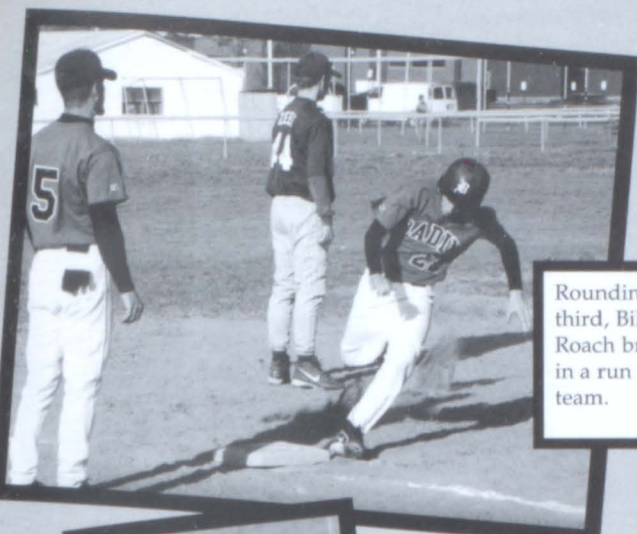

Matt Hessling comes into home plate after a hit that scores the team yet another run in their victory against Purcell.

Before going up to bat, the team gets together for a breakdown to pump up their spirit.

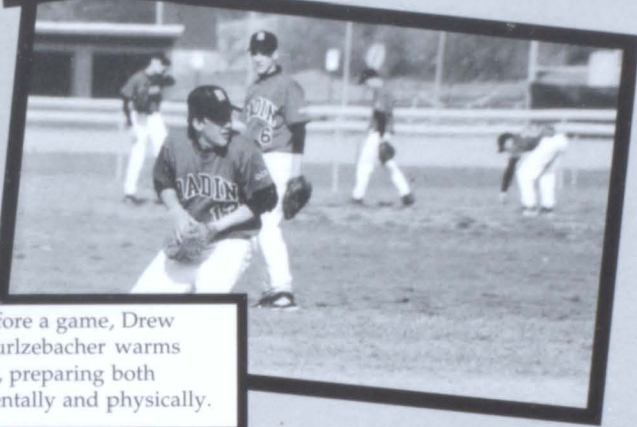

Baseball

Rounding third, Billy Roach brings in a run for the team.

Jonathon Jones successfully catches the ball, throwing it to first, getting the batter out.

Before a game, Drew Wurlzebacher warms up, preparing both mentally and physically.

After hitting a homerun, Billy Roach is congratulated by his teammates. Billy has played baseball his freshman and sophomore years in high school and says that he can't wait until he is on varsity.

Katie Lintner has played shortstop since her freshman year. Katie shows this shortstop who's boss.

Her first year on the team, Renay Adams gets in her batting position. She played second base and outfield.

Playing for two and one half years, Natalie Nichting, who plays center field, slides into third. "Safe!"

Kym Fiehrer has played on varsity since her freshman year. After her third year on varsity, she says, "The team is a family and I am proud to be a part of it."

Jennifer Click has played for three years. She plays all outfield positions. Teammates can vouch for her. Her best play was at the ross tournament during the Edgewood game.

Katie Rains has played for varsity since her freshman year. Senior year has been her favorite. She says it has taught her a lot. The team is a big family and it will be hard to leave. Rains received first team GGCL.

Heather Menke, a fourth year athlete, playing left field most of her years, gets up to bat and sets her stance. She made second team GGCL.

Brittany Dudley was the catcher for the team this year. She has been playing ball since kindergarten.

Gina Vilkoski plays center field. This is her second year on the team. She is a good ball player.

Kelly Vereker plays second. She always wears sunglasses at the games. When up to bat, Kelly has her own trademark. She hits her helmet, the base, and then sets to bat.

DIRTY and Clean

"If you can't convince 'em, confuse 'em."

Stephanie Saurber

"A positive attitude is the key to success."

Sarah Vocke

"When in doubt, mumble."

Tracey Harrell

The varsity team gathers in with the coach for a serious talk about being a team and knowing the game. Coach Greg is known for his inspirational talks and handouts.

Samantha Hurr plays left field. She says her best play was at the Hamilton tournament when they played Edgewood. She caught the ball and threw it to second. It was a double play and the last play of the game.

NEAR and FAR

David Fredrick positions himself for the shotput.

Even with an injury, Robert Lakes still has the will to compete.

Nick Wetta gives one last push to finish his race.

Jill Lawall runs with the team one last year.

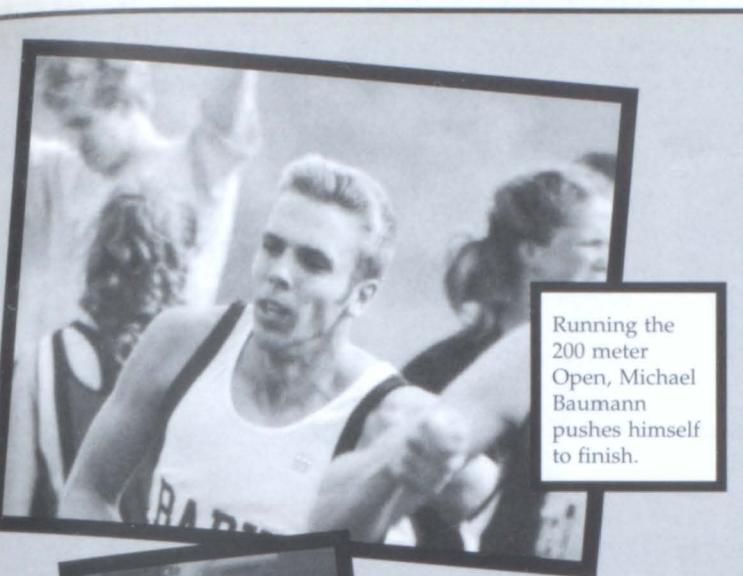

Struggling to finish, Megan Schulte increases her pace to finish for her team.

Sarah Sherman, hurdling high, starts the 100 meter hurdles at the Ross Invitational.

Friends Ann Graf, Jenny Meehan, and Kimmie Lewis take some breathing time before the meet begins.

Running the 200 meter Open, Michael Baumann pushes himself to finish.

Amber Massey concentrates before releasing the shotput.

Baton in hand, Julianne Hoekzema finishes her last lap of the 4x800 meter relay.

Benefitting from his height, David Shull successfully completes his jump.

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week is a week where classes come together and show off their spirit and school pride. This includes such events as penny wars, canned food drive, and hallway decorations.

Kyle Gambrel, Matt Allen, Matt Westover, Joe Imhoff, Matt Noe, Craig Kleeberger, and Michael Mayer are all decked out in their class color apparel before they go into battle with the underclassmen in their last Spirit Olympics.

Heather Hoelle helped the sophomores beat the juniors by making her shots in the basketball relay race.

Robbie Gilreath and Matt Fetters mentally prepare themselves for the obstacle course that they must overcome to beat out the other classes.

Kevin Brady acts big and bad at lunch, unaware that he would later lose in his event of tug-o-war while competing against the seniors.

Robbie Gilreath, Andy Sedlacek, Matt Fetters, and Matt Kordenbrock were the best of the best on mix match day.

THIS & THAT

Allie Horvath

"Even though we got killed in the tug-o-war, it was still a lot of fun."

Ryan Bennett

"I like Spirit Week because you get to dress out of uniform. My favorite day is Western day, even though we didn't have one this year."

Ann Hinkel

"At first we were a little upset when the Juniors let go, but then it made sense because they didn't stand a chance."

Sara Morner, David Weiner, Courtney Kuzma, Joe Imhoff, Mike Ryan, Greg Vaughn, Angie Koenig, and David Shull beat the sophmores in the final round of the basketball relay.

Abby Minnick raced through the obstacle course for the freshmen team.

Jessica Peters, Megan Flum, and Emily Schellenbach wear their purple with pride before they lose in their first Spirit Olympics experience.

Danielle Wallace, Natalie Nichting, who participated in the tug-o-war, and Julie Milazzo, who was in the basketball relay, get ready for the Olympic events by eating a nutritious lunch.

Katie Bridges, Alyssa Herbers, Lizzy Morris, Jessica Roberts, Jenny Hovack, and Zach Ryan get pumped up at lunch about the Spirit Olympics on Friday, February 1.

Billy O'Hara played his bass guitar with the band during the Olympics in the gym.

Jaci Saurber jumps rope for the junior obstacle course team, which came in first for the obstacle course and third overall.

Kate Mense and Jason Howard beat the freshman in the three-legged race.

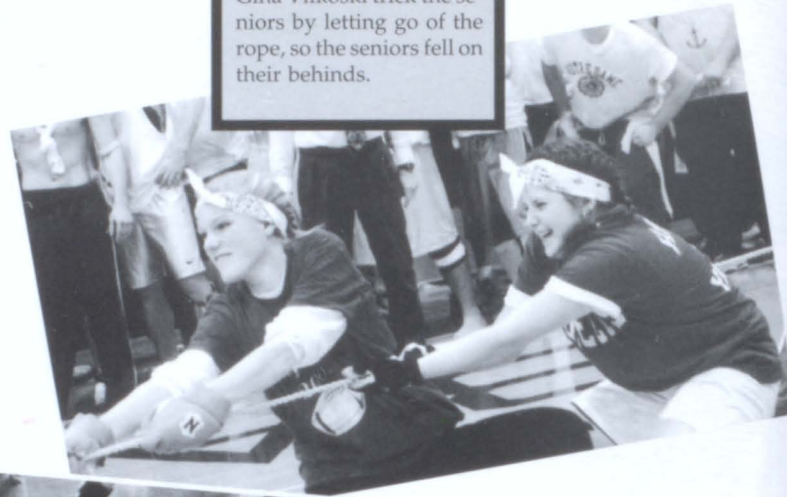

AJ Smith, Alan Wolf, and Alex Mittendorf keep their spirits high in their own unique ways.

Mr. Mignery takes his position to start of their annual tug-o-war, which he has been in charge of for over 20 years.

Vince Cox pulls with all of his might to beat the juniors in tug-o-war while Josh Brink cheered him and all of the other senior boys on at the Spirit Olympics.

Ashley Staarmann and Gina Vilkoski trick the seniors by letting go of the rope, so the seniors fell on their behinds.

Michael Mayer, a Senoir, gets ready for war in the Spirit Olympics by having paint his face with acrylic paint in the art room fifth period.

Senior Joel Sackenheim dressed up in his long underwear for the pajama day and was sure not to forget his teddy bear and blanket.

Shawn Lehmann falls to the floor after celebrating the seniors' victory of spirit week a little too much.

David Shull, Brian Gleason, Joey North, Chase Lampl, Matt Allen, Sara Morner, Kyle Gambrel, and Joe Imhoff all run to the center of the floor with pride like every senior does every year at the end of Spirit Week.

Ben Combs screams with excitement when the freshman beat the juniors in the three-legged race.

Alex Woodrey and Daniel Hurst try to look goofy on mix match day during Spirit Week.

SPIRIT WEEK

Each class is awarded points for the weekly events. The week is topped off with the Spirit Olympics where students compete against each other in relay races and other physical activities. The points are added up for the final judgement in who will win Spirit Week.

Joe Imhoff and Lisa Mignery get pumped up roaming the halls during fifth period before the Spirit Olympics start.

Megan Polly and Bobby Jo Bowling contemplate on whether the seniors will win the Spirit Olympics this year on Friday.

Brad Sedlacek goes crazy on mix match day with multiple layers of clothing and accessories, like his sister's sunglasses.

Jason Westerbeck and his brother Brad go to St. Raphael's to help unload the canned foods for the canned food drive, which was another event that lasted until Tuesday.

Craig Kleeberger and Christy Calvert lead the class of '03 in the three-legged race for the third year in a row.

Chad Smith

"My favorite event was the basketball relay, because Martini got nasty."

"It was nice letting the Freshman know their roll."

Mike Shubert

"Spirit Week was a lot of fun, a little crazy, but Spirit Olympics was the best part even though the Freshman got cheated."

Cindy Goffena, Darci Bertsch, Amy Gullett, Steph Caudill, Lindsey Thieken, and Ashley Myers on their January 2003 Kairos.

KAIROS

Kairos is a once in a lifetime experience for seniors. On this retreat they experience many different emotions. The only way for any of them to get anything out of this experience is to put all that they have into it.

June: Graham Crain, Molly Zoz, Matt Allen, Craig Kleeberger, Christy Calvert, Katie Rains, Beth Jolivet, Steve Zettler, Lori Davis, and Jill Lawall.

January: Sarah Vocke, Leslie Eicklegger, Joey North, Brandon Gill, Emily Bisdorf, Tony Viltro, Rod Lagergren, Molly Kugler, and Jenifer Click.

Three of the leaders in January Lori Davis, Tyler Gattermyer, and Ashley Mathews goof off and dance before one of their speeches.

SOPHOMORE RETREAT

Sophomores spent a day at Camp Campbell Guard, keeping old friends, making new ones and getting rid of bad feelings or judgements of each other. Sophomore retreat was new this year, replacing their day of recollection.

Senior leaders on sophomore retreat gather for a group picture, so they can savor the memories.

Lauren Rosenburger, Caitlin McCoy, Kat Kissel, Holly McCartney, and Krystina Widlowski get really close for their picture.

Chris McCaughey, Billy Roach, Anthony Kernan, and Drew Maus have a great time on retreat.

Malori Gore, Ellen Cochran, Katie Lintner, Kim Bley, Beth Jolivet, and Jennifer Puma become close on retreat.

The boys try to make it through the obstacle course smoothly and quickly.

Megan Weigand

Mr. and Mrs. Braid founded the ranch in memory of their son Kyle.

Jon Jones, Kelly Baker, Molly McCaughey, and Andy Guidugli will attend the ranch this summer.

"Mr Braid was so cool. He always kept us laughing with his many practical jokes."

Stacey Beadle

"It was a life changing experience, and I ate Elk poop."

Jennifer Horvath

"I am excited to go out to the ranch and can't wait to play paintball."

ACADEMIC AWARDS

Academic Awards are a big part of our school. It is an annual ceremony to award students of their high academic achievements.

A group of juniors and seniors filled with excitement celebrate their academic achievements.

Junior Tim Truster did a fine job of excelling in academics. He received the Bausch & Lomb Award from Mrs. Heinrich.

Senior Ryan Bennett, this year's Valedictorian, the highest award you can receive, proudly gives a smile with his mother.

A group of sophomores with some refreshments after the awards ceremony unite to post a memory forever.

Junior Karen Williams receives the St. Michael's College Scholarship and Service Award from Mrs. Tucker.

&
THAT

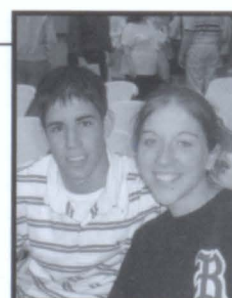

*Kylee
Wiegand*

"The awards night was really exciting and it made me feel good about myself to accomplish it."

Kevin Rapien

"I was very pleased with my performance at Badin and I will never forget what Badin has given me."

*Hugh Anderson
& Katie
Lintner*

"We are both so grateful to be a part of Badin's academic excellence. It feels so good to achieve something so grand."

After the ceremony, senior Joel Sackenheim and his family show their excitement. Joel got his fourth academic pin.

Mrs. Scholl gives sophomore Megan Jeffcoat the French II Award for scoring tenth on the state wide French exam.

Juniors Jason Westerbeck and Matt Sloneker receive their third academic pin for the third year in a row.

Mrs. Scholl gives senior Chris Ahn a French IV Award for scoring 19th in the state wide exam.

Seniors Elizabeth Franz, Paula Miller and Kat Baker all receive academic pins.

Seniors Steven Zettler and Beth Jolivet enjoy their last awards ceremony. Steven received the U.S. Army Reserve Scholar Award. Beth Jolivet was a recipient of the Hamilton Community Foundation Scholarship.

Juniors Darbey Maheu, Kylee Wiegand, Matt Thien, Dan Neugebauer, and Rick Martin all feel extremely honored to receive academic pins.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

"I've been on student council for four years and it's been wonderful."

Anni Hinkel

"I am very excited about student council next year; it only gets better."

James Clear

Treasurer Lauren Gershbach and senior Alex Oswald prepare for the Adopt-a-Family.

Junior class president Jeff Pater took an active role in many events, leading his class to be great role models next year.

Executive Board President Beth Jolivette has led the seniors in a successful year.

Junior Kelly Vereker helps out class reps, Sarah Botos, Linsay Riegert, and Kym Fiehrer in decorating the hallway that won third place during Spirit Week.

Freshman Tony Fiehrer and Andy Spaeth get the idea of what contributing is all about.

"I love student council and look forward to more student involvement next year."

Elizabeth

Key Club

DRAMA AND POET'S SOCIETY

Rachel Dudley

Key Club is a great organization because it is a way to give back to the community.

Kim Fackey

Drama and Poet's Society is a good, fun experience. We do a lot of games and activities.

Kim Asmus, Gillian Palmer, Kim Fackey, and Chris Schaffer enhance their acting skills by participating in drama.

Members of drama, Suzanne Mitchell and Billy O'Hara show off their creative acting abilities.

Every Saturday Key Club organizes bingo at Berkely Square. Rachel Dudley volunteers by helping the residents play bingo.

Junior Tim Truster participates Key Club weekly by announcing bingo numbers at Berkely Square.

Mock Trial members; J. Costello, M. Kiep, J. Hufford, A. Guidugli, A. Fiehrer, and M. Jeffcoat re-enact real-life court cases.

Jessie Moore and the rest of the Dance Team performed a well-rehearsed routine at the pep rally.

Annie Fiehrer

Mock Trial is fun because we get to wear costumes and compete with other schools.

Amanda Fritz

Dance Team was one the best times of my senior year because I love all the girls.

Senior Caroline Koehler shows her school pride by participating in the Dance Team.

Members of the Dance Team gave a spirited performance at the winter sports pep assembly this year.

CHORUS

Joel Sackenheim has shown a great interest in music by being one of the key people to start the Ram-o-gram Choir.

This is the first year the Ram-o-gram has performed here at Badin. Members are Joel Sackenheim, Anthony Gallina, Ben Sackenheim, and Billy O'Hara.

Tracey Harrell takes a break from softball to sing a few notes.

Color Guard

Kim Broermann and Apollonia Opoku share their musical talent with the community at various chorus functions.

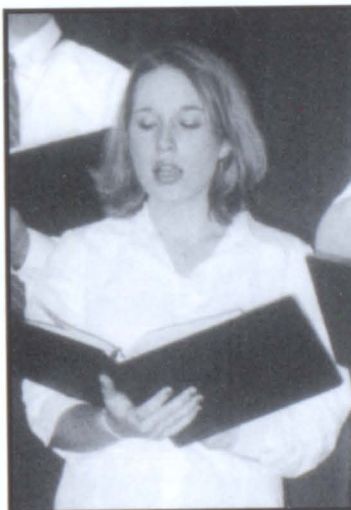

Kim Lloyd

"The best part of color guard is the closeness and unity of the girls."

Jamie Lawson

"The band puts a lot of work into their performances; sometimes people don't realize and respect that."

Kairos Core Team

PEER COUNCIL

First year peer counselor, Blaire Karg has enjoyed helping others.

Molly Zoz enjoyed leading the junior retreat because she was able to experience it with some of her football players.

Both members of the core team, Ashely Combs and Kate Welsh prepare Communion for Friday morning service.

The moderator for the Kairos Core Team, Mrs. Helms, stands with newly recruited member Laura Hogan.

Jeff Pater and Sean McGoldrick are both new seniors to lead Kairos and junior retreats.

Sean McKnight, a member of the core team, also takes an active role in Masses giving Communion.

Stacie Beadle has worked in the office sixth period all of this year.

Scott O'Donahue was thrilled when he received his invitation to the June Kairos.

Christina Fohl has had a GPA of 3.5 and over every quarter this year.

Amber Massey, a member of Core Team, lead a November junior retreat.

Amanda Saunderhous and Christina Fohl meet together to talk about school.

Mike Ellis watches Bobbie Bowling sign in after coming in late.

STUDENT AND FOREHEAD

The prom court gathers together after the crowning of prom queen, Katherine Baker, and prom king, Kevin Rapine.

Joel Stettler and Matt Ellis take a break from dancing to have a beverage and pose for a picture.

James Constella and Poala Miller get a close and slow dance to a great song.

Alex Pauli and Kendal Corner had an awesome night at prom. They hope to go again next year.

The crowd gets rowdy as Forehead plays another great heavy metal Metallica song.

THIS
&
THAT

Mr. DeAngelo

"Prom was a success this year, and I hope it gets better in years to come!"

Katherine Baker

"I was so surprised, I couldn't believe it that I had won. It was fun!"

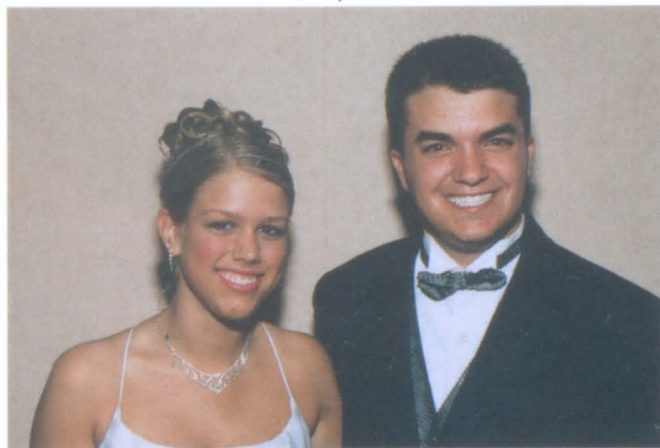

Kevin Rapine

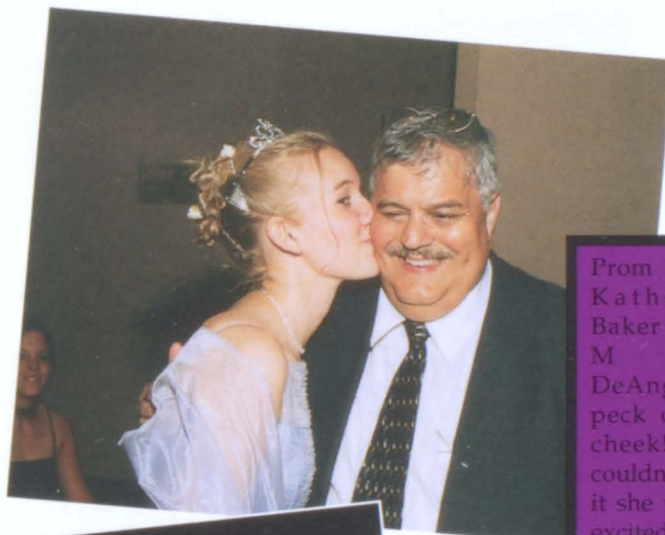

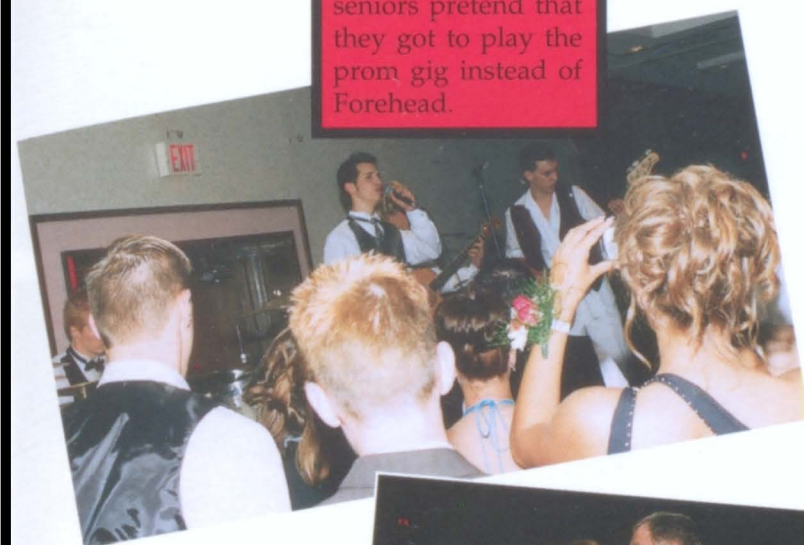

"Winning was great. I didn't know what to expect, but I was so excited after I heard my name called."

Rachel Dudley, Teresa Bill, Jerry Sebald, and Johnathon Jones all went to prom together.

Ellen Cochran and Rob Lagargren, prom king candidate, went together in hopes of a wonderful night.

Mike Ryan and other seniors pretend that they got to play the prom gig instead of Forehead.

Prom Queen Katherine Baker gives Mr. DeAngelo a peck on the cheek! She couldn't help it she was so excited.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Hickie took a spin on the dance floor.

Ellen Shaver and Kevin Kraft were very excited to attend prom this year. They had a lot of fun as a couple.

Emily Teufel sings to her boyfriend Chase Lampl as they dance the night away at prom.

David Shull sports the baby blue tux while he has to bend down to take a picture with his girlfriend Jennifer Rusbacky.

Ashley Matthews, Lauren Gebhart, and Leslie Eikelburger had a good time at their last prom as seniors.

Brian Evers, Tim Ante and Ricky Clark pick up the car and show off how strong they are instead of beating on it.

These were many, but not all, of the prizes that people were playing games and competing for.

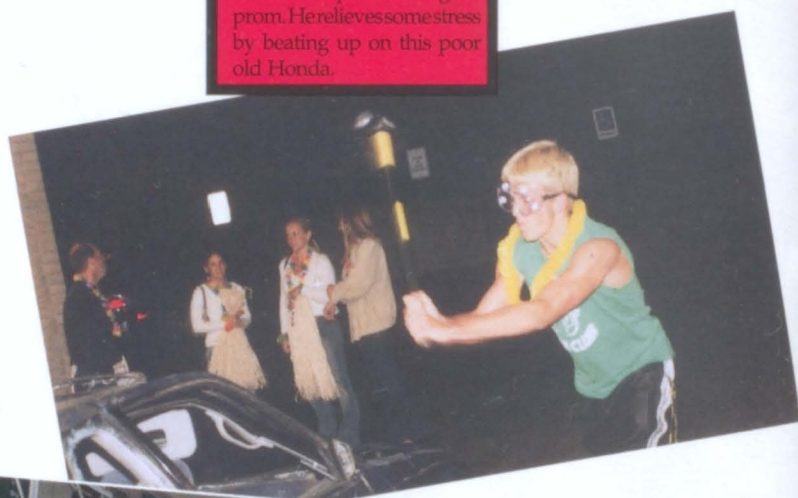

Therese Kuglar supervises the ticket box as Suzanne Mitchell adds some more of her tickets in the box.

Carol Vaughn and Maureen Mayer help people pick out the best prizes that they won.

Nick Wetta was one of the fortunate sophomores to go to prom. He relieves some stress by beating up on this poor old Honda.

Alex Pauli knocks his opponent off the jousting pad and keeps him down there.

Michael Shubert and Andy Guiduli write their name on the tickets they won playing Black Jack.

Prom Queen Katherine Baker and Prom King Kevin Rapine gracefully accept their award at their presentation.

An old favorite is the blow up boxing ring with giant gloves where these two boys duke it out.

AFTER PROM

Gina Pater, Chris Dever, and Amanda Sunderhaus play Black Jack to win tickets and possibly win an outstanding prize.

The jousting blow up was a new and fun addition to After Prom this year. These two young men seemed to enjoy it.

Mike Kazy and Sarah Fox play all the games at After Prom in hopes of winning a prize.

Stacey Beadle gets into the money machine hoping to win some money to take to college.

Suzanne Mitchell and her sumo partner laugh and giggle so hard they can barely fight.

Ryan Mediodia

"After Prom was fun, and I really won a nice prize. It was really cool and different."

"I wish I was playing Black Jack and all those games for some real money."

Jerrod Peters

"I had so much fun at After Prom. The prizes were awesome and the food was great!"

BEFORE THE WALK

Before walking to St. Julie's the seniors have to line up to see who they will be walking with.

Tim Finke and Jason Hafer look a little nervous at the Fenmont before the mass.

The Senior class waits patiently for the rest of the class to line up.

Father Jeff Silver has been with this class of 2003 all four years. He taught most of them freshman year. Although he left sophomore year, he came back to check on them.

Katie Baker, Theresa Bill, and Stacie Beatle wait and pray they don't trip walking in to the church.

THIS

Sarah Fox

"I am really glad I got to spend my last liturgy at Badin with my class as a whole."

Alisha Bruewer

"I can't believe we left Badin without doing a senior prank!"

Emily Bisdorf

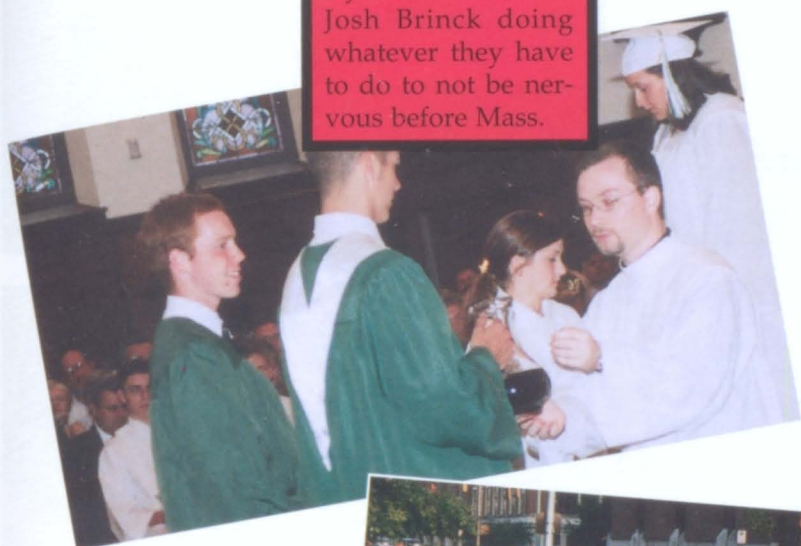

"I am just happy I didn't trip and fall walking down the aisle."

Steph Caudill, Jenifer Click, and Ashley Combs before walking in to their mass.

Christy Calvert and Elizabeth Franz. Many seniors participated at Mass as Eucharistic Ministers.

Tyler Gattermeyer, Kyle Gambrel, and Josh Brinck doing whatever they have to do to not be nervous before Mass.

Here Joel Sackenheim and Tyler Gattermeyer bring up the gifts to the priest.

Mrs. Heinrich, Mr. Margello, and Mr. DeAngelo lead the senior class to St. Julie's Church.

Laura Beckman and Ry Bowling walk down the aisle as practiced the morning of mass.

Mr. Heinrich, Mr. DeAngelo, and Mr. Renneker direct the class of 2003 as they process out of Mass.

Here Ricky Pate reads the petitions along with Lauren Gersbach and Angie Koenig.

The class of 2003 has always enjoyed the sign of peace and done it in a big way. Although this one wasn't as long as they would like, they still got all their needed hugs in.

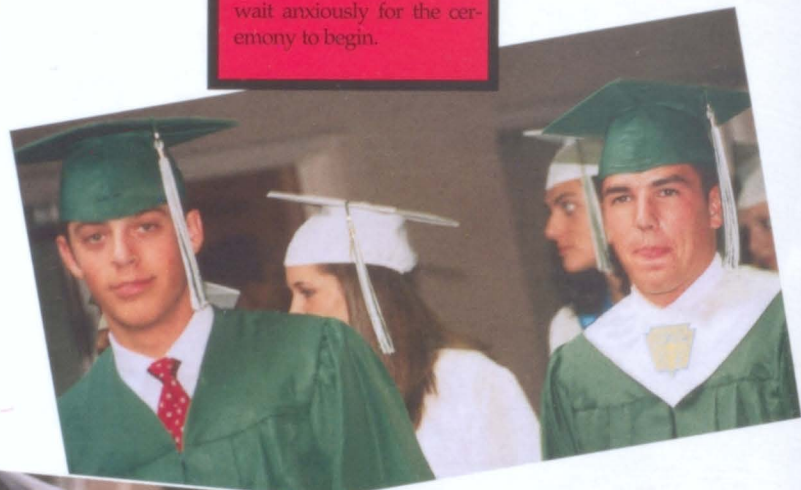

Katie Ryan waits in line until it's her turn to proceed into the graduation ceremony. She will be attending Miami Hamilton this fall.

Ben and Joel Sackenheim, Anthony Gallina, and Bill O'Hara sing "The Star-Spangled Banner."

After a long school year, Steve Zettler and Wally Zancan wait anxiously for the ceremony to begin.

Joel Stettler and Michael Telford wait in line to receive their diplomas. Mike will be attending the Citadel.

A student must have first and second honors every quarter to receive the gold chord. Chris Ahn wins!

Ricky Pate will be attending Hanover College to play baseball.

Kate Welsh and Megan Wiegand reminisce about old times and smile in sadness.

Chris Thomas gets ready to receive his diploma. He will be joining the Marines!

Laruen Gershbach was the recipient of the Stephen T. Badin award. This is the highest award a student can receive at Badin.

GRADUATION

Karli Wurzelbacher is another excellent student who receives a gold chord, again demonstrating the hard work she put into her education.

Josh Brinck and Kevin Brown exchange laughs as they head into the ceremony. Both of these students were great athletes at Badin.

Kevin Kraft contemplates his years as Badin and what leaving means.

Mike Ryan flashes a smile for Mr. Baker as he lines up. This is the same smile that brightened the hallways for four years. We will miss you, Mike!

Courtney Wuest pauses while receiving her diploma to express her happiness at finally making it!

Shawn Lehmann

"Badin has equipped me with just the right tools to face the world that awaits me."

Heather
Huesing

"The people at Badin, both teachers and students, have made me a better person."

Anthony
Dimuzio

"I can't believe I finally made it! It's been a great four years. I will truly miss Badin."

GRADUATION

Graduation marks the beginning of a new segment of the graduates' lives. Badin says goodbye to who was once green eighth graders and celebrates the young citizens they've become. Friday, May 31 is the day they've finally made it!

Katherine Baker receives the Archbishop Liepold award. This award is given to the student who is most active in the religious aspect of school.

Ryan Bennet, the valedictorian, pauses with Mrs. Hickie (Wink) for a picture. He delivered an inspiring speech for his classmates.

Brian Evers laughs as he and his classmates make their way to their seats.

Caroline Koehler, a gold chord recipient, smiles happily as she hugs her principal for the last time.

Jason Hafer receives the Perfect Attendance award. He was one out of three people to win this award. What devotion!?

&
THAT

Abe Saurber

"It is finally over! I'm free!"

Jill Hoelle*

"I will miss seeing my many friends every day in the hallway. Now they will be spread all over the place."

Joel Sackenheim

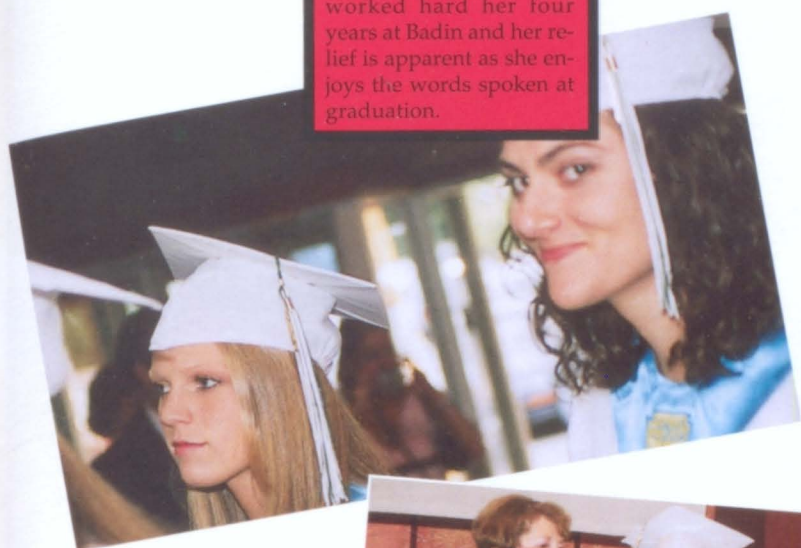

"Badin has been a second home for me these four years. I have loved every moment being of service to my school."

Jenny Hessling, the class president, gives the introduction speech. She urges her classmates to use what Badin gave them and be the best they can be.

Adam Howard's excitement shows as he participates in this last ceremony as a Badin student.

Jenna Schlabach has worked hard her four years at Badin and her relief is apparent as she enjoys the words spoken at graduation.

Molly Zoz has just walked across the stage. She will be attending Moorehead State in the fall. We know she will go far!

Rebecca Suttmitter receives an award for perfect attendance. Wonder if she will have perfect attendance at Xavier University?

Jeff's never-ending clowning around continues as he entertains those around him. He has the ability to make anyone laugh. Look at him!

Is this a smile or a sentimental moment? Graduation causes mixed emotions for everyone around.

Lyndsay Harrison watches in glee as caps fly through the air.

Mrs. Hickel (Wink) and guest speaker Chief of Police Neil Ferdelman proceed out at the end of graduation. This is Wink's last graduation ever!

"Badin has been my playground for four years. I'll miss it when I'm gone"

- Jarod Raible

"Badin has helped grow, not only mentally, but spiritually. I'll miss the mashed potatoes next year."

- Lisa Mignery

"Badin to me was a lot of fun over the past four years. I've met a bunch of new friends, and has a bunch of good times."

- David Meiner

"Throughout my four years here, Badin has given me the opportunity to meet new people and make new friends. But more importantly Badin has taught me discipline and has made me a better person"

-Mike Morris

"Through my experiences at Badin, I have met a lot of new people and we have made tons of fun memories."

"Don't give people a piece of your mind unless you can afford it."

- Mike Ryan

"The students at Badin are always nice, thoughtful and put others feelings and needs in front of their own. This is something I have always liked about Badin." -Rusty Kinch

"I feel like Badin is my second home. It is full of community. I hope to always be a part of the Badin family by teaching marketing here one day."
